(v) to any bona fide prospective purchaser of the Receiving Party or assets of the Receiving Party or its Affiliates or the Company Group Equity Securities held by such Holder, or bona fide prospective merger partner of such Receiving Party or its Affiliates; provided, that such bona fide prospective purchaser or bona fide prospective merger partner agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 6.3;

(vi) in connection with the performance of any party's obligations under this Agreement; or

(vii) as is required to be disclosed by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, administrative body or governmental body, or by subpoena, summons or legal process, or by law, rule or regulation (including as part of any governmental or regulatory investigation or review, or to comply with SEC rules or regulations); provided, that the Receiving Party required to make such disclosure shall, to the extent legally permissible, provide to the Company and the Sponsor Fund prompt written notice of any such requirement and shall cooperate with the Company and the Sponsor Fund in seeking a protective order or other appropriate remedy, to the extent applicable.

(b) Compliance of and Liability for Affiliates and Representatives. Each of the Sponsor Fund and the SCP Investor shall cause their respective Affiliates to abide by and comply with the provisions of this Section 6.3. The SCP Investor shall (i) with respect to the Company Confidential Information, be liable to the Company for any and all breaches of the confidentiality and use restrictions set forth herein by the SCP Investor, its Affiliates and its and their Representatives (including the SCP Investor Participants) and (ii) with respect to the Sponsor Fund Confidential Information, be liable to the Sponsor Fund, in each case, for any and all breaches of the confidentiality and use restrictions set forth herein by the SCP Investor, its Affiliates and its and their Representatives (including the SCP Investor Participants). The Sponsor Fund shall, with respect to the Company Confidential Information, be liable to the Company for any and all breaches of the confidentiality and use restrictions set forth herein by the Sponsor Fund, its Affiliates, and its and their Representatives. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or otherwise, any liability for breach of this Section 6.3 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and shall continue in effect forthwith. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Person (including any investment fund managed by the Receiving Party or its Affiliates or any portfolio company of any such investment fund) shall be deemed to be a Representative of the Receiving Party for purposes of this Section 6.3 or have any obligation hereunder unless such Person actually receives Company Confidential Information or Sponsor Fund Confidential Information, as applicable, from, or on behalf of, the Receiving Party. Further, no Affiliate or portfolio company of the Receiving Party shall be deemed to be a Representative hereunder for purposes of this Section 6.3 solely due to the fact that one of the Receiving Party's employees who has received or had access to Company Confidential Information or Sponsor Fund Confidential Information, as applicable, serves as an officer or member of the board of directors (or similar governing body) of such Affiliate or portfolio company; provided, that such employee does not provide Company Confidential Information or Sponsor Fund Confidential Information, as applicable, to the other directors, officers or employees of such Affiliate or portfolio company.

(c) For purposes of this Section 6.3, "Company Confidential Information" and "Sponsor Fund Confidential Information" shall not include, with respect to any Person, information: (A) which such Person (or its Affiliates) can demonstrate was already in the possession of such Person (or its Affiliates) prior to its receipt from the Company or any Subsidiary thereof lawfully and from a source not subject to any confidentiality obligation to such Person, the Company, the Sponsor Fund, their respective Affiliates or the foregoing's respective Representatives, (B) which such Person (or its Affiliates) can demonstrate was learned from sources other than the Company, the Sponsor Fund, their respective Affiliates or the foregoing's respective Representatives and, that to the knowledge of such Person (or its Affiliates), is not bound by any duty of confidentiality to any Person in respect of such information, after such information was disclosed by the Company or its Subsidiaries, (C) which is or becomes generally available to the public or the participants in the industry in which the Company and its Subsidiaries participate, other than as a result of a disclosure by such Person, any of its Affiliates or any of its or its Affiliates' respective Representatives in violation hereof or (D) which is independently developed by such Person or its Affiliates without use, reliance upon or reference to Company Confidential Information, or Sponsor Fund Confidential Information, as applicable.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 7.1 GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICTING PROVISION OR RULE THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF DELAWARE TO BE APPLIED. IN FURTHERANCE OF THE FOREGOING, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WILL CONTROL THE INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT EVEN IF, UNDER SUCH JURISDICTION'S CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW ANALYSIS, THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW OF SOME OTHER JURISDICTION WOULD ORDINARILY APPLY.

Section 7.2 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Company, each of the parties hereto, and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

Section 7.3 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, modified or supplemented, and any provision hereof may be waived, from time to time by an instrument in writing signed by the Company and the Sponsor Fund; provided, however, that any such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver shall require the consent of the SCP Investor if such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver (a) would adversely affect the SCP Investor in any respect or (b) would disproportionately benefit any other Holder or confer any benefit on any other Holder to which the SCP Investor would not be entitled. Upon obtaining any such consent and without any further action or execution by the SCP Investor, (x) any amendment, modification, supplement or waiver of this Agreement may be implemented and reflected in writing executed solely by the Company and the Sponsor Fund and (y) each other party to this Agreement shall be deemed a party to and bound by such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any addition of a transferee of the Company Group Equity Securities in accordance with Article II shall not constitute an amendment hereto and need be signed only by the Company and such transferee or recipient.

Section 7.4 Termination. Unless earlier terminated by the mutual agreement of all the parties hereto, this Agreement shall terminate with respect to each of the Sponsor Fund and the SCP Investor, as applicable, upon such time it ceases to own any Company Group Equity Securities. Except as otherwise provided herein, if the Sponsor Fund or the SCP Investor Disposes of all of its Company Group Equity Securities, the Sponsor Fund and the SCP Investor, as applicable, shall cease to be a party to this Agreement and shall have no further rights or obligations hereunder.

Section 7.5 Specific Performance. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that a remedy at law for any breach or attempted breach of this Agreement will be inadequate, agrees that each other party to this Agreement shall be entitled to specific performance and injunctive and other equitable relief in case of any such breach or attempted breach and further agrees to waive (to the extent legally permissible) any legal conditions required to be met for the obtaining of any such injunctive or other equitable relief (including posting any bond in order to obtain equitable relief). Each party to this Agreement further agrees not to raise as a defense or objection to the request or granting of such relief that any breach of this Agreement is or would be compensable by an award of money damages or that there is an adequate remedy at law.

Section 7.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, any one of which need not contain the signatures of more than one party, but all such counterparts taken together will constitute one and the same agreement. It shall not be necessary in making proof of this Agreement to produce or account for more than one such counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile or .pdf signature which shall constitute an original for all purposes.

Section 7.7 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable Law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provision or any other jurisdiction, and such invalid, illegal or otherwise unenforceable provisions shall be null and void as to such jurisdiction. It is the intent of the parties, however, that any invalid, illegal or otherwise unenforceable provisions be automatically replaced by other provisions which are as similar as possible in terms to such invalid, illegal or otherwise unenforceable provisions but are valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law.

Section 7.8 Further Assurances. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party hereto shall do and perform or cause to be done and performed all such further acts and things and shall execute and deliver all such other agreements, certificates, instruments and other documents as any other party hereto reasonably may request in order to carry out the provisions of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 7.9 Submission to Jurisdiction. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery or, in the event (but only in the event) that the Delaware Court of Chancery does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware or, in the event (but only in the event) that such United States District Court for the District of Delaware also does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, any Delaware state court sitting in New Castle County, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the actions of the parties hereof, (ii) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court and (iii) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement in any court other than the courts of the State of Delaware, as described above. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to the addresses set forth in Annex I shall be effective service of process for any suit or proceeding in connection with this Agreement. Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason other than the failure to serve process in accordance with this Section 7.9, that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, that the suit, action or proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or that this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts and further irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the benefit of any defense that would hinder, fetter or delay the levy, execution or collection of any amount to which a party hereto is entitled pursuant to the final judgment of any court having jurisdiction. Each party hereto expressly acknowledges that the foregoing waiver is intended to be irrevocable under the Laws of the State of Delaware and of the United States of America; provided, that each such party's consent to jurisdiction and service contained in this Section 7.9 is solely for the purpose referred to in this Section 7.9 and shall not be deemed to be a general submission to said courts or in the State of Delaware other than for such purpose.

Section 7.10 Waiver. No course of dealing between or among the Company or its Subsidiaries, the Sponsor Fund and the SCP Investor (or any of them) or any delay in exercising any rights hereunder will operate as a waiver of any rights of any party to this Agreement. The failure of any party to enforce any of the provisions of this Agreement will in no way be construed as a waiver of such provisions and will not affect the right of such party thereafter to enforce each and every provision of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

Section 7.11 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. BECAUSE DISPUTES ARISING IN CONNECTION WITH COMPLEX FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS ARE MOST QUICKLY AND ECONOMICALLY RESOLVED BY AN EXPERIENCED AND EXPERT PERSON AND THE PARTIES WISH APPLICABLE STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS TO APPLY (RATHER THAN ARBITRATION RULES), THE PARTIES DESIRE THAT THEIR DISPUTES BE RESOLVED BY A JUDGE APPLYING SUCH APPLICABLE LAWS. THEREFORE, TO ACHIEVE THE BEST COMBINATION OF THE BENEFITS OF THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM, THE PARTIES HERETO WAIVE ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT TO ENFORCE OR DEFEND ANY RIGHT OR REMEDIES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY DOCUMENTS ENTERED INTO IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREIN.

Section 7.12 Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided, this Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties hereto as to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous and contemporaneous agreements among all or some of the parties hereto, whether written, oral or otherwise, as to such subject matter. Unless otherwise provided herein, any consent required by any party hereto may be withheld by such party in its sole and absolute discretion.

Section 7.13 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, none of the provisions in this Agreement shall be for the benefit of or enforceable by any Person other than the parties to this Agreement, their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns and, with respect to Section 7.15 only, Related Parties. The covenants and agreements contained herein shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

Section 7.14 Changes in Company Group Equity Securities. If, and as often as, there are any changes in the Company Group Equity Securities by way of a dividend, distribution, stock split or combination, reclassification, recapitalization, exchange or readjustment, whether in a merger, consolidation, conversion or similar transaction, or by any other means, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the provisions of this Agreement, as may be required, so that the rights, privileges, duties and obligations hereunder shall continue with respect to Company Group Equity Securities as so changed.

Section 7.15 No Recourse. Notwithstanding anything that may be expressed or implied in this Agreement or otherwise, and notwithstanding the fact that certain Holders may be partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations or other entities, each party hereto covenants, agrees and acknowledges that no recourse under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered by any Person pursuant hereto or otherwise shall be had against any of the Sponsor Fund's, any Co-Invest HoldCo's, Apollo Group's (disregarding the Affiliate Exclusion), the SCP Investor's or any of the foregoing's respective Affiliates' (disregarding the Affiliate Exclusion) former, current or future direct or indirect equity holders, controlling Persons, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates (disregarding the Affiliate Exclusion), members, financing sources, managers, general or limited partners or assignees (each, a "Related Party" and, collectively, the "Related Parties") (it being agreed that the Affiliate Exclusion shall be disregarded for purposes of all uses of the terms "Related Party" and "Related Parties" in this Agreement), in each case other than (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the provisions of this Agreement) each party hereto or any of its respective assignees under this Agreement, whether by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, or by virtue of any applicable Law, it being expressly agreed and acknowledged that no personal liability whatsoever shall attach to, be imposed on or otherwise be incurred by any of the Related Parties, as such, for any obligation or liability of any party hereto or any of its respective assignees under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered by any Person pursuant hereto for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or liabilities or their creation; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 7.15 shall relieve or otherwise limit the liability of any party hereto or any of its respective assignees for any breach or violation of its obligations under such agreements, documents or instruments.

Section 7.16 Issuance of Additional Units to the SCP Investor. If additional Company Group Equity Securities are issued to the SCP Investor or the Sponsor Fund at any time during the term of this Agreement, either directly or upon the exercise or exchange of securities or loans of the Company (or its Subsidiary, as applicable) exercisable for or exchangeable into Company Group Equity Securities, such additional Company Group Equity Securities, as a condition to their issuance, shall become subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

Section 7.17 Aggregation of Units. All Company Group Equity Securities beneficially owned by (a) the SCP Investor and its Permitted Transferees shall be aggregated together and (b) the Sponsor Fund, any Co-Invest HoldCo and their Affiliates shall be aggregated together, in each case for purposes of determining the rights or obligations of the SCP Investor or the Sponsor Fund, respectively, or the application of any restrictions to the SCP Investor or the Sponsor Fund, respectively, under this Agreement in each instance in which such right, obligation or restriction is determined in respect of or with reference to any Percentage Interest or ownership of Company Group Equity Securities, including in connection with any right pursuant to Article IV. All rights held by the SCP Investor, its Affiliates or their respective Permitted Transferees under this Agreement shall be exercised solely by the SCP Investor.

Section 7.18 Assignment.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Sponsor Fund may assign its rights or obligations, in whole or in part, under this Agreement to any member of the Apollo Group (disregarding the Affiliate Exclusion). In the event that any additional member of the Apollo Group (disregarding the Affiliate Exclusion) (other than any Co-Invest HoldCo) becomes an owner of Company Group Equity Securities, such Person shall, as a condition to acquiring such Company Group Equity Securities, become party to this Agreement and this Agreement shall be amended and restated to provide that such Person or a designee of such Person shall have the same rights and obligations of the Sponsor Fund hereunder to the extent of such Person's ownership of Company Group Equity Securities.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the SCP Investor may assign, in connection with a Disposition otherwise permitted hereby, (x) any of its rights or obligations to any Permitted Transferee or (y) any of its rights (other than the rights set forth in Article IV) to any transferee of Company Group Equity Securities to whom the SCP Investor Disposes of at least fifty percent (50%) of Company Group Equity Securities that it holds as of the date of this Agreement (subject to Section 7.14). For the avoidance of doubt, except as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, the SCP Investor shall be prohibited from assigning to any Person any right contained in this Agreement.

GOVERNANCE AND ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Section 4.1 Board Composition.

(a) General. Each member of the Board (each, a “Director”) of the Company shall serve for the time periods set forth in the Charter or Bylaws. Subject to Section 4.2, without limiting the Sponsor Fund’s or the ABRY Investors’ rights pursuant to this Section 4.1, the Board may increase or decrease its size in accordance with the provisions of the Charter and Bylaws. The Charter and Bylaws and the organizational documents of the Company’s Subsidiaries, as they may be amended from time to time subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, shall not at any time be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Nomination by the Sponsor Fund. For so long as the Percentage Interest of the Sponsor Fund (for the avoidance of doubt, together with any Co-Invest HoldCo) (the “Sponsor Percentage Interest”) is at least 5%, the Sponsor Fund shall have the right, but not the obligation, to nominate for election to the Board by the Company’s stockholders a number of Directors (any such nominee, an “Apollo Board Nominee”) that equals the Sponsor Percentage Interest multiplied by the total number of Directors comprising the Board (for the avoidance of doubt, including any vacancies and newly created directorships), and rounded up to the nearest whole number. No delay by the Sponsor Fund in nominating its Apollo Board Nominees shall impair its right to subsequently nominate its Apollo Board Nominees. In the event that the Sponsor Fund has nominated less than the total number of nominees the Sponsor Fund shall be entitled to nominate pursuant to this Section 4.1(b), the Sponsor Fund shall have the right, at any time, to nominate such additional nominees to which it is entitled, in which case, the Company and the Directors shall take all necessary corporate actions, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to (x) enable the Sponsor Fund to nominate and effect the election or appointment of such additional individuals, whether by increasing the size of the Board, or otherwise, and (y) effect the election or appointment of such additional individuals nominated by the Sponsor Fund to fill such newly-created directorships or to fill any other existing vacancies.

(c) Nomination by the ABRY Investors. No delay by ABRY Partners VIII, L.P. in nominating an ABRY Board Nominee shall impair its right to subsequently nominate such ABRY Board Nominee. In the event that ABRY Partners VIII, L.P. has not nominated the nominee ABRY Partners VIII, L.P. shall be entitled to nominate pursuant to this Section 4.1(c), ABRY Partners VIII, L.P. shall have the right, at any time, to nominate the nominee to which they are entitled, in which case, the Company and the Directors shall take all necessary corporate actions, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to (x) enable ABRY Partners VIII, L.P. to nominate and effect the election or appointment of such individual, whether by increasing the size of the Board, or otherwise, and (y) effect the election or appointment of such additional individual nominated by ABRY Partners VIII, L.P. to fill such newly-created directorship or to fill any other existing vacancy. The ABRY Board Nominee shall be entitled to the same notice and information rights as all other members of the board of directors (or other similar body) of the Company or its applicable Subsidiary or any member of the applicable committee thereof. The ABRY Investors and the ABRY Board Nominee will be entitled to customary expense reimbursement (including in respect of director expenses) on the same terms as Apollo Group Related Persons (including Apollo Board Nominees) and reasonable expenses of counsel in the event of any action for which legal advice is appropriate, and the ABRY Board Nominee shall be entitled to indemnification, exculpation and advancement on the same terms as the Apollo Board Nominees, as applicable.

The remaining Directors and the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, take all actions necessary at any time and from time to time to cause the vacancy created thereby to be filled by the individual so designated and to cause the Board to elect such designee to the Board as soon as possible.

(e) Assurances. (e) hire or terminate the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of the Company or designate any Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer of the Company;

(f) merge or consolidate with or into any other entity, or transfer (by lease, assignment, sale or otherwise) all or substantially all of the Company's and its Subsidiaries' assets, taken as a whole, to another entity, or enter into or agree to undertake any transaction that would constitute a "Change of Control" (or similar term) as defined in the Company's or its Subsidiaries' principal credit facilities or note indentures (other than, in each case, transactions among the Company and its wholly-owned Subsidiaries);

(g) undertake any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company;

Each party to this Agreement further agrees not to raise as a defense or objection to the request or granting of such relief that any breach of this Agreement is or would be compensable by an award of money damages or that there is an adequate remedy at law.

Section 7.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, any one of which need not contain the signatures of more than one party, but all such counterparts taken together will constitute one and the same agreement. It shall not be necessary in making proof of this Agreement to produce or account for more than one such counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile or.pdf signature which shall constitute an original for all purposes.

It is the intent of the parties, however, that any invalid, illegal or otherwise unenforceable provisions be automatically replaced by other provisions which are as similar as possible in terms to such invalid, illegal or otherwise unenforceable provisions but are valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law.

Section 7.8 Further Assurances. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party hereto shall do and perform or cause to be done and performed all such further acts and things and shall execute and deliver all such other agreements, certificates, instruments and other documents as any other party hereto reasonably may request in order to carry out the provisions of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 7.9 Submission to Jurisdiction. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery or, in the event (but only in the event) that the Delaware Court of Chancery does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware or, in the event (but only in the event) that such United States District Court for the District of Delaware also does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, any Delaware state court sitting in New Castle County, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the actions of the parties hereof, (ii) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court and (iii) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement in any court other than the courts of the State of Delaware, as described above. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to the addresses set forth in Annex I shall be effective service of process for any suit or proceeding in connection with this Agreement. Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason other than the failure to serve process in accordance with this Section 7.9 that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, that the suit, action or proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or that this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts and further irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the benefit of any defense that would hinder, fetter or delay the levy, execution or collection of any amount to which a party hereto is entitled pursuant to the final judgment of any court having jurisdiction. Each party hereto expressly acknowledges that the foregoing waiver is intended to be irrevocable under the Laws of the State of Delaware and of the United States of America; provided, that each such party's consent to jurisdiction and service contained in this Section 7.9 is solely for the purpose referred to in this Section 7.9 and shall not be deemed to be a general submission to said courts or in the State of Delaware other than for such purpose.

Section 7.10 Waiver. No course of dealing between or among the Company or its Subsidiaries, the Sponsor Fund and the ABRY Investors (or any of them) or any delay in exercising any rights hereunder will operate as a waiver of any rights of any party to this Agreement. The failure of any party to enforce any of the provisions of this Agreement will in no way be construed as a waiver of such provisions and will not affect the right of such party thereafter to enforce each and every provision of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

Section 7.11 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. BECAUSE DISPUTES ARISING IN CONNECTION WITH COMPLEX FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS ARE MOST QUICKLY AND ECONOMICALLY RESOLVED BY AN EXPERIENCED AND EXPERT PERSON AND THE PARTIES WISH APPLICABLE STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS TO APPLY (RATHER THAN ARBITRATION RULES), THE PARTIES DESIRE THAT THEIR DISPUTES BE RESOLVED BY A JUDGE APPLYING SUCH APPLICABLE LAWS. THEREFORE, TO ACHIEVE THE BEST COMBINATION OF THE BENEFITS OF THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM, THE PARTIES HERETO WAIVE ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT TO ENFORCE OR DEFEND ANY RIGHT OR REMEDIES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY DOCUMENTS ENTERED INTO IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREIN.

Section 7.12 Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided, this Agreement and the Rollover Agreement set forth the entire agreement of the parties hereto as to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous and contemporaneous agreements among all or some of the parties hereto, whether written, oral or otherwise, as to such subject matter, including the Original ACE Agreement and the Original Datapipe Agreement. Unless otherwise provided herein, any consent required by any party hereto may be withheld by such party in its sole and absolute discretion.

Section 7.13 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, none of the provisions in this Agreement shall be for the benefit of or enforceable by any Person other than the parties to this Agreement, their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns and, with respect to Section 7.15 only, Related Parties. The covenants and agreements contained herein shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

Section 7.14 Changes in Company Group Equity Securities. If, and as often as, there are any changes in Company Group Equity Securities by way of a dividend, distribution, stock split or combination, reclassification, recapitalization, exchange or readjustment, whether in a merger, consolidation, conversion or similar transaction, or by any other means, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the provisions of this Agreement, as may be required, so that the rights, privileges, duties and obligations hereunder shall continue with respect to Company Group Equity Securities as so changed.

Section 7.15 No Recourse. Notwithstanding anything that may be expressed or implied in this Agreement or otherwise, and notwithstanding the fact that certain Holders may be partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations or other entities, each party hereto covenants, agrees and acknowledges that no recourse under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered by any Person pursuant hereto or otherwise shall be had against any of the Sponsor Fund's, any Co-Invest HoldCo's, Apollo Group's (disregarding the Affiliate Exclusion), the ABRY Investors' or any of the foregoing's respective Affiliates' former, current or future direct or indirect equity holders, controlling Persons, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates, members, financing sources, managers, general or limited partners or assignees (each, a "Related Party," and, collectively, the "Related Parties") (it being agreed that the Affiliate Exclusion shall be disregarded for purposes of all uses of the terms "Related Party" and "Related Parties" in this Agreement), in each case other than (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to the provisions of this Agreement) each party hereto or any of its respective assignees under this Agreement, whether by the enforcement of any assessment or by any legal or equitable proceeding, or by virtue of any applicable Law, it being expressly agreed and acknowledged that no personal liability whatsoever shall attach to, be imposed on or otherwise be incurred by any of the Related Parties, as such, for any obligation or liability of any party hereto or any of its respective assignees under this Agreement or any documents or instruments delivered by any Person pursuant hereto for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or liabilities or their creation; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 7.15 shall relieve or otherwise limit the liability of any party hereto or any of its respective assignees for any breach or violation of its obligations under such agreements, documents or instruments.

Section 7.16 Issuance of Additional Units to the ABRY Investor. If additional Company Group Equity Securities are issued to the ABRY Investors or the Sponsor Fund at any time during the term of this Agreement, either directly or upon the exercise or exchange of securities or loans of the Company (or its Subsidiary, as applicable) exercisable for or exchangeable into Company Group Equity Securities, such additional Company Group Equity Securities, as a condition to their issuance, shall become subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

Section 7.17 Aggregation of Units. All Company Group Equity Securities beneficially owned by (a) the ABRY Investors and their Permitted Transferees shall be aggregated together and (b) the Sponsor Fund, any Co-Invest HoldCo and their Affiliates shall be aggregated together, in each case, for purposes of determining the rights or obligations of the ABRY Investors or the Sponsor Fund, respectively, or the application of any restrictions to the ABRY Investors or the Sponsor Fund, respectively, under this Agreement in each instance in which such right, obligation or restriction is determined in respect of or with reference to any Percentage Interest or ownership of Company Group Equity Securities, including in connection with any rights pursuant to Article IV. All rights held by the ABRY Investors, their Affiliates or their Permitted Transferees under this Agreement shall be exercised solely by the ABRY Investors.

Section 7.18 Assignment.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Sponsor Fund may assign its rights or obligations, in whole or in part, under this Agreement to any member of the Apollo Group. In the event that any additional member of the Apollo Group (other than any Co-Invest HoldCo) becomes an owner of Company Group Equity Securities, such Person shall, as a condition to acquiring such Company Group Equity Securities, become party to this Agreement and this Agreement shall be amended and restated to provide that such Person or a designee of such Person shall have the same rights and obligations of the Sponsor Fund hereunder to the extent of such Person's ownership of Company Group Equity Securities.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the ABRY Investors may assign, in connection with a Disposition otherwise permitted hereby, (x) any of its rights or obligations to any Permitted Transferee or (y) any of its rights (other than the rights set forth in Article IV) to any transferee of Company Group Equity Securities to whom the ABRY Investors Dispose of at least fifty percent (50%) of Company Group Equity Securities that it holds as of the date of this Agreement (subject to Section 7.14). For the avoidance of doubt, except as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, the ABRY Investors shall be prohibited from assigning to any Person any right contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

DEMAND AND SHELF REGISTRATION

Section 2.1 Right to Demand; Demand Notices.

(a) Holders’ Demand for Registration. Subject to the provisions of this Article II, at any time and from time to time, each Demand Holder shall have the right to request in writing that the Company register the sale under the Securities Act of all or part of the Registrable Securities beneficially owned by such Demand Holder or its Affiliates (a “Demand Right”). Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) each Apollo Stockholder shall have an unlimited number of Demand Rights; provided, that, subject to Section 8.4, each Apollo Stockholder may provide a Transferee with the following Demand Rights: (A) no Demand Rights if such Transferee acquires less than 5% of the outstanding Shares, (B) one Demand Right if such Transferee acquires at least 5% but not more than 15% of the outstanding Shares and (C) two Demand Rights if such Transferee acquires at least 15% of the outstanding Shares;

(ii) the SCP Investor shall have, in the aggregate, three Demand Rights and the Datapipe Investor shall have one Demand Right (in each case, reduced by the number of Underwritten Shelf Take-Downs that such Holder initiates under Section 2.2(c)); provided, that no Demand Registration shall be deemed to be a Demand Registration for the purposes of this clause (ii) if the SCP Investor or Datapipe Investor, as applicable, requesting such Demand Registration is not able to sell all of the Registrable Securities proposed to be sold therein as a result of the participation of any other Holder in such Demand Registration or the application of Section 2.5(b); provided, further, that, (A) the Company shall not be obligated to take any action to effect any Demand Registration at the request of the SCP Investor or the Datapipe Investor until the one-year anniversary of the closing of the Company's initial public offering unless (x) the Company is eligible to file a Shelf Registration Statement using a Short-Form Registration Statement and the Lock-up Period relating to the initial public offering has expired or (y) the prior written consent of the Company is obtained, or (B) unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company, the Company shall not be obligated to take any action to effect more than one Demand Registration or Underwritten Shelf Take-Down at the request of the SCP Investor in any 12-month period and (C) subject to Section 8.4, the SCP Investor and the Datapipe Investor each may provide a Transferee with all of (or in the case of the SCP Investor, a portion of) its remaining Demand Rights so long as the SCP Investor or the Datapipe Investor, as applicable, Transfers at least 50% of the Shares that it holds as of the date of this Agreement (subject, in each case, to Section 8.16) to such Transferee;

(iii) a Demand Right may be exercised only if (x) the aggregate offering price of the Shares to be sold by the Demand Holder and its Affiliates in the applicable offering (before deduction of underwriter discounts and commissions) is reasonably expected to exceed, in the aggregate, $66.0 million or (y) such Demand Right is exercised with respect to all remaining Registrable Securities held by the Demand Holder; provided, that if the Company has previously effected a Demand Registration pursuant to this Section 2.1, the Company shall not be required to effect an additional Demand Registration pursuant to this Section 2.1 until a period of 75 days shall have elapsed from the date on which such previous registration became effective.

(b) Demand Notices. All requests made pursuant to this Section 2.1 shall be made by providing written notice to the Company (each such written notice, a "Demand Notice"), which notice shall (i) specify the aggregate number and class or classes of Registrable Securities proposed to be registered by the Demand Holder (and its Affiliates) providing such Demand Notice and (ii) state the intended methods of disposition in the offering (including whether or not such offering shall be an Underwritten Offering).

(c) Demand Filing. Subject to Section 2.3, promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days) after receipt of any Demand Notice, the Company shall give written notice of the Demand Notice to all other Holders of Registrable Securities and otherwise comply with Section 3.1. Subject to Section 2.3, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to file the registration statement in respect of a Demand Notice as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 90 days after receiving a Demand Notice and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the same to be declared effective by the Commission as promptly as practicable after such filing.

(d) Demand Registration Form. Registrations under this Section 2.1 shall be on such appropriate registration form of the Commission that the Company is eligible to use (i) as reasonably requested by the Requesting Holder (which form may include a confidential submission if permitted under applicable rules of the Commission) and (ii) as shall permit the disposition of the Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method or methods of disposition specified in the Demand Notice. If, in connection with any registration under this Section 2.1 that is requested by the Requesting Holder to be on a Short-Form Registration Statement, the managing underwriter, if any, shall advise the Company that in its opinion, or if the Company independently determines in good faith, the use of another permitted form is of material importance to the success of the offering, then such registration shall be permitted to be on such other permitted form.

(e) Demand Withdrawal. A Requesting Holder may withdraw all or any portion of its Registrable Securities from a Demand Registration by providing written notice to the Company at least five (5) Business Days prior to the earliest of (i) effectiveness of the applicable Registration Statement, (ii) the filing of any Registration Statement relating to such Demand Registration that includes a pricing range or (iii) the commencement of a roadshow relating to the Registration Statement for such Demand Registration, and no such registration shall be counted for purposes of determining the number of Demand Registrations to which such Requesting Holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.1(a) if the Requesting Holder withdraws all of its Registrable Securities from such Demand Registration.

Section 2.2 Shelf Registration.

(a) Filing. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) from and after such time as the Company shall have qualified for the use of a Short-Form Registration Statement, upon the written request by the Apollo Stockholders or the SCP Investor, (A) subject to Section 2.3, promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days) after receipt of any such written request, the Company shall give written notice to all other Holders of Registrable Securities and otherwise comply with Section 3.1; provided, however, that the Apollo Stockholders may request the inclusion of their Registrable Securities in such Shelf Registration Statement at any time or from time to time, and the Company shall add such Registrable Securities and the securities of any other Holder designated by the Company to the Shelf Registration Statement as promptly as practicable, and (B) the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to file as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event within 60 days with the Commission a Short-Form Registration Statement (a "Shelf Registration Statement") to register the sale of all or a portion of the Registrable Securities then outstanding on a delayed or continuous basis in accordance with Rule 415 under the Securities Act (a "Shelf Registration") and (ii) the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause to be declared effective the Shelf Registration Statement as promptly as practicable after such filing. In no event shall the Company be required to file, and maintain effectiveness of, more than one Shelf Registration Statement at any one time pursuant to this Section 2.2. For the avoidance of doubt, no request for the filing of a Shelf Registration Statement pursuant to this Section 2.2(a) shall count as a Demand Registration for purposes of Section 2.1(a).

(b) Shelf Take-Downs. Any Holder whose Registrable Securities are included in an effective Shelf Registration Statement (a “Shelf Holder”) may initiate an offering or sale of all or part of such Registrable Securities (a “Shelf Take-Down”), in which case the provisions of this Section 2.2 shall apply. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) any such Shelf Holder may initiate an unlimited number of Non-Marketed Shelf Take-Downs pursuant to Section 2.2(d) below; provided, that such Non-Marketed Shelf Take-Downs do not constitute an Underwritten Shelf Take-Down;

(ii) each Apollo Stockholder may initiate an unlimited number of Underwritten Offerings (including any block trade) pursuant to Section 2.2(c) below; provided, that, subject to Section 8.4, each Apollo Stockholder may provide a Transferee with the following Underwritten Shelf Take-Down rights: (A) such Transferee may not initiate any Underwritten Offerings (including any block trade) if such Transferee acquires less than 5% of the outstanding Shares, (B) such Transferee may initiate one Underwritten Offering (including any block trade) pursuant to Section 2.2(c) below if such Transferee acquires at least 5% but not more than 15% of the outstanding Shares and (C) such Transferee may initiate up to two Underwritten Offerings (including any block trade) pursuant to Section 2.2(c) below if such Transferee acquires at least 15% of the outstanding Shares; and

(iii) the SCP Investor may initiate, in the aggregate, up to three Underwritten Offerings and the Datapipe Investor may initiate one Underwritten Offering (in each case, including any block trades and reduced by the number of Demand Registrations previously exercised by such Holder under Section 2.1 pursuant to Section 2.2(c) below; provided, that (A) no Underwritten Shelf Take-Down shall be deemed to have been exercised or to count against the number of Demand Registrations for the purposes of Section 2.1 if such Shelf Holder is not able to sell all of the Registrable Securities proposed to be sold therein as a result of the participation of any other Holder in any such Underwritten Shelf Take-Down and the application of Section 2.5(b); (B) the Company shall not be obligated to take any action to effect more than one Demand Registration or Underwritten Shelf Take-Down at the request of the SCP Investor in any 12-month period; and (C) subject to Section 8.4, the SCP Investor and the Datapipe Investor each may provide a Transferee with all of (or in the case of the SCP Investor, a portion of) its remaining Underwritten Shelf Take-Down rights under this Section 2.2(b)(iii) so long as the SCP Investor or the Datapipe Investor, as applicable, Transfers at least 50% of the Shares that it holds as of the date of this Agreement (subject, in each case, to Section 8.16) to such Transferee; and

(iv) in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii) of this Section 2.2(b), (A) in each case, the Registrable Securities proposed to be sold by the initiating Shelf Holder shall be required to (x) have a reasonably anticipated aggregate offering price of at least $66.0 million (before deduction of underwriting discounts and commissions) or (y) constitute all remaining Registrable Securities held by such Shelf Holder and (B) if the Company has previously effected a Shelf Take-Down that is an Underwritten Offering pursuant to this Section 2.2, the Company shall not be required to effect an additional Shelf Take-Down that is an Underwritten Offering pursuant to this Section 2.2 until a period of 75 days shall have elapsed from the date of such prior Shelf Take-Down that was an Underwritten Offering.

(c) Underwritten Shelf Take-Downs.

(i) Subject to Section 2.2(b), if a Demand Holder that is a Shelf Holder (collectively, “Investor Shelf Holders”) so elects in a written request delivered to the Company (an “Underwritten Shelf Take-Down Notice”), a Shelf Take-Down may be in the form of an Underwritten Offering (an “Underwritten Shelf Take-Down”) and, if necessary, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to file and effect an amendment or supplement to its Shelf Registration Statement for such purpose as soon as practicable. Such initiating Investor Shelf Holder shall indicate in such Underwritten Shelf Take-Down Notice the number of Registrable Securities of such Investor Shelf Holder to be included in such Underwritten Shelf Take-Down and whether it intends for such Underwritten Shelf Take-Down to involve a customary “road show” (including an “electronic road show”) or other marketing effort by the underwriters (a “Marketed Underwritten Shelf Take-Down”); provided, that any such Underwritten Shelf Take-Down requested by an Investor Shelf Holder shall be deemed to reduce the number of Demand Rights such Investor Shelf Holder is entitled to under Section 2.1(a).

(ii) Promptly upon delivery of an Underwritten Shelf Take-Down Notice with respect to a Marketed Underwritten Shelf-Take Down (but in no event more than ten (10) days prior to the expected date of such Marketed Underwritten Shelf Take-Down), the Company shall promptly deliver a written notice of such Marketed Underwritten Shelf Take-Down to all Investor Shelf Holders with Registrable Securities under such Shelf Registration Statement and, in each case, subject to Section 2.5(b) and Section 2.7, the Company shall include in such Marketed Underwritten Shelf Take-Down all such Registrable Securities of such Investor Shelf Holders that are registered on such Shelf Registration Statement for which the Company has received written requests, which requests must specify the aggregate amount of such Registrable Securities of such Holder to be offered and sold pursuant to such Marketed Underwritten Shelf Take-Down, for inclusion therein at least three (3) Business Days prior to the expected date of such Marketed Underwritten Shelf Take-Down.

(iii) Subject to Section 2.2(b), if an Investor Shelf Holder desires to effect an Underwritten Shelf Take-Down that is not a Marketed Underwritten Shelf Take-Down (a “Restricted Shelf Take-Down”), the Investor Shelf Holder initiating such Restricted Shelf Take-Down shall provide written notice (a “Restricted Shelf Take-Down Notice”) of such Restricted Shelf Take-Down to the other Investor Shelf Holders as far in advance of the completion of such Restricted Shelf Take-Down as shall be reasonably practicable in light of the circumstances applicable to such Restricted Shelf Take-Down, which Restricted Shelf Take-Down Notice shall set forth (A) the total number of Registrable Securities expected to be offered and sold in such Restricted Shelf Take-Down, (B) the expected plan of distribution of such Restricted Shelf Take-Down and (C) an invitation to the other Investor Shelf Holders to elect to include in the Restricted Shelf Take-Down Registrable Securities held by such other Investor Shelf Holders (but subject to Section 2.5(b) and Section 2.7) and (D) the action or actions required (including the timing thereof) in connection with such Restricted Shelf Take-Down with respect to the other Investor Shelf Holders if any such Investor Shelf Holder elects to exercise such right. Any Restricted Shelf Take-Down shall be (x) deemed to reduce the number of Demand Rights the initiating Investor Shelf Holder is entitled to under Section 2.1(a), (y) required to comply with a minimum size requirement equal to fifty percent (50%) of the minimum size requirements set forth in Section 2.2(b) (unless the initiating Investor Shelf Holder requests the filing of a new Shelf Registration Statement in order to effect such Restricted Shelf Take-Down and at such time the Company is not eligible to use an Automatic Shelf Registration Statement, in which case the minimum size requirements set forth in Section 2.2(b) shall apply), and (z) subject to the limits set forth in Section 2.2(b).

(iv) Upon delivery of a Restricted Shelf Take-Down Notice, the other Investor Shelf Holders may elect to sell Registrable Securities in such Restricted Shelf Take-Down, at the same price per Registrable Security and pursuant to the same terms and conditions with respect to payment for the Registrable Securities as agreed to by the initiating Investor Shelf Holder, by sending an irrevocable written notice (a "Take-Down Participation Notice") to the initiating Investor Shelf Holder, indicating its election to participate in the Restricted Shelf Take-Down and the total number of its Registrable Securities to include in the Restricted Shelf Take-Down (but, in all cases, subject to Section 2.5(b) and Section 2.7).

(v) Notwithstanding the delivery of any Underwritten Shelf Take-Down Notice, all determinations as to whether to complete any Underwritten Shelf Take-Down and as to the timing, manner, price and other terms of any Underwritten Shelf Take-Down shall be at the discretion of the Investor Shelf Holder initiating the Underwritten Shelf Take-Down.

(d) Non-Marketed Shelf Take-Downs. If a Shelf Holder desires to effect a Shelf Take-Down that does not constitute an Underwritten Shelf Take-Down (a "Non-Marketed Shelf Take-Down"), such Shelf Holder shall so indicate in a written request delivered to the Company no later than three (3) Business Days prior to the expected date of such Non-Marketed Shelf Take-Down (or such shorter period as the Company may agree), which request shall include (i) the aggregate number and class or classes of Registrable Securities expected to be offered and sold in such Non-Marketed Shelf Take-Down, (ii) the expected plan of distribution of such Non-Marketed Shelf Take-Down and (iii) the action or actions required (including the timing thereof) in connection with such Non-Marketed Shelf Take-Down, and, if necessary, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to file and effect an amendment or supplement to its Shelf Registration Statement for such purpose as soon as practicable.

(e) Filing for Well-Known Seasoned Issuer. Upon the Company becoming a Well-Known Seasoned Issuer, (x) the Company shall give written notice to all of the Holders as promptly as practicable but in no event later than ten (10) Business Days thereafter and such notice shall describe, in reasonable detail, the basis on which the Company has become a Well-Known Seasoned Issuer, and (y) the Company shall, upon written request by either Apollo

Stockholder, as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than 20 Business Days after receiving such request, use its reasonable best efforts to register, under an Automatic Shelf Registration Statement, the sale of all of the Registrable Securities in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The Company agrees that if any Holder beneficially owns any Registrable Securities three years after the filing of the most recent Automatic Shelf Registration Statement in compliance with this Section 2.2(e), the Company shall file and cause to remain effective a new Automatic Shelf Registration Statement that registers the sale of any Registrable Securities that remain outstanding at such time. The Company shall give written notice of filing such Registration Statement to all of the Holders as promptly as practicable thereafter. At any time after the filing of an Automatic Shelf Registration Statement by the Company, if the Company is no longer a Well-Known Seasoned Issuer (the "Determination Date"), within ten (10) Business Days after such Determination Date, the Company shall (A) give written notice thereof to all of the Holders and (B) to the extent the Company continues to qualify for the use of Form S-3 promulgated under the Securities Act or any successor form thereto, the Company shall file, if necessary, a Short-Form Registration Statement (or a post-effective amendment converting the Automatic Shelf Registration Statement to a Short-Form Registration Statement) covering all of the Registrable Securities, and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to have such Short-Form Registration Statement declared effective as promptly as practicable after the date the Automatic Shelf Registration Statement is no longer useable by the Holders to sell their Registrable Securities.

