

Rackspace Technology Announces Board and Executive Transitions While Re-Affirming Guidance

January 17, 2025

New board appointment brings AI and data expertise to support Rackspace's growth strategy

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Jan. 17, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Rackspace Technology® \(NASDAQ: RXT\), a leading end-to-end hybrid, multicloud, and AI technology solutions company, today announced Board and executive transitions. The Company also re-affirmed financial guidance for the fourth quarter 2024, as previously provided in a press release issued on November 12, 2024.

Jeffrey Benjamin will succeed David Sambur as Independent Chairman of the Board. Benjamin has been on the Rackspace Board since 2016 and chairs the Audit Committee. Benjamin has over 25 years of experience in investment management and has served on the boards of American Airlines Group and Caesars Entertainment Company, among others. He has also served on the board of Involta for 10 years prior to its sale to Carlyle in 2022. Sambur, Partner and Co-Head of Equity at Apollo Global Management, stepped down from the Rackspace Board after nine years of dedicated service.

In addition, Vikram Mahidhar will be joining the Rackspace Board. Mahidhar has led the digital, data, and artificial intelligence team at Apollo Global Management as an Operating Partner within the Apollo Portfolio Performance Solutions group since 2021. He also co-leads Apollo's Artificial Intelligence strategy. Prior to joining Apollo, Mahidhar was a Senior Vice President at Genpact leading the global digital transformation business across industry verticals, including building the artificial intelligence business at RAGE frameworks prior to its acquisition by Genpact. Prior to Genpact, he served in various leadership roles with Deloitte in strategy and innovation. Mahidhar has been recognized by Data IQ as 2023 Top 100 Most Influential Leaders in Data and he received the AI100 Award by MachineCon in 2023. He also serves on the board of Cengage Group. Mahidhar replaces Susan Arthur, a director since 2020, who stepped down from the Rackspace Board to focus on other responsibilities.

"The Rackspace Board thanks David and Susan for their indispensable guidance and leadership over the years, and I wish them success going forward," said Benjamin. "I want to welcome Vikram, who brings a wealth of executive leadership and artificial intelligence expertise and look forward to continuing to accelerate Rackspace's AI journey."

The Company also announced that Brian Lillie, President of Private Cloud, will be moving on from his position to focus on personal commitments. Rackspace Chief Executive Officer Amar Maletira will assume the role of Interim Leader for the Private Cloud business. The Company has initiated a search for Lillie's successor. Lillie is expected to remain with the Company in an advisory capacity until April 5, 2025.

"I would like to thank Brian for his leadership over the past two years in laying the product, technology, and organizational foundations for growth and profitability in our Private Cloud business. I am grateful for his partnership and contributions, and wish him the best in his future endeavors," said Maletira. "I'm thrilled with our sales performance as we closed fiscal year 2024 on a high note, achieving record-breaking quarterly sales bookings in the fourth quarter at the company level—the highest since the inception of our two business units at the start of fiscal 2023. The company's fourth-quarter bookings demonstrated impressive high double-digit growth, both year-over-year and sequentially."

Outlook

Concurrently with the foregoing announcement, Rackspace Technology reaffirms its financial guidance for the fourth quarter 2024, as provided in a press release issued on November 12, 2024.