(f) Continued Effectiveness. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement filed pursuant to Section 2.2(a) or Section 2.2(e) hereof, as applicable, continuously effective under the Securities Act in order to permit the Prospectus forming a part thereof to be usable by an Investor Shelf Holder until the earlier of (i) the date as of which all Registrable Securities registered by such Shelf Registration Statement have been sold and (ii) such shorter period as Investor Shelf Holders holding a majority of the Registrable Securities may reasonably determine.

Section 2.3 Deferral or Suspension of Registration. If (a) the Company receives a Demand Notice, a request to file a Shelf Registration Statement, or a written request from a Shelf Holder for a Shelf Take-Down and the Board of Directors, in its good faith judgment, determines that it would be materially adverse to the Company for such Registration Statement to be filed or declared effective on or before the date such filing or effectiveness would otherwise be required hereunder, or for such Registration Statement or prospectus included therein to be used to sell Shares or for such Shelf Take-Down to be effected, because such action would: (i) materially interfere with a significant acquisition, corporate reorganization, or other similar transaction involving the Company; (ii) based on the advice of the Company's outside counsel, require disclosure of material non-public information that the Company has a bona fide business purpose for preserving as confidential; or (iii) render the Company unable to comply with requirements under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, or (b) the Company is subject to any of its customary suspension or blackout periods, for all or part of the period of such blackout period, or upon issuance by the Commission of a stop order suspending the effectiveness of any Registration Statement or the initiation of proceedings with respect to such Registration Statement under Section 8(d) or 8(e) of the Securities Act, then the Company shall have the right to defer such filing (but not the preparation), initial effectiveness or continued use of a Registration Statement and the prospectus included therein for a period of not more than 60 days (or such longer period as the Requesting Holder or Shelf Holder, as applicable, may determine). If the Company shall so postpone the filing or initial effectiveness of a Registration Statement with respect to a Demand Notice and if the Requesting Holder within 30 days after receipt of the notice of postponement advises the Company in writing that it has determined to withdraw such Demand Notice, then such Demand Registration shall be deemed to be withdrawn and shall not be deemed to be an exercise of one of the Demand Rights to which such Requesting Holder is entitled under Section 2.1. Unless consented to in writing by the Holders, the Company shall not use the deferral or suspension rights provided under this Section 2.3 (x) more than twice in any 12-month period (except that the Company shall be able to use this right more than twice in any 12-month period if the Company is exercising such right during the 15-day period prior to the Company's regularly scheduled quarterly earnings announcement date and the total number of days of postponement in such 12-month period does not exceed 120 days) or (y) except as contemplated in the parenthetical in (x) immediately above, in the aggregate for more than 90 days in any 12-month period. In the event of any deferral or suspension pursuant to this Section 2.3, the Company shall (i) use its reasonable best efforts to keep the Requesting Holder, if applicable, apprised of the estimated length of the anticipated delay; and (ii) notify the Requesting Holder or Shelf Holders, as applicable, promptly upon termination of the deferral or suspension. After the expiration of the deferral or suspension period and without any further request from the Requesting Holder or Shelf Holders, as applicable, to the extent such Requesting Holder has not withdrawn the Demand Notice, if applicable, the Company shall as promptly as reasonably practicable prepare and file a Registration Statement or post-effective amendment or supplement to the applicable Registration Statement or document, or file any other required document, as applicable, so that, as thereafter delivered to purchasers of the Registrable Securities included therein, the prospectus will not include a material misstatement or omission and will be effective and useable for the sale of Registrable Securities.

Section 2.4 Effective Registration Statement. A registration requested pursuant to this Article II shall not be deemed to have been effected:

(a) unless a registration statement with respect thereto has been declared effective by the Commission and remains effective in compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act and the laws of any U.S. state or other jurisdiction applicable to the disposition of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement for not less than 180 days (or such shorter period as will terminate when all of such Registrable Securities shall have been disposed of in accordance with such registration statement) or, if such registration statement relates to an underwritten offering, such longer period as, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, a prospectus is required by law to be delivered in connection with sales of Registrable Securities by an underwriter or dealer;

(b) if, after it becomes effective, such registration is interfered with by any stop order, injunction or other order or requirement of the Commission or other governmental authority or court for any reason other than a violation of applicable law solely by any Selling Investor and has not thereafter become effective; or

(c) if, in the case of an Underwritten Offering, the conditions to closing specified in an underwriting agreement applicable to the Company are not satisfied or waived other than by reason of any breach or failure by any Selling Investor.

Section 2.5 Selection of Underwriters; Cutback.

(a) Selection of Underwriters. If a Requesting Holder intends to offer and sell the Registrable Securities covered by its request under this Article II by means of an Underwritten Offering, such Requesting Holder shall, in reasonable consultation with other participating Holders, select the managing underwriter or underwriters to administer such offering, which managing underwriter or underwriters shall be firms of nationally recognized standing and shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company. If an Investor Shelf Holder intends to offer and sell the Registrable Securities covered by its request under this Article II by means of an Underwritten Shelf Take-Down, the participating Investor Shelf Holders shall mutually select the managing underwriter or underwriters to administer such offering, which managing underwriter or underwriters shall be firms of nationally recognized standing and shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, nationally recognized investment banks shall be deemed reasonably acceptable for purposes of this Section 2.5.

(b) Underwriter's Cutback. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article II or Section 3.1, if the managing underwriter or underwriters of an Underwritten Offering in connection with a Demand Registration or a Shelf Registration advise the Company in their good faith opinion that the inclusion of all such Registrable Securities proposed to be included in the Registration Statement or such Underwritten Offering would be reasonably likely to interfere with the successful marketing, including, but not limited to, the pricing, timing or distribution, of the Registrable Securities to be offered thereby or in such Underwritten Offering, and no Holder has delivered a Piggyback Notice with respect to such Underwritten Offering, then the number of Shares proposed to be included in such Registration Statement or Underwritten Offering shall be allocated among the Company, the Selling Investors and all other Persons selling Shares in such Underwritten Offering in the following order:

(i) first, the Registrable Securities of the class or classes proposed to be registered held by the Holder that initiated such Demand Registration, Shelf Registration or Underwritten Offering and the Registrable Securities of the same class or classes (or convertible at the Holder's option into such class or classes) held by other Holders requested to be included in such Demand Registration, Shelf Registration or Underwritten Offering (pro rata among the respective Holders of such Registrable Securities in proportion, as nearly as practicable, to the amounts of Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by each such Holder at the time of such Demand Registration, Shelf Registration or Underwritten Offering);

(ii) second, all other securities of the same class or classes (or convertible at the holder's option into such class or classes) requested to be included in such Demand Registration, Shelf Registration or Underwritten Offering other than Shares to be sold by the Company; and

(iii) third, the Shares of the same class or classes to be sold by the Company.

No Registrable Securities excluded from the underwriting by reason of the underwriter's marketing limitation shall be included in such registration or offering. If the underwriter has not limited the number of Registrable Securities to be underwritten, the Company may include securities for its own account (or for the account of any other Persons) in such registration if the underwriter so agrees and if the number of Registrable Securities would not thereby be limited.

Section 2.6 Lock-up.

(a) If requested by the managing underwriters in connection with any Underwritten Offering, each Holder (i) who beneficially owns 1% or more of the outstanding Shares or (ii) who is a natural person and serving as a director or executive officer of the Company shall agree to be bound by customary lock-up agreements providing that such Holder shall not, directly or indirectly, effect any Transfer (including sales pursuant to Rule 144) of any such Shares without prior written consent from the underwriters managing such Underwritten Offering during a period beginning on the date of launch of such Underwritten Offering and ending up to 90 days from and including the date of pricing or such shorter period as reasonably requested by the underwriters managing such Underwritten Offering (the "Lock-Up Period"); provided that (A) the foregoing shall not apply to any Shares that are offered for sale as part of such Underwritten Offering, (B) such Lock-Up Period shall be no longer than and on substantially the same terms as the lock-up period applicable to the Company and the executive officers and directors of the Company and (C) such Lock-Up Period shall not commence unless the Company notifies the Holders in writing prior to the commencement of the Lock-Up Period. Each such Holder agrees to execute a customary lock-up agreement in favor of the underwriters to such effect. The provisions of this Section 2.6(a) will no longer apply to a Holder if (x) such Holder ceases to hold any Shares or (y) except in the case of any Holder who is a current director or executive officer of the Company, such Holder beneficially owns less than 1% of the outstanding Shares.

(b) Nothing in Section 2.6(a) shall prevent: (i) any Holder that is a partnership, limited liability company or corporation from (A) making a distribution of Shares to the partners, members or stockholders thereof or (B) Transferring Shares to an Affiliate of such Holder; (ii) any Holder who is an individual from Transferring Shares to (A) an individual by will or the laws of descent or distribution or by gift without consideration of any kind or (B) a trust or estate planning-related entity for the sole benefit of such Holder or a lineal descendant or antecedent or spouse; (iii) any Holder from (A) pledging, hypothecating or otherwise granting a security interest in Shares or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Shares to one or more lending institutions as collateral or security for any loan, advance or extension of credit and any transfer upon foreclosure upon such Shares or such securities or (B) Transferring Shares pursuant to a final non-appealable order of a court or regulatory agency or (iv) any Holder from Transferring Shares in a manner that was permitted under, but subject to the conditions described in, the lock-ups entered into in connection with the Company's initial public offering; provided that, in the case of clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv), such Transfer is otherwise in compliance with applicable securities laws and; provided, further, that, in the case of clause (ii), subclause (B) of clause (i) and, if applicable, clause (iv), each such Transferee agrees in writing to become subject to the terms of this Agreement by executing an Adoption Agreement and agrees to be bound by the applicable underwriter lock-up.

Section 2.7 Participation in Underwritten Offering; Information by Holder. No Holder may participate in an Underwritten Offering hereunder unless such Holder (a) agrees to sell such Holder's Shares on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements, and in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, including any lock-up arrangements, and (b) completes and executes all questionnaires, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements. In addition, the Holders shall furnish to the Company such information regarding such Holder or Holders and the distribution proposed by such Holders, as applicable, as the Company may reasonably request in writing and as shall be required in connection with any registration, qualification or compliance referred to in this Article II. Nothing in this Section 2.7 shall be construed to create any additional rights regarding the registration of Shares in any Person otherwise than as set forth herein.

Section 2.8 Registration Expenses. All expenses incident to the Company's performance of or compliance with this Agreement, including without limitation (i) all registration and filing fees, and any other fees and expenses associated with filings required to be made with any stock exchange, the Commission and FINRA (including, if applicable, the fees and expenses of any "qualified independent underwriter" and its counsel as may be required by the rules and regulations of FINRA), (ii) all fees and expenses of compliance with state securities or blue sky laws (including fees and disbursements of counsel for the underwriters or Selling Investors in connection with blue sky qualifications of the Shares and determination of their eligibility for investment under the laws of such jurisdictions as the managing underwriters or the Demand Holders may designate), (iii) all printing and related messenger and delivery expenses (including expenses of printing certificates for the Shares in a form eligible for deposit with The Depository Trust Company and of printing prospectuses, all fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company and of all independent certified public accountants of the Company and its Subsidiaries (including the expenses of any special audit and "cold comfort" letters required by or incident to such performance)), (iv) all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the listing of the Shares on any securities exchange and all rating agency fees, (v) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and disbursements of the Selling Investors' Counsel, (vi) all fees and documented out-of-pocket disbursements of underwriters customarily paid by the issuer or sellers of securities, including liability insurance if the Company so desires or if the underwriters so require and expenses of any special experts retained in connection with the requested registration (excluding underwriting discounts and commissions and transfer taxes, if any, and fees and disbursements of counsel to underwriters (other than such fees and disbursements incurred in connection with any registration or qualification of Shares under the securities or blue sky laws of any state)), (vii) Securities Act liability insurance or similar insurance if the Company or the underwriters so require in accordance with then-customary underwriting practice, (viii) fees and expenses of other Persons retained by the Company, and the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of one legal counsel chosen by the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities included in such Demand Registration, Piggyback Registration or Shelf Registration, as applicable, and (ix) for any Demand Holder, any other reasonable expenses customarily paid by the issuers of securities, including reasonable and documented legal fees and expenses for such Demand Holder's legal counsel if other than the legal counsel selected by the Holders in (viii) above, will be borne by the Company, regardless of whether the Registration Statement becomes effective (or such offering is completed) and whether or not all or any portion of the Registrable Securities originally requested to be included in such registration are ultimately included in such registration; provided, however, that (x) any underwriting discounts, commissions or fees in connection with the sale of the Registrable Securities will be borne by the Holders pro rata on the basis of the number of Shares so registered and sold, (y) transfer taxes with respect to the sale of Registrable Securities will be borne by the Holder of such Registrable Securities and (z) the fees and expenses of any other counsel, accountants or other persons retained or employed by any Holder will be borne by such Holder.

ARTICLE III

PIGGYBACK REGISTRATION

Section 3.1 Notices.

(a) If the Company at any time proposes for any reason to register the sale of a class or classes of Shares under the Securities Act (other than a registration on Form S-4 or Form S-8, or any successor of either such form, or a registration relating solely to the offer and sale to the Company's directors or employees pursuant to any employee stock plan or other employee benefit plan or arrangement) whether or not Shares are to be sold by the Company or otherwise, and whether or not in connection with any Demand Registration pursuant to Section 2.1, any Shelf Registration pursuant to Section 2.2 or any other agreement (such registration, a "Piggyback Registration"), the Company shall give to each Holder holding Shares of the same class or classes proposed to be registered (or convertible at the Holder's option into such class or classes) eligible to participate in such Piggyback Registration written notice of its intention to so register the Shares at least ten (10) Business Days (or such shorter period as reasonably practical) prior to the expected date of filing of such Registration Statement or amendment thereto in which the Company first intends to identify the selling stockholders and the number of Registrable Securities to be sold (each such notice, an "Initial Notice"). The Company shall, subject to the provisions of Section 3.2 and Section 3.3 below, use its reasonable best efforts to include in such Piggyback Registration on the same terms and conditions as the securities otherwise being sold, all Registrable Securities of the same class or classes as the Shares proposed to be registered (or convertible at the Holder's option into such class or classes) with respect to which the Company has received written requests from Holders for inclusion therein within the time period specified by the Company in the applicable Initial Notice, which time period shall be not less than five (5) Business Days after sending the applicable Initial Notice (each such written request, a "Piggyback Notice"), which Piggyback Notice shall specify the number of Shares proposed to be included in the Piggyback Registration.

(b) If a Holder does not deliver a Piggyback Notice within the period specified in Section 3.1(a), such Holder shall be deemed to have irrevocably waived any and all rights under this Article III with respect to such registration (but not with respect to future registrations in accordance with this Article III). For the avoidance of doubt, no Piggyback Registration shall count towards the number of Demand Registrations that a Demand Holder is entitled to make pursuant to Section 2.1 or Underwritten Shelf Take-Downs that an Investor Shelf Holder is entitled to make pursuant to Section 2.2.

(c) No registration effected under this Section 3.1 shall relieve the Company of its obligation to effect any registration upon request under Section 2.1 or Section 2.2 hereof, and no registration effected pursuant to this Section 3.1 shall be deemed to have been effected pursuant to Section 2.1 or Section 2.2 hereof. The Initial Notice, the Piggyback Notice and the contents thereof shall be kept confidential until the public filing of the Registration Statement.

Section 3.2 Underwriter's Cutback. If the managing underwriter of an Underwritten Offering (including an offering pursuant to Section 2.1 or Section 2.2) that includes a Piggyback Registration advises the Company that it is the managing underwriter's good faith opinion that the inclusion of all such Registrable Securities proposed to be included in the Registration Statement for such Underwritten Offering would be reasonably likely to interfere with the successful marketing, including, but not limited to, the pricing, timing or distribution, of the Registrable Securities to be offered thereby, then the number of Shares proposed to be included in such Underwritten Offering shall be allocated among the Company, the Selling Investors and all other Persons selling Shares in such Underwritten Offering in the following order:

(a) If the Piggyback Registration referred to in Section 3.1 is initiated as an underwritten primary registration on behalf of the Company, then, with respect to each class proposed to be registered:

(i) first, the Shares held by the Company of the class or classes proposed to be registered that the Company proposes to sell, as applicable;

(ii) second, all Registrable Securities of the same class or classes (or convertible at the Holder's option into such class or classes) held by Holders requested to be included in such Piggyback Registration (pro rata among the respective Holders of such Registrable Securities in proportion, as nearly as practicable, to the amounts of Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by each such Holder at the time of such Piggyback Registration); and

(iii) third, all other securities of the same class or classes (or convertible at the holder's option into such class or classes) requested to be included in such Piggyback Registration.

(b) if the Piggyback Registration referred to in Section 3.1 is an underwritten secondary registration on behalf of any Holder, then, with respect to each class proposed to be registered:

(i) first, the Registrable Securities of the class or classes proposed to be registered held by such Holder and the Registrable Securities of the same class or classes (or convertible at the Holder's option into such class or classes) held by other Holders requested to be included in such Piggyback Registration (pro rata among the respective Holders of such Registrable Securities in proportion, as nearly as practicable, to the amounts of Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by each such Holder at the time of such Piggyback Registration);

(ii) second, all other securities of the same class or classes (or convertible at the holder's option into such class or classes) requested to be included in such Piggyback Registration other than Shares to be sold by the Company; and

(iii) third, the Shares of the same class or classes to be sold by the Company.

(c) if the Piggyback Registration referred to in Section 3.1 is an underwritten secondary registration on behalf of any holder of Common Stock other than a Holder, then, with respect to each class proposed to be registered:

(i) first, the Registrable Securities of the class or classes proposed to be registered held by such holder;

(ii) second, the Registrable Securities of the same class or classes (or convertible at the Holder's option into such class or classes) held by Holders requested to be included in such Piggyback Registration (pro rata among the respective Holders of such Registrable Securities in proportion, as nearly as practicable, to the amounts of Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by each such Holder at the time of such Piggyback Registration);

(iii) third, all other securities of the same class or classes (or convertible at the holder's option into such class or classes) requested to be included in such Piggyback Registration other than Shares to be sold by the Company; and

(iv) fourth, the Shares of the same class or classes to be sold by the Company.

Section 3.3 Company Control. Except for a Registration Statement being filed in connection with the exercise of a Demand Right or a Shelf Registration, the Company may decline to file a Registration Statement after an Initial Notice has been given or after receipt by the Company of a Piggyback Notice, and the Company may withdraw a Registration Statement after filing and after such Initial Notice or Piggyback Notice, but prior to the effectiveness of the Registration Statement, provided that (i) the Company shall promptly notify the Selling Investors in writing of any such action and (ii) nothing in this Section 3.3 shall prejudice the right of any Demand Holder to immediately request that such registration be effected as a registration under Section 2.1 or Section 2.2 to the extent permitted thereunder.

Section 3.4 Selection of Underwriters. If the Company intends to offer and sell Shares by means of an Underwritten Offering (other than an offering pursuant to Section 2.1 or Section 2.2), the Company shall select the managing underwriter or underwriters to administer such Underwritten Offering, which managing underwriter or underwriters shall be firms of nationally recognized standing.

Section 3.5 Withdrawal of Registration. Any Holder shall have the right to withdraw all or a part of its Piggyback Notice by giving written notice to the Company of such withdrawal at least five (5) Business Days prior to the earliest of (i) effectiveness of the applicable Registration Statement, (ii) the filing of any Registration Statement relating to such Piggyback Registration that includes a price range or (iii) commencement of a roadshow relating to the Registration Statement for such Piggyback Registration.

ARTICLE IV

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

Section 4.1 Registration Procedures. If and whenever the Company is under an obligation pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to effect the registration of any Registrable Securities, the Company shall, as expeditiously as practicable:

(a) in the case of Registrable Securities, use its reasonable best efforts to cause a Registration Statement that registers such Registrable Securities to become and remain effective for a period of 180 days or, if earlier, until all of such Registrable Securities covered thereby have been disposed of; provided, that, in the case of any registration of Registrable Securities on a Shelf Registration Statement which are intended to be offered on a continuous or delayed basis, such 180-day period shall be extended, if necessary, to keep the registration statement continuously effective, supplemented and amended to the extent necessary to ensure that it is available for sales of such Registrable Securities, and to ensure that it conforms with the requirements of this Agreement, the Securities Act and the policies, rules and regulations of the Commission as announced from time to time, until the earlier of when (i) the Holders have sold all of such Registrable Securities, (ii) all of such Registrable Securities have become eligible for immediate sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act by the Holder thereof without restriction by the manner of sale, volume and other limitations under such rule and (iii) in the case of an Automatic Shelf Registration Statement, such Automatic Shelf Registration Statement has been effective for three years (provided that the Company's obligations hereunder shall be renewed with respect to such Registrable Securities upon the filing of a new Automatic Shelf Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2.2(e));

(b) furnish to each Selling Investor, at least ten (10) Business Days before filing a Registration Statement, or such shorter period as reasonably practical, copies of such Registration Statement or any amendments or supplements thereto, which documents shall be subject to the review, comment and approval by one lead counsel (and any reasonably necessary local counsel) selected by the Holders who beneficially own a majority of such Registrable Securities, which counsel (who may also be counsel to the Company), in each case, shall be subject to the reasonable approval of each Demand Holder whose Registrable Securities are included in such registration, and who shall represent all Selling Investors as a group (the "Selling Investors' Counsel") (it being understood that such ten (10) Business Day period need not apply to successive drafts of the same document proposed to be filed so long as such successive drafts are supplied to the Selling Investors' Counsel in advance of the proposed filing by a period of time that is customary and reasonable under the circumstances);

(c) furnish to each Selling Investor and each underwriter, if any, such number of copies of final conformed versions of the applicable registration statement and of each amendment and supplement thereto (in each case including all exhibits and any documents incorporated by reference) reasonably requested by such Selling Investor or underwriter in writing;

(d) in the case of Registrable Securities, prepare and file with the Commission such amendments, including post-effective amendments, and supplements to such Registration Statement and the applicable prospectus or prospectus supplement, including any free writing prospectus as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act, used in connection therewith as may be (i) reasonably requested by any Holder (to the extent such request relates to information relating to such Holder), or (ii) necessary to keep such Registration Statement effective for at least the period specified in Section 4.1(a) and to comply with the provisions of this Agreement and the Securities Act with respect to the sale or other disposition of such Registrable Securities, and furnish to each Selling Investor and to the managing underwriter(s), if any, within a reasonable period of time prior to the filing thereof a copy of any amendment or supplement to such registration statement or prospectus; provided, however, that, with respect to each free writing prospectus or other materials to be delivered to purchasers at the time of sale of the Registrable Securities, the Company shall (i) ensure that no Registrable Securities are sold “by means of” (as defined in Rule 159A(b) under the Securities Act) such free writing prospectus or other materials without the prior written consent of the sellers of the Registrable Securities, which free writing prospectus or other materials shall be subject to the review of counsel to such sellers and (ii) make all required filings of all free writing prospectuses or other materials with the Commission as are required;

(e) notify in writing each Holder promptly (i) of the receipt by the Company of any notification with respect to any comments by the Commission with respect to such Registration Statement or any amendment or supplement thereto or any request by the Commission for the amending or supplementing thereof or for additional information with respect thereto, (ii) of the receipt by the Company of any notification with respect to the issuance by the Commission of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of such Registration Statement or any amendment or supplement thereto or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for that purpose and (iii) of the receipt by the Company of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of such Registrable Securities for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purposes and, in any such case as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter, prepare and file an amendment or supplement to such registration statement or prospectus which will correct such statement or omission or effect such compliance;

(f) use its reasonable best efforts to register or qualify such Registrable Securities under such other securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as the Holders reasonably request and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable such Holders to consummate their disposition in such jurisdictions; provided, however, that the Company will not be required to qualify generally to do business, subject itself to general taxation or consent to general service of process in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to do so but for this Section 4.1(f);

(g) furnish to each Selling Investor such number of copies of a summary prospectus or other prospectus, including a preliminary prospectus and any other prospectus filed under Rule 424 under the Securities Act, in conformity with the requirements of the Securities Act, and such other documents as such Selling Investors or any underwriter may reasonably request in writing;

(h) notify on a timely basis each Holder of such Registrable Securities at any time when a prospectus relating to such Registrable Securities is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event as a result of which the prospectus included in such Registration Statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in light of the circumstances then existing and, at the request of such Holder, as soon as practicable prepare and furnish to such Holder a reasonable number of copies of a supplement to or an amendment of such prospectus as may be necessary so that, as thereafter delivered to the offeree of such securities, such prospectus shall not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in light of the circumstances then existing;

(i) make available for inspection by the Selling Investors, the Selling Investors' Counsel or any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to such Registration Statement and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such Selling Investor or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), all pertinent financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company (collectively, the "Records"), as shall be necessary to enable them to exercise their due diligence responsibility, and cause the Company's officers, directors and employees to supply all information (together with the Records, the "Information") requested by any such Inspector in connection with such Registration Statement and request that the independent public accountants who have certified the Company's financial statements make themselves available, at reasonable times and for reasonable periods, to discuss the business of the Company. Any of the Information which the Company determines in good faith to be confidential, and of which determination the Inspectors are so notified, shall not be disclosed by the Inspectors unless (i) the disclosure of such Information is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in the Registration Statement, (ii) the release of such Information is requested or required pursuant to a subpoena, order from a court of competent jurisdiction or other interrogatory by a governmental entity or similar process; (iii) such Information has been made generally available to the public; or (iv) such information is or becomes available to such Inspector on a non-confidential basis other than through the breach of an obligation of confidentiality (contractual or otherwise). The Holder(s) of Registrable Securities agree that they will, upon learning that disclosure of such Information is sought in a court of competent jurisdiction or by another governmental entity, give notice to the Company and allow the Company, at the Company's expense, to undertake appropriate action to prevent disclosure of the Information deemed confidential;

(j) in the case of an Underwritten Offering, deliver to the underwriters of such Underwritten Offering a "comfort" letter in customary form and at customary times and covering matters of the type customarily covered by such comfort letters from its independent certified public accountants;

(k) in the case of an Underwritten Offering, deliver to the underwriters of such Underwritten Offering a written and signed legal opinion or opinions in customary form from its outside or in-house legal counsel dated the closing date of the Underwritten Offering;

(l) provide a transfer agent and registrar (which may be the same entity and which may be the Company) for such Registrable Securities and deliver to such transfer agent and registrar such customary forms, legal opinions from its outside or in-house legal counsel, agreements and other documentation as such transfer agent and/or registrar so request;

(m) issue to any underwriter to which any Selling Investors may sell Registrable Securities in such offering certificates evidencing such Registrable Securities;

(n) upon the request of any Holder of the Registrable Securities included in such registration, use reasonable best efforts to cause such Registrable Securities to be listed on any national securities exchange on which any Shares are listed or, if the Shares are not listed on a national securities exchange, use its reasonable best efforts to qualify such Registrable Securities for inclusion on such national securities exchange as the Company shall designate;

(o) otherwise use its reasonable best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission and make available to its security holders, as soon as reasonably practicable, earnings statements (which need not be audited) covering a period of 12 months beginning within three months after the effective date of the Registration Statement, which earnings statements shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act;

(p) notify the Holders and the lead underwriter or underwriters, if any, and (if requested) confirm such advice in writing, as promptly as reasonably practicable after notice thereof is received by the Company when the applicable registration statement or any amendment thereto has been filed or becomes effective and when the applicable prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto has been filed;

(q) use its reasonable best efforts to prevent the entry of, and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as reasonably practicable the withdrawal of, any stop order with respect to the applicable registration statement or other order suspending the use of any preliminary or final prospectus;

(r) promptly incorporate in a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment to the applicable registration statement such information as the lead underwriter or underwriters, if any, and the Holders holding a majority of each class of Registrable Securities being sold agree (with respect to the relevant class) should be included therein relating to the plan of distribution with respect to such class of Registrable Securities; and make all required filings of such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment as promptly as reasonably practicable after being notified of the matters to be incorporated in such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment;

(s) cooperate with each Holder and each underwriter or agent, if any, participating in the disposition of such Registrable Securities and their respective counsel in connection with any filings required to be made with FINRA;

(t) provide a CUSIP number or numbers for all such shares, in each case not later than the effective date of the applicable registration statement;

(u) to the extent reasonably requested by the lead or managing underwriters in connection with an Underwritten Offering (including an Underwritten Offering pursuant to Section 2.1 or Section 2.2), send appropriate officers of the Company to attend any "road shows" scheduled in connection with any such Underwritten Offering, with all out of pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Company or such officers in connection with such attendance to be paid by the Company;

(v) enter into such agreements (including an underwriting agreement in customary form) and take such other actions as the Selling Investor or Selling Investors, as the case may be, owning at least a majority of the Registrable Securities covered by any applicable registration statement shall reasonably request in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of such Registrable Securities, including customary indemnification and contribution to the effect and to the extent provided in Article V hereof; and

(w) subject to all the other provisions of this Agreement, use its reasonable best efforts to take all other steps necessary to effect the registration, marketing and sale of such Registrable Securities contemplated hereby.

ARTICLE V

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 5.1 Indemnification by the Company. The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless, to the full extent permitted by law, each Selling Investor, its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, managers, partners, members and representatives, and each of their respective successors and assigns, against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities and expenses caused by any violation by the Company of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act applicable to the Company and relating to action or inaction required of the Company in connection with the registration contemplated by a Registration Statement or any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement, prospectus, or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, or any other disclosure document (including reports and other documents filed under the Exchange Act and any document incorporated by reference therein) or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except insofar as the same was made in reliance on and in conformity with any information furnished in writing to the Company by such Selling Investor expressly for use therein; provided, however, that the Company shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage, liability or expense arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in any Registration Statement, prospectus, or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished to the Company in writing by the Person asserting such loss, claim, damage, liability or expense specifically for use therein. The Company will also indemnify underwriters, selling brokers, dealer managers and similar securities industry professionals participating in the distribution, their officers and directors and each Person who Controls such Persons to the same extent as provided above with respect to the indemnification of the Selling Investor, if requested.

Section 5.2 Indemnification by Selling Investors. Each Selling Investor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless, to the full extent permitted by law, the Company, the Company's Controlled Affiliates and their respective directors, managers, partners, members and representatives, and each of their respective successors and assigns, and each Person who Controls the Company against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities and expenses caused by any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement, prospectus, or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue statement or omission was made in reliance on and in conformity with any information furnished in writing by such Selling Investor to the Company expressly for inclusion in such Registration Statement and has not been corrected in a subsequent writing prior to or concurrently with the sale of the Registrable Securities to the Person asserting such loss, claim, damage, liability or expense; provided that the obligation to indemnify shall be several, not joint and several, for each Selling Investor and in no event shall the liability of any Selling Investor hereunder be greater in amount than the dollar amount of the net proceeds received by such Selling Investor upon the sale of the Registrable Securities giving rise to such indemnification obligation.

Section 5.3 Conduct of Indemnification Proceedings. Any Person entitled to indemnification hereunder will (i) give prompt (but in any event within 30 days after such Person has actual knowledge of the facts constituting the basis for indemnification) written notice to the indemnifying party of any claim with respect to which it seeks indemnification and (ii) permit such indemnifying party to assume the defense of such claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party; provided, however, that any delay or failure to so notify the indemnifying party shall relieve the indemnifying party of its obligations hereunder only to the extent, if at all, that it is prejudiced by reason of such delay or failure. Any Person entitled to indemnification hereunder shall have the right to select and employ separate counsel and to participate in the defense of such claim, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such Person unless (a) the indemnifying party has agreed in writing to pay such fees or expenses, (b) the indemnifying party shall have failed to assume the defense of such claim within a reasonable time after receipt of notice of such claim from the Person entitled to indemnification hereunder and employ counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Person, (c) the indemnified party has reasonably concluded, based on the advice of counsel, that there may be legal defenses available to it or other indemnified parties that are different from or in addition to those available to the indemnifying party or (d) in the reasonable judgment of any such Person, based upon advice of counsel, a conflict of interest may exist between such Person and the indemnifying party with respect to such claims (in which case, if such Person notifies the indemnifying party in writing that such Person elects to employ separate counsel at the expense of the indemnifying party, the indemnifying party shall not have the right to assume the defense of such claim on behalf of such Person). If such defense is not assumed by the indemnifying party, the indemnifying party will not be subject to any liability for any settlement made without its consent (but such consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). No indemnifying party shall, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, effect any settlement of any pending or threatened action or claim in respect of which any indemnified party is or could have been a party and indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such indemnified party unless such settlement includes (i) an unconditional release of such indemnified party from all liability on any claims that are the subject matter of such action, (ii) does not include a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or failure to act by or on behalf of any indemnified party and (iii) does not commit any indemnified party to take, or hold back from taking, any action. No indemnified party shall, without the written consent of the indemnifying party, effect the settlement or compromise of, or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to, any pending or threatened action or claim in respect of which indemnification or contribution may be sought hereunder, and no indemnifying party shall be liable for any settlement or compromise of, or consent to the entry of judgment with respect to, any such action or claim effected without its consent, in each case which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Section 5.4 Settlement Offers. Whenever the indemnified party or the indemnifying party receives a firm offer to settle a claim for which indemnification is sought hereunder, it shall promptly notify the other of such offer. If the indemnifying party refuses to accept such offer within 20 Business Days after receipt of such offer (or of notice thereof), such claim shall continue to be contested and, if such claim is within the scope of the indemnifying party's indemnity contained herein, the indemnified party shall be indemnified pursuant to the terms hereof. An indemnifying party who is not entitled to, or elects not to, assume the defense of a claim will not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for all parties indemnified by such indemnifying party with respect to such claim in any one jurisdiction, unless in the written opinion of counsel to the indemnified party, reasonably satisfactory to the indemnifying party, use of one counsel would be expected to give rise to a conflict of interest between such indemnified party and any other of such indemnified parties with respect to such claim, in which event the indemnifying party shall be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of one additional counsel.

Section 5.5 Other Indemnification. Indemnification similar to that specified in this Article V (with appropriate modifications) shall be given by the Company and each Selling Investor with respect to any required registration or other qualification of Registrable Securities under Federal or state law or regulation of governmental authority other than the Securities Act.

Section 5.6 Contribution. If for any reason the indemnification provided for in Section 5.1 or Section 5.2 is unavailable to an indemnified party or insufficient to hold it harmless as contemplated by Section 5.1 and Section 5.2, then (i) the indemnifying party shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by the indemnified party as a result of such loss, claim, damage or liability in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnified party and the indemnifying party or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as shall be appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Company, on the one hand, and such prospective sellers, on the other hand, from their sale of the Registrable Securities, provided that, no Selling Investor shall be required to contribute in an amount greater than the dollar amount of the net proceeds received by such Selling Investor with respect to the sale of the Registrable Securities giving rise to such indemnification obligation. The amount paid or payable by an indemnified party as a result of the losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses (or actions in respect thereof) referred to above shall be deemed to include any legal or other fees or expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or, except as provided in Section 5.3, defending any such action or claim. No Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation. The Holders' obligations in this Section 5.6 to contribute shall be several in proportion to the amount of Registrable Securities registered by them and not joint.

ARTICLE VI

EXCHANGE ACT COMPLIANCE

Section 6.1 Exchange Act Compliance. So long as the Company (a) has registered a class of securities under Section 12 or Section 15 of the Exchange Act and (b) files reports under Section 13 of the Exchange Act, then the Company shall take all actions reasonably necessary to enable Holders to sell Registrable Securities without registration under the Securities Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as such rule may be amended from time to time or any similar rules or regulations adopted by the Commission, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (i) making and keeping public information available, as those terms are understood and defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act, (ii) filing with the Commission in a timely manner all reports and other documents required of the Company under the Exchange Act and (iii) at the request of any Holder if such Holder proposes to sell securities in compliance with Rule 144, forthwith furnish to such Holder, as applicable, a written statement of compliance with the reporting requirements of the Commission as set forth in Rule 144 and make available to such Holder such information as will enable the Holder to make sales pursuant to Rule 144.

TERMINATION

Section 7.1 Termination. The registration rights hereunder shall cease to apply to any particular Registrable Security when: (a) a registration statement with respect to the sale of such Shares shall have become effective under the Securities Act and such Shares shall have been disposed of in accordance with such registration statement; (b) such Shares shall have been sold to the public pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act (or any successor provision); (c) such Shares shall have been otherwise transferred, new certificates or book-entries for them not bearing a legend restricting further transfer shall have been delivered by the Company and subsequent public distribution of them shall not require registration or qualification of them under the Securities Act or any similar state law then in force; (d) such Shares shall have ceased to be outstanding; or (e) the Holder of such Registrable Security holds less than one percent (1%) of the then issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock (determined as the aggregate number of Registrable Securities held by such Holder with all of its Affiliates) and such Registrable Securities are eligible for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act (or any successor provision) without compliance with the manner of sale, volume and other limitations under such rule and are not otherwise subject to any transfer restriction. The Company shall promptly upon the request of any Holder furnish to such Holder evidence of the number of shares of Common Stock then outstanding.

ARTICLE VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision, as to such jurisdiction, shall be ineffective, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such provision could be more narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, it shall, as to such jurisdiction, be so narrowly drawn, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 8.2 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial. This Agreement and any action of any kind or any nature (whether at law or in equity, based in contract or in tort or otherwise) that is any way related to this Agreement or any of the transactions related hereto shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts executed in and to be performed in that state without regard to the conflict of laws rules thereof. Each party to this Agreement (i) consents to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and any state appellate court therefrom located in the State of Delaware (or, only if the Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court sitting in Wilmington, Delaware), (ii) waives any objection to the laying of venue of any action related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement brought in such court, (iii) waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum and (iv) agrees that service of process or of any other papers upon such party by registered mail at the address to which notices are required to be sent to such party under Section 8.5 shall be deemed good, proper and effective service upon such party. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION PROCEEDING, CLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 8.3 Other Registration Rights. If the Company shall at any time hereafter provide to any holder of any securities of the Company rights with respect to the registration of such securities under the Securities Act, such rights shall not be in conflict with or adversely affect any of the rights provided to the holders of Registrable Securities in, or conflict (in a manner that adversely affects holders of Registrable Securities) with any other provisions included in, this Agreement.

Section 8.4 Successors and Assigns. Subject to Section 8.4, this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the successors and permitted assigns of each of the parties hereto, each of which, in the case of the Holders, shall agree to become subject to the terms of this Agreement by executing an Adoption Agreement and be bound to the same extent as the parties hereto. The Company may not assign any of its rights or delegate any of its duties hereunder without the prior written consent of the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities. Subject to Section 2.1(a) and Section 2.2(b), any Holder may, at its election and at any time or from time to time, assign its rights and delegate its duties hereunder, in whole or in part, to any Transferee of such Holder (each, an “Assignee”); provided, that no such assignment shall be binding upon or obligate the Company to any such Assignee unless and until such Assignee delivers the Company an Adoption Agreement. If a Holder assigns its rights under this Agreement in connection with the Transfer of less than all of its Registrable Securities, the Holder shall retain its rights under this Agreement with respect to its remaining Registrable Securities. If a Holder assigns its rights under this Agreement in connection with the Transfer of all of its Registrable Securities, the Holder shall have no further rights or obligations under this Agreement, except under Article V hereof in respect of offerings in which such Holder participated or registrations in which Registrable Securities held by such Holder were included. Any purported assignment in violation of this provision shall be null and void ab initio.

Section 8.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the other writings referred to herein constitute the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written, with respect to such subject matter.

Section 8.10 Counterparts; Facsimile or.pdf Signature. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original instrument, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same document. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile or.pdf signature and a facsimile or.pdf signature shall constitute an original for all purposes.

Section 8.11 Amendment. Other than with respect to amendments to Schedule I attached hereto, which may be amended by the Company from time to time to reflect the Holders at such time, this Agreement may not be amended, modified or supplemented without the written consent of the Apollo Stockholders (as long as each owns Registrable Securities); provided, however, that, with respect to a particular Holder or group of Holders, any such amendment, supplement, modification or waiver that (a) would materially and adversely affect such Holder or group of Holders in any respect or (b) would disproportionately benefit any other Holder or group of Holders or confer any benefit on any other Holder or group of Holders to which such Holder or group of Holders would not be entitled, shall not be effective against such Holder or group of Holders unless approved in writing by such Holder or the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities held by such group of Holders, as the case may be.

Section 8.12 Extensions; Waivers. Any party may, for itself only, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations of any other party under this Agreement, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of any other party contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of such party contained herein. Any extension or waiver pursuant to this Section 8.12 will be valid only if set forth in a writing signed by the party to be bound thereby.

No waiver by any party of any default, misrepresentation or breach of warranty or covenant hereunder, whether intentional or not, may be deemed to extend to any prior or subsequent default, misrepresentation or breach of warranty or covenant hereunder or affect in any way any rights arising because of any prior or subsequent such occurrence. Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any party to exercise any right or remedy under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise of the same or of any other right or remedy.

Section 8.13 Further Assurances. Each of the parties hereto shall execute all such further instruments and documents and take all such further action as the Company may reasonably require in order to effectuate the terms and purposes of this Agreement.

Section 8.14 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except pursuant to Article V, this Agreement shall not confer any rights or remedies upon any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and other Persons expressly named herein.

Section 8.15 Interpretation; Construction. This Agreement has been freely and fairly negotiated among the parties. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement will be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties and no presumption or burden of proof will arise favoring or disfavoring any party because of the authorship of any provision of this Agreement. Any reference to any law will be deemed to refer to such law as amended and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, unless the context requires otherwise. The words “include,” “includes,” and “including” will be deemed to be followed by “without limitation.” Pronouns in masculine, feminine, and neuter genders will be construed to include any other gender, and words in the singular form will be construed to include the plural and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires. The words “this Agreement,” “herein,” “hereof,” “hereby,” “hereunder” and words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole, including the schedules, exhibits and annexes, as the same may from time to time be amended, modified or supplemented, and not to any particular subdivision unless expressly so limited. All references to sections, schedules, annexes and exhibits mean the sections of this Agreement and the schedules, annexes and exhibits attached to this Agreement, except where otherwise stated. The parties intend that each representation, warranty, and covenant contained herein will have independent significance. If any party has breached any covenant contained herein in any respect, the fact that there exists another covenant relating to the same subject matter (regardless of the relative levels of specificity) that the party has not breached will not detract from or mitigate the party’s breach of the first covenant.

Section 8.16 Changes in Common Stock. If, and as often as, there are any changes in Common Stock by way of by way of a dividend, distribution, stock split or combination, reclassification, recapitalization, exchange or readjustment, whether in a merger, consolidation, conversion or similar transaction, or by any other means, appropriate adjustment shall be made in the provisions of this Agreement, as may be required, so that the rights, privileges, duties and obligations hereunder shall continue with respect to Common Stock as so changed.

II. THE COMBINATION

2.1 The Merger and the Subsequent Merger. Upon the terms set forth in this Agreement, and in accordance with the DGCL, Merger Sub 1 shall be merged with and into the Company at the Effective Time. Following the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub 1 shall cease, and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation and a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Purchaser (the “Surviving Corporation”) and shall succeed to and assume all the rights and obligations of Merger Sub 1 in accordance with the DGCL. Immediately following the Effective Time, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and in accordance with the DGCL and the DLLCA, the Surviving Corporation shall be merged with and into Merger Sub 2. Following the Subsequent Merger, the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease, and Merger Sub 2 shall continue as the surviving company and a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Purchaser (the “Surviving Company”).

2.2 Closing. The closing of the Combination (the “Closing”) will take place by electronic communication on the second (2nd) Business Day following the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted hereunder) of the conditions to the obligations of the Parties set forth in Article IX, or on such other date and at such other place as agreed to by Purchaser and the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Marketing Period has not ended at the time of the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted hereunder) of the last to be satisfied or waived of the conditions set forth in Article IX (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing), then the Closing will occur on the earlier of (i) any Business Day during the Marketing Period specified by the Purchaser to the Company on no less than on two (2) Business Days’ prior written notice to the Company and (ii) the third (3rd) Business Day after the final day of the Marketing Period (subject, in the case of each of (i) and (ii), to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted hereunder) of all of the conditions set forth in Article IX, other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted hereunder) of such conditions), except that if any of the conditions set forth in Article IX are not satisfied or waived (to the extent permitted hereunder) on such Business Day, then the Closing will take place on the first (1st) Business Day on which all such conditions have been satisfied or waived (to the extent permitted hereunder). The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to herein as the “Closing Date.”

2.3 Effective Time. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Parties shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing a certificate of merger (the “Certificate of Merger”), meeting the requirements of the DGCL, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the “Secretary of State”), executed and acknowledged by the Company in accordance with the DGCL. The Merger shall become effective upon the filing of the Certificate of Merger, or at such later date and time as the Purchaser and the Company shall agree and specify in the Certificate of Merger (the date and time that the Merger becomes effective being the “Effective Time”). Immediately following the Effective Time, the Parties shall cause the Subsequent Merger to be consummated by filing a certificate of merger relating to the Subsequent Merger (the “Subsequent Certificate of Merger”), meeting the requirements of the DGCL and the DLLCA, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, with the Secretary of State, executed and acknowledged by Merger Sub 2 in accordance with the DGCL and the DLLCA. The Subsequent Merger shall become effective upon the filing of the Subsequent Certificate of Merger, or at such later date and time as the Purchaser and the Company shall agree and specify in the Subsequent Certificate of Merger (the date and time that the Subsequent Merger becomes effective being the “Subsequent Effective Time”).

2.4 Closing Payments. At the Closing:

(a) Purchaser shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to Seller (i) promissory notes evidencing, in the aggregate, the Closing Date Preferred Amount, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit C (collectively, the “Promissory Notes”) plus (ii) a stock certificate evidencing the full amount of the Closing Equity Consideration;

(b) Purchaser shall pay, or cause to be paid, all Indebtedness and other amounts of any kind owing as of the Closing Date under the First Lien Credit Agreement and the Second Lien Credit Agreement and any other Closing Date Debt that is due and payable as of the Closing Date; provided, however, that Purchaser shall not pay off at Closing any Capital Lease Obligations of the Company or its Subsidiaries entered into prior to Closing unless such Capital Lease Obligations are due and payable as of the Closing or would otherwise be in default as of the Closing (including any Capital Lease Obligation of the Company or its Subsidiaries, the terms of which require a consent on or prior to the Closing in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and which consent has not been obtained as of the Closing);

(c) Purchaser shall pay, or cause to be paid, the Closing Date Selling Expenses (which payment may be made post-Closing if consistent with the agreement underlying such Closing Date Selling Expenses); and

(d) Purchaser shall pay, or cause to be paid, to Seller the Cash Consideration (if any).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, at the Closing, Seller shall pay any Overage Amount as directed by the Purchaser, either (1) in cash or (2) at the Seller’s election (the “Closing Equity Election”) by reducing the number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock (rounding up to the nearest whole share in the case of any fractional shares) that it would receive as Closing Equity Consideration equal to (x) the Overage Amount, divided by (y) the Per Share Price.

2.5 Effects of the Combination under the DGCL and DLLCA. At and after the Effective Time, the Merger, and, at and after the Subsequent Effective Time, the Subsequent Merger, shall have the effects set forth in this Agreement and the applicable provisions of the DGCL and the DLLCA. III. EFFECT OF THE COMBINATION

3.1 Effect on Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the Purchaser, Merger Sub 1, Merger Sub 2, the Seller or the Company or the holders of any securities of the Purchaser, Merger Sub 1, Merger Sub 2, the Seller or the Company:

3.1.1 Conversion of Company Common Stock. The shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (such shares, the “Shares”) (other than (i) Shares owned by Purchaser, Merger Sub 1, Merger Sub 2 or any other direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Purchaser immediately prior to the Effective Time, and in each case not held on behalf of third parties and (ii) Shares owned by the Company, including Shares held in treasury by the Company, and in each case not held in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of third parties (the Shares referred to in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii), collectively, the “Cancelled Shares”)) shall be converted automatically into and shall thereafter represent the right to receive in the aggregate:

- (a) the Promissory Notes;
- (b) the Cash Consideration (if any);
- (c) the Closing Equity Consideration; and

(d) the right to receive the MOIC Equity Consideration and MOIC Dividend Amount pursuant to Section 3.3 (collectively with the Promissory Notes, Cash Consideration and the Closing Equity Consideration, the “Transaction Consideration”).

3.1.2 Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, all of the Shares that have been converted into a right to receive the Transaction Consideration as provided in this Section 3.1.1 shall no longer be outstanding, shall be cancelled and extinguished automatically and shall cease to exist, and each former holder of Shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares, except for the right to receive the Transaction Consideration to be paid in consideration therefor in accordance with this Article III.

(a) At the Effective Time, each Cancelled Share shall cease to be outstanding, be cancelled without any conversion thereof or payment of any consideration therefor and shall cease to exist.

(b) Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Merger Sub 1 issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be converted into and become one validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation (the “Surviving Corporation Common Stock”) and shall constitute the only outstanding shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

3.1.3 Adjustments. If at any time during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of Purchaser or the Company shall occur as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split (including a reverse stock split) or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend or stock distribution with a record date during such period, the Transaction Consideration shall be equitably adjusted to provide to the holders of Company Common Stock (or such rights that are convertible into shares of Company Common Stock) and Purchaser the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such action; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 3.1.3 shall be deemed to permit any action that Purchaser or the Company is otherwise prohibited from taking pursuant to this Agreement.

3.1.4 Effect on Interests. At the Subsequent Effective Time, each share of Surviving Corporation Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Subsequent Effective Time shall be converted into one limited liability company interest of the Surviving Company and each limited liability company interest of Merger Sub 2 issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Subsequent Effective Time shall be converted into one limited liability company interest of the Surviving Company.

3.2 Proceedings. Except as otherwise specifically provided for herein, all proceedings that will be taken and all documents that will be executed and delivered by the Parties on the Closing Date will be deemed to have been taken and executed simultaneously, and no proceedings will be deemed taken nor any document executed and delivered until all such proceedings have been taken, and all such documents have been executed and delivered.

3.3 MOIC Equity Consideration. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, upon each Measurement Date, and as additional consideration for the Merger, Seller is entitled to additional consideration from Purchaser in the form of shares of Purchaser Common Stock (the “MOIC Equity Consideration”) as follows:

(a) If on any Measurement Date, MOIC is greater than 2.0x, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller a number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock equal to an aggregate (taking into account all prior payments made pursuant to this Section 3.3) of 222,000 shares of Purchaser Common Stock (as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 3.3(e)).

(b) If on any Measurement Date, MOIC is greater than 3.0x, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller a number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock equal to an aggregate (taking into account all prior payments made pursuant to this Section 3.3) of 444,000 shares of Purchaser Common Stock (as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 3.3(e)).

(c) If on any Measurement Date, MOIC is greater than 4.0x, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller a number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock equal to an aggregate (taking into account all prior payments made pursuant to this Section 3.3) of 666,000 shares of Purchaser Common Stock (as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 3.3\(e\)).

(d) If on any Measurement Date, MOIC is greater than 4.5x, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller a number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock equal to an aggregate (taking into account all prior payments made pursuant to this Section 3.3) of 888,000 shares of Purchaser Common Stock (as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 3.3\(e\)).

(e) If the Fully-Diluted Equity increases or decreases between the date of this Agreement and the Closing, the number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock which constitute the MOIC Equity Consideration shall be increased or decreased, as applicable, by multiplying (x) the number of shares by which the Fully-Diluted Equity has increased or decreased by (y)(i) in the case of Section 3.3\(a\), 1.583%, (ii) in the case of Section 3.3\(b\), 3.166%, (iii) in the case of Section 3.3\(c\), 4.749%, and (iv) in the case of Section 3.3\(d\), 6.332%.

For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the MOIC Equity Consideration exceed in the aggregate 888,000 shares of Purchaser Common Stock (as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 3.3\(e\)). Purchaser shall notify Seller prior to any cash dividend by Purchaser to, or equity investment in Purchaser by, the Apollo Holders (provided, that such notification will not be required to the extent Seller is entitled to receive notification of such event in connection with its rights under the Investor Rights Agreement) and such notification shall include to the extent practicable, a calculation of the MOIC as of such date (which, if not practicable to provide prior to such date shall be provided as soon as practicable thereafter). Any delivery of MOIC Equity Consideration required to be made pursuant to this Section 3.3 shall be made at the applicable Measurement Date (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable).

To the extent that any of the shares of Purchaser Common Stock constituting MOIC Equity Consideration that are actually issued would have, if delivered as of the Closing, been entitled to any cash dividends from and after the Closing (the amount of such dividends, the “MOIC Dividend Amount”), Purchaser shall deliver, in connection with the delivery of the MOIC Equity Consideration, at its election either (i) cash in the amount of the MOIC Dividend Amount, or (ii) additional shares of Purchaser Common Stock having a value equal to the MOIC Dividend Amount (rounding up to the nearest whole share in the case of any fractional shares). For purposes of clause (ii) of the immediately preceding sentence, the value of the shares of Purchaser Common Stock (or the stock of any successor of Purchaser) shall be deemed to equal (x) prior to the IPO, the fair market value of such shares as reasonably determined by the board of directors of the Purchaser as of the Business Day immediately preceding the date of delivery of the MOIC Equity Consideration; provided, that, if Seller disputes such determination within five (5) Business Days following notice thereof, then such determination shall be made by the Independent Valuation Expert, and (y) from and after the IPO, the volume weighted average trading price of such shares over the thirty (30) consecutive trading days ending on the third (3rd) trading day preceding the date of delivery of the MOIC Equity Consideration.

The number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock which constitutes the MOIC Equity Consideration shall be equitably adjusted for stock splits, stock dividends, combinations, recapitalization and the like occurring after the Closing.

3.4 Withholding. Each of Purchaser, the Surviving Company and their respective Affiliates shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement such amounts as it is required, in such payor’s reasonable determination, to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, any Treasury Regulations, or any other applicable state, local or foreign Tax Laws. To the extent that such amounts are so withheld and paid over to the applicable Governmental Authority, such deducted and withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

3.5 Closing Statement. At least five (5) Business Days before the Closing, Seller shall prepare and deliver to Purchaser an unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Company and its Subsidiaries as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (the “Closing Balance Sheet”), together with a statement (as the same may be adjusted by the Company in its sole discretion in response to comments made by Purchaser prior to the Closing, the “Closing Statement”) setting forth (a) in reasonable detail the Company’s good faith estimated calculations of Closing Date Cash, Closing Date Debt, Closing Date Selling Expenses and the Preferred Amount, and a certificate of the Chief Financial Officer of the Company that the Closing Balance Sheet and Closing Statement were prepared in accordance with GAAP. For purposes of complying with the terms set forth in this Section 3.5, each Party shall cooperate with and make available to the other Parties, their respective representatives, all information, records, data and working papers, and shall permit access to its facilities and personnel, as may be reasonably required in connection with the preparation and analysis of the Closing Statement. Seller shall prepare and deliver a revised and final Closing Statement as of the Closing Date to reflect the Company’s actual calculations of Closing Date Cash, Closing Date Debt, Closing Date Selling Expenses and the Preferred Amount.

3.6 Other Pre-Closing Deliverables. At least two (2) Business Days before the Closing, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser (i) a payoff letter for each holder of Closing Date Debt to be paid at the Closing pursuant to Section 2.4, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Purchaser, (A) indicating the amount required to discharge such Closing Date Debt at Closing and (B) including, if any such Closing Date Debt is secured by any Liens, an undertaking by the holder(s) thereof to release such Liens upon receipt of the stated payoff amount, and (ii) invoices and wire transfer instructions for the payees of Closing Date Selling Expenses.

IV. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

The Company represents and warrants to Purchaser, as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date, as follows (in each case, except where context implies otherwise, with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis):

4.1 Existence and Qualification. The Company is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware. Each Subsidiary of the Company is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries has the requisite power and authority required to carry on their respective businesses in all material respects as presently conducted. Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.1, the Company and each of its Subsidiaries is duly licensed or qualified to conduct business as a foreign entity and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where such qualification is required, other than any failure to be qualified, licensed or in good standing, which would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. The Company has made available to Purchaser true and complete copies of its and its Subsidiaries’ Organizational Documents. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is in violation of any material provision of its Organizational Documents. Neither the manager, managing member, member, board of directors or other governing body of the Company nor of any of its Subsidiaries has approved or proposed, and no equity holder of the Company or its Subsidiaries has approved or adopted, as of the date hereof, any amendment to any of the Organizational Documents of the Company or its Subsidiaries.

4.2 Authorization; Enforceability. The Company has the requisite corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform its obligations under this Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement to which it is or will be a party. This Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement to which the Company is or will be a party has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Company. This Agreement and each Ancillary Agreement to which the Company is or will be a party has been or will be duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Company, and once executed, will constitute a legal, valid and binding agreement of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their respective terms, subject to the effect of any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to the effect of general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is considered in an Action at law or in equity). The consent of Seller, as the sole stockholder of the Company, is the only vote required to adopt this Agreement and approve the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Combination, under the Company's Organizational Documents and applicable Law, which consent has been duly delivered and is effective immediately following the execution and delivery of this Agreement. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries has all material Permits and Approvals required to own its properties and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted in all jurisdictions in which the nature of its business requires it to maintain such material Permits and Approvals.

4.3 Non-Contravention; Consents; Restrictive Documents.

4.3.1 Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.3.1, the execution, delivery and performance by the Company and Seller of this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which they are, as contemplated by this Agreement, to become a party, did not and will not (a) violate the Organizational Documents of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, (b) violate any Laws applicable to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or by which any of their assets and properties are bound, (c) conflict with or result in a violation of, or give any Governmental Authority the right to revoke, withdraw, suspend, cancel, terminate or modify any material licenses and Permits or Approvals, (d) with or without notice or lapse of time or both, violate, conflict with or result in a breach of, constitute a default under, give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration under, or require any consent or notice under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any Material Contract, or (e) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien (other than Permitted Liens) on any material asset of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, or Seller or the Shares, other than, in the case of clauses (b), (c), (d), and (e), such violations, breaches, conflicts or defaults that would not reasonably be expected to be material to the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

4.3.2 Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.3.2, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is subject to, or a party to, any charter or bylaw provision (or provision of any equivalent Organizational Document), mortgage, Lien, lease, Permit, instrument, Law, Order, or any other restriction of any kind or character that would prevent or delay the timely consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements.

4.3.3 Except for compliance with the notification, reporting, and waiting period requirements of the HSR Act, the execution, delivery and performance by the Company and Seller of this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which they are, as contemplated by this Agreement, to become a party, do not and will not require any filing or notification with, or any clearance, authorization, Approval, waiver, or consent from, any Governmental Authority.

4.4 Capitalization.

4.4.1 The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 1,000 shares of Company Common Stock, 1,000 of which are issued and outstanding and are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, have not been issued in violation of any preemptive, subscription or other similar rights, and are owned beneficially and of record by Seller. Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.4.1, there are no authorized or outstanding (a) shares of capital stock, equity interests, or other securities of the Company or (b) options, warrants or other rights of any Person to purchase or acquire any equity interests in, or any other equity securities of, the Company, or securities exercisable or exchangeable for, or convertible into, equity interests in, or equity securities of, the Company, or obligations of the Company to issue any other securities of the Company (collectively, the “Company Securities”).

4.4.2 Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.4.2, the Company Securities are not subject to any voting agreement (including any voting trust), stockholder agreements, registration rights agreements, buy-sell agreements or other contract, agreement, arrangement, commitment, option, proxy, pledge, right of first refusal or offer or preemptive or similar right, or understanding, including any direct or indirect agreement, arrangement or understanding restricting or otherwise relating to the ownership, voting rights, distribution rights, transfer or disposition thereof.

4.4.3 Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.4.3, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries owns, directly or indirectly, any capital stock, membership interests, or other securities of any Person.

4.4.4 Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.4.4, there are no outstanding (a) shares of capital stock, equity interests, or other securities of any Subsidiary of the Company or (b) options, warrants or other rights of any Person to purchase or acquire any equity interests in, or any other securities of, any Subsidiary of the Company, or securities exercisable or exchangeable for, or convertible into, equity interests in, or securities of, any Subsidiary of the Company (collectively, the “Subsidiary Securities”).

4.5 Financial Statements and Related Matters. The Company has made available to Purchaser true and complete copies of the Financial Statements and the Interim Financial Statements. The Financial Statements and the Interim Financial Statements (i) present fairly in all material respects the financial position of the Company and the results of operations of the Company as of the respective dates thereof and for the periods covered thereby and (ii) were prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods covered thereby, subject, in the case of the Interim Financial Statements, to changes resulting from normal immaterial (in the aggregate) year-end adjustments and the absence of footnote disclosures and other presentation items, in each case the effect of which if they were included would not be material to the Company, taken as a whole. Except as set forth in Schedule 4.5, the Company has no liabilities except for (x) liabilities reflected or adequately reserved against in the Interim Financial Statements and (y) liabilities incurred in the Ordinary Course since the Balance Sheet Date (excluding any liability for breach of Contract, breach of warranty, tort, infringement or violation of Laws by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries). The accounting controls of the Company have been and are sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that (1) all material transactions are executed in accordance with management’s general or specific authorization and (2) all material transactions are recorded as necessary to permit the accurate preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP and the accounting principles, methods and practices used in preparing the Financial Statements and the Interim Financial Statements and to maintain proper accountability for items.

4.6 Tax Matters. Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.6:

4.6.1 None of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries has ever (A) made an election under Treasury Regulations Section 301.7701-3 or similar election under any comparable provision of state, local or foreign Tax law or (B) made an election under Section 1362 of the Code to be treated as an S corporation for federal income Tax purposes or similar election under any comparable provision of state, local or foreign Tax law.

4.6.2 All Tax Returns required to be filed by or with respect to the Company and each of its Subsidiaries have been properly prepared and duly and timely filed (taking into account any valid extensions) and all such Tax Returns (including information provided therewith or with respect thereto) are true, correct, and complete in all material respects. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries have fully and timely paid all Taxes due (whether or not shown as due and owing on any such Tax Returns) as of the Closing. Since the Balance Sheet Date, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has incurred any Tax liabilities other than Tax liabilities incurred in the Ordinary Course.

4.6.3 The Company and each of its Subsidiaries have given or otherwise made available to Purchaser true, correct and complete copies of all material Tax Returns, examination reports and statements of deficiencies for taxable periods, or transactions consummated, for which the applicable statutory periods of limitations have not expired.

4.6.4 There are no Tax claims, audits or any other proceedings pending or, to the Company's Knowledge, threatened against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, and all deficiencies for Taxes asserted or assessed against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries have been fully and timely paid, settled or properly reflected in the Balance Sheet. There are no rulings, subpoenas or requests for information pending with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries with any Governmental Authority. No Governmental Authority has given written notice of any intention to assert any deficiency or claim for additional Taxes against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, and no written claim has been made by any Governmental Authority in a jurisdiction where the Company and its Subsidiaries do not file Tax Returns that it is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction.

4.6.5 There are no outstanding agreements extending or waiving the statutory period of limitations applicable to any claim for, or the period for the collection or assessment or reassessment of, Taxes due from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any taxable period and no request for any such waiver or extension is currently pending.

4.6.6 The Company and each of its Subsidiaries have each properly withheld and/or timely paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority all material Taxes required to have been withheld and/or paid in connection with amounts paid or owing to the Seller or any employee, creditor, independent contractor, or other third party for all periods ending on or before the Closing Date in compliance with all Tax withholding and remitting provisions of applicable Laws and have each complied in all material respects with all Tax information reporting provisions of all applicable Laws.

4.6.7 Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to or bound by any Tax Sharing Agreement. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries have incurred any liability for the Taxes of any Person under Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6, Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-78, or any similar provision of state, local, or foreign Law, as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise.

4.6.8 Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has (A) participated in any listed transaction within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.6011-4(b) (or any similar provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law) or (B) taken any reporting position on a Tax Return, which reporting position (i) if not sustained would be reasonably likely, absent disclosure, to give rise to a penalty for substantial understatement of federal income Tax under Section 6662 of the Code (or any similar provision of state, local, or foreign Tax Law) and (ii) has not adequately been disclosed on such Tax Return in accordance with Section 6662(d)(2)(B) of the Code (or any similar provision of state, local, or foreign Tax Law).

4.6.9 Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has constituted a “distributing corporation” or a “controlled corporation” (within the meaning of Section 355(a)(1)(A) of the Code) in a distribution of shares qualifying for tax-free treatment under Section 355 of the Code (i) in the two years prior to the date of this Agreement or (ii) in a distribution that could otherwise constitute part of a “plan” or “series of related transactions” (within the meaning of Section 355(e) of the Code) in conjunction with this acquisition.

4.6.10 Neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries will be required to include in a taxable period ending after the Closing Date, taxable income attributable to income that accrued in a taxable period prior to the Closing Date, but was not recognized for Tax purposes in such prior taxable period (or to exclude from taxable income in a taxable period ending after the Closing Date any deduction the recognition of which was accelerated from such taxable period to a taxable period prior to the Closing Date) as a result of the installment method of accounting, the completed contract method of accounting, the long-term contract method of accounting, the cash method of accounting, any installment sale, any excess loss account, any deferred revenue, any open transaction, any prepaid amount received prior to the Closing Date, or Section 481 of the Code or Section 108(i) of the Code or comparable provisions of state, local or foreign Tax Law.

4.6.11 Any adjustment of Taxes of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries made by the IRS, which adjustment is required to be reported to the appropriate state, local, or foreign Governmental Authorities, has been so reported.

4.6.12 Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has executed or entered into a closing agreement pursuant to Section 7121 of the Code or any similar provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law, and neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is subject to any private letter ruling of the IRS or comparable ruling of any other Governmental Authority.

4.6.13 On or prior to the Closing, the Company and each of its Subsidiaries will have properly and in a timely manner documented its transfer pricing methodology in compliance with Code Sections 482 and 6662 (and any related sections), the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and any comparable provisions of state, local or foreign Tax Law.

4.6.14 There are no Liens with respect to Taxes upon any of the assets or properties of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, other than Permitted Liens.

4.7 Absence of Certain Changes. Except as disclosed on Schedule 4.7 or as contemplated by this Agreement, since the Balance Sheet Date, (a) the Company and its Subsidiaries have conducted their business in the Ordinary Course, including the management of its working capital (including the timing of collection of accounts receivable and of the payment of accounts payable and the management of inventory), (b) no Material Adverse Effect has occurred or is occurring, and (c) neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries have taken or authorized any action or failed to take any action that would, after the date hereof, require the consent of Purchaser pursuant to Section 7.3 or Section 7.4.

4.8 Contracts.

4.8.1 Except (a) for this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements, (b) as disclosed on Schedule 4.8.1, and (c) for any oral agreements that were entered into in the Ordinary Course in connection with the employment by the Company or its Subsidiaries of its or their employees and contractors, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to or bound by any of the following agreements (whether written or oral):

The Seller and its Representatives have been provided with full and complete access to the Representatives, properties, offices and other facilities, books and records of the Purchaser and its Subsidiaries and other necessary information that they have requested in connection with their investigation of the Purchaser and its Subsidiaries and the transactions contemplated hereby. The Seller is not relying, and has not relied, upon any statement, representation or warranty, oral or written, express or implied, made by the Purchaser or its Affiliates or Representatives, except as expressly set forth in Article VI and the Disclosure Schedules. Neither the Purchaser nor any of their Affiliates or Representatives shall have any liability to the Seller or any of its Affiliates or Representatives resulting from the use of any information, documents, or materials made available to the Seller, whether orally or in writing, in any confidential information memoranda, "data rooms", "virtual data rooms", management presentations, due diligence discussions or presentations or in any other form in expectation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Seller acknowledges and agrees that there are inherent uncertainties in attempting to make such estimates, projections and forecasts and that it takes full responsibility for making its own evaluation of the adequacy and accuracy of any such estimates, projections or forecasts (including the reasonableness of the assumptions underlying any such estimates, projections or forecasts). Nothing in this Section 5.10 is intended to modify or limit any of the representations or warranties of the Purchaser set forth in Article VI. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, nothing in this provision will limit the Seller's remedies with respect to fraud.

Purchaser, Merger Sub 1, Merger Sub 2, Inception Intermediate, Inception Parent and Borrower (collectively, the "Purchaser Entities") represent and warrant to the Seller and the Company, as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date, as follows:

Except as disclosed on Schedule 6.1, each Purchaser Entity and its respective Subsidiaries is duly licensed or qualified to conduct business as a foreign entity and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where such qualification is required, other than any failure to be qualified, licensed or in good standing which has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on any Purchaser Entity. Purchaser has made available to Seller true and complete copies of the Organizational Documents of each Purchaser Entity. No Purchaser Entity is in violation of any material provision of its Organizational Documents. Except as provided herein, neither the manager, managing member, member, board of directors or other governing body of any Purchaser Entity has approved or proposed as of the date hereof any amendment to any of the Organizational Documents of any Purchaser Entity.

6.3 Non-Contravention; Consents.

6.3.1 Except as disclosed on Schedule 6.3.1, the execution, delivery and performance by each Purchaser Entity of this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which they are, as contemplated by this Agreement, to become a party does not and will not (a) violate the Organizational Documents of any Purchaser Entity, (b) violate any Laws applicable to any Purchaser Entity, or by which any of their assets and properties are bound, (c) conflict with or result in a violation of, or give any Governmental Authority the right to revoke, withdraw, suspend, cancel, terminate or modify any licenses and Permits or Approvals, or (d) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien (other than Permitted Liens) on any asset of any Purchaser Entity, other than, in the case of clauses (b), (c), and (d), such violations, breaches, conflicts or defaults that would not reasonably be expected to be material to the Purchaser Entities, taken as a whole.

6.3.2 Except as disclosed on Schedule 6.3.2, no Purchaser Entity is subject to, or a party to, any charter, bylaw, mortgage, Lien, lease, Permit, instrument, Law, Order, or any other restriction of any kind or character, that would prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements.

6.3.3 Except for compliance with the notification, reporting, and waiting period requirements of the HSR Act, the execution, delivery and performance by each Purchaser Entity of this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Agreements to which they are, as contemplated by this Agreement, to become a party, does not and will not require any filing or notification with, or any clearance, authorization, Approval, waiver, or consent from, any Governmental Authority.

6.4 Litigation. There is no Action pending or threatened in writing or, to Purchaser's Knowledge, threatened orally against or affecting any Purchaser Entity or Subsidiary that, (a) if determined adversely to such Purchaser Entity or Subsidiary, or any of their respective properties or assets, would reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the Purchaser Entities, taken as a whole, or (b) seeks to delay or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement. No Purchaser Entity is subject to any Order that seeks to delay or prevent the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement.

6.5 Finders' Fees. Except as disclosed on Schedule 6.5, there is no investment banker, broker, finder or other intermediary that has been retained by or is authorized to act on behalf of any Purchaser Entity, or any of their respective Affiliates, who might be entitled to any fee or commission, or similar compensation payable from any Purchaser Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement. All amounts disclosed on Schedule 6.5 or required to be paid to the investment banker, broker, finder or other intermediary set forth thereon shall be paid by the Purchaser.

6.6.1 Schedule 6.6.1 sets forth, as of the date hereof, the entire authorized, issued and outstanding equity interests of Purchaser and its holders of record. Except as provided in such Schedule and as otherwise provided in this Agreement, as of the date hereof there are no (a) equity interests or other securities of the Purchaser, (b) securities of the Purchaser convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for equity interests, or other securities of the Purchaser, (c) subscription, calls, commitments, Contracts, options, warrants, or other rights to purchase or acquire, or obligations of the Purchaser to issue, any equity interests, or other securities, including securities convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for equity interests, or other securities of the Purchaser, or (d) bonds, debentures, notes, or other indebtedness that entitle the holders to vote (or are convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for, securities that entitle the holders to vote) with holders of equity interests, or other securities of the Purchaser on any matter, nor are there any obligations of the Purchaser to repurchase, redeem, or otherwise acquire any of the foregoing.

6.8 Financing.6.8.1 As of the date of this Agreement, Purchaser has delivered to the Company a true, correct and complete copy of an executed commitment letter, dated as of the date of this Agreement, among Borrower and the lenders party thereto (the “Debt Commitment Letter”) pursuant to which the lenders party thereto have committed, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, to lend the amount set forth therein for the purpose of funding a portion of the Transaction Consideration (the “Debt Financing”). Purchaser has also delivered to the Company a true, correct and complete copy of the related fee letter (which may be delivered with the fee amounts, “flex” terms and other economic terms redacted in a customary manner so long as no redaction covers terms that would adversely affect the conditionality, availability or termination of the Debt Financing or reduce the amount of the Debt Financing below the Required Amount (after taking into account available cash of Purchaser and its Subsidiaries, the borrowings available under the Borrower’s existing revolving credit facility and available cash of the Company and its Subsidiaries)) (such letter, the “Fee Letter”).

6.8.2 As of the date of this Agreement, (i) the Debt Commitment Letter has not been amended or modified; (ii) no such amendment or modification is contemplated by Purchaser or Borrower or, to the Purchaser’s Knowledge, by the other parties thereto (other than to add lenders, lead arrangers, bookrunners, syndication agents or other similar entities who had not executed the Debt Commitment Letter as of the date of this Agreement); and (iii) to the Purchaser’s Knowledge, the respective commitments contained therein have not been withdrawn, terminated, repudiated, rescinded, amended, supplemented or modified in any respect. There are no other Contracts, agreements, side letters or arrangements to which Purchaser or Borrower is a party relating to the funding of the full amount of the Debt Financing, other than as expressly set forth in the Debt Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter.

6.8.3 Assuming (x) the Debt Financing is funded in accordance with the Debt Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter (including the “flex” terms thereof), (y) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties set forth in Articles IV and V hereof and (z) the performance by Seller, the Company and its Subsidiaries of the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, the Debt Financing, together with available cash of Purchaser and its Subsidiaries, borrowings available under the Borrower’s existing revolving credit facility and available cash of the Company and its Subsidiaries is sufficient to (a) pay the amounts evidenced by the Promissory Notes in cash, (b) pay the Cash Consideration (if any), (c) pay any and all fees and expenses required to be paid at Closing by Purchaser in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (d) satisfy all other payment obligations of Purchaser contemplated hereunder to be paid on the Closing Date (the “Required Amount”).

6.8.4 As of the date of this Agreement, the Debt Commitment Letter (in the form delivered by Purchaser to the Company) is in full force and effect and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligations of Borrower and, to the Purchaser’s Knowledge, the other parties thereto, as applicable, enforceable against Borrower and, to the Purchaser’s Knowledge, the other parties thereto, as applicable, in accordance with its terms and conditions, except, in each case, as enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar Laws affecting creditors’ rights generally and, as to enforceability, by general principles of equity. Other than as expressly set forth in the Debt Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter, there are no conditions precedent or other contingencies related to the funding of the full amount of the Debt Financing pursuant to any agreement relating to the Debt Financing to which Purchaser or Borrower is a party.

6.9 Purchaser’s Investigation and Reliance. Purchaser is a sophisticated purchaser and has made its own investigation, review and analysis regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries, Seller and the transactions contemplated hereby, together with the Representatives that they have engaged for such purpose. Purchaser and its Representatives have been provided with full and complete access to the Representatives, properties, offices and other facilities, books and records of the Company and its Subsidiaries and other necessary information that they have requested in connection with their investigation of the Company and its Subsidiaries and the transactions contemplated hereby. Purchaser is not relying, and has not relied, upon any statement, representation or warranty, oral or written, express or implied, made by the Company or its Affiliates or Representatives, except as expressly set forth in Article IV and Article V and the Disclosure Schedules. Neither Seller nor the Company nor any of their Affiliates or Representatives shall have any liability to the Purchaser or any of its Affiliates or Representatives resulting from the use of any information, documents, or materials made available to Purchaser, whether orally or in writing, in any confidential information memoranda, “data rooms”, “virtual data rooms”, management presentations, due diligence discussions or presentations or in any other form in expectation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Neither Seller nor the Company (nor any of their Affiliates or Representatives) is making, directly or indirectly, any representation or warranty with respect to any estimates, projections or forecasts involving the Company and its Subsidiaries, including as contained in any information memorandum and the Confidential Information Presentation. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that there are inherent uncertainties in attempting to make such estimates, projections and forecasts and that it takes full responsibility for making its own evaluation of the adequacy and accuracy of any such estimates, projections or forecasts (including the reasonableness of the assumptions underlying any such estimates, projections or forecasts). Nothing in this Section 6.9 is intended to modify or limit any of the representations or warranties of the Company set forth in Article IV or Seller set forth in Article V. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, nothing in this provision will limit Purchaser’s remedies with respect to fraud.

6.10 Financial Statements and Related Matters. Purchaser has made available to Seller true and complete copies of the Financial Statements and the Interim Financial Statements. The Financial Statements and the Interim Financial Statements (i) present fairly in all material respects the financial position of Purchaser and the results of operations of Purchaser as of the respective dates thereof and for the periods covered thereby and (ii) were prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis throughout the periods covered thereby, subject, in the case of the Interim Financial Statements, to changes resulting from normal immaterial (in the aggregate) year-end adjustments and the absence of footnote disclosures and other presentation items, in each case the effect of which if they were prepared would not be material to Purchaser. Except as set forth in Schedule 6.10, Purchaser has no liabilities of a type required by GAAP to be set forth on a balance sheet of Purchaser, except for (x) liabilities reflected or adequately reserved against in the Interim Financial Statements and (y) liabilities incurred in the Ordinary Course since the Balance Sheet Date (excluding any liability for breach of Contract, breach of warranty, tort, infringement or violation of Laws by Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries). The accounting controls of Purchaser have been and are sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that (1) all material transactions are executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorization and (2) all material transactions are recorded as necessary to permit the accurate preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP and the accounting principles, methods and practices used in preparing the Financial Statements and the Interim Financial Statements and to maintain proper accountability for items.

6.11 Tax Matters. With respect to Tax matters, this Section 6.11 contains the sole and exclusive representations and warranties made by the Purchaser Entities relating to the same. Except as would not have a Material Adverse Effect or as disclosed on Schedule 6.11:

6.11.1 Each of the Purchaser and Merger Sub I and each of their Subsidiaries that are U.S. persons treated as corporations (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes) are all members of the same "qualified group" as defined in Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(d)(4)(ii).

6.11.2 All Tax Returns required to be filed by or with respect to the Purchaser Entities and each of their Subsidiaries have been properly prepared and duly and timely filed (taking into account any valid extensions) and all such Tax Returns (including information provided therewith or with respect thereto) are true, correct, and complete in all respects. The Purchaser Entities and each of their Subsidiaries have fully and timely paid all Taxes due (whether or not shown as due and owing on any such Tax Returns) as of the Closing. Since the Balance Sheet Date, neither the Purchaser Entities nor any of their Subsidiaries have incurred any Tax liabilities other than Tax liabilities incurred in the Ordinary Course.

6.11.3 There are no Tax claims, audits or any other proceedings pending or, to Purchaser's Knowledge, threatened against the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries, and all deficiencies for Taxes asserted or assessed against the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries have been fully and timely paid, settled or properly reflected in the applicable Financial Statements. There are no rulings, subpoenas or requests for information pending with respect to the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries with any Governmental Authority. No Governmental Authority has given written notice of any intention to assert any deficiency or claim for additional Taxes against the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries, and no written claim has been made by any Governmental Authority in a jurisdiction where the Purchaser Entities and each of their Subsidiaries do not file Tax Returns that it is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction.

6.11.4 There are no outstanding agreements extending or waiving the statutory period of limitations applicable to any claim for, or the period for the collection or assessment or reassessment of, Taxes due from the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries for any taxable period and no request for any such waiver or extension is currently pending.

6.11.5 The Purchaser Entities and each of their Subsidiaries have properly withheld and/or timely paid to the appropriate Governmental Authority all Taxes required to have been withheld and/or paid in connection with amounts paid or owing to the Purchaser Entities or any employee, creditor, independent contractor, or other third party for all periods ending on or before the Closing Date in compliance with all Tax withholding and remitting provisions of applicable Laws and have each complied in all respects with all Tax information reporting provisions of all applicable Laws.

6.11.6 Neither the Purchaser Entities nor any of their Subsidiaries are a party to or bound by any Tax Sharing Agreement. The Purchaser has not incurred any liability for the Taxes of any Person under Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6, Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-78, or any similar provision of state, local, or foreign Law, as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise.

6.11.7 Neither the Purchaser Entities nor any of their Subsidiaries have (A) participated in any listed transaction within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.6011-4(b) (or any similar provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law) or (B) taken any reporting position on a Tax Return, which reporting position (i) if not sustained would be reasonably likely, absent disclosure, to give rise to a penalty for substantial understatement of federal income Tax under Section 6662 of the Code (or any similar provision of state, local, or foreign Tax Law) and (ii) has not adequately been disclosed on such Tax Return in accordance with Section 6662(d)(2)(B) of the Code (or any similar provision of state, local, or foreign Tax Law).

6.11.8 Neither the Purchaser Entities nor any of their Subsidiaries have constituted a “distributing corporation” or a “controlled corporation” (within the meaning of Section 355(a)(1)(A) of the Code) in a distribution of shares qualifying for tax-free treatment under Section 355 of the Code (i) in the two years prior to the date of this Agreement or (ii) in a distribution that could otherwise constitute part of a “plan” or “series of related transactions” (within the meaning of Section 355(e) of the Code) in conjunction with this acquisition.

6.11.9 Neither the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries will be required to include in a taxable period ending after the Closing Date, taxable income attributable to income that accrued in a taxable period prior to the Closing Date, but was not recognized for Tax purposes in such prior taxable period (or to exclude from taxable income in a taxable period ending after the Closing Date any deduction the recognition of which was accelerated from such taxable period to a taxable period prior to the Closing Date) as a result of the installment method of accounting, the completed contract method of accounting, the long-term contract method of accounting, the cash method of accounting, Section 481 of the Code or Section 108(i) of the Code or comparable provisions of state, local or foreign Tax Law.

6.11.10 Any adjustment of Taxes of the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries made by the IRS, which adjustment is required to be reported to the appropriate state, local, or foreign Governmental Authorities, has been so reported.

6.11.11 Neither the Purchaser Entities nor any of their Subsidiaries have executed or entered into a closing agreement pursuant to Section 7121 of the Code or any similar provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law, and the Purchaser is not subject to any private letter ruling of the IRS or comparable ruling of any other Governmental Authority.

6.11.12 On or prior to the Closing, the Purchaser Entities and each of their Subsidiaries will have properly and in a timely manner documented its transfer pricing methodology in compliance with Code Sections 482 and 6662 (and any related sections), the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and any comparable provisions of state, local or foreign Tax Law.

6.11.13 There are no Liens with respect to Taxes upon any of the assets or properties of the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries, other than Permitted Liens.

6.12 Compliance with Applicable Laws; Permits. Neither the Purchaser Entities nor any of their Subsidiaries are in material violation of any applicable Law or Order, nor do the Purchaser Entities have Knowledge of the issuance or proposed issuance of any notice by any Governmental Authority of any actual violation or any alleged material violation of any Law or Order, except where any violation or failure to comply with such Laws or Orders would not have a Material Adverse Effect. No Order has been issued by any Governmental Authority which is applicable to, or otherwise affects, the Purchaser Entities or their Subsidiaries or their business or assets, properties or rights that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Neither the Purchaser Entities nor any of their Subsidiaries are in default under any Permit held by the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries, except where any such default would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

6.13 Affiliate Transactions. Except as disclosed on Schedule 6.13, neither the Purchaser nor any current or former Affiliate, officer or director (or the equivalent), equity holder or stockholder of a Purchaser Entity or any of their Subsidiaries or any Affiliate or immediate family member of any of the foregoing is a party to any Contract with the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries having a value in excess of $100,000 per year, other than with respect to the payment of compensation to officers or directors (or the equivalent) in the Ordinary Course and at arm's-length and intercompany transactions among the Purchaser Entities or any of their wholly-owned Subsidiaries. No such Person has any interest in any material property, real or personal or mixed, tangible or intangible, used in or pertaining to the businesses of the Purchaser Entities and their Subsidiaries having a value in excess of $100,000. No such Person owns, directly or indirectly, on an individual or joint basis, any interest in, or serves as an officer (or manager or other equivalent position) or trustee, director, manager, Affiliate, or employee of, any Person that is a seller to, or supplier, lessor, lessee, licensor, or competitor of the Purchaser Entities or any of their Subsidiaries, including any counterparty to any Material Contract.

VII. CERTAIN COVENANTS

7.1 Further Assurances. From time to time, as and when requested by any Party to this Agreement, the other Parties will execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all such documents and instruments and will take, or cause to be taken, all such further or other actions, as the requesting Party may reasonably deem necessary or desirable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, in any such case, at the requesting Party's sole cost and expense.

7.2 Indemnification of Directors and Officers. From the Closing through the sixth (6th) anniversary of the Closing, the Purchaser shall cause the Surviving Company to, and the Surviving Company and its Subsidiaries shall, indemnify, defend and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted under the Laws governing the Company and its Subsidiaries, each person who was or is made a party or threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was at any time prior to the Closing, a director or officer of the Company (each, a "Company Indemnified Person"), against all Damages reasonably incurred or suffered by such Company Indemnified Person in connection therewith, whether claimed prior to, at or after the Closing. The right to indemnification conferred in this Section 7.2 shall include the right to be paid by each of the Surviving Company and its Subsidiaries actual and reasonable expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, promptly after receipt of a written claim therefor accompanied by reasonable supporting documentation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, any advancement of expenses to a Company Indemnified Person hereby shall be conditioned upon receipt from such Company Indemnified Person of an undertaking to repay such amounts if it is ultimately determined in a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that such Company Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified under applicable Law. The limited liability company agreement of the Surviving Company shall contain, and Purchaser shall cause the limited liability company agreement of the Surviving Company to so contain, provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of present and former directors of the Company than are set forth in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Company as of the date of this Agreement. If the Surviving Company or any of its successors or assigns (a) consolidates with or merges with or into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving entity, partnership or other entity of such consolidation or merger or (b) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Company assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.2. Parent and the Surviving Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cause such policy to be maintained in full force and effect, for its full term, and to honor all of its obligations thereunder. Following the Effective Time, the provisions of this Section 7.2 are intended to be for the benefit of, and enforceable by, each Company Indemnified Person and such Company Indemnified Person's estate, heirs and representatives, and nothing herein shall affect any indemnification rights that any Company Indemnified Person or such Company Indemnified Person's estate, heirs and representatives may have under the Organizational Documents of the Company or any Law, any Contract or otherwise.

7.3 Affirmative Obligations. Each of Seller and the Company shall be liable and responsible for any breach of this Section 7.5 by its Affiliates and Representatives.

7.6 Access to Information.

7.8 Regulatory Filings.

7.8.1 Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, from the date of this Agreement to the Closing, or the earlier termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1, each of the Parties shall use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, to file, or cause to be filed, all documents, to give or cause to be given all notices under applicable Laws, to obtain or cause to be obtained all authorizations, consents, waivers, approvals, permits or orders under applicable Laws or from other Persons, and to do or cause to be done all other things necessary, proper or advisable, in order to consummate and make effective as promptly as possible the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In addition, subject to the terms and conditions herein, no Party (nor any of their respective Affiliates) shall take any action after the date hereof without the consent of the other Parties that could reasonably be expected to delay the obtaining of, or result in not obtaining, any authorization, consent, waiver, approval, permit or order from any Governmental Authority or other Person required to be obtained prior to the Closing.

7.8.2 Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each of the Parties shall cause to be filed with the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice, no later than five (5) Business Days following the date hereof, all applicable notification and report forms and accompanying materials required from each Party under the HSR Act (“HSR Filings”) with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and shall request early termination of the waiting period. Subject to applicable Law and reasonable confidentiality considerations, the Parties shall cooperate with each other in the preparation and submission of their respective HSR Filings. Purchaser, or one of its Affiliates, shall pay all administrative filing fees associated with the HSR Filings.

7.8.3 The Parties shall respond as promptly as practicable to any inquiries or requests received from a Governmental Authority for additional information or documentary material relating to the HSR Filings. Each Party shall, subject to the applicable Laws relating to the sharing of information, (a) promptly inform the other party of any communication to or from any Governmental Authority regarding the HSR Filings or the transactions contemplated hereby, (b) give the other party prompt notice of the commencement of any investigation or legal proceeding by or before any Governmental Authority with respect to the HSR Filings or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (c) keep the other party informed as to the status of any such investigation or legal proceeding. Each Party shall provide to the other Parties in advance, with a reasonable opportunity for review and comment, drafts of communications to be submitted to a Governmental Authority in connection with the HSR Filings or relating to the transactions contemplated hereby (other than notification and report forms and Item 4(c) and 4(d) documents), and shall consider in good faith each other’s comments on those drafts; provided, that each Party may, as they deem advisable and necessary, (i) reasonably designate any competitively sensitive material that is provided to the other as “outside counsel only” with any such competitively sensitive material given only to the outside legal counsel of the recipient and not disclosed by such outside counsel to employees, officers or directors of the recipient unless express permission is obtained in advance from the providing party, or (ii) redact any information that is not customarily exchanged between parties in connection with HSR Filings. Each Party shall give the other Parties advance notice of any meeting or conference with a Governmental Authority relating to the HSR Filings or the transactions contemplated hereby and, except as may be prohibited by a Governmental Authority, shall permit authorized representatives of the other Party to be present at those meetings or conferences.

7.8.4 Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company agrees to file a FedRAMP Significant Change Form (using the Significant Change Form Template available at www.fedramp.gov), and any necessary supporting information and documentation, with the Company’s assigned FedRAMP Joint Authorization Board (JAB) members, the Company’s assigned FedRAMP Information System Security Officer (ISSO), and the Defense Information Systems Agency Authorizing Official within five (5) Business Days following the date of execution of this Agreement. The Company will consult with the Purchaser regarding the content of the filings, including providing a copy thereof, before filing the forms. The Company will advise the Purchaser of any questions or comments from the JAB and the Defense Information Systems Agency, and consult with the Purchaser with respect to any responses thereto. With respect to each federal agency where the Company has a Government Contract to provide cloud services, the Company will also notify (a) when the Company is a subcontractor, the applicable prime contractor or (b) when the Company is a prime contractor, the appropriate agency contracting officer and any agency FedRAMP authority to operate official, and advise the Purchaser of any questions or comments from any prime contractor or agency.

7.8.5 Each Party shall use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to effectuate as promptly as practicable the Closing and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Party shall use its reasonable best efforts (a) to obtain all consents, authorizations, approvals, waivers, or clearances required from a Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (b) to prevent, avoid or lift, by litigation or otherwise, any restraint, prohibition, injunction, delay, limitation, or other legal bar to the Closing and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that Purchaser shall not have to agree to any structural or conduct remedy or to litigate.

7.9 Employees and Employee Benefit Plans.

7.9.1 For one (1) year following the Closing Date, Purchaser shall provide or cause to be provided to all employees as of the Closing Date who continue to be employed (the “Continuing Employees”) (i) a rate of base salary, wages, and bonus or commission opportunity (and for the avoidance of doubt, excluding any equity or equity-based compensation) that is not less favorable in the aggregate than the rate of base salary, wages, and bonus or commission opportunity paid by the Company or its Affiliates immediately prior to the Closing Date, and (ii) health and welfare benefits that are either substantially similar in the aggregate to the health and welfare benefits provided by the Company or its Affiliates immediately prior to the Closing Date or substantially similar in the aggregate to the health and welfare benefits provided by Purchaser and its Affiliates to their employees generally who are similarly situated to such Continuing Employees, in the sole discretion of Purchaser.

7.9.2 Following the Closing Date, Purchaser shall, or shall cause its applicable Affiliate to, undertake commercially reasonable efforts to provide that (i) no limitations or exclusions as to pre-existing conditions, evidence of insurability or good health, waiting periods or actively-at-work exclusions or other limitations or restrictions on coverage are applicable to any Continuing Employees or their dependents or beneficiaries under any welfare benefit plans in which such Continuing Employees or their dependents or beneficiaries may be eligible to participate and (ii) any costs or expenses incurred by Continuing Employees (and their dependents or beneficiaries) up to (and including) the Closing Date shall be taken into account for purposes of satisfying applicable deductible, co-payment, coinsurance, maximum out-of-pocket provisions and like adjustments or limitations on coverage under any such welfare benefit plans for the year in which the Closing Date occurs.

7.9.3 With respect to each employee benefit plan, policy or practice, including severance, vacation and paid time off plans, policies or practices, sponsored or maintained by Purchaser or its Affiliates (including the Company following the Closing) (each, a “Surviving Company Plan”), only to the extent such Surviving Company Plan is made available to a Continuing Employee at or after the Closing Date, Purchaser shall grant, or cause to be granted to, all Continuing Employees from and after the Closing Date credit for all service with the Company and its predecessors prior to the Closing Date for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting credit, eligibility to commence benefits, benefit accrual and severance, but excluding benefit accrual under any defined benefit pension plan and any such credit that would result in a duplication of benefits.

7.9.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, this Section 7.9 will not be deemed to (i) guarantee employment for any period of time for, or preclude the ability of Purchaser, the Surviving Company or any of their respective Affiliates to terminate any Continuing Employee for any reason; (ii) require Purchaser, the Surviving Company or any of their respective Affiliates to continue any Plan or any employee benefit plan of Purchaser, the Surviving Company or any of their respective Affiliates or prevent the amendment, modification or termination thereof after the Closing; (iii) be deemed or construed to be an amendment or other modification of any Plan or Surviving Company Plan or be deemed or construed to establish any Plan or Surviving Company Plan; or (iv) create any third party beneficiary rights in any Person.

7.10 Code Section 280G Approval. The Company and its applicable Affiliates shall, no later than three (3) days prior to the Closing Date, (a) use their best efforts to secure from each Person who has a right to any payments and/or benefits or potential right to any payments and/or benefits (including, without limitation, under any Plan) that could be deemed to constitute “parachute payments” (within the meaning of Code Section 280G) a waiver, subject to the approval described in clause (b), of such Person's rights to all of such parachute payments that are in excess of three times such Person's "base amount" (within the meaning of Code Section 280G) less one dollar (the "Waived 280G Benefits") and (b) solicit the approval of the equityholders of the Company or its Affiliates, as applicable, to the extent and in the manner required under Code Section 280G(b)(5)(B) and the regulations promulgated thereunder, of any Waived 280G Benefits. Any of the Waived 280G Benefits which fail to be approved by the equityholders of the Company or its Affiliates, as applicable, as contemplated above shall not be made or provided. Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Purchaser (and Purchaser's legal counsel) evidence that votes of the Seller, as the Company's sole stockholder, or the equityholders of its applicable Affiliates, were solicited in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.10 and that either (i) the requisite vote was obtained with respect to the Waived 280G Benefits (the "280G Approval") or (ii) that the 280G Approval was not obtained and, as a consequence, the Waived 280G Benefits have not been and shall not be made or provided. No less than three (3) days prior to distributing any material relating to such vote (including any waivers, consents or disclosure statements), the Company shall provide Purchaser with drafts of such materials (which shall be subject to Purchaser's reasonable review and comment) along with its Code Section 280G analysis. Nothing in this Section 7.10 shall be construed as requiring any specific outcome to the vote described herein.

7.11 Financing.

7.11.1 Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Purchaser will not permit any amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any provision or remedy pursuant to, the Debt Commitment Letter (or the related fee letter) if such amendment, modification or waiver would reasonably be expected to (i) reduce the aggregate amount available under the Debt Commitment Letter; (ii) impose new or additional conditions precedent to the availability of the Debt Financing or otherwise expand, amend or modify any of the conditions to the receipt of the Debt Financing or any other terms to the Debt Financing in a manner that would reasonably be expected to (A) materially delay or prevent the Closing; or (B) materially delay or prevent the funding of the Debt Financing, or the satisfaction of the conditions to obtaining the Debt Financing; or (iii) materially adversely impact the ability of Borrower to enforce its rights against the other parties to the Debt Commitment Letter (it being understood that Borrower may amend the Debt Commitment Letter to add lenders, lead arrangers, bookrunners, syndication agents or other similar entities who had not executed the Debt Commitment Letter as of the date of this Agreement). Any reference in this Agreement to (1) the "Debt Financing" will include the financing contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter as amended or modified in compliance with this Section 7.11.1; and (2) "Debt Commitment Letter" will include such document as amended or modified in compliance with this Section 7.11.1.

7.11.2 Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Purchaser will use its reasonable best efforts to take (or cause to be taken) all actions and to do (or cause to be done) all things necessary, proper and advisable to arrange and obtain the Debt Financing on the terms and conditions (including, to the extent required, the full exercise of any "flex" provisions) described in the Debt Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter (or on other terms that, with respect to conditionality, are not less favorable to Borrower than the terms and conditions (including any "flex" provisions) set forth in the Debt Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter), including using its reasonable best efforts to (i) maintain in effect the Debt Commitment Letter in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions thereof; (ii) negotiate, execute and deliver definitive agreements with respect to the Debt Financing contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter on the terms and conditions (which may include the "flex" provisions) contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter and the related Fee Letter (or on other terms that, with respect to conditionality, are not less favorable to Borrower than the terms and conditions (including any "flex" provisions) set forth in the Debt Commitment Letter); (iii) satisfy on a timely basis all conditions to funding that are applicable to Borrower in the Debt Commitment Letter that are within Borrower's control (or, if deemed advisable by Borrower, seek the waiver of conditions applicable to Borrower contained in the Debt Commitment Letter); (iv) consummate the Debt Financing at or prior to the Closing, including using its reasonable best efforts to cause the Financing Sources to fund the Debt Financing at the Closing; (v) comply with Borrower's obligations pursuant to the Debt Commitment Letter; and (vi) enforce Borrower's rights pursuant to the Debt Commitment Letter. Borrower will fully pay, or cause to be fully paid, all commitment or other fees arising pursuant to the Debt Commitment Letter as and when they become due.

7.11.3 If at any time any portion of the Debt Financing terminates or otherwise becomes unavailable, Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to arrange for and to obtain as promptly as practicable following any such event alternative financing ("Alternative Financing") on similar terms and conditions as those contained in the Debt Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter in an amount sufficient, when added to the portion of the Debt Financing that is available, together with available cash of Purchaser and its Subsidiaries, the borrowings available under the Borrower's existing revolving credit facility and available cash of the Company and its Subsidiaries, to pay the Required Amount and, for the purposes of this Agreement, all references to the Debt Financing shall be deemed to include such Alternative Financing, all references to the Debt Commitment Letter shall include the applicable documents for the Alternative Financing and all references to the lenders shall include the Persons providing or arranging the Alternative Financing; it being understood that if Purchaser enters into a commitment letter with respect to any Alternative Financing, Purchaser shall be subject to the same obligations with respect to such Alternative Financing as set forth in this Agreement with respect to the Debt Financing.

7.11.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, nothing contained in this Section 7.11 will require, and in no event will the reasonable best efforts of Purchaser be deemed or construed to require, Purchaser or Borrower to pay any material fees in excess of those contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter (including the "flex" terms thereof).

7.12 Cooperation.

7.12.1 Prior to the Effective Time, each of Seller and the Company will use its reasonable best efforts, and will cause each of the Company's Subsidiaries to use its respective reasonable best efforts, to provide Purchaser and Borrower with all cooperation reasonably requested by Purchaser or Borrower to assist them in causing the conditions in the Debt Commitment Letter to be satisfied or as is otherwise reasonably requested by Purchaser or Borrower in connection with obtaining the Debt Financing, including:

(a) prior to and during the Marketing Period, participating (and causing senior management and Representatives of the Company to participate) in a reasonable number of meetings, calls, presentations, due diligence sessions (including accounting due diligence sessions), drafting sessions and sessions with rating agencies, otherwise cooperating with the marketing efforts for any of the Debt Financing and assisting Purchaser and Borrower in obtaining updated ratings as contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter;

(b) assisting Purchaser, Borrower and the Financing Sources with the timely preparation of customary rating agency presentations, bank information memoranda, lender presentations and similar documents required in connection with the Debt Financing;

(c) solely with respect to financial information and data derived from the Company's historical books and records, assisting Purchaser and Borrower with the preparation of pro forma financial information and pro forma financial statements to the extent necessary or reasonably required by Purchaser, Borrower or the Financing Sources, it being agreed that the Company will not be required to provide any information or assistance relating to (A) the proposed aggregate amount of debt financing, together with assumed interest rates, dividends (if any) and fees and expenses relating to the incurrence of such debt financing; (B) any post-Closing or pro forma cost savings, synergies, capitalization, ownership or other pro forma adjustments desired to be incorporated into any information used in connection with the Debt Financing; or (C) any financial information related to Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries or any adjustments that are not directly related to the acquisition of the Company by Purchaser;

(d) executing and delivering (but not prior to the Closing) any pledge and security documents, guarantees, supplemental indentures, currency or interest hedging arrangements, other definitive financing documents, or other certificates or documents as may be reasonably requested by Purchaser, Borrower or the Financing Sources and otherwise reasonably facilitating the pledging of collateral and the granting of security interests in respect of the Debt Financing, it being understood that such documents will not take effect until the Effective Time;

(e) (A) furnishing Purchaser, Borrower, the Financing Sources and their respective Representatives with the Required Financing Information and (B) informing Purchaser and Borrower if the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, treasurer or controller of the Company or any member of the Company Board shall have knowledge of any facts as a result of which a restatement of any financial statements to comply with GAAP is probable;

(f) upon reasonable request of Purchaser or Borrower, assisting Purchaser and Borrower to obtain updated customary and reasonable corporate and facilities ratings (but no specific rating), consents, landlord waivers and estoppels, non-disturbance agreements, environmental assessments, that do not unreasonably interfere with the Company's business and operations, customary legal opinions, surveys and title insurance;

(g) (A) deliver notices of prepayment (which may be delivered at Purchaser's request in advance of the Closing Date so long as they are contingent upon the occurrence of the Closing) within the time periods reasonably requested by Purchaser, in its discretion, as permitted by the First Lien Credit Agreement and the Second Lien Credit Agreement, as applicable, and take any actions at or prior to the Effective Time reasonably requested by Purchaser or Borrower to facilitate any such prepayment (it being understood and agreed that any prepayment is (and shall be) contingent upon the occurrence of the Closing and no actions shall be required which would obligate the Company or its subsidiaries to complete such prepayment prior to the occurrence of the Closing); and (B) arrange for customary payoff letters, lien terminations and instruments and acknowledgements of discharge (the "Debt Payoff Letters") to be delivered to Purchaser prior to the Closing Date (it being understood and agreed that reasonable best efforts will be used to deliver such documents to Purchaser no later than two (2) Business Days prior to the Closing Date) (with drafts being delivered in advance as reasonably requested by Purchaser), and giving any other necessary notices, to allow for the payoff, discharge and termination in full at the Closing of all amounts outstanding under the First Lien Credit Agreement and Second Lien Credit Agreement contemplated by Purchaser to be repaid at the Closing;

(h) providing authorization letters to the Financing Sources authorizing the distribution of information to prospective lenders or investors and containing a customary representation to the Financing Sources contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter, including that the public side versions of such documents do not include material non-public information about the Company or its Subsidiaries or their respective securities and the accuracy of the information regarding the Company or its Subsidiaries contained in the disclosure and marketing materials related to the Debt Financing; provided that such authorization letters shall exclude those items which the Company is not required to provide any information or assistance relating to pursuant to clause (c) above;

(i) cause its independent auditors to provide (i) consents for use of their reports in any material relating to the Debt Financing as reasonably requested by Purchaser, Borrower or the Financing Sources, to the extent such consent is required, and (ii) reasonable assistance to Purchaser and Borrower in connection with the Borrower's preparation of pro forma financial statements and information;

(j) taking all corporate and other actions, subject to the occurrence of the Closing, reasonably requested by Purchaser and Borrower to permit the consummation of the Debt Financing; and

(k) promptly furnishing Purchaser, Borrower and the Financing Sources within two (2) Business Days of any requests with all documentation and other information about the Company and its Subsidiaries as is reasonably requested by Purchaser relating to applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations.

7.12.2 Prior to the Closing Date, the Company will use its reasonable best efforts, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries and Representatives to use their reasonable best efforts (although Purchaser explicitly acknowledges that even with such reasonable best efforts, the actions contemplated by clause (iii) of this Section 7.12.2 may not be complete as of the Closing), (i) to have the Interim Financial Statements reviewed by the Company's independent auditors as provided in SAS 100 (a/k/a AICPA AU-C 930), (ii) to furnish to Purchaser within 45 days after the end of any fiscal quarter ended after the date of this Agreement that is not a fiscal year end, the unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of the end of such quarter and the related unaudited consolidated statements of income, cash flows and changes in stockholders equity for such quarter and the then-elapsed portion of the fiscal year and the same periods for the prior fiscal year (which will have been reviewed by the Company's independent auditors as provided in SAS 100 (a/k/a AICPA AU-C 930) and (iii) in addition, at the sole expense of the Purchaser as contemplated by Section 7.12.6 below, (A) to have the Financial Statements prepared in accordance with SEC Regulation S-X and to have such Financial Statements be re-audited by the Company's independent auditors in accordance with AICPA Professional Standards and (B) to have the Interim Financial Statements and the financial statements for any fiscal quarter ended after the date of this Agreement that is not fiscal year end (which shall include a consolidated balance sheet, and consolidated statements of income, cash flows and changes in stockholders equity for such quarter and the then-elapsed portion of the fiscal year and the same periods for the prior fiscal year) prepared in accordance with SEC Regulation S-X and to have such Interim Financial Statements and such other financial statements reviewed by the Company's independent auditors as provided in SAS 100 (a/k/a AICPA AU-C 930).

7.12.3 Nothing in this Section 7.12 will require the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to (i) waive or amend any terms of this Agreement or agree to pay any fees or expenses prior to the Effective Time for which it will not receive reimbursement or is not otherwise indemnified by or on behalf of Purchaser; (ii) enter into any definitive agreement that is not contingent on the occurrence of the Effective Time; (iii) give any indemnities in connection with the Debt Financing that are effective prior to the Effective Time; or (iv) take any action that, in the good faith determination of the Company, (a) would unreasonably interfere with the conduct of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries or (b) create an unreasonable risk of damage or destruction to any property or assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. In addition, no action, liability or obligation of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives pursuant to any certificate, agreement, arrangement, document or instrument relating to the Debt Financing (other than customary representation letters and authorization letters (including with respect to the presence or absence of material non-public information and the accuracy of the information contained in the disclosure and marketing materials related to the Debt Financing)) will be effective until the Effective Time.

7.12.4 The Company will use its reasonable best efforts, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to use its respective reasonable best efforts, to update any Required Financing Information provided to Purchaser, Borrower or the Financing Sources as may be necessary so that such Required Financing Information (i) is Compliant, (ii) meets the applicable requirements set forth in the definition of “Required Financing Information” and (iii) would not, after giving effect to such update(s), cause the Marketing Period to cease pursuant to the definition of “Marketing Period.” For the avoidance of doubt, Purchaser or Borrower may, to most effectively access the financing markets, require the cooperation of the Company and its Subsidiaries under this Section 7.12 at any time, and from time to time and on multiple occasions, between the date hereof and the Closing Date; provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Marketing Period shall not be applicable as to each attempt to access the markets. In addition, if, in connection with marketing effort contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter, Purchaser or Borrower reasonably requests the Company to make available to its security holders and lenders material non-public information with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries, which Purchaser reasonably determines to include in marketing materials for the Debt Financing, then, upon the Company’s review of and reasonable satisfaction with such information, the Company shall make such information available to its security holders and lenders.

7.12.5 The Company hereby consents to the use of its and its Subsidiaries’ logos in connection with the Debt Financing so long as such logos are used (i) solely in a manner that is not intended to or likely to harm or disparage the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or the reputation or goodwill of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; (ii) solely in connection with a description of the Company, its business and products or the Merger; and (iii) in a manner consistent with the other terms and conditions that the Company reasonably imposes.

7.12.6 Promptly upon request by the Company, Purchaser will reimburse the Company for any documented and reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including attorneys’ fees) incurred by the Company or its Subsidiaries in connection with the cooperation of the Company and its Subsidiaries contemplated by this Section 7.12.

7.12.7 The Company, its Subsidiaries and its and their respective Representatives will be indemnified and held harmless by Purchaser from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs, expenses (including attorneys’ fees), interest, awards, judgments, penalties and amounts paid in settlement suffered or incurred by them in connection with their cooperation in arranging the Debt Financing pursuant to this Agreement or the provision of information utilized in connection therewith (other than to the extent any of the foregoing was suffered or incurred as a result of the material breach of this Agreement by, or the bad faith, gross negligence, willful misconduct of, the Company or its Subsidiaries or, in each case, their respective Representatives).

7.13 Non-Solicitation; Release.

7.13.1 During the period beginning on the date hereof and ending on the two (2) year anniversary of the Closing Date, Seller and each of the Key Stockholders agrees, on behalf of themselves and their respective Affiliates (which for purposes hereunder shall not include any direct or indirect portfolio companies of any Key Stockholder or any of their Affiliates; provided, that such portfolio companies or Affiliates are not taking actions of the type prohibited hereunder at the direction of, or on behalf of, such Key Stockholder) (each a “Restricted Person,” and collectively the “Seller Group”) that it shall not, without the prior written consent of the Purchaser, either alone or in conjunction with their respective Affiliates or Representatives, directly or indirectly (i) induce or attempt to induce any employee, officer, director, manager or other fiduciary of the Company, the Purchaser or their Subsidiaries to leave the employ or service of the Company, the Purchaser or any of their Subsidiaries, or (ii) hire any Person who was an employee, officer, director, manager or other fiduciary of the Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries at any time during the six (6) month period prior to the Closing Date; provided, that the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall not prohibit general solicitation (but shall continue to prohibit the hiring of Persons who respond to such solicitations) by any member of the Seller Group through ads in newspapers, trade periodicals, online sites relating to employment matters or any other similar solicitation (or other solicitations directed at the public, or segments of the public, in general), or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, vendor, service provider, licensee, licensor, lessor, or other business relation of the Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries or the Restricted Business to cease doing business with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or in any way materially and adversely interfere with the relationship between any such customer, supplier, vendor, service provider, licensee, licensor, lessor, franchisee or other business relation and the Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries (including making any negative statements or communications about the Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries or the Restricted Business); provided, that the restrictions in this clause (iii) shall not prohibit the ordinary course solicitation of any of the foregoing for purposes of a business that is not a Restricted Business, so long as such solicitation is not designed or intended to interfere with the Restricted Business.

7.13.2 Each member of the Seller Group recognizes and acknowledges that the territorial, time, line of business and other scope provisions set forth in this Section 7.13 are reasonable and are properly required for the protection of the Purchaser's legitimate interest in client relationships, goodwill and trade secrets of the business being acquired by the Purchaser in connection with the transactions contemplated herein. In the event that any such territorial, time, line of business or scope provision is deemed to be unreasonable, against public policy or otherwise unenforceable as written by a court of competent jurisdiction, the Purchaser and each member of the Seller Group agree, and each submits, to such court's alteration, amendment or reduction of any or all of said territorial, time or scope limitations so as to make such provisions be valid and enforceable to the maximum extent compatible with the Law of such jurisdiction (giving maximum effect to this Section 7.13 as drafted to the extent compatible with such Law), such amendment only to apply with respect to the operation of such provision in the applicable jurisdiction in which such adjudication is made. If such partial enforcement is not possible, the provision shall be deemed severed, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

7.13.3 Each member of the Seller Group hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waives and discharges any and all Actions that such Person has or may have in the future against the Purchaser, its Subsidiaries and their respective Affiliates relating to any period on or prior to the Closing and releases, on its own behalf and on behalf of its successors and assigns, the Purchaser, its Subsidiaries and their respective Affiliates, directors, managers, officers, other fiduciaries, employees, agents, attorneys, heirs, assigns, executors and administrators, with respect thereto; provided, that such release and discharge does not include Actions arising under this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement.

7.14 Change of Name. Within five (5) Business Days after the Closing Date, Seller will change its name to "DPH 123, LLC", or another name that cannot reasonably be confused with Purchaser's or Subsidiaries' names, by filing a certificate of amendment with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and by taking all other action necessary to effect such change, including, without limitation, amending its other Organizational Documents. Immediately following the Closing, Seller and its Affiliates shall cease the use of any products, materials or names bearing or incorporating the names "Datapipe". In no event shall Seller use any name after the Closing in a manner likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or to deceive as to the affiliation, connection or association of Seller.

7.15 Consents. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, from the date of this Agreement to the Closing, or the earlier termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1, the Company and its Subsidiaries shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain, and Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain evidence, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser, that the Company or the applicable Subsidiary has obtained the consent of each counterparty to a Material Contract set forth on Schedule 7.15. Without limiting the foregoing, Purchaser agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Company and its Subsidiaries in obtaining the consent of each counterparty to a Capital Lease Obligation which requires a consent on or prior to the Closing in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

7.16 Management Consulting Agreement. Prior to the Closing, Purchaser and Seller agree to negotiate in good faith a mutually satisfactory agreement for management consulting services that will be provided to Purchaser or its Affiliates in exchange for fees to be agreed; provided, that neither Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates shall have any obligation to enter into any such agreement if the prospective parties to such agreement fail to reach mutually agreeable terms.

VIII. TAX MATTERS

8.1 Transfer Taxes. All transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration, value added, excise, real property transfer or gains, and other such similar Taxes (including any penalties and interest) incurred as a result of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement (collectively, "Transfer Taxes"), will be borne and paid fifty percent (50%) by the Purchaser and fifty percent (50%) by the Seller. Each of the Parties hereto shall fully cooperate with each other Party to determine prior to Closing the amount of transfer Taxes (if any), and with respect to the preparation and filing of any such Tax Returns and other filings relating to any such Transfer Taxes as may be required.

8.2 Tax Reporting. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger and the Subsequent Merger, taken together as an integrated transaction, are intended to constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and none of the Parties shall take any position inconsistent with such treatment except as otherwise required by Law or a good faith resolution of an Action. Each of the Parties shall reasonably cooperate, and take all reasonable actions, or reasonably refrain from taking any action, as applicable, to ensure that the Merger and the Subsequent Merger, taken together as an integrated transaction, constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. For the avoidance of doubt, an action or the refraining from taking an action shall not be considered reasonable to the extent it would (i) reasonably be expected to result in a material cost to or otherwise adversely affect the Purchaser or any of its Affiliates or Subsidiaries (including the Company), (ii) alter or change the amount or kind of the consideration ultimately to be issued to the Seller or (iii) have the effect of materially delaying, impairing or impeding the receipt of any regulatory approvals or the Debt Financing required hereby or the Closing. The parties to this Agreement hereby adopt this Agreement as a "plan of reorganization" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-2(g).

IX. CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

9.1 Conditions to Obligations of Purchaser Entities at the Closing. The obligations of the Purchaser Entities to consummate the Closing are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions. Any condition specified in this Section 9.1 may be waived if consented to in writing by Purchaser.

9.1.1 Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Company and Seller. (a) Each of the Seller Fundamental Representations and the representation set forth in Section 4.7(b) shall be true and correct in all respects at and as of the Closing (as if made on and as of the Closing), (b) the representations set forth in the second sentence of Section 4.5 shall be true and correct in all material respects (disregarding any qualification in the text of the relevant representation or warranty as to “materiality” or “Material Adverse Effect”), and (c) each of the representations and warranties of the Company and Seller made in this Agreement other than those set forth in clauses (a) and (b) of this Section 9.1.1 shall be true and correct as of the Closing (as if made on and as of the Closing), except to the extent that the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or Seller (disregarding any qualification in the text of the relevant representation or warranty as to “materiality” or “Material Adverse Effect”); (d) the Seller shall, and shall have caused the Company to, have performed and complied in all material respects with all terms, agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement required to be performed or complied with by the Seller or the Company on or before the Closing Date; and (e) the Seller shall have delivered to the Purchaser a certificate dated the Closing Date, confirming the satisfaction of the conditions contained in Sections 9.1.1 (Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Company and the Seller) and 9.1.6 (Material Adverse Effect).

9.1.2 No Injunction, Etc. No provision of any applicable Law, any Order or Action shall be in effect that prohibits or restricts the consummation of the Closing or would declare all or any part of the transactions contemplated herein unlawful or would cause any part of such transactions to be rescinded.

9.1.3 No Actions. No Actions challenging this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements or seeking to prohibit the Closing, shall have been instituted by any Governmental Authority and be pending. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, solely for purposes of this Section 9.1.3, an objection, communication or other response by a Governmental Authority in response to or resulting from the filing of the FedRAMP Significant Change Form shall not constitute an Action.

9.1.4 Ancillary Agreements. Each of the Ancillary Agreements shall have been executed and delivered by the Company and Seller, if applicable.

9.1.5 Governmental Approvals. All waiting periods (including any extensions thereof) applicable under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated, and thirty (30) days shall have elapsed since the Company delivered the FedRAMP Notice to the applicable Governmental Authority.

9.1.6 Material Adverse Effect. Since the date hereof, there shall not have occurred, nor shall there be occurring, any Material Adverse Effect on the Company or Seller.

9.1.7 FIRPTA Certificate. The Seller shall have delivered to Purchaser at the Closing a certificate or certificates, in compliance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.1445-2, certifying that the transactions contemplated hereby are exempt from withholding under Section 1445 of the Code.

9.1.8 Management Consents. Seller, as sole stockholder of the Company, shall have executed and delivered (and not withdrawn or revoked) the consent to the adoption of this Agreement and approval of the transaction contemplated herein in accordance with the DGCL and the Company’s Organizational Documents.

9.2 Conditions to Obligations of Seller at the Closing. The obligations of Seller to consummate the Closing are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions. Any condition specified in this Section 9.2 may be waived if consented to in writing by Seller.

9.2.1 Representations, Warranties, and Covenants of Purchaser Entities. (a) Each of the Purchaser Fundamental Representations and the representation set forth in Section 6.7 shall be true and correct in all respects at and as of the Closing (as if made on and as of the Closing), (b) the representations set forth in the second sentence of Section 6.10 shall be true and correct in all material respects (disregarding any qualification in the text of the relevant representation or warranty as to “materiality” or “Material Adverse Effect”), and (c) each of the representations and warranties of the Purchaser Entities made in this Agreement other than those set forth in clauses (a) and (b) of this Section 9.2.1 shall be true and correct as of the Closing (as if made on and as of the Closing), except to the extent that the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Purchaser Material Adverse Effect (disregarding any qualification in the text of the relevant representation or warranty as to “materiality” or “Material Adverse Effect”); (d) Purchaser shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all terms, agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement required to be performed or complied with by Purchaser on or before the Closing Date; and (e) the Purchaser shall have delivered to the Seller a certificate dated the Closing Date, confirming the satisfaction of the conditions contained in Sections 9.2.1 (Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Purchaser Entities) and 9.2.6 (Material Adverse Effect).

9.2.2 No Injunction, Etc. No provision of any applicable Law, any Order or Action shall be in effect that prohibits or restricts the consummation of the Closing or would declare all or any part of the transactions contemplated herein unlawful or would cause any part of such transactions to be rescinded.

9.2.3 Ancillary Agreements. Each of the Ancillary Agreements to which Purchaser is a party shall have been executed and delivered by Purchaser or its designee.

9.2.4 No Actions. No Actions challenging this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements or seeking to prohibit the Closing, shall have been instituted by any Governmental Authority and be pending.

9.2.5 Government Approvals. All waiting periods (including any extensions thereof) applicable under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated.

9.2.6 Material Adverse Effect. From the date hereof, there shall not have occurred, nor shall there be occurring, any Material Adverse Effect on Purchaser.

X. SURVIVAL; INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Survival of Representations. Other than the Seller Fundamental Representations, none of the representations or warranties contained in this Agreement or any schedule, instrument or other document delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Closing Date or the termination of this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained in Sections 4.1 (Existence and Qualification), 4.2 (Authorization; Enforceability), 4.3.1(a) (Non-Contravention), 4.4 (Capitalization), 4.19 (Finders’ Fees), 5.1 (Organization), 5.2 (Authorization; Enforceability), 5.3 (Title to Interests) and 5.4.1 (Non-Contravention; Consents), 5.6 (Finders’ Fees), 5.8 (ABRY Stockholder Payments) and 11.18 (Key Stockholders) (collectively, the “Seller Fundamental Representations”) shall survive the Closing and shall remain in full force and effect until the date that is the seven (7) year anniversary of the Closing Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any claims asserted in good faith with reasonable specificity (to the extent known at such time) and in writing by notice from the Indemnified Party to the Indemnifying Party prior to the expiration date of the applicable survival period shall not thereafter be barred by the expiration of the relevant representation, warranty, covenant or agreement and such claims shall survive until finally resolved. All covenants and agreements of the Company, Seller and their respective Affiliates contained herein shall survive the Closing indefinitely or for the period explicitly specified therein.

10.2 Indemnification by Seller.

10.2.1 Subject to the terms and conditions of this Article X, from and after (and contingent on) the Closing, the Seller shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Purchaser and its Affiliates, the Company and its Subsidiaries, and their respective equity owners, directors, managers, officers, employees and Representatives (and each of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of the foregoing) (collectively, all of the foregoing the “Purchaser Indemnified Parties”) against any and all Damages incurred or suffered by the Purchaser Indemnified Parties to the extent resulting from:

(a) any inaccuracy in or breach of any of the Seller Fundamental Representations contained in this Agreement or in any certificate or instrument (solely with respect to such Seller Fundamental Representations) delivered by or on behalf of the Company or Seller pursuant to this Agreement (it being understood that both for purposes of determining the amount of any Damages and for purposes of determining whether such representation or warranty has been breached, such representations and warranties shall be interpreted, in each case, without giving effect to any limitations or qualifications as to materiality as set forth therein (which shall be deemed to be deleted therefrom)) as of the date such representation or warranty was made or as if such representation or warranty was made on and as of the Closing Date (except for representations and warranties that expressly relate to a specified date, the inaccuracy in or breach of which will be determined with reference to such specified date);

(b) any breach or non-fulfillment of any covenant, agreement or obligation to be performed by the Company or Seller pursuant to this Agreement; and

(c) any Damages resulting from a breach of Section 4.8.3.

10.3 Limitations on Indemnification of the Purchaser Indemnified Parties. In no event shall the Seller’s aggregate liability pursuant to Section 10.2.1 exceed the value of the Closing Equity Consideration (determined at Closing) received by the Seller.

10.4 [Reserved].

10.5 Indemnification Procedures.

10.5.1 If any Person who or which is entitled to seek indemnification under Section 10.2 (an “Indemnified Party”) receives notice of the assertion or commencement of any Third Party Claim against such Indemnified Party with respect to which the Person against whom or which such indemnification is being sought (an “Indemnifying Party”) may be obligated to provide indemnification or advancement of fees and expenses under this Agreement, the Indemnified Party will give such Indemnifying Party reasonably prompt written notice thereof; provided, however, that if the Indemnified Party receives a complaint, petition, or any other pleading in connection with a Third Party Claim which requires the filing of an answer or other responsive pleading, the Indemnified Party shall, to the extent not legally prohibited by any applicable Law, furnish the Indemnifying Party with a copy of such pleading at least thirty (30) days prior to the date a responsive pleading thereto is required to be filed (or promptly upon receipt by the Indemnified Party, if the Indemnified Party receives such complaint, petition or other pleading within such thirty (30) day period). Such notice by the Indemnified Party will describe the Third Party Claim in reasonable detail, will include copies of all available material written evidence thereof and will indicate the estimated amount, if reasonably practicable, of the Damages that have been or may be sustained by the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party will have the right to participate in the defense of such Third Party Claim at the Indemnifying Party's expense, or at its option (subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 10.5.1) to assume the defense thereof by appointing a recognized and reputable counsel (such counsel to be reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party) to be the lead counsel in connection with such defense; provided, however, that:

(a) The Indemnifying Party must give the Indemnified Party written notice of its election to assume control of the defense of the Third Party Claim within ten (10) days of the Indemnifying Party's receipt of notice of the Third Party Claim, and such notice shall contain confirmation that the Indemnifying Party has agreed to indemnify the Indemnified Party for the Damages arising out of or resulting from such Third Party Claim.

(b) The Indemnified Party shall be entitled to participate in the defense of the Third Party Claim and to employ a recognized and reputable counsel of its choice for such purpose; provided, however, that the fees and expenses of such separate counsel shall be borne by the Indemnified Party, except that (i) the Indemnifying Party shall pay any reasonable fees and expenses of such separate counsel that are incurred prior to the date the Indemnifying Party effectively assumes control of such defense and (ii) if in the advice of counsel to the Indemnified Party, (A) there are legal defenses available to an Indemnified Party that are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party; or (B) there exists a conflict of interest between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party that cannot be waived, the Indemnifying Party shall be liable for the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel to the Indemnified Party in each jurisdiction for which the Indemnified Party determines in its reasonable discretion that counsel is required. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, no Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to assume or control the defense or prosecution of such Third Party Claim if (A) substantially all of the damages associated with such Third Party Claim are not reasonably expected to be indemnifiable hereunder (including in the event the amount in dispute is reasonably likely to exceed the maximum amount for which the Indemnifying Party can then be liable pursuant to this Article X in light of the limitations on indemnification contained herein), (B) at the time of assumption and thereafter, the Indemnifying Party fails to conduct the investigation, defense or prosecution actively and diligently, (C) such claim seeks non-monetary, equitable or injunctive relief or alleges any violation of criminal Law or (D) the Indemnifying Party is also a party to such Third Party Claim and the Indemnified Party determines in good faith after consultation with counsel that joint representation would be inappropriate due to one or more legal defenses being available to such Indemnified Party that are different or additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party. In such circumstances, the Indemnified Party may, subject to Section 10.5.3, pay, compromise, and defend such Third Party Claim and seek indemnification and advancement of fees and expenses for any and all Damages based upon, arising from or relating to such Third Party Claim. Purchaser and Seller shall cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects in connection with the defense of any Third Party Claim, including making available records relating to such Third Party Claim and furnishing, without expense (other than reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket expenses) to the defending party, management employees of the non-defending party as may be reasonably necessary for the preparation of the defense of such Third Party Claim.

10.5.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Indemnifying Party shall not enter into settlement, compromise or discharge of any Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, except as provided in this Section 10.5.2. If a firm offer is made to settle a Third Party Claim that (i)(A) involves the payment of money only, without leading to liability or the creation of a financial or other obligation on the part of the Indemnified Party and provides, as a condition precedent, a full and final legally binding release of all liabilities in respect of such claims given by the claimant in question to each Indemnified Party and its respective Affiliates, (B) does not impose on any Indemnified Party or its Affiliates any continuing obligation and (C) would not reasonably be expected to have a future adverse effect on the results of operations or financial condition of any Indemnified Party or its affiliates and (ii) does not require any Indemnified Party or its affiliates to (A) admit any wrongdoing or liability or acknowledge any rights of any Person, (B) take or refrain from taking any action or (C) waive any rights unrelated to the Third Party Claim that the Indemnified Party may have against the Person making the Third Party Claim, and the Indemnifying Party desires to accept and agree to such offer, the Indemnifying Party shall give written notice to that effect to the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnified Party fails to consent to such firm offer within fifteen (15) days after its receipt of such notice, the Indemnified Party may continue to contest or defend such Third Party Claim and in such event, the maximum liability of the Indemnifying Party as to such Third Party Claim shall not exceed the amount of such settlement offer. If the Indemnified Party fails to consent to such firm offer and also fails to assume defense of such Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party may settle the Third Party Claim upon the terms set forth in such firm offer to settle such Third Party Claim. If the Indemnified Party has assumed the defense pursuant to Section 10.5.1, it shall not agree to any settlement without the written consent of the Indemnifying Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

10.5.3 Any claim by an Indemnified Party on account of Damages that does not result from a Third Party Claim (a “Direct Claim”) will be asserted by giving the Indemnifying Party reasonably prompt written notice thereof, but in any event not later than thirty (30) days after the Indemnified Party has actual knowledge of such Direct Claim. Such notice by the Indemnified Party will describe the Direct Claim in reasonable detail, will include copies of all available material written evidence thereof that is in the Indemnified Party’s possession, and will indicate the estimated amount, if reasonably practicable, of Damages that has been or may be sustained by the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party will have a period of thirty (30) days from which to respond in writing to such Direct Claim. If the Indemnifying Party does not respond within such thirty (30) day period, the Indemnified Party will be free to pursue such remedies as may be available to the Indemnified Party at the Indemnifying Party’s expense pursuant to the terms and subject to the provisions of this Agreement, and the Indemnifying Party shall be deemed to have irrevocably acknowledged and agreed that the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to the full amount of Damages set forth in such notice of claim.

10.5.4 A failure to give timely notice or to include any specified information in any notice as provided in Sections 10.5.1 or 10.5.3 will not affect the rights or obligations of any Party, except and only to the extent that, as a result of such failure, any Party that was entitled to receive such notice was deprived of its right to recover any payment under its applicable insurance coverage or such Party demonstrates actual and material harm as a result of such failure.

10.6 Miscellaneous Indemnification Provisions.

10.6.1 Exclusive Remedy. Assuming the Closing has occurred, other than claims arising from fraud or criminal misconduct of a Party, (i) the indemnification provisions of this Article X shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Indemnified Parties and their respective Affiliates with respect to claims under, or otherwise relating to the transactions that are the subject of, this Agreement, whether asserted against the Company or its Subsidiaries, their respective officers, directors or employees, Seller or any other Person and (ii) each of the Indemnified Parties, on behalf of itself and its equity owners, directors, managers, officers, employees, and Affiliates, agrees not to bring any Actions, at Law, equity or otherwise, against any other Party or its and its equity owners, directors, managers, officers, employees, and Affiliates, in respect of any breach or alleged breach of any representation, warranty, covenant and agreement in this Agreement, except pursuant to the express provisions of this Article X. Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, each Party shall be entitled to bring an action for injunctive or other equitable relief to enforce the terms of this Agreement, including specific performance, and no limitation or condition of liability provided in this Article X shall apply to any claim arising from fraud or criminal misconduct by a Party.

10.6.2 Transaction Consideration Adjustment. It is the intention of the parties to treat any indemnity payment made under this Agreement and any payment made with Section 3.2 and Section 3.4 as an adjustment to the purchase price for all Tax purposes, and the parties agree to file their Tax Returns accordingly, except as otherwise required by a change in applicable Law or a good faith resolution of an Action.

10.6.3 Insurance Proceeds and Other Recoveries. The amount of Damages recoverable by an Indemnified Party pursuant to this Article X with respect to an indemnity claim shall be reduced by the amount of insurance proceeds or other amounts actually recovered by such Indemnified Party with respect to the Damages to which such indemnity claim relates, net of any expenses related to the receipt of such payment, including retrospective premium adjustments, if any, occasioned by such Damages.

10.6.4 Cooperation. The Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party shall reasonably cooperate with each other with respect to resolving any claim or liability with respect to which Party is obligated to indemnify the other Party hereunder.

10.6.5 Payment of Damages. Once Damages are agreed to by the Indemnifying Party or finally adjudicated to be payable pursuant to this Article X, the Indemnifying Party shall satisfy such obligations within five (5) Business Days of such agreement or final, non-appealable adjudication by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated in writing by the Indemnified Party; provided, that, Seller may, at its sole option, elect to satisfy any indemnification obligation pursuant to this Article X by transfer to Purchaser of shares of Purchaser Common Stock at the time of such agreement or final adjudication, and the value of such shares of Purchaser Common Stock (or the stock of any successor of Purchaser) shall be deemed to equal, (x) prior to the IPO, the fair market value of such shares as reasonably determined by the board of directors of the Purchaser as of the Business Day immediately preceding the date of such determination; provided, that, if Seller disputes such determination within five (5) Business Days following notice thereof, then such determination shall be made by the Independent Valuation Expert as of such date, and (y) from and after the IPO, the volume weighted average trading price of such shares over the thirty (30) consecutive trading days ending on the third (3rd) trading day preceding the date of such determination; further provided, that with respect to any indemnification obligation pursuant to Section 10.2.1(c), Damages shall be payable in cash to the extent that there is Cash Consideration (and only up to the amount of such Cash Consideration) after which they shall be payable in the manner set forth in the first proviso above.

XI. MISCELLANEOUS.

11.1 Termination.

11.1.1 This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing as follows:

(a) by the written consent of Purchaser and Seller;

(b) by Purchaser, in the event of any breach by the Company or Seller of any covenant, representation, or warranty contained in this Agreement that would prevent or has prevented the satisfaction of any condition to the obligations of Purchaser, as applicable, at the Closing, and such breach has not been waived by Purchaser, or, in the case of a covenant breach, cannot be or has not been cured by the Company or Seller, as applicable, within the earlier of (i) thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Purchaser or (ii) the Closing Date;

(c) by Seller, in the event of any breach by Purchaser of any covenant, representation, or warranty contained in this Agreement that would prevent or has prevented the satisfaction of any condition to the obligation of Seller at the Closing, and such breach has not been waived by Seller or, in the case of a covenant breach, cannot be or has not been cured by Purchaser, as applicable, within the earlier of (i) thirty (30) days after written notice thereof by Seller or (ii) the Closing Date;

(d) by Purchaser or Seller if the transactions contemplated hereby have not been consummated by March 6, 2018 (the “End Date”); provided, however, that (i) Purchaser or Seller, as applicable, will not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1.1(d) if Purchaser’s breach of this Agreement, on the one hand, or the Company’s or Seller’s breach of this Agreement, on the other hand, has prevented the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by such date and (ii) in the event that the Marketing Period has commenced but not yet been completed at the time of the End Date, (x) the End Date may be extended to the date which is four (4) Business Days after the final date of the Marketing Period, by Purchaser in its sole discretion by providing written notice to the Company and (y) Purchaser shall not be entitled to terminate pursuant to this Section 11.1.1(d) until four (4) Business Days after the final date of the Marketing Period;

(e) by Purchaser or Seller if there shall be any Law that makes consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement illegal or otherwise prohibited or any Governmental Authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered an Order restraining or, enjoining or prohibiting or which otherwise has the effect of making the transactions contemplated by this Agreement illegal or causes any of the transactions contemplated hereunder to be rescinded following completion thereof, and such Order shall have become final and non-appealable;

(f) by Purchaser following the occurrence of a Material Adverse Effect of the Company;

(g) by Seller if (i) the Marketing Period has ended and all of the conditions set forth in Section 9.1 have been and continue to be satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, each of which is capable of being satisfied at the Closing); (ii) the Purchaser, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 fail to consummate the Combination on the date required pursuant to Section 2.2 due to Purchaser’s failure to obtain the Debt Financing; (iii) thereafter, the Company has irrevocably notified Purchaser in writing that (A) it is ready, willing and able to consummate the Closing; and (B) all conditions set forth in Section 9.2 have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, each of which is capable of being satisfied at the Closing) or Seller is willing to waive any unsatisfied conditions set forth in Section 9.2; and (iv) the Purchaser, Merger Sub 1 and Merger Sub 2 fail to consummate the Combination by the third (3rd) Business Day after the delivery of the notice described in clause (iii) (provided, that the Seller and the Company remain ready, willing and able to consummate the Closing during such three Business Day period); or

(h) by Purchaser if the Seller Written Consent has not become effective immediately following the execution and delivery of the Agreement by the Company in accordance with the DGCL and the Company’s Organizational Documents.

11.1.2 If this Agreement is validly terminated pursuant to Section 11.1.1, all further obligations of the Parties under this Agreement (other than pursuant to this Article XI, which will continue in full force and effect) will terminate without further liability or obligation on the part of any Party (or any direct or indirect equity holder, stockholder, partner, controlling person, member, manager, director, officer, employee, Affiliate or Representative of such party or such party’s Affiliates or any of the foregoing's successors and assigns); provided, however, that, subject to Section 11.1.6, (a) the Purchaser Entities will not be released from liability hereunder if this Agreement is validly terminated and the transactions abandoned by reason of (i) failure of the Purchaser Entities to have performed their material obligations under this Agreement or (ii) any material misrepresentation made by the Purchaser of any matter set forth in this Agreement and (b) the Company and Seller will not be released from liability hereunder if this Agreement is validly terminated and the transactions abandoned by reason of (i) failure of the Company or Seller to have performed its or their material obligations under this Agreement or (ii) any material misrepresentation made by the Company or Seller of any matter set forth in this Agreement. Nothing in this Section 11.1.2 will relieve any Party of liability for any damages resulting from a breach of this Agreement, including but not limited to fraud, prior to any termination of this Agreement. For purposes hereof, the Parties acknowledge and agree that damages shall not be limited to reimbursement of expenses or out-of-pocket costs, and shall include the benefit of the bargain lost by such non-breaching Party (taking into consideration all relevant matters, including opportunities cost and the time value of money).

11.1.3 If Seller validly terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1.1(g), then Purchaser, in consideration of the Company and Seller irrevocably and unconditionally agreeing not to (and causing their Affiliates and any Representatives of the foregoing, not to) exercise, and agreeing to waive, any and all claims and rights it (or their Affiliates and any Representatives of the foregoing) may have against the Purchaser Related Parties under, in connection with or related to this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement, any other agreement referenced herein, therein or otherwise and the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (including the Debt Financing), shall pay to the Company an amount in cash equal to $50,000,000.00 in immediately available funds (the "Purchaser Termination Fee") within two (2) Business Days of such valid termination. Any payment of the Purchaser Termination Fee, if, as and when required pursuant to this Section 11.1.3, shall be deemed to be liquidated damages in a reasonable amount that will compensate the Company, its Affiliates and its and their respective shareholders, including the Company's shareholders, in the circumstances in which it is payable, for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities foregone while negotiating this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements and in reliance on this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder and thereunder, which amount would otherwise be impossible to calculate with precision, and it is agreed and acknowledged that such amount is not a penalty. The parties acknowledge and hereby agree that in no event shall Purchaser be required to pay the Purchaser Termination Fee on more than one occasion.

11.1.4 In addition to the Purchaser Termination Fee, during the period beginning on the date of such valid termination pursuant to Section 11.1.1(g) and ending eighteen (18) months from the date of such valid termination (the "Tail Period"), the Purchaser Entities agree, on behalf of themselves and their respective Affiliates (which for purposes hereunder shall not include any direct or indirect portfolio companies of Apollo or any of its Affiliates other than the Purchaser Entities; provided, that such portfolio companies or Affiliates are not taking actions of the type prohibited hereunder at the direction of, or on behalf of, Apollo) (collectively the "Purchaser Group") that it shall not, without the prior written consent of the Seller, either alone or in conjunction with their respective Affiliates or Representatives, directly or indirectly (i) induce or attempt to induce any employee, officer, director, manager or other fiduciary of the Company, the Seller or their Subsidiaries to leave the employ or service of the Company, the Seller or any of their Subsidiaries, or (ii) hire any Person who was an employee, officer, director, manager or other fiduciary of the Seller or any of its Subsidiaries at any time during the six (6) month period prior to the Closing Date or during the Tail Period; provided, that the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) shall not prohibit general solicitation (but shall continue to prohibit the hiring of Persons who respond to such solicitations) by any member of the Purchaser Group through ads in newspapers, trade periodicals, online sites relating to employment matters or any other similar solicitation (or other solicitations directed at the public, or segments of the public, in general), or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, vendor, service provider, licensee, licensor, lessor, or other business relation of the Seller or any of its Subsidiaries to cease doing business with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or in any way materially and adversely interfere with the relationship between any such customer, supplier, vendor, service provider, licensee, licensor, lessor, franchisee or other business relation and the Seller or any of its Subsidiaries (including making any negative statements or communications about the Seller or any of its Subsidiaries); provided, that the restrictions in this clause (iii) shall not prohibit Ordinary Course solicitation of any of the foregoing for purposes of a business that is not a Restricted Business, so long as such solicitation is not designed or intended to interfere with the Restricted Business.

11.1.5 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or otherwise, but subject in all respects to Section 11.1.3, Section 11.1.4, this Section 11.1.5, Section 11.13 and Section 11.17 (including, in each case, the limitations set forth therein), if any of the Purchaser Entities fails to effect the Closing for any reason or no reason or any of the Purchaser Entities otherwise breaches this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements or fails to perform hereunder or thereunder (in each case, whether willfully, intentionally, unintentionally or otherwise), then the Company and Seller's right to seek one or more of (but never receive both) (i) the valid termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1.1, and to seek one or more of (but never receive more than one of) (x) payment of the Purchaser Termination Fee if, as and when required pursuant to Section 11.1.3, or (y) monetary damages for any of the Purchaser Entities' fraud, or (ii) specific performance as and to the extent permitted by Section 11.13 (subject to the limitations set forth therein), shall be the sole and exclusive remedies (whether at Law, in equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise) of Seller, the Company and their Affiliates, and any Representatives of the foregoing (and any other Person), against the Purchaser Entities and the Financing Sources or any other financing source of the Purchaser Entities or their respective Affiliates, and any of their respective former, current or future, direct or indirect equity holders, controlling persons, general or limited partners, stockholders, members, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents, affiliates, attorneys, advisors or other Representatives, or any of their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "Purchaser Related Parties") for all breaches, losses, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses suffered as a result of, in connection with or related thereto. Except for liabilities and obligations of the Purchaser Related Parties set forth in the foregoing sentence, none of the Purchaser Related Parties shall have any liability or obligation whatsoever to Seller, the Company, their Affiliates and any Representatives of the foregoing (or any other Person), including multiple, consequential, indirect, special, statutory, exemplary or punitive damages, relating to or arising out of this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements, the Debt Financing, or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or otherwise, or the failure of such transactions to be consummated, or in respect of any other Contract, document or theory of Law or equity or in respect of any representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith or therewith, whether in equity or at Law, in contract, in tort or otherwise. In addition, without modifying or qualifying in any way the preceding sentence or implying any intent contrary thereto or impairing the rights of the Purchaser Entities in any way, Seller, the Company, their Affiliates (as determined prior to Closing), on behalf of themselves and their respective Representatives, hereby waive any rights or claims against the Financing Sources and hereby agree that in no event shall the Financing Sources have any liability or obligation to Seller, the Company, any of their Affiliates (as determined prior to Closing) and their respective Representatives and in no event shall Seller, the Company, any of its Affiliates (as determined prior to Closing), and their respective Representatives seek or obtain any other damages of any kind against any Financing Source (including consequential, special, indirect or punitive damages), in each case, relating to or arising out of this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. Without limiting the foregoing, upon payment of the Purchaser Termination Fee, if, as and when required pursuant to Section 11.1.3, no Purchaser Related Party shall have any further liability or obligation to Seller, the Company its Affiliates (as determined prior to Closing) or any Representatives of the foregoing (or any other Person), including any multiple, consequential, indirect, special, statutory, exemplary or punitive damages, relating to or arising out of this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements or otherwise or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or the failure of such transactions to be consummated, or in respect of any other Contract, document or theory of law or equity or in respect of any representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith or therewith or otherwise, whether in equity or at law, in contract, in tort or otherwise.

11.1.6 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Ancillary Agreement or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or otherwise, but subject in all respects to Section 11.1.7, Section 11.1.3 and Section 11.1.7, the maximum aggregate liability of the Purchaser Related Parties under this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements, any other documents referenced herein or therein or otherwise, collectively (including, for the avoidance of doubt, monetary damages for fraud or breach, whether willful, intentional, unintentional or otherwise, or monetary damages in lieu of specific performance), or in connection with the failure of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (including the Debt Financing) to be consummated, or in respect of any representation made or alleged to have been made in connection herewith or therewith or otherwise, whether in equity or at Law, in contract, in tort or otherwise, together with any payment of the Purchaser Termination Fee and any other payment in connection with this Agreement and any Ancillary Agreement or otherwise, shall not exceed under any circumstances an amount equal to the sum of (i) one of (but never both) (A) the Purchaser Termination Fee, if any, due and owing to the Company pursuant to Section 11.1.3 or (B) the amounts, if any, due and owing to the Company as damages for any breach, including but not limited to fraud, pursuant to Section 11.1.2, plus (ii) the amounts, if any, due and owing to the Company pursuant to Section 7.12.6, plus (iii) the costs and expenses of the Company, if any, due and owing pursuant to Section 11.1.7; provided, that (A) in no event shall the aggregate amount of Purchaser's obligations described in clause (i) of this Section 11.1.6 exceed the amount of the Purchaser Termination Fee and (B) in no event shall the aggregate amount of Purchaser's obligations described in clause (iii) of this Section 11.1.6 exceed One Million Dollars ($1,000,000), and in no event shall Seller, the Company, their Affiliates or any Representatives of the foregoing (or any other Person) seek, directly or indirectly, to recover against the Purchaser Related Parties, or compel payment by the Purchaser Related Parties of, any damages or other payments whatsoever (including multiple, consequential, indirect, special, statutory, exemplary or punitive damages) in excess of the Purchaser Termination Fee or any of the foregoing limitations (as applicable).

11.1.7 Each of the Company, Seller, and the Purchaser Entities acknowledges that the agreements contained in Sections 11.1.2, 11.1.3, 11.1.4, 11.1.5, 11.1.6 and this Section 11.1.7 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and that, without these agreements, the other parties would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if Purchaser fails to promptly pay (i) the Purchaser Termination Fee, if, as and when due pursuant to Section 11.1.3, plus (ii) the amounts, if any, due and owing to the Company pursuant to Section 7.12.6, plus (iii) the costs and expenses of the Company, if any, due and owing pursuant to this Section 11.1.7, and, in order to obtain such payment, the Company commences a suit that results in a final and non-appealable judgment against Purchaser for payment of such amounts, then Purchaser shall pay to the Company any reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Company (including reasonable and documented out-of-pocket attorney's fees and expenses) in connection with such suit up to a maximum aggregate amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000), together with interest on all unpaid amounts, at a rate per annum equal to the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal, Eastern Edition in effect on the date of such payment, from the date such fee, cost or expense was required to be paid to (but excluding) the payment date.

11.1.8 For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section 11.1 shall affect, limit or impair the rights and obligations of the parties under Article X, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, following the Effective Time.

11.2 Notices. Any notice, request, consent, claim, demand, waiver, instruction or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement by any Party to another Party will be in writing and will be given to such Party (a) at its address set forth in Annex II attached to this Agreement or to such other address as the Party to whom notice is to be given may provide in a written notice to the Party giving such notice in accordance with this Section 11.2. Each such notice, request, or other communication will be effective (x) if given by certified mail, return receipt requested, with postage prepaid addressed as aforesaid, upon receipt (and refusal of receipt shall constitute receipt), (y) one (1) Business Day after being furnished to a nationally recognized overnight courier for next Business Day delivery (receipt requested), or (z) on the date sent if sent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail of a PDF document (with no "system error" or other notice of non-delivery) if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and on the next Business Day if sent after normal business hours of the recipient, with a copy contemporaneously being sent pursuant to clauses (x) or (y) above.

11.3 Amendments and Waivers.

11.3.1 Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived if, but only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and is signed, in the case of an amendment, by Purchaser and Seller (or by any successor to such Party), or in the case of a waiver, by the Party against whom the waiver is to be effective, in each case, at any time prior to the Effective Time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the provisions relating to the Financing Sources set forth in Section 7.12.1, Section 7.12.4, Section 11.1.5, Section 11.1.6, Section 11.5, Section 11.6, Section 11.7.2, Section 11.8, Section 11.17.3 and this Section 11.3.1 (and the defined terms used therein) may not be amended, modified or altered without the prior written consent of the Financing Sources.

11.3.2 No failure or delay by any Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this Agreement will operate as a waiver thereof nor will any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege.

11.4 Expenses. Purchaser will pay or cause to be paid the fees and expenses incurred by Purchaser (and its Affiliates) in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements or relating to the negotiation, preparation or execution of this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements or any documents or agreements contemplated hereby or thereby, or the performance or consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements, other than the Closing Date Selling Expenses. Seller will pay or cause to be paid the Closing Date Selling Expenses, subject to Section 2.4.

11.5 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that no Party may assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party to this Agreement; except that (a) Purchaser may assign all or any portion of its rights and its obligations under this Agreement to any Affiliate; and (b) after the Closing Date, Purchaser and its Affiliates may assign all or any portion of their rights and obligations under this Agreement to any Financing Source for purposes of creating a security interest herein or otherwise assigning as collateral in respect of the Debt Financing and, after the Closing Date, any such Financing Source may exercise all of the rights and remedies of Purchaser (or its Affiliate, as applicable) hereunder in connection with the enforcement of any security or exercise of any remedies to the extent permitted under the Debt Commitment Letter. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon and will inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

11.6 Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in Section 7.6, Section 11.1.4, Section 11.5, Section 11.15, Section 11.17 and Article X, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties and their permitted assigns and nothing herein expressed or implied will give or be construed to give to any Person, other than the Parties and such permitted assigns, any legal or equitable rights of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement, including by way of subrogation; provided, that Section 6.7.1, Section 11.3, Section 11.7, Section 11.8, Section 11.17 and this Section 11.6 will inure to the benefit of the Financing Sources and their successors and assigns, each of whom are intended to be third-party beneficiaries thereof (it being understood and agreed that Section 7.12.1, Section 11.5, Section 11.7.2, Section 11.8 and this Section 11.6 will be enforceable by the Financing Sources and their respective successors and assigns).

11.7 Governing Law; Consent to Jurisdiction.

11.7.1 This Agreement will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Law of the State of Delaware without regard to any choice or conflict of Laws that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. Each of the Parties hereby (a) irrevocably consents and agrees, subject to Section 3.2, that it shall bring any Action with respect to any matter arising under or relating to this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement or the subject matter hereof or thereof in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or if jurisdiction is not available in such court, then in any state or federal court located in the State of Delaware); (b) irrevocably accepts and submits, for itself and in respect of its properties, to the jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or if jurisdiction is not available in such court, then in any state or federal court located in the State of Delaware), in personam, generally and unconditionally, with respect to any such Action; (c) irrevocably consents to the service of process in any such Action in any such court by the mailing of a copy thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to such party at the address specified in Section 11.2 for notices to such Party; and (d) irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection or defense which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue to any such Action in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or if jurisdiction is not available in such court, then in any federal court located in the State of Delaware) and hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim that any such Action brought in such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. In addition to or in lieu of any such service, service of process may also be made in any other manner permitted by applicable Law.

11.7.2 Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, each of the Parties acknowledges and irrevocably agrees (i) that any action, suit or proceeding, whether at law or in equity, whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, involving the Financing Sources arising out of, or relating to, the Debt Financing, the Debt Commitment Letter, or the performance of services thereunder or related will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state or federal court sitting in the State of New York in the borough of Manhattan and any appellate court thereof, and each Party hereto submits for itself and its property with respect to any such action, suit or proceeding to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court; (ii) not to bring or permit any of their Affiliates to bring or support anyone else in bringing any such action, suit or proceeding in any other court; (iii) that service of process, summons, notice or document by registered mail addressed to them at their respective addresses provided in the Debt Commitment Letter will be effective service of process against them for any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court; (iv) to waive and hereby waive, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any objection which any of them may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of, and the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of, any such action, suit or proceeding in any such court; and (v) any such action, suit or proceeding will be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York.

11.8 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. TO THE EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY APPLICABLE LAW WHICH CANNOT BE WAIVED, EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES, AND AGREES TO CAUSE EACH OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES TO WAIVE, AND AGREES TO CAUSE EACH OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES TO WAIVE, AND COVENANTS THAT NEITHER IT NOR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES SHALL ASSERT (WHETHER AS PLAINTIFF, DEFENDANT OR OTHERWISE) ANY RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY ANCILLARY AGREEMENT OR THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF OR THEREOF, INCLUDING ANY ACTION RELATING TO THE DEBT FINANCING OR THE PERFORMANCE THEREOF OR INVOLVING ANY FINANCING SOURCE. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MIGHT BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT MAY RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY ANCILLARY AGREEMENT, INCLUDING ALL COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. EACH PARTY FURTHER REPRESENTS AND WARRANTS THAT IT HAS REVIEWED THIS WAIVER WITH ITS LEGAL COUNSEL AND THAT IT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS JURY TRIAL RIGHTS FOLLOWING CONSULTATION WITH SUCH LEGAL COUNSEL. THIS WAIVER IS IRREVOCABLE, MEANING THAT IT MAY NOT BE MODIFIED EITHER ORALLY OR IN WRITING, AND THE WAIVER SHALL APPLY TO ANY SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS, MODIFICATIONS, SUPPLEMENTS OR RESTATEMENTS HEREOF. IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, THIS AGREEMENT MAY BE FILED AS A WRITTEN CONSENT TO A TRIAL BY THE COURT.

11.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute the same agreement, and the execution of a counterpart of the signature page to this Agreement shall be deemed the execution of a counterpart of this Agreement. The delivery of this Agreement may be made by facsimile or portable document format (pdf), and such signatures shall be treated as original signatures for all applicable purposes.

11.10 Headings. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and will not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provisions of this Agreement.

11.11 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements and the Confidentiality Agreement (including the Disclosure Schedules, Annexes and Exhibits hereto and thereto) constitute the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and such Ancillary Agreements, and is a complete and final integration thereof. This Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements (including the Disclosure Schedules, Annexes and Exhibits hereto and thereto) supersede and cancel all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, both oral and written, express or implied, between the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and such Ancillary Agreements which the Parties disclaim reliance on.

11.12 Confidentiality. In consideration of the benefits of this Agreement to Seller and in order to induce Purchaser to enter into this Agreement, Seller hereby covenants and agrees that from the date of this Agreement, until the Closing, Seller and its Affiliates shall, and shall cause the Company to, keep confidential and not disclose to any other Person the terms of this Agreement or use for their own benefit or the benefit of any other Person any information regarding the Company; provided, however, that if the Closing does not occur for whatever reason, this covenant shall immediately terminate and become null and void. In consideration of the benefits of this Agreement to Purchaser and in order to induce Seller and the Company to enter into this Agreement, Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that from the date of this Agreement and for a period of two (2) years after the Closing, or if the Closing does not occur for any reason, the termination of this Agreement, Purchaser shall, and it shall cause its Affiliates to, keep confidential and not disclose to any other Person or use for their own benefit or the benefit of any other Person the terms of this Agreement and any information regarding the Company or Seller. The obligation of Seller and its Affiliates under this Section 11.12 shall not apply to information which: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public without breach of the provisions of this Section 11.12; or (b) is required to be disclosed by Law, order or regulation of a court or tribunal or government authority; provided, however, that in the case of the foregoing clause (b), Seller shall timely notify Purchaser prior to disclosure to allow Purchaser to take appropriate measures to preserve the confidentiality of such information.

11.13 Specific Performance. The Parties agree that irreparable damage would occur if any provision of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with the specific terms hereof or is otherwise breached and that any non-performance or breach of this Agreement could not be adequately compensated by monetary damages alone. Accordingly, Seller and the Purchaser Entities shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms hereof and to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of any provision of this Agreement without posting any bond or other undertaking, in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity (including monetary damages). The Parties hereto further agree that the Seller and the Company shall be entitled to specific performance to cause the Purchaser Entities to draw down the proceeds of the Debt Financing and otherwise cause the Purchaser Entities to consummate the Closing to the extent, prior to the Closing, all of the Company Specific Performance Conditions have been satisfied in full in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, and except and to the extent expressly permitted by the foregoing sentence of this Section 11.13, the Parties acknowledge and agree that none of Seller, the Company, its Affiliates or any Representative of the foregoing shall be entitled, whether under this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement or otherwise, to seek or obtain any equitable remedy, including an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement by the Purchaser Entities or any remedy to enforce specifically the terms of this Agreement or otherwise require the Purchaser Entities to draw down all or any portion of the proceeds of the Debt Financing or otherwise cause the Purchaser Entities to take any action to consummate the Closing (whether under this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement or otherwise), and that such Person's sole and exclusive remedies with respect to any such breaches or threatened breaches shall be the Company's remedies set forth in Sections 11.1.2 and 11.1.3, subject in all respects to the limitations set forth therein and in Sections 11.1.4 through 11.1.8, this Section 11.13 and Section 11.17 (including, in each case, the limitations set forth therein). Subject to this Section 11.13, each of the Parties agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that the Party seeking the injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief has an adequate remedy at law. "Company Specific Performance Conditions" shall mean (a) all conditions in Section 9.1 have been satisfied as of the date on which the Closing would otherwise be required to occur (other than those conditions that by their nature can only be satisfied at the Closing; provided such conditions would have been satisfied as of such date), (b) any Purchaser Entity fails to complete the Closing by the date the Closing would otherwise be required to have occurred pursuant to Section 2.2, (c) the Debt Financing has been or would be funded if the Closing occurs; provided, that the Purchaser Entities shall not be required to consummate the Closing if the Debt Financing is in fact not funded at the Closing, (d) the Closing would occur substantially simultaneously with the drawdown of the Debt Financing (provided, that the Seller and the Company remain ready, willing and able to consummate the Closing during such period) (e) the Company has irrevocably confirmed in writing to Purchaser that it is prepared to and able to effect the Closing upon the funding of the Debt Financing, and (f) any Purchaser Entity has not consummated the Closing within three (3) Business Days of receipt of such notice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in any Ancillary Agreement or otherwise, under no circumstances shall the Company, Seller or any of their respective Affiliates, directly or indirectly, be permitted or entitled to receive (i) a grant of specific performance resulting in the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof or other equitable relief, on the one hand, and (ii)(a) payment of any monetary damages whatsoever, or (b) payment of the Purchaser Termination Fee, on the other hand.

11.14 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application of any such provision to any Person or circumstance is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provision and such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision will be reformed, construed and enforced as if such provision had never been contained herein and there had been contained in this Agreement instead such valid, legal and enforceable provisions as would most nearly accomplish the intent and purpose of such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision.

11.15 Legal Representation. In any dispute or Action arising under or in connection with this Agreement including under Article X, each Company Indemnified Person shall have the right, at their election, to retain DLA Piper to represent them in such matter and Purchaser for itself and for its successors and assigns and for the other Purchaser Indemnified Parties (including the Company if the Closing occurs) and their respective successors and assigns, hereby irrevocably waives and consents to any such representation in any such matter. Purchaser acknowledges that the foregoing provision shall apply whether or not DLA Piper provides legal services to the Company after the Closing Date. Purchaser, for itself and its successors and assigns and for the other Purchaser Indemnified Parties (including the Company if the Closing occurs) and their respective successors and assigns, hereby irrevocably acknowledges and agrees that all communications between any Company Indemnified Person and their counsel, including DLA Piper, made in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution, delivery and closing under, or any dispute or Action arising under or in connection with, this Agreement, or any matter relating to any of the foregoing, are privileged communications between a Company Indemnified Person and such counsel, and neither Purchaser, nor any Person purporting to act on behalf of or through Purchaser, will seek to obtain the same by any process on the grounds that the privilege attaching to such communications, belongs to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and not Seller.

11.16 Press Release and Announcements. Unless required by Law (in which case each Party agrees to consult with the other Parties prior to any such disclosure as to the form and content of such disclosure), no press releases or other public releases of information related to this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements or the transactions contemplated this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements will be issued or released without the consent of Purchaser and Seller.

11.17 No Recourse Against Third Parties.

11.17.1 No provision of this Agreement is intended to confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder; provided, however, that the following Persons are expressly intended as third party beneficiaries with respect to the following specified sections of this Agreement and will have the right to enforce such specified sections against the parties to this Agreement: with respect to Section 7.6, the Persons who are the beneficiaries of the rights under such Section; with respect to Article X, the Persons who are the beneficiaries of the indemnification under such Section; with respect to Section 11.15, DLA Piper; and with respect to Section 11.17.2, the Nonparty Affiliates.

11.17.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, (i) no claim (whether at law or in equity, whether in contract, tort, statute or otherwise, whether by or through attempted piercing of the corporate, limited partnership or limited liability company veil or any other theory or doctrine, including alter ego or otherwise) may be asserted by any party, any Affiliate of any party, or any Person claiming by, through or for the benefit of any of them, against any Person who is not party to this Agreement or, in the case of the Ancillary Agreements or any other agreement referenced herein or therein, any Person who is not party to such Ancillary Agreement or other agreement referenced herein or therein, including any equityholders, partners, members, controlling persons, directors, officers, employees, incorporators, managers, agents, Representatives, or Affiliates of any party or the heirs, executors, administrators, successors or assigns of any of the foregoing (or any Affiliate of any of the foregoing) (each a “Nonparty Affiliate” and, collectively, the “Nonparty Affiliates”) with respect to any matters based upon, in respect of, arising under, out or by reason of, in connection with, or relating in any manner to (a) this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or any transactions contemplated thereunder, (b) the negotiation, execution or performance of this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement or any other agreement referenced herein or therein (including any representation or warranty made in, in connection with, or as an inducement to, this Agreement, such Ancillary Agreement or such other agreement), (c) any breach or violation of this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement or any other agreement referenced herein or therein, (d) any actual or alleged inaccuracies, misstatements or omissions with respect to information furnished by or on behalf of any party or any Nonparty Affiliate concerning the business of the Company (including with respect to the operation of its business prior to the Closing or any other transaction, circumstance or state of facts involving the Company prior to the Closing), this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements and (e) any failure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements or any other agreement referenced herein or therein to be consummated, (ii) no recourse shall be sought by or had against any Nonparty Affiliates under this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements or any transactions contemplated by any Ancillary Agreement or any other agreement referenced herein or therein, and (iii) no Nonparty Affiliate shall have any liabilities or obligations (whether at law or in equity, whether in contract, tort, statute or otherwise, whether by or through attempted piercing of the corporate, limited partnership or limited liability company veil or any other theory or doctrine, including alter ego or otherwise) for any claims or causes of action arising under, out of, in connection with or related in any manner to the items in the immediately preceding clauses (a) through (e), it being expressly agreed and acknowledged that no personal liability or losses whatsoever shall attach to, be imposed on or otherwise be incurred by any of the aforementioned, as such, arising under, out of, in connection with or related in any manner to the items in the immediately preceding clauses (a) through (e). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or otherwise, no Nonparty Affiliate shall be responsible or liable for any multiple, consequential, indirect, special, statutory, exemplary or punitive damages which may be alleged as a result of this Agreement, any Ancillary Agreement or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or the transactions contemplated hereunder or thereunder, or the termination or abandonment of any of the foregoing.

11.17.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, each of the Seller and the Company hereby (i) acknowledges that none of the Financing Sources shall have any liability under this Agreement or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, the transactions contemplated hereby, including, but not limited to, any dispute related to, or arising from, the Debt Financing, the Debt Commitment Letter, any related agreements or the performance thereof, (ii) waive any rights or claims against any of the Financing Sources in connection with this Agreement, the Debt Financing or the Debt Commitment Letter, whether at law or equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise, and (iii) agree not to commence (and if commenced agree to dismiss or otherwise terminate, and not to assist) any action, arbitration, audit, hearing, investigation, litigation, petition, grievance, complaint, suit or proceeding against any Financing Source in connection with this Agreement, the Debt Financing, the Debt Commitment Letter or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

11.18 Key Stockholders.

11.18.1 Each Key Stockholder hereby represents, warrants and covenants, that: (a) if such Key Stockholder is not an individual, such Key Stockholder is a limited partnership, duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware; (b) such Key Stockholder has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Section 11.18; (c) if such Key Stockholder is not an individual, the execution, delivery and performance by such Key Stockholder of this Agreement and the consummation by such Key Stockholder of the transactions contemplated by this Section 11.18 have been duly and validly authorized by all requisite action on the part of such Key Stockholder, and no other proceedings on its part are necessary to authorize the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement; (d) the execution and delivery by such Key Stockholder of this Agreement will not require any consent, notice, waiver, approval, order or authorization of, or filing with, any Governmental Authority, or (y) if such Key Stockholder is an entity, result in a material breach or violation of, or material default under, the Organizational Documents of such Key Stockholder.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

Section 1.01. Certain Defined Terms. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings (such meanings to be equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of the terms defined):

"Account Control Agreement" means each agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, among the Borrower, the Servicer (if applicable), the Administrative Agent and a Collection Account Bank, governing the terms of the related Collection Accounts that provides the Administrative Agent with control within the meaning of the UCC over the deposit accounts subject to such agreement.

“Adjusted LIBOR” means with respect to any Interest Period, the interest rate per annum determined by the Administrative Agent by dividing (the resulting quotient rounded upwards, if necessary, to the nearest 1/100th of 1% per annum) (i) the rate of interest determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with its usual procedures (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error) to be the rate per annum for three-month deposits in U.S. dollars as reported by Bloomberg Finance L.P. and shown on US0003M Screen as the composite offered rate for London interbank deposits for such period (or on any successor or substitute page of such service providing rate quotations comparable to those currently provided on such page of such service, as determined by the Administrative Agent from time to time for purposes of providing quotations of interest rates applicable to U.S. dollar deposits in the London interbank market) at or about 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day which is two (2) Business Days prior to the first day of such Interest Period for an amount comparable to the Portion of Capital to be funded at the Adjusted LIBOR during such Interest Period, by (ii) a number equal to 1.00 minus the Euro-Rate Reserve Percentage, provided, however, that with respect to the initial Interest Period for the Capital of a Loan made on a date that is not a Monthly Settlement Date, Adjusted LIBOR shall be the interest rate per annum equal to LMIR for each day during such initial Interest Period from the date that such Loan is made pursuant to Section 2.01 until the next occurring Monthly Settlement Date. The calculation of Adjusted LIBOR may also be expressed by the following formula:

$$\text{Adjusted LIBOR} = \frac{\text{Composite of London interbank offered rates shown on Bloomberg Finance L.P. Screen US0003M or appropriate successor}}{1.00 \text{ — Euro-Rate Reserve Percentage}}$$

Adjusted LIBOR shall be adjusted on the effective date of any change in the Euro-Rate Reserve Percentage as of such effective date. The Administrative Agent shall give prompt notice to the Borrower of Adjusted LIBOR as determined or adjusted in accordance herewith (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Adjusted LIBOR as determined herein would be less than zero percent (0.00%), such rate shall be deemed to be zero percent (0.00%) for purposes of this Agreement.

“Administrative Agent” means BMO, in its capacity as contractual representative for the Credit Parties, and any successor thereto in such capacity appointed pursuant to Article XI.

- (iv) the Aggregate Capital would exceed the Borrowing Base at such time.

Section 2.02. Making Loans; Repayment of Loans. (a) Each Loan hereunder shall be made on at least two (2) Business Days prior written request from the Borrower to the Administrative Agent and each Group Agent in the form of a Loan Request attached hereto as Exhibit A. Each such request for a Loan shall be made no later than 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on a Business Day (it being understood that any such request made after such time shall be deemed to have been made on the following Business Day) and shall specify (i) the amount of the Loan(s) requested (which shall not be less than $100,000 and shall be an integral multiple of $100,000), (ii) the allocation of such amount among the Groups (which shall be ratably based on the Group Commitments), (iii) the account to which the proceeds of such Loan shall be distributed and (iv) the date such requested Loan is to be made (which shall be a Business Day) (such date, a "Borrowing Date").

(b) On the date of each Loan specified in the applicable Loan Request, the Lenders shall, upon satisfaction of the applicable conditions set forth in Article VI and pursuant to the other conditions set forth in this Article II, make available to the Borrower in same day funds an aggregate amount equal to the amount of such Loans requested, at the account set forth in the related Loan Request.

(c) Each Committed Lender's obligation shall be several, such that the failure of any Committed Lender to make available to the Borrower any funds in connection with any Loan shall not relieve any other Committed Lender of its obligation, if any, hereunder to make funds available on the date such Loans are requested (it being understood, that no Committed Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Committed Lender to make funds available to the Borrower in connection with any Loan hereunder).

(d) The Borrower shall repay in full the outstanding Capital of each Lender on the Maturity Date. Prior thereto, the Borrower shall, on each Settlement Date, make a prepayment of the outstanding Capital of the Lenders to the extent required under Section 4.01 and otherwise in accordance therewith. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower, in its discretion, shall have the right to make a prepayment, in whole or in part, of the outstanding Capital of the Lenders on any Business Day upon two (2) Business Days' prior written notice thereof to the Administrative Agent and each Group Agent in the form of a Reduction Notice attached hereto as Exhibit D; provided, however, that (i) each such prepayment shall be in a minimum aggregate amount of $100,000 and shall be an integral multiple of $100,000, and (ii) any accrued Interest and Fees in respect of such prepaid Capital shall be paid on the immediately following Settlement Date.

(e) The Borrower may, at any time upon at least two (2) Business Days' prior written notice to the Administrative Agent and each Group Agent, terminate the Facility Limit in whole or ratably reduce the Facility Limit in part. Each partial reduction in the Facility Limit shall be in a minimum aggregate amount of $1,000,000 and shall be an integral multiple of $100,000. In connection with any partial reduction in the Facility Limit, the Commitment of each Committed Lender shall be ratably reduced.

(f) In connection with any reduction of the Commitments, the Borrower shall remit to the Administrative Agent (i) instructions regarding such reduction and (ii) for payment to the Lenders, cash in an amount sufficient to pay (A) the Capital of the Lenders in each Group in excess of the Group Commitment of such Group and (B) all other outstanding Borrower Obligations with respect to such reduction (determined based on the ratio of the reduction of the Commitments being effected to the amount of the Commitments prior to such reduction or, if the Administrative Agent reasonably determines that any portion of the outstanding Borrower Obligations is allocable solely to that portion of the Commitments being reduced or has arisen solely as a result of such reduction, all of such portion) including, without duplication, any associated Breakage Fees. Upon receipt of any such amounts, the Administrative Agent shall apply such amounts first to the reduction of the outstanding Capital, and second to the payment of the remaining outstanding Borrower Obligations with respect to such reduction, including any Breakage Fees, by paying such amounts to the Lenders.

Section 2.03. Interest and Fees. (a) On each Settlement Date, the Borrower shall, in accordance with the terms and priorities for payment set forth in Section 4.01, pay to each Group Agent, each Lender, the Administrative Agent, and the Arranger certain fees (collectively, the “Fees”) in the amounts set forth in the fee letter agreements from time to time entered into, among the Borrower, the members of the applicable Group (or their Group Agent on their behalf) and/or the Administrative Agent (each such fee letter agreement, as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, collectively being referred to herein as the “Fee Letter”). Commitment Fees (as defined in the Fee Letter) shall cease to accrue on the unfunded portion of the Commitment of such Defaulting Lender as provided in Section 2.05.

(b) The Capital of each Lender shall accrue interest on each day when such Capital remains outstanding at the then applicable Interest Rate. The Borrower shall pay all Interest, Fees and Breakage Fees accrued during each Interest Period on the immediately following Settlement Date in accordance with the terms and priorities for payment set forth in Section 4.01.

Section 2.04. Records of Loans. Each Group Agent shall record in its records, the date and amount of each Loan made by the Lenders in its Group hereunder, the interest rate with respect thereto, the Interest accrued thereon and each repayment and payment thereof. Subject to Section 14.03(c), such records shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error. The failure to so record any such information or any error in so recording any such information shall not, however, limit or otherwise affect the obligations of the Borrower hereunder or under the other Transaction Documents to repay the Capital of each Lender, together with all Interest accruing thereon and all other Borrower Obligations.

Section 2.05. Defaulting Lenders. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if any Committed Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then the following provisions shall apply for so long as such Committed Lender is a Defaulting Lender:

(a) Commitment Fees (as defined in the Fee Letter) shall cease to accrue on the unfunded portion of the Commitment of such Defaulting Lender.

(b) The Commitment and Capital of such Defaulting Lender shall not be included in determining whether the Majority Group Agents have taken or may take any action hereunder (including any consent to any amendment, waiver or other modification pursuant to Section 14.01); provided, that, except as otherwise provided in Section 14.01, this clause (b) shall not apply to the vote of a Defaulting Lender in the case of an amendment, waiver or other modification requiring the consent of such Committed Lender or each Committed Lender directly affected thereby (if such Committed Lender is directly affected thereby).

(c) In the event that the Administrative Agent, the Borrower and the Servicer each agrees in writing that a Defaulting Lender has adequately remedied all matters that caused such Lender to be a Defaulting Lender, then on such date such Committed Lender (or a member of such Committed Lender's Group) shall purchase at par such of the Loans of the other Lenders as the Administrative Agent shall determine may be necessary in order for such Committed Lender's Group to hold such Loans in accordance with its Pro Rata Percentage; provided, that no adjustments shall be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrower while such Committed Lender was a Defaulting Lender, and provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender that is not a Defaulting Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender having been a Defaulting Lender.

SECURITY INTEREST

Section 3.01. Security Interest. (a) As security for the performance by the Borrower of all the terms, covenants and agreements on the part of the Borrower to be performed under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, including the punctual payment when due of the Aggregate Capital and all Interest in respect of the Loans and all other Borrower Obligations, the Borrower hereby grants to the Administrative Agent for its benefit and the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties, a continuing security interest in, all of the Borrower's right, title and interest in, to and under all of the following, whether now or hereafter owned, existing or arising (collectively, the "Collateral"): (i) all Pool Receivables, (ii) all Related Security with respect to such Pool Receivables, (iii) all Collections with respect to such Pool Receivables, (iv) the Lock-Boxes and Collection Accounts and all amounts on deposit therein, and all certificates and instruments, if any, from time to time evidencing such Lock-Boxes and Collection Accounts and amounts on deposit therein, (v) all rights (but none of the obligations) of the Borrower under the Receivables Purchase Agreement, (vi) all goods (including inventory, equipment and any accessions thereto), instruments (including promissory notes), documents, accounts, chattel paper (whether tangible or electronic), deposit accounts, securities accounts, securities entitlements, letter-of-credit rights, commercial tort claims, securities and all other investment property, supporting obligations, money, any other contract rights or rights to the payment of money, insurance claims and proceeds, and all general intangibles (including all payment intangibles) (each as defined in the UCC), and (vii) all proceeds of, and all amounts received or receivable under any or all of, the foregoing.

(b) The Administrative Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) shall have, with respect to all the Collateral, and in addition to all the other rights and remedies available to the Administrative Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties), all the rights and remedies of a secured party under any applicable UCC. The Borrower hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to file financing statements describing the collateral covered thereby as "all assets of the Debtor, wherever located, whether now owned or hereafter acquired or arising, and all proceeds and products thereof" or words to that effect.

(c) Immediately upon the occurrence of the Final Payout Date, the Collateral shall be automatically released from the lien created hereby, and this Agreement and all obligations (other than those expressly stated to survive such termination) of the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and the other Credit Parties hereunder shall terminate, all without delivery of any instrument or performance of any act by any party, and all rights to the Collateral shall revert to the Borrower; provided, however, that promptly following written request therefor by the Borrower delivered to the Administrative Agent following any such termination, and at the sole expense of the Borrower, the Administrative Agent shall execute and deliver to the Borrower UCC-3 termination statements, Account Control Agreement termination letters and such other documents as the Borrower, the Servicer or any Originator shall reasonably request to evidence such termination.

SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES AND PAYMENT PROVISION

Section 4.01. Settlement Procedures. (a) The Servicer shall set aside and hold in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties (or, if so requested by the Administrative Agent, segregate in a separate account in the name of the Borrower and approved by the Administrative Agent), for application in accordance with the priority of payments set forth below, all Collections or Deemed Collections on Pool Receivables that are received by the Servicer or the Borrower or received in any Lock-Box or Collection Account; provided, however, that so long as each of the conditions precedent set forth in Section 6.03 are satisfied, the Servicer may release to the Borrower from such Collections the amount (if any) necessary to pay the purchase price for Receivables purchased by the Borrower in accordance with the terms of the Receivables Purchase Agreement or to pay amounts in respect of any Subordinated Note (each such release, a “Reinvestment”). On each Settlement Date, the Servicer (or, following its assumption of control of the Collection Accounts, the Administrative Agent) shall, distribute such non-released Collections or Deemed Collections in the following order of priority:

(i) first, to the Servicer for the payment of the accrued Servicing Fees payable for the immediately preceding Interest Period (plus, if applicable, the amount of Servicing Fees payable for any prior Interest Period to the extent the full amount owed has not been distributed to the Servicer);

(ii) second, to each Lender and other Credit Party (ratably, based on the amount then due and owing), all accrued and unpaid Interest, Fees and Breakage Fees due to such Lender and other Credit Party for the immediately preceding Interest Period (including any additional amounts or indemnified amounts payable under Sections 5.03 and 13.01 in respect of such payments), plus, if applicable, the amount of any such Interest, Fees and Breakage Fees (including any additional amounts or indemnified amounts payable under Sections 5.03 and 13.01 in respect of such payments) payable for any prior Interest Period to the extent such amount has not been distributed to such Lender or Credit Party;

(iii) third, as set forth in clause (x), (y) or (z) below, as applicable:

(x) prior to the occurrence of the Termination Date, to the extent that a Borrowing Base Deficit exists on such date, to the Lenders (ratably, based on the aggregate outstanding Capital of each Lender at such time) for the payment of a portion of the outstanding Aggregate Capital at such time, in an aggregate amount equal to the amount necessary to reduce the Borrowing Base Deficit to zero ($0);

(y) on and after the occurrence of the Termination Date, to each Lender (ratably, based on the aggregate outstanding Capital of each Lender at such time) for the payment in full of the aggregate outstanding Capital of such Lender at such time; or

(z) prior to the occurrence of the Termination Date, at the election of the Borrower and in accordance with Section 2.02(d), to the payment of all or any portion of the outstanding Capital of the Lenders at such time (ratably, based on the aggregate outstanding Capital of each Lender at such time);

(iv) fourth, to the Credit Parties, the Affected Persons and the Borrower Indemnified Parties (ratably, based on the amount due and owing at such time), for the payment of all other Borrower Obligations then due and owing by the Borrower to the Credit Parties, the Affected Persons and the Borrower Indemnified Parties;

(v) fifth, to the Borrower, for further payment to each Originator (i) to pay any accrued and unpaid interest due on the Subordinated Note (if any) held by such Originator and (ii) following the occurrence of the Termination Date, to pay the outstanding principal balance of the Subordinated Note (if any) held by such Originator; and

(vi) sixth, the balance, if any, to be paid to the Borrower for its own account.

(b) All payments or distributions to be made by the Servicer, the Borrower and any other Person to the Lenders (or their respective related Affected Persons and the Borrower Indemnified Parties), shall be paid or distributed to the related Group Agent at its Group Agent's Account. Each Group Agent, upon its receipt in the applicable Group Agent's Account of any such payments or distributions, shall distribute such amounts to the applicable Lenders, Affected Persons and the Borrower Indemnified Parties within its Group ratably; provided that if such Group Agent shall have received insufficient funds to pay all of the above amounts in full on any such date, such Group Agent shall pay such amounts to the applicable Lenders, Affected Persons and the Borrower Indemnified Parties within its Group in accordance with the priority of payments forth above, and with respect to any such category above for which there are insufficient funds to pay all amounts owing on such date, ratably (based on the amounts in such categories owing to each such Person in such Group) among all such Persons in such Group entitled to payment thereof.

(c) If and to the extent the Administrative Agent, any Credit Party, any Affected Person or any Borrower Indemnified Party shall be required for any reason to pay over to any Person (other than to any Person that is a party hereto as contemplated by this Agreement) any amount received on its behalf hereunder, such amount shall be deemed not to have been so received but rather to have been retained by the Borrower and, accordingly, the Administrative Agent, such Credit Party, such Affected Person or such Borrower Indemnified Party, as the case may be, shall have a claim against the Borrower for such amount.

(d) For the purposes of this Section 4.01:

(i) if on any day the Outstanding Balance of any Pool Receivable is reduced or adjusted as a result of any defective, rejected, returned, repossessed or foreclosed goods or services, or any revision, cancellation, allowance, rebate, credit memo, discount or other adjustment made by the Borrower, any Originator, the Servicer, or any Affiliate of the Servicer or any setoff, counterclaim or dispute between or among the Borrower or any Affiliate of the Borrower, an Originator or any Affiliate of an Originator, or the Servicer or any Affiliate of the Servicer, and an Obligor, the Borrower shall be deemed to have received on such day a Collection of such Pool Receivable in the amount of such reduction or adjustment. If the Termination Date or a Termination Event has occurred and is continuing or a Borrowing Base Deficit exists (or in each case would exist after giving effect to such reduction or adjustment), the Borrower shall immediately demand any amounts in respect thereof that are owing pursuant to the Receivables Purchase Agreement or any other Transaction Document and pay any and all such amounts received in respect thereof to a Collection Account (or as otherwise directed by the Administrative Agent at such time) for the benefit of the Credit Parties for application pursuant to Section 4.01(a). (Collections deemed to have been received pursuant to Section 4.01(d) are hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Deemed Collections");

(ii) except as provided in clause (i) above or otherwise as required by Applicable Law or the relevant Contract, all Deemed Collections received from an Obligor of any Receivable shall be applied to the Receivables of such Obligor in the order of the age of such Receivables, starting with the oldest such Receivable, unless such Obligor designates in writing its payment for application to specific Receivables; and

(iv) if and to the extent the Administrative Agent, any Credit Party, any Affected Person or any Borrower Indemnified Party shall be required for any reason to pay over to an Obligor (or any trustee, receiver, custodian or similar official in any Insolvency Proceeding) any amount received by it hereunder, such amount shall be deemed not to have been so received by such Person but rather to have been retained by the Borrower and, accordingly, such Person shall have a claim against the Borrower for such amount, payable when and to the extent that any distribution from or on behalf of such Obligor is made in respect thereof.

Section 4.02. Payments and Computations, Etc. (a) All amounts to be paid by the Borrower or the Servicer to the Administrative Agent, any Credit Party, any Affected Person or any Borrower Indemnified Party hereunder shall be paid no later than 12:00 Noon (New York City time) on the day when due in same day funds to the applicable Group Agent's Account.

(b) Each of the Borrower and the Servicer shall, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, pay interest on any amount (other than in respect of Capital of the Loans, which shall accrue interest at the Bank Rate) for each day not paid or deposited by it when due hereunder, at an interest rate per annum equal to 2.00% per annum above the Base Rate, payable on demand.

(c) All computations of interest under subsection (b) above and all computations of Interest, Fees and other amounts hereunder shall be made on the basis of a year of 360 days (or, in the case of amounts determined by reference to the Base Rate, 365 or 366 days, as applicable) for the actual number of days (including the first but excluding the last day) elapsed. Whenever any payment or deposit to be made hereunder shall be due on a day other than a Business Day, such payment or deposit shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day and such extension of time shall be included in the computation of such payment or deposit.

INCREASED COSTS; FUNDING LOSSES; TAXES; AND ILLEGALITY

Section 5.01. Increased Costs.

(a) Increased Costs Generally. If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, liquidity, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Affected Person (except any such reserve requirements reflected in Adjusted LIBOR or LMIR);

(ii) subject any Affected Person to any Taxes (other than Indemnified Taxes, Taxes described in clauses (b) through (d) of the definition of Excluded Taxes, and Connection Income Taxes) on its loans, loan principal, letters of credit, commitments or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto; or

(iii) impose on any Affected Person any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) (A) affecting the Collateral, this Agreement, any other Transaction Document, any Program Support Agreement, any Loan or any participation therein or (B) affecting its obligations or rights to make Loans; and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Affected Person of (A) acting as the Administrative Agent, a Group Agent or a Lender hereunder or as a Program Support Provider with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, (B) funding or maintaining any Loan or (C) maintaining its obligation to fund or maintain any Loan, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Affected Person hereunder, then, upon request of such Affected Person (or its Group Agent), the Borrower shall pay to such Affected Person such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Affected Person for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered in accordance with Section 5.01(d).

(b) Capital and Liquidity Requirements. If any Affected Person determines that any Change in Law affecting such Affected Person or any lending office of such Affected Person or such Affected Person's holding company, if any, regarding capital or liquidity requirements, has or would have the effect of (x) increasing the amount of capital required to be maintained by such Affected Person or Affected Person's holding company, if any, or increasing the amount of high quality liquid assets such Affected Person or Affected Person's holding company, if any, is required to maintain as a result of any funding commitment made by such Affected Person under any Transaction Document, (y) reducing the rate of return on such Affected Person's capital or on the capital of such Affected Person's holding company, if any, or (z) causing an internal capital or liquidity charge or other imputed cost to be assessed upon such Affected Person or Affected Person's holding company, if any, in each case, as a consequence of (A) this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, (B) the commitments of such Affected Person hereunder or under any related Program Support Agreement, (C) the Loans made by such Affected Person, or (D) any Capital, to a level below that which such Affected Person or such Affected Person's holding company would have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Affected Person's policies and the policies of such Affected Person's holding company with respect to capital adequacy and liquidity), then from time to time, upon request by such Affected Person, the Borrower will pay to such Affected Person such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Affected Person or such Affected Person's holding company for any such increase, reduction or charge suffered in accordance with Section 5.01(d).

(c) Adoption of Changes in Law. The Borrower acknowledges that any Affected Person may institute measures in anticipation of a Change in Law (including, without limitation, the imposition of internal charges on such Affected Person's interests or obligations under any Transaction Document or Program Support Agreement), and may commence allocating charges to or seeking compensation from the Borrower under this Section 5.01 in connection with such measures, in advance of the effective date of such Change in Law, and the Borrower agrees to pay such charges or compensation to such Affected Person, following demand therefor in accordance with the terms of this Section 5.01, without regard to whether such effective date has occurred.

(d) Certificates for Reimbursement. A certificate of an Affected Person (or its Group Agent on its behalf) setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Affected Person or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in clause (a), (b) or (c) of this Section and delivered to the Borrower, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall, subject to the priorities of payment set forth in Section 4.01, pay such Affected Person the amount shown as due on any such certificate on the later of (i) the first Settlement Date occurring after the Borrower's receipt of such certificate and (ii) ten (10) days after the Borrower's receipt of such certificate.

(e) Delay in Requests. Failure or delay on the part of any Affected Person to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Affected Person's right to demand such compensation provided that the Borrower shall not be required to compensate an Affected Person pursuant to this Section 5.01 for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Affected Person notifies the Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Affected Person's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided further that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

Section 5.02. Funding Losses.

(a) The Borrower will pay each Lender all Breakage Fees as and when due and owing.

(b) A certificate of a Lender (or its Group Agent on its behalf) setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender, as specified in clause (a) above and delivered to the Borrower together with all backup information and documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower, shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall, subject to the priorities of payment set forth in Section 4.01, pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate on the later of (i) the first Settlement Date occurring after the Borrower's receipt of such certificate and (ii) ten (10) days after the Borrower's receipt of such certificate.

Section 5.03. Taxes.

(a) Payments Free of Taxes. Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation under any Transaction Document shall be made without deduction or withholding for any Taxes, except as required by Applicable Law. If any Applicable Law (as determined in the good faith discretion of an applicable withholding agent) requires the deduction or withholding of any Tax from any such payment by such withholding agent, then the applicable withholding agent shall be entitled to make such deduction or withholding and shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Applicable Law, and, if such Tax is an Indemnified Tax, then the sum payable shall be increased as necessary so that after such deduction or withholding has been made (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 5.03), the applicable Affected Person or Borrower Indemnified Party receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been made.

(b) Payment of Other Taxes by the Borrower. The Borrower shall timely pay to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Applicable Law, or, at the option of the Administrative Agent, timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(c) Indemnification by the Borrower. The Borrower shall indemnify each Affected Person, within ten days after demand therefor, for the full amount of (I) any Indemnified Taxes (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 5.03) payable or paid by such Affected Person or required to be withheld or deducted from a payment to such Affected Person and any penalties, interest and reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority and (II) the excess, if any of the amount of (A) any U.S. federal, state or local income and franchise Taxes payable by such Affected Person with respect to payments received by such Affected Person under this Agreement as a result of a Governmental Authority successfully challenging the Intended Tax Treatment of a Loan over (B) U.S. federal, state or local income and franchise Taxes that would have been payable by such Affected Person with respect to such payments described in clause (A) if such Loan were treated in accordance with the Intended Tax Treatment, provided that the amount described in this clause (II), if applicable, shall be increased to take into account the taxability of receipt of payments under this clause (II)). A certificate that states the amount of such payment or liability shall be delivered to the Borrower by an Affected Person (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) together with all backup information and documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower, or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of an Affected Person and shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Indemnification by the Lenders. Each Lender (other than the Conduit Lenders) shall severally indemnify the Administrative Agent, within ten days after demand therefor, for (i) any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Lender, its Related Conduit Lender or any of their respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons (but only to the extent that the Borrower and its Affiliates have not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting any obligation of the Borrower, the Servicer or their Affiliates to do so), (ii) any Taxes attributable to the failure of such Lender, its Related Conduit Lender or any of their respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons to comply with Section 14.03(f) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, its Related Conduit Lender or any of their respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent in connection with any Transaction Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender (or its Group Agent) by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender (other than the Conduit Lenders) hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender, its Related Conduit Lender or any of their respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons under any Transaction Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent to such Lender, its Related Conduit Lender or any of their respective Affiliates that are Affected Persons from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this clause (d).

(e) Evidence of Payments. As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by the Borrower to a Governmental Authority pursuant to this Section 5.03, the Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(f) Status of Credit Parties. (i) Any Credit Party that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments made under any Transaction Document shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding. In addition, any Credit Party, if reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by Applicable Law or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Credit Party is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding two sentences, the completion, execution and submission of such documentation (other than such documentation set forth in Sections 5.03(f)(i)(A), 5.03(f)(i)(B) and 5.03(g)) shall not be required if, in the Credit Party's reasonable judgment, such completion, execution or submission would subject such Credit Party to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Credit Party.

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(A) any Credit Party that is a “United States Person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or about the date on which such Credit Party becomes a party hereto (and from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 certifying that such Credit Party is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding Tax;

(B) any Credit Party that is not a “United States Person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code (a “Foreign Credit Party”) shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) on or about the date on which such Foreign Credit Party becomes a Credit Party with respect to this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent), whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) in the case of such a Foreign Credit Party claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party, (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Transaction Document, executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN-E (or successor form) establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. Federal withholding Tax pursuant to the “interest” article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Transaction Document, Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Internal Revenue Form W-8BEN-E (or successor form) establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. Federal withholding Tax pursuant to the “business profits” or “other income” article of such tax treaty;

(2) executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI;

(3) in the case of a Foreign Credit Party claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate to the effect that such Foreign Credit Party is not a “bank” within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a “10 percent shareholder” of the Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or a “controlled foreign corporation” related to the Borrower described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a “U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate”) and (y) executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN-E (or successor form); or

(4) to the extent such Foreign Credit Party is not the beneficial owner, executed copies of Internal Revenue Service Form W-8IMY, accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI, Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN or Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN-E (or successor form), a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate, Internal Revenue Service Form W-9, and/or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that, if such Credit Party is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Foreign Credit Party are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Foreign Credit Party may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner; and

(C) any Foreign Credit Party, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient), on or about the date on which such Foreign Credit Party becomes a party hereto (and from time to time upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of any other form prescribed by Applicable Law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by Applicable Law to permit the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made.

(g) Documentation Required by FATCA. If a payment made to a Credit Party under any Transaction Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Credit Party were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Credit Party shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by Applicable Law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by Applicable Law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrower and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Credit Party has complied with such Credit Party's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (g), "FATCA" shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(h) Survival. Each party's obligations under this Section 5.03 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Credit Party or any other Affected person, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all the Borrower Obligations and the Servicer's obligations hereunder.

(i) Updates. Each Credit Party agrees that if any form or certification it previously delivered pursuant to this Section 5.03 expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall update such form or certification or promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent in writing of its legal inability to do so.

(j) Treatment of Certain Refunds. If any party determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified pursuant to this Section 5.03 (including by the payment of additional amounts pursuant to this Section 5.03), it shall pay to the indemnifying party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made under this Section 5.03 with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including Taxes) of such indemnified party and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). Such indemnifying party, upon the request of such indemnified party, shall repay to such indemnified party the amount paid over pursuant to this paragraph (j) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such indemnified party is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (j), in no event will the indemnified party be required to pay any amount to an indemnifying party pursuant to this paragraph (j) the payment of which would place the indemnified party in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the indemnified party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require any indemnified party to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the indemnifying party or any other Person.

Section 5.04. Inability to Determine Euro-Rate; Change in Legality. (a) If any Group Agent shall have determined (which determination shall be conclusive and binding upon the parties hereto absent manifest error) before the first day of any Interest Period (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to Adjusted LIBOR) or on any day (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to LMIR), by reason of circumstances affecting the interbank Eurodollar market, either that: (i) dollar deposits in the relevant amounts and for the relevant Interest Period or day, as applicable, are not available, (ii) adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Euro-Rate for such Interest Period or day, as applicable, or (iii) the Euro-Rate determined pursuant hereto does not accurately reflect the cost to the applicable Affected Person (as conclusively determined by such Group Agent) of maintaining any Portion of Capital during such Interest Period or day, as applicable, such Group Agent shall promptly give telephonic notice of such determination, confirmed in writing, to the Borrower before the first day of any Interest Period (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to Adjusted LIBOR) or on such day (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to LMIR). Upon delivery of such notice: (i) no Portion of Capital shall be funded thereafter at the Euro-Rate unless and until such Group Agent shall have given notice to the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist and (ii) with respect to any outstanding Portion of Capital then funded at the Euro-Rate, the Interest Rate with respect to such Portion of Capital shall automatically be converted to the Base Rate on the last day of the then-current Interest Period (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to Adjusted LIBOR) or immediately (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to LMIR).

(b) If, on or before the first day of any Interest Period (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to Adjusted LIBOR) or on any day (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to LMIR), any Group Agent shall have been notified by any Affected Person that such Affected Person has determined (which determination shall be final and conclusive absent manifest error) that any Change in Law, or compliance by such Affected Person with any Change in Law, shall make it unlawful or impossible for such Affected Person to fund or maintain any Portion of Capital at or by reference to the Euro-Rate, such Group Agent shall notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent thereof. Upon receipt of such notice, until the applicable Group Agent notifies the Borrower and the Administrative Agent that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer apply, (i) no Portion of Capital shall be funded thereafter at the Euro-Rate unless and until such Lender shall have given notice to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist and (ii) with respect to any outstanding Portion of Capital then funded at the Euro-Rate, the Interest Rate with respect to such Portion of Capital shall automatically be converted to the Base Rate on the last day of the then-current Interest Period (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to Adjusted LIBOR) or immediately (with respect to the Euro-Rate determined by reference to LMIR).

Section 5.05. Mitigation Obligations; Replacement of Lenders.

(a) If any Affected Person requests compensation under Section 5.01, or the Borrower is required to pay any Indemnified Taxes or additional amounts to any Affected Person or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Affected Person pursuant to Section 5.03, then such Affected Person (at the request of the Borrower) shall use reasonable efforts to designate a different lending office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or Affiliates, if, in the judgment of such Affected Person, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 5.01 or 5.03, as the case may be, in the future and (ii) would not subject such Affected Person to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Affected Person. The Borrower hereby agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Affected Person in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(b) If (i) any Affected Person requests compensation under Section 5.01, (ii) the Borrower is required to pay any Indemnified Taxes or additional amounts to any Affected Person or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Affected Person pursuant to Section 5.03 or (iii) any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then the Borrower may, at its sole expense and effort, upon notice to the related Group Agent and the Administrative Agent, require such Group Agent to cause the related Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 14.03), all its interests, rights (other than its existing rights to payments pursuant to Section 5.01 or 5.03) and obligations under the Transaction Documents to an assignee that shall assume such obligations (which, in the case of a Lender, shall be an Eligible Assignee); provided that (i) the Borrower shall have received the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed, (ii) such Affected Person, if a Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder, from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrower (in the case of all other amounts) and (iii) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 5.01 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 5.03, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments. A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment and delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or an Affected Person or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrower to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply.

Section 5.06. Certain Rules Relating to the Payment of Additional Amounts. If any Affected Person requests compensation under Section 5.01, or if the Borrower is required to pay any additional amount to any Affected Person or to any Governmental Authority for the account of any Affected Person pursuant to Section 5.03, then such Affected Person shall (at the request of the Borrower) use commercially reasonable efforts to designate a different lending office for funding or booking the related Loans hereunder or to assign and delegate (or cause to be assigned and delegated) such Affected Person's rights and obligations hereunder to another office, branch or Affiliate of such Affected Person if, in the judgment of such Affected Person, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 5.01 or 5.03, as the case may be, in the future and (ii) would not subject such Affected Person to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Affected Person. The Borrower hereby agrees to pay all reasonable out of pocket costs and expenses incurred by any Affected Person in connection with any such designation or assignment and delegation.

Section 5.07. Successor Adjusted LIBOR; LMIR or EURO-Rate .

(a) Benchmark Replacement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Transaction Documents, upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event or an Early Opt-in Event, as applicable, the Administrative Agent and the Borrower may amend this Agreement to replace Adjusted LIBOR with a Benchmark Replacement. Any such amendment with respect to a Benchmark Transition Event will become effective at 5:00 p.m. New York City time on the fifth (5th) Business Day after the Administrative Agent has posted such proposed amendment, with the consent of the Borrower, to all Lenders, Group Agents and the Borrower so long as the Administrative Agent has not received, by such time, written notice of objection to such amendment from the Lenders comprising the Majority Group Agents. Any such amendment with respect to an Early Opt-in Event will become effective on the date that Lenders comprising the Majority Group Agents have delivered to the Administrative Agent written notice that such Majority Group Agents accept such amendment. No replacement of Adjusted LIBOR with a Benchmark Replacement pursuant to this Section 5.07 will occur prior to the applicable Benchmark Transition Start Date.

(b) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Administrative Agent will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Transaction Document, any amendments implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement.

(c) Notices; Standards for Decisions and Determinations. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Borrower, the Group Agents and the Lenders of (i) any occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event or an Early Opt-in Event, as applicable, and its related Benchmark Replacement Date and Benchmark Transition Start Date, (ii) the implementation of any Benchmark Replacement, (iii) the effectiveness of any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes and (iv) the commencement or conclusion of any Benchmark Unavailability Period. Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Administrative Agent, the Lenders or the Group Agents pursuant to this Section 5.07, including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action, will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error and may be made in its or their sole discretion and without consent from any other party hereto, except, in each case, as expressly required pursuant to this Section 5.07.

(d) Benchmark Unavailability Period. Upon the Borrower's receipt of notice of the commencement of a Benchmark Unavailability Period, the Borrower may revoke any request for a Euro-Rate Loan of, conversion to or continuation of Euro-Rate Loans to be made, converted or continued during any Benchmark Unavailability Period and, failing that, the Borrower will be deemed to have converted any such request into a request for a borrowing of or conversion to Loans bearing interest at the Base Rate. During any Benchmark Unavailability Period, the component of Base Rate based upon Adjusted LIBOR will not be used in any determination of Base Rate.

(g) Governmental Approvals. Except where the failure to obtain or make such authorization, consent, order, approval or action could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, all authorizations, consents, orders and approvals of, or other actions by, any Governmental Authority that are required to be obtained by the Borrower in connection with the grant of a security interest in the Collateral to the Administrative Agent hereunder or the due execution, delivery and performance by the Borrower of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document to which it is a party and the consummation by the Borrower of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party have been obtained or made and are in full force and effect.

(i) The Borrower is in compliance in all material respects with the material provisions of the USA PATRIOT Act, and, at least three Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Borrower has provided to the Administrative Agent all information related to the Performance Guarantor, the Borrower and any Subsidiary of the Borrower (including names, addresses and tax identification numbers (if applicable)) reasonably requested in writing by the Administrative Agent not less than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Closing Date and mutually agreed to be required under “know your customer” and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including the USA PATRIOT Act, to be obtained by the Administrative Agent or any Lender.

(ii) None of the Performance Guarantor, the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries nor, to the knowledge of the Borrower, any director, officer, agent, employee or Affiliate of the Borrower or any of the Subsidiaries is currently subject to any U.S. sanctions administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Treasury Department (“OFAC”) or the U.S. Treasury Department, the European Union or relevant member states of the European Union, the United Nations Security Council or Her Majesty’s Treasury (“Sanctions”). The Borrower will not directly or indirectly use the proceeds of the Loans or otherwise make available such proceeds to any person, for the purpose of financing the activities of any person that is currently the target of any Sanctions or for the purpose of funding, financing or facilitating any activities, business or transaction with or in any country that is the target of the Sanctions, to the extent such activities, businesses or transaction would be prohibited by sanctions laws and regulations administered by the United States, including OFAC and the U.S. State Department, the United Nations Security Council, Her Majesty’s Treasury, the European Union or relevant member states of the European Union (collectively, the “Sanctions Laws”), or in any manner that would result in the violation of any Sanctions Laws applicable to any party hereto.

(q) Perfection Representations.

(i) This Agreement creates a valid and continuing security interest (as defined in the applicable UCC) in the Borrower’s right, title and interest in, to and under the Collateral that is of a type of property in which a security interest can be created pursuant to Article 9 of the UCC of the State of New York. Such valid and continuing security interest (A) will be perfected upon the filing of an appropriately completed financing statement naming the Borrower as debtor and listing the Collateral as the collateral covered thereby and, upon such perfection, is enforceable against creditors of and purchasers from the Borrower under Applicable Law and (B) will be free of all Adverse Claims in such Collateral other than Permitted Adverse Claims.

(ii) The Receivables are “accounts” or “general intangibles” within the meaning of Section 9-102 of the UCC.

(iii) The Borrower owns and has good and marketable title to the Collateral free and clear of any Adverse Claim of any Person other than Permitted Adverse Claims.

(iv) All appropriate financing statements, financing statement amendments and continuation statements have been filed or will be filed (within ten days after the Closing Date) in the proper filing office in the appropriate jurisdictions under Applicable Law in order to perfect (and continue the perfection of) the sale of the Receivables and Related Security from each Originator to the Borrower pursuant to the Receivables Purchase Agreement and the Administrative Agent’s security interest in the Collateral.

(v) Other than the security interest granted to the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Agreement, the Borrower has not pledged, assigned, sold, granted a security interest in, or otherwise conveyed any of the Collateral except as permitted by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. The Borrower has not authorized the filing of and is not aware of any financing statements filed against the Borrower that include a description of collateral covering the Collateral other than any financing statement (i) in favor of the Administrative Agent or (ii) that has been terminated. The Borrower is not aware of any judgment lien, ERISA lien or tax lien filings against the Borrower.

(vi) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, the representations contained in this Section 7.01(q) shall be continuing and shall remain in full force and effect until the Final Payout Date.

(r) The Lock-Boxes and Collection Accounts.

(i) Nature of Collection Accounts. Each Collection Account is a “deposit account” within the meaning of the applicable UCC.

(ii) Ownership. Each Lock-Box and Collection Account is in the name of the Borrower and the Borrower owns and has good and marketable title to the Collection Accounts free and clear of any Adverse Claim other than Permitted Adverse Claims.

(iii) Perfection. The Borrower and/or the Servicer, as applicable, has delivered to the Administrative Agent a fully executed Account Control Agreement relating to each Lock-Box and Collection Account, pursuant to which each applicable Collection Account Bank has agreed to comply with the instructions originated by the Administrative Agent directing the disposition of funds in such Lock-Box and Collection Account without further consent by the Borrower, the Servicer or any other Person. The Administrative Agent has “control” (as defined in § 9-104 of the UCC) over each Collection Account.

(iv) Instructions. Neither the Lock-Boxes nor the Collection Accounts are in the name of any Person other than the Borrower. The Borrower has not consented to the applicable Collection Account Bank complying with instructions of any Person other than the Administrative Agent.

(s) Ordinary Course of Business. Each remittance of Collections by or on behalf of the Borrower to the Credit Parties under this Agreement will have been (i) in payment of a debt incurred by the Borrower in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the Borrower and (ii) made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the Borrower.

(t) Compliance with Law. The Borrower has complied with all Applicable Laws to which it may be subject, except where the failure to do so, could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(u) Bulk Sales Act. No transaction contemplated by this Agreement requires compliance by it with any bulk sales act or similar law.

(v) Eligible Receivables. Each Receivable included as an Eligible Receivable in the calculation of the Net Receivables Pool Balance as of any date is an Eligible Receivable as of such date.

(w) Opinions. The facts regarding the Borrower, the Servicer, each Originator, the Performance Guarantor, the Receivables, the Related Security and the related matters set forth or assumed in each of the opinions of counsel delivered in connection with this Agreement and the Transaction Documents are true and correct in all material respects.

(x) Other Transaction Documents. Each representation and warranty made by the Borrower under each other Transaction Document to which it is a party is true and correct in all material respects as of the date when made, unless such representations and warranties by their terms refer to an earlier date, in which case they shall be true and correct in all material respects on and as of such earlier date.

(y) Liquidity Coverage Ratio. The Borrower has not, does not and will not during this Agreement (x) issue any obligations that (A) are asset-backed commercial paper, or (B) are securities required to be registered under the Securities Act or that may be offered for sale under Rule 144A or a similar exemption from registration under the Securities Act or the rules promulgated thereunder, or (y) issue any other debt obligations or equity interest other than debt obligations substantially similar to the obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement that are (A) issued to other banks or asset-backed commercial paper conduits in privately negotiated transactions, and (B) subject to transfer restrictions substantially similar to the transfer restrictions set forth in this Agreement. The Borrower further represents and warrants that its assets and liabilities are consolidated with the assets and liabilities of the Performance Guarantor for purposes of generally accepted accounting principles.

The Borrower shall only terminate a Collection Account Bank or close a Collection Account (or a related Lock-Box) with the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. (k) Change in Credit and Collection Policy. The Borrower will not make any material change in the Credit and Collection Policy without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and the Majority Group Agents, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. The Borrower shall provide the Administrative Agent prior written notice before making any change in the Borrower's name or location or making any other change in the Borrower's identity or corporate structure that could impair or otherwise render any UCC financing statement filed in connection with this Agreement or any other Transaction Document "seriously misleading" as such term (or similar term) is used in the applicable UCC; each notice to the Administrative Agent and the Group Agents pursuant to this sentence shall set forth the applicable change and the proposed effective date thereof.

(m) Books and Records. The Borrower shall maintain and implement (or cause the Servicer to maintain and implement) administrative and operating procedures (including an ability to recreate records evidencing Pool Receivables and related Contracts in the event of the destruction of the originals thereof), and keep and maintain (or cause the Servicer to keep and maintain) all documents, books, records, computer tapes and disks and other information reasonably necessary or advisable for the collection of all Pool Receivables (including records adequate to permit the daily identification of each Pool Receivable and all Collections and Deemed Collections of and adjustments to each existing Pool Receivable).

(n) Identifying of Records. The Borrower shall: (i) identify (or cause the Servicer to identify) its master data processing records relating to Pool Receivables and related Contracts with a legend that indicates that the Pool Receivables have been pledged in accordance with this Agreement and (ii) cause each Originator so to identify its master data processing records with such a legend.

(o) Change in Payment Instructions to Obligors. The Borrower shall not (and shall not permit the Servicer or any Sub-Servicer to) add, replace or terminate any Collection Account (or any related Lock-Box) or make any change in its (or their) instructions to the Obligors regarding payments to be made to the Collection Accounts (or any related Lock-Box), other than any instruction to remit payments to a different Collection Account (or any related Lock-Box), unless the Administrative Agent shall have received a signed and acknowledged Account Control Agreement (or an amendment thereto) with respect to such new Collection Account (or any related Lock-Box), and, solely with respect to the replacement or termination of a Collection Account, the Administrative Agent shall have consented to such change in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(p) Security Interest, Etc. The Borrower shall (and shall cause the Servicer to), at its expense, take all action necessary or reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent or any Secured Party to establish and maintain a valid and enforceable first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral, in each case free and clear of any Adverse Claim other than Permitted Adverse Claims, in favor of the Administrative Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties), including taking such action to perfect, protect or more fully evidence the security interest of the Administrative Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties) as the Administrative Agent or any Secured Party may reasonably request. In order to evidence the security interests of the Administrative Agent under this Agreement, the Borrower shall, from time to time take such action, or execute and deliver such instruments as may be necessary (including, without limitation, such actions as are reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent) to maintain and perfect, as a first-priority interest, the Administrative Agent's security interest in the Receivables, Related Security and Collections. The Borrower shall, from time to time and within the time limits established by applicable law, prepare and present to the Administrative Agent for the Administrative Agent's authorization and approval, all financing statements, amendments, continuations or initial financing statements in lieu of a continuation statement, or other filings necessary to continue, maintain and perfect the Administrative Agent's security interest as a first-priority interest. The Administrative Agent's approval of such filings shall authorize the Borrower to file such financing statements under the UCC without the signature of the Borrower, any Originator or the Administrative Agent where allowed by Applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything else in the Transaction Documents to the contrary, the Borrower shall not have any authority to file a termination, partial termination, release, partial release, or any amendment that deletes the name of a debtor or excludes collateral of any such financing statements filed in connection with the Transaction Documents, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, except as set forth in Section 3.01(c) hereof.

(q) Certain Agreements. Other than in connection with the Final Payout Date, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and the Majority Group Agents, the Borrower will not (and will not permit any Originator or the Servicer to) amend, modify, waive, revoke or terminate any Transaction Document to which it is a party or any provision of the Borrower's organizational documents which requires the consent of the "Independent Manager" (as such term is used in the Borrower LLC Agreement).

(r) Restricted Payments. The Borrower will not: (A) purchase or redeem any of its membership interests, (B) declare or pay any dividend or set aside any funds for any such purpose, (C) prepay, purchase or redeem any Debt (other than any Borrower Obligations), (D) lend or advance any funds or (E) repay any loans or advances to, for or from any of its Affiliates (the amounts described in clauses (A) through (E) being referred to as "Restricted Payments"), except that the Borrower may make Restricted Payments so long as such Restricted Payments are made only in the following way: the Borrower may declare and pay dividends and distributions and make repayments on the Subordinated Notes if, both immediately before and immediately after giving effect thereto, no Termination Event, no Unmatured Termination Event and no Early Amortization Event has occurred and is continuing.

(s) Other Business. The Borrower will not: (i) engage in any business other than the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents, (ii) create, incur or permit to exist any Debt of any kind (or cause or permit to be issued for its account any letters of credit or bankers' acceptances) other than pursuant to this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents or (iii) form any Subsidiary or make any investments in any other Person.

(t) Use of Collections Available to the Borrower. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the Borrower shall apply the Collections available to the Borrower to make payments in the following order of priority: (i) the payment of its obligations under this Agreement and each of the other Transaction Documents and (ii) other legal and valid purposes.

(u) Further Assurances; Change in Name or Jurisdiction of Origination, etc. (i) The Borrower hereby authorizes and hereby agrees from time to time, at its own expense, promptly to execute (if necessary) and deliver all further instruments and documents, and to take all further actions, that may be necessary, or that the Administrative Agent may reasonably request, to perfect, protect or more fully evidence the security interest granted pursuant to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, or to enable the Administrative Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties) to exercise and enforce the Secured Parties' rights and remedies under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. Without limiting the foregoing, the Borrower hereby authorizes, and will, upon the request of the Administrative Agent, at the Borrower's own expense, execute (if necessary) and file such financing statements or continuation statements, or amendments thereto, and such other instruments and documents, that may be necessary, or that the Administrative Agent may reasonably request, to perfect, protect or evidence any of the foregoing.

(ii) The Borrower authorizes the Administrative Agent to file financing statements, continuation statements and amendments thereto and assignments thereof, relating to the Receivables, the Related Security, the related Contracts, Collections with respect thereto and the other Collateral without the signature of the Borrower. A photocopy or other reproduction of this Agreement shall be sufficient as a financing statement where permitted by law.

(iii) The Borrower shall at all times be organized under the laws of the State of Delaware and shall not take any action to change its jurisdiction of organization.

Section 9.01. Appointment of the Servicer. (a) The servicing, administering and collection of the Pool Receivables shall be conducted by the Person so designated from time to time as the Servicer in accordance with this Section 9.01. Until the Administrative Agent gives notice to Rackspace US (in accordance with this Section 9.01) of the designation of a new Servicer, Rackspace US is hereby designated as, and hereby agrees to perform the duties and obligations of, the Servicer pursuant to the terms hereof. Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Administrative Agent may (with the consent of the Majority Group Agents) and shall (at the direction of the Majority Group Agents) designate as Servicer any Person (including itself) to succeed Rackspace US or any successor Servicer, on the condition in each case that any such Person so designated shall agree in writing to perform the duties and obligations of the Servicer pursuant to the terms hereof. The Servicer shall be entitled to payment of all Servicing Fees and reimbursable expenses accrued prior to the date of such termination.

(b) Upon the designation of a successor Servicer as set forth in clause (a) above, Rackspace US agrees that it will terminate its activities as Servicer hereunder in a manner that the Administrative Agent reasonably determines will facilitate the transition of the performance of such activities to the new Servicer, and Rackspace US shall cooperate with and assist such new Servicer. Such cooperation shall include access to and transfer of records (including all Contracts) related to Pool Receivables and use by the new Servicer of all licenses (or the obtaining of new licenses), hardware or software reasonably necessary to collect the Pool Receivables and the Related Security.

(c) Rackspace US acknowledges that, in making its decision to execute and deliver this Agreement, the Administrative Agent and each member in each Group have relied on Rackspace US's agreement to act as Servicer hereunder. Accordingly, Rackspace US agrees that it will not voluntarily resign as Servicer without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and the Majority Group Agents, unless Rackspace US determines based on an opinion of counsel that it is prohibited by Applicable Law from performing its duties as Servicer hereunder.

(d) The Servicer may delegate its duties and obligations hereunder to any subservicer (each a "Sub-Servicer"); provided, that, in each such delegation: (i) the Servicer shall remain liable for the performance of the duties and obligations so delegated, (ii) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, each Lender and each Group Agent shall have the right to look solely to the Servicer for performance, (iii) such Sub-Servicer's right to subservice shall immediately terminate upon the termination of the Servicer hereunder (unless such Sub-Servicer is only servicing Receivables that have been, consistent with past practices, been written off as uncollectible, in which case such subservicing is not required to immediately terminate) and (iv) if such Sub-Servicer is not an Affiliate of Rackspace US, the Administrative Agent and the Majority Group Agents shall have consented in writing in advance to such delegation (unless such Sub-Servicer is only servicing Receivables that have been, consistent with past practices, been written off as uncollectible, in which case such consent is not required).

(a) The Servicer shall take or cause to be taken all such action as may be necessary or reasonably advisable to service, administer and collect each Pool Receivable from time to time, all in accordance with this Agreement and all Applicable Laws, with reasonable care and diligence, and in accordance with the Credit and Collection Policy (or the current and historical practices of the applicable Originator if the Credit and Collection Policy has not been delivered pursuant to Section 8.01(cc)) and consistent with the past practices of the Originators. The Servicer shall set aside, for the accounts of each Group, the amount of Collections and Deemed Collections to which each such Group is entitled in accordance with Article IV hereof. The Servicer may, in accordance with the Credit and Collection Policy (or the current and historical practices of the applicable Originator if the Credit and Collection Policy has not been delivered pursuant to Section 8.01(cc)) and consistent with past practices of the Originators, take such action, including modifications, waivers or restructurings of Pool Receivables and related Contracts, as the Servicer may reasonably determine to be appropriate to maximize Collections thereof or reflect adjustments expressly permitted under the Credit and Collection Policy (or the current and historical practices of the applicable Originator if the Credit and Collection Policy has not been delivered pursuant to Section 8.01(cc)) or as expressly required under Applicable Laws or the applicable Contract; provided, that for purposes of this Agreement: (i) such action shall not, and shall not be deemed to, change the number of days such Pool Receivable has remained unpaid from the date of the original due date related to such Pool Receivable, (ii) such action shall not alter the status of such Pool Receivable as a Delinquent Receivable or a Defaulted Receivable or limit the rights of any Secured Party under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document and (iii) if (x) a Termination Event has occurred and is continuing and (y) the Administrative Agent has delivered to the Servicer notice that such actions require the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, the Servicer may take such action only upon the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent. The Borrower shall deliver to the Servicer and the Servicer shall hold for the benefit of the Administrative Agent (individually and for the benefit of each Group), in accordance with their respective interests, all records and documents (including computer tapes or disks) with respect to each Pool Receivable.

(b) The Servicer shall, as soon as reasonably practicable following actual receipt of collected funds, turn over to the appropriate Person entitled thereto the collections of any indebtedness that is not a Pool Receivable, less, if Rackspace US or an Affiliate thereof is not the Servicer, all reasonable and appropriate out-of-pocket costs and expenses of such Servicer of servicing, collecting and administering such collections. The Servicer, if other than Rackspace US or an Affiliate thereof, shall, as soon as reasonably practicable upon written demand, deliver to the appropriate Person entitled thereto all records in its possession that evidence or relate to any indebtedness that is not a Pool Receivable, and copies of records in its possession that evidence or relate to any indebtedness that is a Pool Receivable.

(c) The Servicer's obligations hereunder shall terminate on the Final Payout Date. Promptly following the Final Payout date, the Servicer shall deliver to the Borrower all books, records and related materials that the Borrower previously provided to the Servicer, or that have been obtained by the Servicer, in connection with this Agreement.

Section 9.03. Collection Account Arrangements. Prior to the Closing Date, the Borrower and/or the Servicer, as applicable, shall have entered into Account Control Agreements with all of the Collection Account Banks and delivered executed counterparts of each to the Administrative Agent. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Termination Event, the Administrative Agent may (with the consent of the Majority Group Agents) and shall (upon the direction of the Majority Group Agents) at any time thereafter give notice to each Collection Account Bank that the Administrative Agent is exercising its rights under the Collection Account Agreements to do any or all of the following: (a) to have the exclusive ownership and control of the Collection Accounts transferred to the Administrative Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) and to exercise exclusive dominion and control over the funds deposited therein, (b) to have the proceeds that are sent to the respective Collection Accounts redirected pursuant to the Administrative Agent's instructions rather than deposited in the applicable Collection Account and (c) to take any or all other actions permitted under the applicable Account Control Agreement. The Borrower hereby agrees that if the Administrative Agent at any time takes any action set forth in the preceding sentence, the Administrative Agent shall have exclusive control (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) of the proceeds (including Collections and Deemed Collections) of all Pool Receivables and the Borrower hereby further agrees to take any other action that the Administrative Agent may reasonably request to transfer such control. Any proceeds of Pool Receivables received by the Borrower or the Servicer thereafter shall be sent immediately to, or as otherwise instructed by, the Administrative Agent.

Section 9.04. Enforcement Rights. (a) At any time following the occurrence and during the continuation of a Termination Event:

(i) the Administrative Agent (at the Borrower's expense) may direct the Obligor that payment of all amounts payable under any Pool Receivable is to be made directly to the Administrative Agent or its designee;

(ii) the Administrative Agent may instruct the Borrower or the Servicer to give notice of the Secured Parties' interest in Pool Receivables to each Obligor, which notice shall direct that payments be made directly to the Administrative Agent or its designee (on behalf of the Secured Parties), and the Borrower or the Servicer, as the case may be, shall give such notice at the expense of the Borrower or the Servicer, as the case may be; provided, that if the Borrower or the Servicer, as the case may be, fails to so notify each Obligor within two (2) Business Days following instruction by the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent (at the Borrower's or the Servicer's, as the case may be, expense) may so notify the Obligor;

(iii) the Administrative Agent may request the Servicer to, and upon such request the Servicer shall: (A) assemble all of the records necessary to collect the Pool Receivables and the Related Security, and transfer or license to a successor Servicer the use of all software reasonably necessary to collect the Pool Receivables and the Related Security, and make the same available to the Administrative Agent or its designee (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) at a place selected by the Administrative Agent and (B) segregate all cash, checks and other instruments received by it from time to time constituting Collections in a manner reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent and, promptly upon receipt, remit all such cash, checks and instruments, duly endorsed or with duly executed instruments of transfer, to the Administrative Agent or its designee;

(iv) the Administrative Agent may assume exclusive control of each Collection Account and notify the Collection Account Banks that the Borrower and the Servicer will no longer have any access to the Collection Accounts;

(v) the Administrative Agent may (or, at the direction of the Majority Group Agents shall) replace the Person then acting as Servicer; and

(vi) the Administrative Agent may collect any amounts due from an Originator under the Receivables Purchase Agreement or the Performance Guarantor under the Performance Guaranty.

(b) The Borrower hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties), and irrevocably appoints the Administrative Agent as its attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution and with full authority in the place and stead of the Borrower, which appointment is coupled with an interest, to take any and all steps in the name of the Borrower and on behalf of the Borrower necessary, in the reasonable determination of the Administrative Agent, after the occurrence and during the continuation of a Termination Event, to collect any and all amounts or portions thereof due under any and all Collateral, including endorsing the name of the Borrower on checks and other instruments representing Collections and enforcing such Collateral. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this subsection, none of the powers conferred upon such attorney-in-fact pursuant to the preceding sentence shall subject such attorney-in-fact to any liability if any action taken by it shall prove to be inadequate or invalid, nor shall they confer any obligations upon such attorney-in-fact in any manner whatsoever.

(c) The Servicer hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties), and irrevocably appoints the Administrative Agent as its attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution and with full authority in the place and stead of the Servicer, which appointment is coupled with an interest, to take any and all steps in the name of the Servicer and on behalf of the Servicer necessary, in the reasonable determination of the Administrative Agent, after the occurrence and during the continuation of a Termination Event, to collect any and all amounts or portions thereof due under any and all Collateral, including endorsing the name of the Servicer on checks and other instruments representing Collections and enforcing such Collateral. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this subsection, none of the powers conferred upon such attorney-in-fact pursuant to the preceding sentence shall subject such attorney-in-fact to any liability if any action taken by it shall prove to be inadequate or invalid, nor shall they confer any obligations upon such attorney-in-fact in any manner whatsoever.

Section 9.05. Responsibilities of the Borrower. (a) The Borrower shall: (i) perform all of its obligations, if any, under the Contracts related to the Pool Receivables to the same extent as if interests in such Pool Receivables had not been transferred hereunder, and the exercise by the Administrative Agent, or any other Credit Party of their respective rights hereunder shall not relieve the Borrower from such obligations and (ii) pay when due any taxes, including any sales taxes payable in connection with the Pool Receivables and their creation and satisfaction. None of the Credit Parties shall have any obligation or liability with respect to any Collateral, nor shall any of them be obligated to perform any of the obligations of the Borrower, the Servicer or any Originator thereunder.

(b) Rackspace US hereby irrevocably agrees that if at any time it shall cease to be the Servicer hereunder, it shall act (if the then-current Servicer so requests) as the data-processing agent of the Servicer and, in such capacity, Rackspace US shall conduct the data-processing functions of the administration of the Receivables and the Collections thereon in substantially the same way that Rackspace US conducted such data-processing functions while it acted as the Servicer. In connection with any such processing functions, the Borrower shall pay to Rackspace US its reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses from the Borrower's own funds (subject to the priority of payments set forth in Section 4.01).

Section 9.06. Servicing Fee. The Borrower shall pay to the Servicer a fee (the "Servicing Fee") equal to 1.00% per annum (the "Servicing Fee Rate") of the monthly average aggregate Outstanding Balance of the Pool Receivables.

ARTICLE X

(e) this Agreement or any security interest granted pursuant to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document shall for any reason (other than through an action of the Administrative Agent) cease to create, or for any reason cease to be, a valid and enforceable first priority perfected security interest in favor of the Administrative Agent with respect to the Collateral, free and clear of any Adverse Claim other than any Permitted Adverse Claim;

(f) the Borrower, any Originator, the Performance Guarantor or the Servicer shall become subject to an Insolvency Proceeding as a debtor;

(g) a Change in Control shall occur;

(j) (i) the Borrower shall fail to have an Independent Manager who satisfies each requirement and qualification specified in Section 8.03(c) of this Agreement for Independent Managers on the Borrower's board of managers for any reason other than the predecessor Independent Manager's death, disability or incapacity or (ii) the Borrower shall fail to have an Independent Manager who satisfies each requirement and qualification specified in Section 8.03(c) of this Agreement for Independent Managers on the Borrower's board of managers because of the predecessor Independent Manager's death, disability or incapacity and such failure shall continue for more than (10) Business Days after Borrower's knowledge thereof (or such longer period as may approved by the Administrative Agent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed));

(l) the Borrower shall be required to register as an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act;

(m) any material provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document shall cease to be in full force and effect or any of the Borrower, any Originator, the Performance Guarantor or the Servicer shall so state in writing; or

(n) the failure by the Borrower, any Originator, the Performance Guarantor, the Servicer or any Material Subsidiary to pay one or more final judgments aggregating in excess of $75,000,000 (or solely with respect to the Borrower, $15,775) (in each case, to the extent not covered by insurance), which judgments are not discharged or effectively waived or stayed for a period of 45 consecutive days, or any action shall be legally taken by a judgment creditor to levy upon assets or properties of the Borrower, any Originator, the Performance Guarantor, the Servicer or any Material Subsidiary to enforce any such judgment;

then, and in any such event, the Administrative Agent may (or, at the direction of the Majority Group Agents shall) by notice to the Borrower (x) declare the Termination Date to have occurred (in which case the Termination Date shall be deemed to have occurred) and (y) declare the Aggregate Capital and all other Borrower Obligations to be immediately due and payable (in which case the Aggregate Capital and all other Borrower Obligations shall be immediately due and payable); provided that, automatically upon the occurrence of any event (without any requirement for the giving of notice) described in subsection (e) of this Section 10.01 with respect to the Borrower, the Termination Date shall occur and the Aggregate Capital and all other Borrower Obligations shall be immediately due and payable. Upon any such declaration or designation or upon such automatic termination, the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties shall have, in addition to the rights and remedies which they may have under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, all other rights and remedies provided after default under the UCC and under other Applicable Law, which rights and remedies shall be cumulative. Any proceeds from liquidation of the Collateral shall be applied in the order of priority set forth in Section 4.01.

Section 10.02. Early Amortization Events. Upon the occurrence of an Early Amortization Event, the Administrative Agent may (or, at the direction of the Majority Group Agents shall) by notice to the Borrower declare the Termination Date to have occurred (in which case the Termination Date shall be deemed to have occurred).

ARTICLE XI

THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT

Section 11.01. Authorization and Action. Each Credit Party hereby appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such action as agent on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties other than those expressly set forth in the Transaction Documents, and no implied obligations or liabilities shall be read into any Transaction Document, or otherwise exist, against the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent does not assume, nor shall it be deemed to have assumed, any obligation to, or relationship of trust or agency with, the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof or any Credit Party except for any obligations expressly set forth herein. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, in no event shall the Administrative Agent ever be required to take any action which exposes the Administrative Agent to personal liability or which is contrary to any provision of any Transaction Document or Applicable Law.

Section 11.02. Administrative Agent's Reliance, Etc. Neither the Administrative Agent nor any of its directors, officers, agents or employees shall be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it or them as Administrative Agent under or in connection with this Agreement (including, without limitation, the Administrative Agent's servicing, administering or collecting Pool Receivables in the event it replaces the Servicer in such capacity pursuant to Section 9.01), in the absence of its or their own gross negligence or willful misconduct. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent: (a) may consult with legal counsel (including counsel for any Credit Party or the Servicer), independent certified public accountants and other experts selected by it and shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken in good faith by it in accordance with the advice of such counsel, accountants or experts; (b) makes no warranty or representation to any Credit Party (whether written or oral) and shall not be responsible to any Credit Party for any statements, warranties or representations (whether written or oral) made by any other party in or in connection with this Agreement; (c) shall not have any duty to ascertain or to inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement on the part of any Credit Party or to inspect the property (including the books and records) of any Credit Party; (d) shall not be responsible to any Credit Party for the due execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto; and (e) shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in so relying, upon any notice (including notice by telephone), consent, certificate or other instrument or writing (which may be by facsimile) believed by it to be genuine and signed or sent by the proper party or parties.

Section 11.03. Administrative Agent and Affiliates. With respect to any Credit Extension or interests therein owned by any Credit Party that is also the Administrative Agent, such Credit Party shall have the same rights and powers under this Agreement as any other Credit Party and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any of its Affiliates may generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof and any Person who may do business with or own securities of the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof, all as if the Administrative Agent were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to any other Secured Party.

Section 11.04. Indemnification of Administrative Agent. Each Committed Lender agrees to indemnify the Administrative Agent (to the extent not reimbursed by the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof), ratably according to the respective Pro Rata Percentage of such Committed Lender, from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Administrative Agent in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or any action taken or omitted by the Administrative Agent under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document; provided that no Committed Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Administrative Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 11.05. Delegation of Duties. The Administrative Agent may execute any of its duties through agents or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to advice of counsel concerning all matters pertaining to such duties. The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any agents or attorneys-in-fact selected by it with reasonable care.

Section 11.06. Action or Inaction by Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall in all cases be fully justified in failing or refusing to take action under any Transaction Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the Group Agents or the Majority Group Agents, as the case may be, and assurance of its indemnification by the Committed Lenders, as it deems appropriate. The Administrative Agent shall in all cases be fully protected in acting, or in refraining from acting, under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document in accordance with a request or at the direction of the Group Agents or the Majority Group Agents, as the case may be, and such request or direction and any action taken or failure to act pursuant thereto shall be binding upon all Credit Parties. The Credit Parties and the Administrative Agent agree that unless any action to be taken by the Administrative Agent under a Transaction Document (i) specifically requires the advice or concurrence of all Group Agents or (ii) may be taken by the Administrative Agent alone or without any advice or concurrence of any Group Agent, then the Administrative Agent may take action based upon the advice or concurrence of the Majority Group Agents.

Section 11.07. Notice of Termination Events or Early Amortization Events; Action by Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Unmatured Termination Event, Early Amortization Event or Termination Event unless the Administrative Agent has received notice from any Credit Party or the Borrower stating that an Unmatured Termination Event, Early Amortization Event or Termination Event has occurred hereunder and describing such Unmatured Termination Event, Early Amortization Event or Termination Event. If the Administrative Agent receives such a notice, it shall promptly give notice thereof to each Group Agent, whereupon each Group Agent shall promptly give notice thereof to its respective Conduit Lender(s) and Related Committed Lender(s). The Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, concerning an Unmatured Termination Event, Early Amortization Event or Termination Event or any other matter hereunder as the Administrative Agent deems advisable and in the best interests of the Secured Parties.

Section 11.08. Non-Reliance on Administrative Agent and Other Parties. Each Credit Party expressly acknowledges that neither the Administrative Agent nor any of its directors, officers, agents or employees has made any representations or warranties to it and that no act by the Administrative Agent hereafter taken, including any review of the affairs of the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by the Administrative Agent. Each Credit Party represents and warrants to the Administrative Agent that, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Credit Party and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, it has made and will continue to make its own appraisal of and investigation into the business, operations, property, prospects, financial and other conditions and creditworthiness of the Borrower, each Originator, the Performance Guarantor or the Servicer and the Pool Receivables and its own decision to enter into this Agreement and to take, or omit, action under any Transaction Document. Except for items expressly required to be delivered under any Transaction Document by the Administrative Agent to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility to provide any Credit Party with any information concerning the Borrower, any Originator, the Performance Guarantor or the Servicer that comes into the possession of the Administrative Agent or any of its directors, officers, agents, employees, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates.

Section 11.09. Successor Administrative Agent. (a) The Administrative Agent may, upon at least thirty (30) days' notice to the Borrower, the Servicer and each Group Agent, resign as Administrative Agent. Except as provided below, such resignation shall not become effective until (i) a successor Administrative Agent is appointed by the Majority Group Agents as a successor Administrative Agent and has accepted such appointment and (ii) the Borrower has consented to such successor Administrative Agent unless a Termination Event or an Early Amortization Event has occurred and is continuing (in which case the Borrower's consent is not required). If no successor Administrative Agent shall have been so appointed by the Majority Group Agents, within thirty (30) days after the departing Administrative Agent's giving of notice of resignation, the departing Administrative Agent may, on behalf of the Secured Parties, appoint a successor Administrative Agent as successor Administrative Agent. If no successor Administrative Agent shall have been so appointed by the Majority Group Agents within sixty (60) days after the departing Administrative Agent's giving of notice of resignation, the departing Administrative Agent may, on behalf of the Secured Parties, petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint a successor Administrative Agent.

(b) Upon such acceptance of its appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder by a successor Administrative Agent, such successor Administrative Agent shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights and duties of the resigning Administrative Agent, and the resigning Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under the Transaction Documents. After any resigning Administrative Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article XI and Article XIII shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was the Administrative Agent.

Section 11.10. Arranger. Each of the parties hereto hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Arranger shall not have any right, power, obligation, liability, responsibility or duty under this Agreement. Each Credit Party acknowledges that it has not relied, and will not rely, on the Arranger in deciding to enter into this Agreement and to take, or omit to take, any action under any Transaction Document.

ARTICLE XII

THE GROUP AGENTS

Section 12.01. Authorization and Action. Each Credit Party that belongs to a Group hereby appoints and authorizes the Group Agent for such Group to take such action as agent on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement as are delegated to such Group Agent by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. No Group Agent shall have any duties other than those expressly set forth in the Transaction Documents, and no implied obligations or liabilities shall be read into any Transaction Document, or otherwise exist, against any Group Agent. No Group Agent assumes, nor shall it be deemed to have assumed, any obligation to, or relationship of trust or agency with the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof, any Lender except for any obligations expressly set forth herein. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, in no event shall any Group Agent ever be required to take any action which exposes such Group Agent to personal liability or which is contrary to any provision of any Transaction Document or Applicable Law.

Section 12.02. Group Agent's Reliance, Etc. No Group Agent nor any of its directors, officers, agents or employees shall be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it or them as a Group Agent under or in connection with this Agreement or any other Transaction Documents in the absence of its or their own gross negligence or willful misconduct. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Group Agent: (a) may consult with legal counsel (including counsel for the Administrative Agent, the Borrower or the Servicer), independent certified public accountants and other experts selected by it and shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken in good faith by it in accordance with the advice of such counsel, accountants or experts; (b) makes no warranty or representation to any Credit Party (whether written or oral) and shall not be responsible to any Credit Party for any statements, warranties or representations (whether written or oral) made by any other party in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Transaction Document; (c) shall not have any duty to ascertain or to inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document on the part of the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof or any other Person or to inspect the property (including the books and records) of the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof; (d) shall not be responsible to any Credit Party for the due execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement, any other Transaction Documents or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto; and (e) shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in so relying, upon any notice (including notice by telephone), consent, certificate or other instrument or writing (which may be by facsimile) believed by it to be genuine and signed or sent by the proper party or parties.

Section 12.03. Group Agent and Affiliates. With respect to any Credit Extension or interests therein owned by any Credit Party that is also a Group Agent, such Credit Party shall have the same rights and powers under this Agreement as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not a Group Agent. A Group Agent and any of its Affiliates may generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof and any Person who may do business with or own securities of the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof or any of their respective Affiliates, all as if such Group Agent were not a Group Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to any other Secured Party.

Section 12.04. Indemnification of Group Agents. Each Committed Lender in any Group agrees to indemnify the Group Agent for such Group (to the extent not reimbursed by the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof), ratably according to the proportion of the Pro Rata Percentage of such Committed Lender to the aggregate Pro Rata Percentages of all Committed Lenders in such Group, from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against such Group Agent in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or any action taken or omitted by such Group Agent under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document; provided that no Committed Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from such Group Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 12.05. Delegation of Duties. Each Group Agent may execute any of its duties through agents or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to advice of counsel concerning all matters pertaining to such duties. No Group Agent shall be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any agents or attorneys-in-fact selected by it with reasonable care.

Section 12.06. Notice of Termination Events or Early Amortization Events. No Group Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Unmatured Termination Event, Early Amortization Event or Termination Event unless such Group Agent has received notice from the Administrative Agent, any other Group Agent, any other Credit Party, the Servicer or the Borrower stating that an Unmatured Termination Event, Early Amortization Event or Termination Event has occurred hereunder and describing such Unmatured Termination Event, Early Amortization Event or Termination Event. If a Group Agent receives such a notice, it shall promptly give notice thereof to the Credit Parties in its Group and to the Administrative Agent (but only if such notice received by such Group Agent was not sent by the Administrative Agent). A Group Agent may take such action concerning an Unmatured Termination Event, Early Amortization Event or Termination Event as may be directed by Committed Lenders in its Group representing a majority of the Commitments in such Group (subject to the other provisions of this Article XII), but until such Group Agent receives such directions, such Group Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, as such Group Agent deems advisable and in the best interests of the Conduit Lenders and Committed Lenders in its Group.

Section 12.07. Non-Reliance on Group Agent and Other Parties. Each Credit Party expressly acknowledges that neither the Group Agent for its Group nor any of such Group Agent's directors, officers, agents or employees has made any representations or warranties to it and that no act by such Group Agent hereafter taken, including any review of the affairs of the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by such Group Agent. Each Credit Party represents and warrants to the Group Agent for its Group that, independently and without reliance upon such Group Agent, any other Group Agent, the Administrative Agent or any other Credit Party and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, it has made and will continue to make its own appraisal of and investigation into the business, operations, property, prospects, financial and other conditions and creditworthiness of the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof and the Receivables and its own decision to enter into this Agreement and to take, or omit, action under any Transaction Document. Except for items expressly required to be delivered under any Transaction Document by a Group Agent to any Credit Party in its Group, no Group Agent shall have any duty or responsibility to provide any Credit Party in its Group with any information concerning the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof that comes into the possession of such Group Agent or any of its directors, officers, agents, employees, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates.

Section 12.08. Successor Group Agent. Any Group Agent may, upon at least thirty (30) days' notice to the Administrative Agent, the Borrower, the Servicer and the Credit Parties in its Group, resign as Group Agent for its Group. Such resignation shall not become effective until (i) a successor Group Agent is appointed by the Lender(s) in such Group and (ii) the Borrower has consented to such successor Group Agent unless a Termination Event or an Early Amortization Event has occurred and is continuing (in which case the Borrower's consent is not required). Upon such acceptance of its appointment as Group Agent for such Group hereunder by a successor Group Agent, such successor Group Agent shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights and duties of the resigning Group Agent, and the resigning Group Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under the Transaction Documents. After any resigning Group Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article XII and Article XIII shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was a Group Agent.

Section 12.09. Reliance on Group Agent. ARTICLE XIII

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 13.01. Indemnities by the Borrower. (a) Without limiting any other rights that the Administrative Agent, the Credit Parties, the Affected Persons and their respective assigns, officers, directors, agents and employees (each, a "Borrower Indemnified Party") may have hereunder or under Applicable Law, the Borrower hereby agrees to indemnify each Borrower Indemnified Party from and against any and all claims, losses and liabilities (including Attorney Costs) (all of the foregoing being collectively referred to as "Borrower Indemnified Amounts") arising out of or resulting from this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or the use of proceeds of the Credit Extensions or the security interest in respect of any Pool Receivable or any other Collateral; excluding, however, (x) Borrower Indemnified Amounts to the extent a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction holds that such Borrower Indemnified Amounts resulted primarily from the bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct by the Borrower Indemnified Party seeking indemnification and (y) Taxes that are not attributable to either (A) a non-Tax-related Borrower Indemnified Amount or (B) a Tax-related Borrower Indemnified Amount specified below. Without limiting or being limited by the foregoing, the Borrower shall pay on written demand (which demand shall be accompanied by documentation of the Borrower Indemnified Amounts in reasonable detail) (it being understood that if any portion of such payment obligation is made from Collections or Deemed Collections, such payment will be made at the time and in the order of priority set forth in Section 4.01), to each Borrower Indemnified Party any and all amounts necessary to indemnify such Borrower Indemnified Party from and against any and all Borrower Indemnified Amounts relating to or resulting from any of the following (but excluding Borrower Indemnified Amounts and Taxes described in clauses (x) and (y) above):

(i) any Pool Receivable which the Borrower or the Servicer includes as an Eligible Receivable as part of the Net Receivables Pool Balance but which is not an Eligible Receivable at such time;

(ii) any written representation, warranty or statement made or deemed made by the Borrower (or any of its respective officers) under or in connection with this Agreement, any of the other Transaction Documents, any Information Package or any other written information or report (other than projections, forward-looking statements and information of a general economic or industry nature) delivered by or on behalf of the Borrower pursuant hereto which shall have been untrue or incorrect when made or deemed made;

(iii) the failure by the Borrower to comply with any Applicable Law with respect to any Pool Receivable or the related Contract; or the failure of any Pool Receivable or the related Contract to conform to any such Applicable Law;

(iv) the failure to vest in the Administrative Agent a first priority perfected security interest in all or any portion of the Collateral, in each case free and clear of any Adverse Claim;

(v) the failure to have filed, or any delay in filing, financing statements, financing statement amendments, continuation statements or other similar instruments or documents under the UCC of any applicable jurisdiction or other Applicable Laws with respect to any Pool Receivable and the other Collateral and Collections in respect thereof, whether at the time of any Credit Extension or at any subsequent time;

(vi) any dispute, claim or defense (other than any reduction, revision or discharge in bankruptcy) of an Obligor to the payment of any Pool Receivable (including, without limitation, a defense based on such Pool Receivable or the related Contract not being a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Obligor enforceable against it in accordance with its terms), or any other claim resulting from or relating to collection activities with respect to such Pool Receivable, or the sale of goods or the rendering of services related to such Pool Receivable or the furnishing or failure to furnish any such goods or services or other similar claim or defense not arising from the financial inability of any Obligor to pay undisputed indebtedness;

(vii) any failure of the Borrower to perform any of its duties or obligations in accordance with the provisions hereof and of each other Transaction Document related to Pool Receivables or to timely and fully comply with the Credit and Collection Policy (or the current and historical practices of the applicable Originator if the Credit and Collection Policy has not been delivered pursuant to Section 8.01(cc)) in regard to each Pool Receivable;

(viii) any products liability, environmental or other claim arising out of or in connection with any Pool Receivable or other merchandise, goods or services which are the subject of or related to any Pool Receivable;

(ix) the commingling of Collections and Deemed Collections of Pool Receivables at any time with other funds;

(x) any investigation, litigation or proceeding (actual or threatened) brought by a Person other than a Borrower Indemnified Party related to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or the use of proceeds of any Credit Extensions or in respect of any Pool Receivable or other Collateral or any related Contract;

(xi) any failure of the Borrower to comply with its covenants, obligations and agreements contained in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document;

(xii) any setoff with respect to any Pool Receivable;

(xiii) any claim brought by any Person other than a Borrower Indemnified Party arising from any activity by the Borrower or the Servicer (if an Affiliate of the Borrower) in servicing, administering or collecting any Pool Receivable;

(xiv) the failure by the Borrower to pay when due any taxes, including, without limitation, sales, excise or personal property taxes;

(xv) any failure of a Collection Account Bank to comply with the terms of the applicable Account Control Agreement or any amounts payable by the Administrative Agent to a Collection Account Bank under any Account Control Agreement;

(xvi) the failure or delay to provide any Obligor with an invoice or other evidence of indebtedness;

(xvii) any action taken by the Administrative Agent as attorney-in-fact for the Borrower, any Originator or the Servicer pursuant to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document;

(xviii) the use of proceeds of any Credit Extension; or

(xix) any reduction in Capital as a result of the distribution of Collections if all or a portion of such distributions shall thereafter be rescinded or otherwise must be returned for any reason.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, solely for purposes of the Borrower's indemnification obligations in clauses (ii), (iii), (vii) and (xi) of this Article XIII, any representation, warranty or covenant qualified by the occurrence or non-occurrence of a material adverse effect or similar concepts of materiality shall be deemed to be not so qualified.

(c) If for any reason the foregoing indemnification is unavailable to any Borrower Indemnified Party or insufficient to hold it harmless, then the Borrower shall contribute to such Borrower Indemnified Party the amount paid or payable by such Borrower Indemnified Party as a result of such loss, claim, damage or liability in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative economic interests of the Borrower on the one hand and such Borrower Indemnified Party on the other hand in the matters contemplated by this Agreement as well as the relative fault of the Borrower and such Borrower Indemnified Party with respect to such loss, claim, damage or liability and any other relevant equitable considerations. The reimbursement, indemnity and contribution obligations of the Borrower under this Section shall be in addition to any liability which the Borrower may otherwise have, shall extend upon the same terms and conditions to each Borrower Indemnified Party, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of any successors, assigns, heirs and personal representatives of the Borrower and the Borrower Indemnified Parties.

(d) Any indemnification or contribution under this Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 13.02. Indemnities by the Servicer. (a) The Servicer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Credit Parties, the Affected Persons and their respective assigns, officers, directors, agents and employees (each, a "Servicer Indemnified Party"), from and against any loss, liability, expense, damage or injury suffered or sustained by reason of any of the events referenced in clauses (i) through (vii) below, including any judgment, award, settlement, Attorney Costs and other costs or expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any actual or threatened action, proceeding or claim (all of the foregoing being collectively referred to as, "Servicer Indemnified Amounts"):

(i) any representation, warranty or statement made or deemed made by the Servicer (or any of its respective officers) under or in connection with this Agreement, any of the other Transaction Documents, any Information Package or any other written information or report (other than projections, forward-looking statements and information of a general economic or industry nature) delivered by or on behalf of the Servicer pursuant hereto which shall have been untrue or incorrect when made or deemed made;

(ii) the failure by the Servicer to comply with any Applicable Law with respect to any Pool Receivable or the related Contract, or the failure of any Pool Receivable or the related Contract to conform to any such Applicable Law;

(iii) any failure of the Servicer to comply with its covenants, obligations and agreements contained in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document to which it is a party in its capacity as Servicer;

(iv) the commingling of Collections and Deemed Collections of Pool Receivables at any time with other funds;

(v) any failure of a Collection Account Bank to comply with the terms of the applicable Account Control Agreement or any amounts payable by the Administrative Agent to a Collection Account Bank under any Account Control Agreement;

(vi) any failure or delay in invoicing any Pool Receivable; or

(vii) any Pool Receivable which the Servicer includes as an Eligible Receivable on any Information Package as part of the Net Receivables Pool Balance but which is not an Eligible Receivable at such time of such Information Package; excluding, in each case above, (x) Servicer Indemnified Amounts to the extent a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction holds that such Servicer Indemnified Amounts resulted from the bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct by the Servicer Indemnified Party seeking indemnification, (y) Taxes that are both (A) covered by Section 5.03 and (B) not attributable to a non-Tax Servicer Indemnified Amount and (z) Servicer Indemnified Amounts to the extent the same includes losses in respect of Pool Receivables that are uncollectible solely on account of the insolvency, bankruptcy or lack of creditworthiness of the related Obligor.

(b) If for any reason the foregoing indemnification is unavailable to any Servicer Indemnified Party or insufficient to hold it harmless, then the Servicer shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Servicer Indemnified Party as a result of such loss, claim, damage or liability in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative economic interests of the Servicer on the one hand and such Servicer Indemnified Party on the other hand in the matters contemplated by this Agreement as well as the relative fault of the Servicer and such Servicer Indemnified Party with respect to such loss, claim, damage or liability and any other relevant equitable considerations. The reimbursement, indemnity and contribution obligations of the Servicer under this Section shall be in addition to any liability which the Servicer may otherwise have, shall extend upon the same terms and conditions to Servicer Indemnified Party, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of any successors, assigns, heirs and personal representatives of the Servicer and the Servicer Indemnified Parties.

(c) Any indemnification or contribution under this Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.01. Amendments, Etc. (a) No failure on the part of any party to this Agreement to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any party to this Agreement shall be effective unless in a writing signed by the Borrower, the Servicer, the Administrative Agent and the Majority Group Agents (and, in the case of any amendment, also signed by the Borrower), and then such amendment, waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given; provided, however, that (A) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Servicer, affect the rights or duties of the Servicer under this Agreement; (B) no amendment, waiver or consent shall, unless in writing and signed by the Administrative Agent and each Group Agent:

(i) change (directly or indirectly) the definitions of, Borrowing Base Deficit, Defaulted Receivable, Delinquent Receivable, Eligible Receivable, Facility Limit, Scheduled Termination Date, Net Receivables Pool Balance or Total Reserves contained in this Agreement, or increase the then existing Concentration Percentage for any Obligor or change the calculation of the Borrowing Base;

(ii) reduce the amount of Capital or Interest that is payable on account of any Loan or delay any scheduled date for payment thereof;

(iii) change any Termination Event or Early Amortization Event;

(iv) release all or a material portion of the Pool Receivables or Collateral from the Administrative Agent's security interest created hereunder;

(v) release the Performance Guarantor from any of its obligations under the Performance Guaranty or terminate the Performance Guaranty.

(vi) change any of the provisions of this Section 14.01 or the definition of "Majority Group Agents"; or

(vii) change the order of priority in which Collections and Deemed Collections are applied pursuant to Section 4.01.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (A) no amendment, waiver or consent shall increase any Committed Lender's Commitment hereunder without the consent of such Committed Lender, (B) no amendment, waiver or consent shall reduce any Fees payable by the Borrower to any member of any Group or delay the dates on which any such Fees are payable, in either case, without the consent of the Group Agent for such Group, and (C) no consent with respect to any amendment, waiver or other modification of this Agreement shall be required of any Defaulting Lender, except with respect to any amendment, waiver or other modification referred to in clauses (i)-(v) above and then only in the event such Defaulting Lender shall be directly affected by such amendment, waiver or other modification.

Section 14.02. Notices, Etc. All notices and other communications hereunder shall, unless otherwise stated herein, be in writing (which shall include email and facsimile communication) and emailed, faxed or delivered, to each party hereto, at its address set forth under its name on Schedule III hereto or at such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other parties hereto. Notices and communications by facsimile shall be effective when sent (and shall be followed by hard copy sent by regular mail), notices and communications sent by email shall be effective when confirmed by electronic receipt or otherwise acknowledged, and notices and communications sent by other means shall be effective when received.

Section 14.03. Assignability; Addition of Lenders.

(a) Assignment by Conduit Lenders. This Agreement and the rights of each Conduit Lender hereunder (including each Loan made by it hereunder) shall be assignable by such Conduit Lender and its successors and permitted assigns (i) to any Program Support Provider of such Conduit Lender without prior notice to or consent from the Borrower or any other party, or any other condition or restriction of any kind, (ii) to any other Lender with prior notice to the Borrower but without consent from the Borrower or (iii) with the prior written consent of the Borrower (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, that such consent shall not be required if a Termination Event or an Early Amortization Event has occurred and is continuing), to any other Eligible Assignee. Each assignor of a Loan or any interest therein may, in connection with the assignment or participation, disclose to the assignee or Participant any information relating to the Borrower and its Affiliates, including the Receivables, furnished to such assignor by or on behalf of the Borrower and its Affiliates or by the Administrative Agent; provided that, prior to any such disclosure, the assignee or Participant agrees to preserve the confidentiality of any confidential information relating to the Borrower and its Affiliates received by it from any of the foregoing entities in a manner consistent with Section 14.06(b).

(b) Assignment by Committed Lenders. Each Committed Lender may assign to any Eligible Assignee or to any other Committed Lender all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, all or a portion of its Commitment and any Loan or interests therein owned by it); provided, however that

(i) except for an assignment by a Committed Lender to either an Affiliate of such Committed Lender or any other Committed Lender, each such assignment shall require the prior written consent of the Borrower (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, that such consent shall not be required if a Termination Event or an Early Amortization Event has occurred and is continuing);

(ii) each such assignment shall be of a constant, and not a varying, percentage of all rights and obligations under this Agreement;

(iii) the amount being assigned pursuant to each such assignment (determined as of the date of the Assignment and Acceptance Agreement with respect to such assignment) shall in no event be less than the lesser of (x) $10,000,000 and (y) all of the assigning Committed Lender's Commitment; and

(iv) the parties to each such assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent, for its acceptance and recording in the Register, an Assignment and Acceptance Agreement.

Upon such execution, delivery, acceptance and recording from and after the effective date specified in such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, (x) the assignee thereunder shall be a party to this Agreement, and to the extent that rights and obligations under this Agreement have been assigned to it pursuant to such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, have the rights and obligations of a Committed Lender hereunder and (y) the assigning Committed Lender shall, to the extent that rights and obligations have been assigned by it pursuant to such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, relinquish such rights and be released from such obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Acceptance Agreement covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Committed Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Committed Lender shall cease to be a party hereto).

(c) Register. The Administrative Agent shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, maintain at its address referred to on Schedule III of this Agreement (or such other address of the Administrative Agent notified by the Administrative Agent to the other parties hereto) a copy of each Assignment and Acceptance Agreement delivered to and accepted by it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Committed Lenders and the Conduit Lenders, the Commitment of each Committed Lender and the aggregate outstanding Capital (and stated interest) of the Loans of each Conduit Lender and Committed Lender from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Servicer, the Administrative Agent, the Group Agents, and the other Credit Parties may treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register as a Committed Lender or Conduit Lender, as the case may be, under this Agreement for all purposes of this Agreement. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower, the Servicer, any Group Agent, any Conduit Lender or any Committed Lender at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(d) Procedure. Upon its receipt of an Assignment and Acceptance Agreement executed and delivered by an assigning Committed Lender and an Eligible Assignee or assignee Committed Lender, the Administrative Agent shall, if such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement has been duly completed, (i) accept such Assignment and Acceptance Agreement, (ii) record the information contained therein in the Register and (iii) give prompt notice thereof to the Borrower and the Servicer.

(e) Participations. Each Committed Lender may sell participations to one or more Eligible Assignees (each, a "Participant") in or to all or a portion of its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, all or a portion of its Commitment and the interests in the Loans owned by it); provided, however, that

(i) such Committed Lender's obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, its Commitment to the Borrower hereunder) shall remain unchanged, and

(ii) such Committed Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties to this Agreement for the performance of such obligations.

The Administrative Agent, the Group Agents, the Conduit Lenders, the other Committed Lenders, the Borrower and the Servicer shall have the right to continue to deal solely and directly with such Committed Lender in connection with such Committed Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement.

(f) Participant Register. Each Committed Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Committed Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any Commitments, Loans or its other obligations under any this Agreement) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such Commitment, Loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Committed Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent (in its capacity as Administrative Agent) shall have no responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(g) Assignments by Agents. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of the Administrative Agent and each Group Agent herein shall be assignable by the Administrative Agent or such Group Agent, as the case may be, and its successors and assigns; provided that in the case of an assignment to a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Administrative Agent or such Group Agent, so long as no Termination Event or an Early Amortization Event has occurred and is continuing, such assignment shall require the Borrower's consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(h) Assignments by the Borrower or the Servicer. Neither the Borrower nor, except as provided in Section 9.01, the Servicer may assign any of its respective rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent and each Group Agent (such consent to be provided or withheld in the sole discretion of such Person).

(i) Addition of Lenders or Groups. The Borrower may, with written notice to the Administrative Agent and each Group Agent, add additional Persons as Lenders (by creating a new Group) or cause an existing Lender to increase its Commitment; provided, however, that the Commitment of any existing Lender may only be increased with the prior written consent of such Lender. Each new Lender (or Group) shall become a party hereto, by executing and delivering to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, an assumption agreement (each, an “Assumption Agreement”) in the form of Exhibit C hereto (which Assumption Agreement shall, in the case of any new Lender, be executed by each Person in such new Lender’s Group).

(j) Pledge to a Federal Reserve Bank. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, (i) any Lender, Program Support Provider or any of their respective Affiliates may at any time pledge or grant a security interest in all or any portion of its interest in, to and under this Agreement (including, without limitation, rights to payment of Capital and Interest) and any other Transaction Document to secure its obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank, without notice to or the consent of the Borrower, the Servicer, any Affiliate thereof or any Credit Party; provided, however, that that no such pledge shall relieve such assignor of its obligations under this Agreement.

(k) Pledges by Conduit Lenders and CP Issuers. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement (including this Section 14.03), any Conduit Lender or CP Issuer may at any time pledge or grant a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (including, without limitation, rights to payment of the principal balance of a Loan and any Interest thereon) to any Conduit Trustee without notice to or consent of the Borrower (and without entering into an Assignment and Assumption Agreement); provided, that no such pledge or grant of security interest shall release such Conduit Lender or CP Issuer from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such Conduit Trustee for such Conduit Lender or CP Issuer as a party hereto.

Section 14.04. Costs and Expenses. In addition to the rights of indemnification granted under Section 13.01 hereof, the Borrower agrees to pay within thirty days after written demand therefor (which demand shall be accompanied by documentation thereof in reasonable detail) all reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement, any Program Support Agreement (or any supplement or amendment thereof) specifically related to this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents (together with all amendments, restatements, supplements, consents and waivers, if any, from time to time hereto and thereto), including, without limitation, (i) the reasonable Attorney Costs for the Administrative Agent and the other Credit Parties and any of their respective Affiliates with respect thereto and with respect to advising the Administrative Agent and the other Credit Parties and their respective Affiliates as to their rights and remedies under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents and (ii) reasonable accountants’, auditors’ and consultants’ fees and expenses for the Administrative Agent and the other Credit Parties and any of their respective Affiliates and the fees and charges of any nationally recognized statistical rating agency incurred in connection with the administration and maintenance of this Agreement or advising the Administrative Agent or any other Credit Party as to their rights and remedies under this Agreement or as to any actual or reasonably claimed breach of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document. The Borrower’s obligations under this Section 14.04 in connection with the Closing of this Agreement, any Program Support specifically related to this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents shall not exceed $225,000. In addition, the Borrower agrees to pay on written demand (which demand shall be accompanied by documentation thereof in reasonable detail) all reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable Attorney Costs), of the Administrative Agent and the other Credit Parties and their respective Affiliates, incurred in connection with the enforcement of any of their respective rights or remedies under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents.

Section 14.05. No Proceedings; Limitation on Payments. (a) Each of the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Servicer, each Group Agent, each Lender and each assignee of a Loan or any interest therein, hereby covenants and agrees that it will not institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, any Conduit Lender any Insolvency Proceeding so long as any Notes or other senior indebtedness issued by such Conduit Lender shall be outstanding or there shall not have elapsed one year plus one day since the last day on which any such Notes or other senior indebtedness shall have been outstanding.

(b) Each of the Servicer, each Group Agent, each Lender and each assignee of a Loan or any interest therein, hereby covenants and agrees that it will not institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Borrower any Insolvency Proceeding until one year and one day after the Final Payout Date; provided, that the Administrative Agent may take any such action in its sole discretion following the occurrence of a Termination Event.

(c) Notwithstanding any provisions contained in this Agreement to the contrary, a Conduit Lender shall not, and shall be under no obligation to, pay any amount, if any, payable by it pursuant to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document unless (i) such Conduit Lender has received funds which may be used to make such payment and which funds are not required to repay such Conduit Lender's Notes when due and (ii) after giving effect to such payment, either (x) such Conduit Lender could issue Notes to refinance all of its outstanding Notes (assuming such outstanding Notes matured at such time) in accordance with the program documents governing such Conduit Lender's securitization program or (y) all of such Conduit Lender's Notes are paid in full. Any amount which any Conduit Lender does not pay pursuant to the operation of the preceding sentence shall not constitute a claim (as defined in Section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code) against or company obligation of such Conduit Lender for any such insufficiency unless and until such Conduit Lender satisfies the provisions of clauses (i) and (ii) above. The provisions of this Section 14.05 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

Section 14.06. Confidentiality. (a) Each of the Borrower and the Servicer covenants and agrees to hold in confidence, and not disclose to any Person, the terms of this Agreement (including any fees payable in connection with this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or the identity of the Administrative Agent or any other Credit Party), except as the Administrative Agent and each Group Agent may have consented to in writing prior to any proposed disclosure; provided, however, that it may disclose such information (i) to its Advisors and Representatives or to a Conduit Trustee, (ii) to the extent such information has become available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by or through the Borrower, the Servicer or their Advisors and Representatives, (iii) in connection with the enforcement of its rights and remedies under this Agreement, any other Transaction Agreement or any Applicable Law or (iv) to the extent it should be (A) required by Applicable Law, or in connection with any legal or regulatory proceeding or (B) requested by any Governmental Authority to disclose such information; provided, that, in the case of clause (iv) above, the Borrower and the Servicer will use reasonable efforts to maintain confidentiality and will use commercially reasonable efforts to (unless otherwise prohibited by Applicable Law) notify the Administrative Agent and the affected Credit Party of its intention to make any such disclosure prior to making such disclosure. Each of the Borrower and the Servicer agrees to be responsible for any breach of this Section by its Representatives and Advisors and agrees that its Representatives and Advisors will be advised by it of the confidential nature of such information and instructed to comply with this Section. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is expressly agreed that each of the Borrower, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates may publish a press release or otherwise publicly announce the existence and principal amount of the Commitments under this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that the Administrative Agent shall be provided a reasonable opportunity to review such press release or other public announcement prior to its release and provide comment thereon; and provided, further, that no such press release shall name or otherwise identify the Administrative Agent, any other Credit Party or any of their respective Affiliates without such Person's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower consents to the publication by the Administrative Agent or any other Credit Party of a tombstone or similar advertising material relating to the financing transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Each of the Administrative Agent and each other Credit Party, severally and with respect to itself only, agrees to hold in confidence, and not disclose to any Person, any confidential and proprietary information concerning the Borrower, the Servicer and their respective Affiliates and their businesses or the terms of this Agreement (including any fees payable in connection with this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents), except as the Borrower or the Servicer may have consented to in writing prior to any proposed disclosure; provided, however, that it may disclose such information (i) to its Advisors and Representatives and to any related Program Support Provider, (ii) to its assignees and Participants and potential assignees and Participants and their respective counsel if they agree in writing to hold it confidential, (iii) to the extent such information has become available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by or through it or its Representatives or Advisors or any related Program Support Provider, (iv) to any nationally recognized statistical rating organization in connection with obtaining or maintaining the rating of any Conduit Lender's Notes or as contemplated by 17 CFR 240.17g-5(a)(3), (v) at the request of a bank examiner or other regulatory authority or in connection with an examination of any of the Administrative Agent, any Group Agent or any Lender or their respective Affiliates or Program Support Providers or (vi) to the extent it should be (A) required by Applicable Law, or in connection with any legal or regulatory proceeding or (B) requested by any Governmental Authority to disclose such information; provided, that, in the case of clause (vi) above, the Administrative Agent, each Group Agent and each Lender will use reasonable efforts to maintain confidentiality and will (unless otherwise prohibited by Applicable Law) notify the Borrower and the Servicer of its making any such disclosure as promptly as reasonably practicable thereafter. Each of the Administrative Agent, each Group Agent and each Lender, severally and with respect to itself only, agrees to be responsible for any breach of this Section by its Representatives, Advisors and Program Support Providers and agrees that its Representatives, Advisors and Program Support Providers will be advised by it of the confidential nature of such information and shall agree to comply with this Section.

(c) As used in this Section, (i) "Advisors" means, with respect to any Person, such Person's accountants, attorneys and other confidential advisors and (ii) "Representatives" means, with respect to any Person, such Person's Affiliates, Subsidiaries, directors, managers, officers, employees, members, investors, financing sources (other than any Credit Party), insurers, professional advisors, representatives and agents; provided that such persons shall not be deemed to Representatives of a Person unless (and solely to the extent that) confidential information is furnished to such person.

Section 14.07. GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE PARTIES HERETO, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (INCLUDING SECTIONS 5-1401 AND 5-1402 OF THE GENERAL OBLIGATIONS LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, BUT WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY OTHER CONFLICTS OF LAW PROVISIONS THEREOF.

Section 14.08. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed counterpart hereof by facsimile or other electronic means shall be equally effective as delivery of an originally executed counterpart.

Section 14.09. Integration; Binding Effect; Survival of Termination. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents contain the final and complete integration of all prior expressions by the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall constitute the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof superseding all prior oral or written understandings. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement shall create and constitute the continuing obligations of the parties hereto in accordance with its terms and shall remain in full force and effect until the Final Payout Date; provided, however, that the provisions of Sections 5.01, 5.02, 5.03, 11.04, 11.06, 12.04, 13.01, 13.02, 14.04, 14.05, 14.07, 14.09, 14.11 and 14.13 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

Section 14.10. Consent to Jurisdiction . (a) Each party hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or federal court sitting in New York City, New York in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, and each party hereto hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York state court or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in such federal court. The parties hereto hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent they may effectively do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding. The parties hereto agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

Section 14.11. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby waives, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, trial by jury in any judicial proceeding involving, directly or indirectly, any matter (whether sounding in tort, contract or otherwise) in any way arising out of, related to, or connected with this Agreement or any other Transaction Document.

Section 14.12. Ratable Payments. If any Credit Party, whether by setoff or otherwise, has payment made to it with respect to any Borrower Obligations in a greater proportion than that received by any other Credit Party entitled to receive a ratable share of such Borrower Obligations, such Credit Party agrees, promptly upon demand, to purchase for cash without recourse or warranty a portion of such Borrower Obligations held by the other Credit Parties so that after such purchase each Credit Party will hold its ratable proportion of such Borrower Obligations; provided that if all or any portion of such excess amount is thereafter recovered from such Credit Party, such purchase shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, but without interest.

Section 14.13. Limitation of Liability. (a) No claim may be made by the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof or any other Person against any Credit Party or their respective Affiliates, members, directors, officers, employees, incorporators, attorneys or agents for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages in respect of any claim for breach of contract or any other theory of liability arising out of or related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, or any act, omission or event occurring in connection herewith or therewith; and each of the Borrower and the Servicer hereby waives, releases, and agrees not to sue upon any claim for any such damages, whether or not accrued and whether or not known or suspected to exist in its favor. None of the Credit Parties and their respective Affiliates shall have any liability to the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof or any other Person asserting claims on behalf of or in right of the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof in connection with or as a result of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except to the extent that any losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses incurred by the Borrower or any Affiliate thereof result from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Credit Party in performing its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party.

(b) The obligations of each party to this Agreement and each of the Transaction Documents are solely the corporate obligations of such Person. No recourse shall be had for any obligation or claim arising out of or based upon this Agreement or any other Transaction Document against any member, director, officer, employee or incorporator of any such Person.

Section 14.14. Intent of the Parties. The Borrower has structured this Agreement with the intention that the Loans and the obligations of the Borrower hereunder will be treated under United States federal, and applicable state, local and foreign tax law as debt (the "Intended Tax Treatment"). The Borrower, the Servicer, the Administrative Agent and the other Credit Parties agree to file no tax return, or take any action, inconsistent with the Intended Tax Treatment unless required by Applicable Law. Each assignee and each Participant acquiring an interest in a Credit Extension, by its acceptance of such assignment or participation, agrees to comply with the immediately preceding sentence.

Section 14.15. USA PATRIOT Act Notice. Each of the Administrative Agent and each of the other Credit Parties hereby that is subject to the USA PATRIOT Act and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Borrower and the Servicer that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Credit Party, which information includes the name and address of the Borrower, the Servicer and the Performance Guarantor and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify each Credit Party in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act.

Section 14.16. Right of Setoff. Each Credit Party is hereby authorized (in addition to any other rights it may have), at any time during the continuance of a Termination Event, to setoff, appropriate and apply (without presentment, demand, protest or other notice which are hereby expressly waived) any deposits and any other indebtedness held or owing by such Credit Party (including by any branches or agencies of such Credit Party) to, or for the account of, the Borrower or the Servicer against amounts owing by the Borrower or the Servicer hereunder (even if contingent or unmatured); provided that such Credit Party shall notify the Borrower or the Servicer, as applicable, promptly following such setoff.

Section 14.17. Severability. Any provisions of this Agreement which are prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 14.18. Mutual Negotiations. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents are the product of mutual negotiations by the parties thereto and their counsel, and no party shall be deemed the draftsman of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or any provision hereof or thereof or to have provided the same. Accordingly, in the event of any inconsistency or ambiguity of any provision of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document, such inconsistency or ambiguity shall not be interpreted against any party because of such party's involvement in the drafting thereof.

Section 14.19. Captions and Cross References. The various captions (including the table of contents) in this Agreement are provided solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. Unless otherwise indicated, references in this Agreement to any Section, Schedule or Exhibit are to such Section Schedule or Exhibit to this Agreement, as the case may be, and references in any Section, subsection, or clause to any subsection, clause or subclause are to such subsection, clause or subclause of such Section, subsection or clause.

Section 14.20. Currency Equivalence. If for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court it is necessary to convert a sum due from the Borrower hereunder in the currency expressed to be payable herein (the "specified currency") into another currency, the parties agree that the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with normal banking procedures the Administrative Agent could purchase the specified currency with such other currency on the Business Day preceding that on which final judgment is given. The obligation of the Borrower in respect of any such sum due to the Administrative Agent or any other Person hereunder shall, notwithstanding any judgment in a currency other than the specified currency, be discharged only to the extent that on the Business Day following receipt by the Administrative Agent or such other Person, as applicable, of any sum adjudged to be so due in such other currency, the Administrative Agent or such other Person, as applicable, may in accordance with normal banking procedures purchase the specified currency with such other currency. If the amount of the specified currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent or such other Person in the specified currency, the Borrower agrees to the extent such amount was originally due from the Borrower, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment, to indemnify the Administrative Agent or such other Person, as the case may be, against such loss, and if the amount of the specified currency so purchased exceeds the amount originally due to the Administrative Agent or such other Person in the specified currency.

Section 14.21. Originator Dispositions. If a related Originator (or any division of such Originator) is to be merged or consolidated with (or sold or otherwise transferred to), or any partial ownership interest of such Originator is to be sold or otherwise transferred to, any Person that is neither an Originator nor an Affiliate of any Originator (any such transaction, an “Originator Disposition”) and the such Originator determines in its commercially reasonable judgment that it is impracticable to consummate such Originator Disposition unless all Receivables originated by such Originator (or related division) are also transferred by such Originator (or, in the case of any merger or consolidation, are owned by such Originator at the time of such merger or consolidation) in connection with the related Originator Disposition, the Borrower may transfer all (and not less than all) Pool Receivables (the “Repurchased Receivables”) originated by such Originator (or division), in any case, without recourse, representation, warranty or covenant of any kind, to such Originator for a repurchase price equal to the fair market value of such Repurchased Receivables subject to the conditions set forth below, and the Borrower may transfer such Repurchased Receivables, without recourse, representation, warranty or covenant of any kind, to such Originator for a repurchase price equal to the fair market value of such Repurchased Receivables subject to the conditions set forth below, and the Administrative Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties shall release the liens on and security interests in the Pool Receivables being so repurchased if the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) after giving effect to such transfer and release, there shall not exist any Early Amortization Event, Termination Event or Unmatured Termination Event;

(b) at least five (5) Business Days prior to any such transfer and release, the Borrower shall have delivered, true, correct and complete copies of all documents to be executed or delivered in connection with the repurchase of the Repurchased Receivables by the applicable Originator, all of which shall be reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent (it being understood that the Borrower shall not sign or be bound by any agreements in connection with an Originator Disposition other than an instrument or assignment without recourse, representation, warranty or covenant by the Borrower);

(c) at least five (5) Business Days prior to any such transfer and release, the Borrower shall have delivered a written notice to the Administrative Agent of such Originator Disposition, certifying that the foregoing condition described in clause (a) above shall be satisfied after giving effect to such transfer and release, together with a pro forma calculation after giving effect to such repurchase of Pool Receivable providing that there is no Borrowing Base Deficit; and

(d) all Lenders have consented to such repurchase; provided, that no such consent with respect to repurchases of Pool Receivables in connection with any Originator Disposition shall be required if the Outstanding Balance of the Pool Receivables in connection with the related Originator Disposition does not exceed 10% of the Outstanding Balance on the date of such Originator Disposition.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any other Transaction Document to the contrary, the Borrower shall have no obligation to any Originator to reconvey any Receivables to any Originator or any other Person in connection with any Originator Disposition.

(a) In General. The Company shall employ the Executive, and the Executive shall be employed by the Company, for the period set forth in Section 2(b), in the position set forth in Section 2(c), and upon the other terms and conditions herein provided.

(b) Term of Employment. The initial term of employment under this Agreement (the "Initial Term") shall be for the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the fifth (5th) anniversary of such date, unless earlier terminated as provided in Section 4. In the event that the Executive's prior employer waives all or part of the period of notice required to be given in advance of the Executive's resignation from his prior employer, the Executive and the Company shall mutually agree on a start date earlier than June 6, 2019. The Initial Term shall automatically be extended for successive one (1) year periods (together with the Initial Term, the "Term"), unless either party hereto gives notice of the non-extension of the Term to the other party no later than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the then-applicable Term.

(c) Position and Duties.

(i) During the Term, the Executive shall serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and shall serve as a member of the Board, with responsibilities, duties, and authority customary for such position. The Executive shall also serve as an officer of Affiliates of the Company as requested by the Board. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Executive shall not be entitled to any additional compensation for his service as a member of the Board or other positions or titles he may hold with any Affiliate of the Company to the extent he is so appointed. The Executive shall report to the Board. The Executive agrees to observe and comply with the Company's rules and policies as adopted from time to time by the Company. The Executive shall devote his full business time, skill, attention, and best efforts to the performance of his duties hereunder; provided, however, that the Executive shall be entitled to (A) serve on civic, charitable, and religious boards and (B) manage the Executive's personal and family investments, in each case, to the extent that such activities do not materially interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder, are not in conflict with the business interests of the Company or its Affiliates, and do not otherwise compete with the business of the Company or its Affiliates.

(ii) The Executive's employment shall be principally based at the Company's headquarters in San Antonio, Texas. The Executive shall perform his duties and responsibilities to the Company at such principal place of employment and at such other location(s) to which the Company may reasonably require the Executive to travel for Company business purposes.

3. Compensation and Related Matters.

(a) Annual Base Salary. During the Term, the Executive shall receive a base salary at a rate of not less than eight hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($825,000) per annum, which shall be paid in accordance with the customary payroll practices of the Company (the "Annual Base Salary").

(b) Annual Bonus. With respect to each calendar year that ends during the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to receive an annual cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus"), with a target Annual Bonus amount equal to one hundred and twenty five percent (125%) of the Annual Base Salary (the "Target Bonus") and with a maximum Annual Bonus amount equal to two hundred percent (200%) of the Annual Base Salary. The Executive's actual Annual Bonus for a given year, if any, shall be determined on the basis of the Executive's and/or the Company's attainment of objective financial and/or other subjective or objective criteria established by the Board and communicated to the Executive at the beginning of such year. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive's Annual Bonus for the 2019 calendar year shall be equal to a prorated portion of the Target Bonus, determined based on the number of days worked in such calendar year beginning on the Effective Date. Each such Annual Bonus shall be payable on such date as is determined by the Board, but in any event within the period required by Section 409A of the Code such that it qualifies as a "short-term deferral" pursuant to Section 1.409A-1(b)(4) of the Department of Treasury Regulations (or any successor thereto). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Annual Bonus shall be payable with respect to any calendar year (except as provided in Sections 5(b)-5(c) below) unless the Executive remains continuously employed with the Company on the date of payment.

(c) Sign-on Compensation.

(i) Sign-on Cash Bonus. The Executive shall be paid a cash bonus equal to $10,000,000 (the "Sign-on Cash Bonus"), paid out semi-annually in four (4) equal installments of $2.5 million over an 18-month period (each an "Installment Payment"). The 1st Installment Payment shall be paid on the Effective Date. The 2nd Installment Payment shall be paid on the six-month anniversary of the Effective Date. The 3rd Installment Payment shall be paid on the 12-month anniversary of the Effective Date. The 4th Installment Payment shall be paid on the 18-month anniversary of the Effective Date. Each Installment Payment shall only be subject to the Executive not voluntarily resigning his employment without Good Reason prior to the date the Installment Payment is due.

(ii) Sign-on RSU Grant. As soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, the Executive shall receive an upfront restricted stock unit grant (the "Service-Based RSUs") with respect to a number of shares of common stock of Parent with a fair market value equal to $5,500,000 as of the date of grant. The Service-Based RSUs will be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Parent's Equity Incentive Plan and an award agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

(iii) Additional Cash Bonus. Within ten (10) days of the Effective Date, to the extent that the Executive's prior employer does not pay him all or any portion of his accrued and earned annual bonus in respect of calendar year 2018, the Company shall pay the Executive an additional cash bonus equal to $1,281,993.57 less any amount paid by the Executive's prior employer.

(d) Equity.

(i) Initial Option Grant. As soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted an option (the “Option”) to purchase 200,000 shares of Parent common stock at an exercise price equal to the then-current fair market value, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Parent’s Equity Incentive Plan and an award agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B.

(ii) Performance-Based RSU Grant. As soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, the Executive shall be granted a performance-based restricted stock unit grant (the “Performance-Based RSUs”), that, subject to applicable performance criteria being satisfied, would entitle the Executive to receive shares with a value of up to $20,000,000 on the applicable determination date, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Parent’s Equity Incentive Plan and an award agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C.

(e) Benefits. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to participate in the employee benefit plans, programs, and arrangements of the Company now (or, to the extent determined by the Board, hereafter) in effect, in accordance with their terms, including, without limitation, medical and welfare benefits.

(f) Vacation. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to four (4) weeks of paid vacation per calendar year, in accordance with the Company’s vacation policies. Any vacation shall be taken at the reasonable and mutual convenience of the Company and the Executive.

(g) Business Expenses. During the Term, the Company shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel (including first-class airfare) and other business expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties to the Company, in accordance with the Company’s expense reimbursement policies and procedures.

(h) Relocation Reimbursement. The Executive shall relocate to San Antonio, Texas within 18 months following the Effective Date. The Company shall reimburse the Executive on an after-tax basis for the Executive’s out-of-pocket reasonable relocation expenses incurred in connection with such relocation and up to 18-months of temporary living accommodations in San Antonio, up to a maximum of $200,000, relating to general moving costs, temporary living costs and the cost of travel between Dallas and San Antonio until such 18-month anniversary. Any eligible reimbursements or payments (i) shall be subject to Executive’s presenting appropriate documentation to the Company and (ii) shall be paid to Executive in accordance with the Company’s expense policies, but in no event later than the year following the year in which they were incurred.

4. Termination. The Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated prior to the expiration of the Term resulting from a non-renewal pursuant to Section 2(b) above by the Company or the Executive, as applicable, without any breach of this Agreement only under the following circumstances:

(a) Circumstances.

(i) Death. The Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate upon his death.

(ii) Disability. If the Executive has incurred a Disability, the Company may give the Executive written notice of its intention to terminate the Executive's employment. In that event, the Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate effective on the later of the thirtieth (30th) day after receipt of such notice by the Executive and the date specified in such notice, provided that within the thirty (30) day period following receipt of such notice, the Executive shall not have returned to full-time performance of his duties hereunder.

(iii) Termination with Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment with Cause.

(iv) Termination without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment without Cause.

(v) Resignation with Good Reason. The Executive may resign from his employment with Good Reason.

(vi) Resignation without Good Reason. The Executive may resign from his employment without Good Reason upon not less than thirty (30) days' advance written notice to the Board.

(b) Notice of Termination. Any termination of the Executive's employment by the Company or by the Executive under this Section 4 (other than termination pursuant to Section 4(a)(i)) shall be communicated by a written notice to the other party hereto (i) indicating the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) except with respect to a termination pursuant to Section 4(a)(iv) or (vi), setting forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, and (iii) specifying a Date of Termination as provided herein (a "Notice of Termination"). If the Company delivers a Notice of Termination under Section 4(a)(ii), the Date of Termination shall be at least thirty (30) days following the date of such notice; provided, however, that such notice need not specify a Date of Termination, in which case the Date of Termination shall be determined pursuant to Section 4(a)(ii). If the Company delivers a Notice of Termination under Section 4(a)(iii) or 4(a)(iv), the Date of Termination shall be, in the Company's sole discretion, the date on which the Executive receives such notice or any subsequent date selected by the Company (subject to the provisions of Section 1(h) above). If the Executive delivers a Notice of Termination under Section 4(a)(v) or (a)(vi), the Date of Termination shall be at least thirty (30) days following the date of such notice; provided, however, that the Company may, in its sole discretion, accelerate the Date of Termination to any date that occurs following the Company's receipt of such notice, without changing the characterization of such termination as voluntary, even if such date is prior to the date specified in such notice. The failure by the Company or the Executive to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance that contributes to a showing of Cause or Good Reason shall not waive any right of the Company or the Executive hereunder or preclude the Company or the Executive from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Company's or the Executive's rights hereunder.

(c) Termination of All Positions. Upon termination of the Executive's employment for any reason (unless otherwise requested by the Company), the Executive shall be deemed to have resigned, as of the Date of Termination, from all positions and offices that the Executive then holds with the Company and its Affiliates.

5. Company Obligations upon Termination of Employment.

(a) In General. Subject to Section 10(a), upon termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive (or the Executive's estate) shall be entitled to receive (i) any amount of the Executive's Annual Base Salary earned through the Date of Termination not theretofore paid, (ii) any then-remaining unpaid installments of the Sign-on Cash Bonus, (iii) any expenses owed to the Executive under Section 3(g) or Section 3(h), and (iv) any amount arising from the Executive's participation in, or benefits under, any employee benefit plans, programs, or arrangements under Section 3(e) (other than severance plans, programs, or arrangements), which amounts shall be payable in accordance with the terms and conditions of such employee benefit plans, programs, or arrangements including, where applicable, any death and disability benefits (the "Accrued Obligations"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, upon a resignation without Good Reason, the Accrued Obligations shall not include any unpaid amounts set forth in clause (ii) of the preceding sentence.

(b) Termination due to Death. Subject to Section 10(a), if the Executive's employment terminates due to the Executive's death the Company shall, in addition to the Accrued Obligations, pay the Executive's estate, if applicable, a prorated portion of the Annual Bonus payable with respect to the calendar year in which such termination occurs, determined on a daily basis, based on actual performance for such year, and payable if and when annual bonuses are paid to other senior executives of the Company with respect to such year but no later than March 15 of the year immediately after the year of termination.

(c) Termination due to Disability. Subject to Section 10(a) and subject to the Executive's continued compliance with the covenants contained in Sections 6 and 7, if the Executive's employment terminates due to the Executive's Disability pursuant to Section 4(a)(ii) the Company shall, in addition to the Accrued Obligations, pay the Executive a prorated portion of the Annual Bonus payable with respect to the calendar year in which such termination occurs, determined on a daily basis, based on actual performance for such year, and payable if and when annual bonuses are paid to other senior executives of the Company with respect to such year but no later than March 15 of the year immediately after the year of termination.

(d) Termination without Cause, Resignation with Good Reason or Non-Renewal by the Company. Subject to Section 10(a) and subject to the Executive's continued compliance with the covenants contained in Sections 6 and 7, if the Company terminates the Executive's employment without Cause pursuant to Section 4(a)(iv), the Executive resigns from his employment with Good Reason pursuant to Section 4(a)(v), or the Company elects not to renew the Term pursuant to Section 2(b), the Company shall, in addition to the Accrued Obligations:

(i) continue to pay the Annual Base Salary in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices during the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the earlier to occur of (A) the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Date of Termination and (B) the first date that the Executive violates any covenant contained in Section 6 or 7, and pay the Executive an amount equal to his Target Bonus in a lump sum within sixty (60) days following the Date of Termination (the "Severance Payment");

(ii) if continued coverage under the Company's health and welfare plans is timely elected by the Executive, payment of any COBRA premiums from the Date of Termination until the earlier of (x) the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Date of Termination and (y) the first date that the Executive is no longer eligible for COBRA; provided, however, the installment payments payable pursuant to this Section 5(d) shall commence on the first payroll period following the effective date of the Release (as defined below), and the initial installment shall include a lump-sum payment of all amounts accrued under this Section 5(d) from the Date of Termination through the date of such initial payment.

(e) Release. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the amounts payable to the Executive under Sections 5(b), (c), and (d), other than the Accrued Obligations, shall be contingent upon and subject to the Executive's (or the Executive's estate, if applicable) execution and non-revocation of a general waiver and release of claims substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D (the "Release") (and the expiration of any applicable revocation period), on or prior to the sixtieth (60th) day following the Date of Termination.

(f) Survival. The expiration or termination of the Term shall not impair the rights or obligations of any party hereto, which shall have accrued prior to such expiration or termination.

6. Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation; Non-Hire.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Executive agrees that during the Executive's employment with the Company, and for the one (1) year period following the Executive's termination of employment for any reason, the Executive will not, directly or indirectly, have any equity or equity-based interest, or work or otherwise provide services as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, partner, director or otherwise, in any business anywhere in the world that sells hosting and information technology services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company, namely (i) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared or virtual) and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet, (ii) hosted email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking and similar services, and (iii) all similar related services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding interest in such business.

(b) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Executive agrees that during the Executive's employment with the Company, and for the eighteen (18) month period following the Executive's termination of employment for any reason, the Executive will not, directly or indirectly, on the Executive's own behalf or on behalf of another (i) solicit, induce or attempt to solicit or induce any officer, director or employee of the Company to terminate their relationship with or leave the employ of the Company, or in any way interfere with the relationship between the Company, on the one hand, and any officer, director or employee thereof, on the other hand, (ii) hire (or other similar arrangement) any Person (in any capacity whether as an officer, director, employee or consultant) who is or at any time was an officer, director or employee of the Company until six (6) months after such individual's relationship (whether as an officer, director or employee) with the Company has ended, or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or other business relation of the Company to cease doing business with the Company, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or business relation, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand.

(c) In the event that the terms of this Section 6 shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable by reason of its extending for too great a period of time or over too great a geographical area or by reason of its being too extensive in any other respect, it will be interpreted to extend only over the maximum period of time for which it may be enforceable, over the maximum geographical area as to which it may be enforceable, or to the maximum extent in all other respects as to which it may be enforceable, all as determined by such court in such action. The Executive hereby acknowledges that the terms of this Section 6 are reasonable in terms of duration, scope and area restrictions and are necessary to protect the goodwill of the Company. The Executive hereby authorizes the Company to inform any future employer or prospective employer of the existence and terms of Sections 6 and 7 of this Agreement without liability for interference with the Executive's employment or prospective employment.

(d) As used in this Section 6, the term "Company" shall include Parent, the Company and any direct or indirect subsidiaries thereof or any successors thereto.

(e) The provisions contained in Sections 6(a) and 6(b) may be waived with the prior written consent of the Board.

7. Nondisclosure of Confidential Information; Nondisparagement; Intellectual Property.

(a) Non-Disclosure of Confidential Information; Return of Property. The Executive recognizes and acknowledges that he has access to confidential information and/or has had or will have material contact with the Company's customers, suppliers, licensees, representatives, agents, partners, licensors, or business relations. The Executive agrees that during the Term and in perpetuity thereafter, the Executive shall maintain in confidence and shall not directly, indirectly or otherwise, use, disseminate, disclose or publish, or use for the Executive's benefit or the benefit of any Person, any confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets of or relating to the Company, including, without limitation, information with respect to the Company's operations, processes, products, inventions, business practices, finances, principals, vendors, suppliers, customers, potential customers, marketing methods, costs, prices, contractual relationships, regulatory status, compensation paid to employees or other terms of employment, or deliver to any Person any document, record, notebook, computer program or similar repository of or containing any such confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets. Upon the Executive's termination of employment for any reason, the Executive shall promptly deliver to the Company (with the cost of shipping reimbursed by the Company) all correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the Company's customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products or processes. The Executive may respond to a lawful and valid subpoena or other legal process but shall give the Company the earliest possible notice thereof, shall, as much in advance of the return date as possible, make available to the Company and its counsel the documents and other information sought and, if requested by the Company, shall reasonably assist such counsel in resisting or otherwise responding to such process. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (i) the Executive will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for any disclosure of a trade secret that is made: (A) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (B) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or is made in a complaint or other document that is filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding, and (ii) nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Executive from reporting possible violations of federal law or regulation to or otherwise cooperating with or providing information requested by any governmental agency or entity, including, but not limited to, the Department of Justice, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Congress, and any agency Inspector General, or making other disclosures that are protected under the whistleblower provisions of federal law or regulation. The Executive does not need the prior authorization of the Company to make any such reports or disclosures and Employee is not required to notify the Company that Employee has made such reports or disclosures. If the Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, the Executive may disclose the Company's trade secrets to the Executive's attorney and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding if the Executive: (x) files any document containing the trade secret under seal; and (y) does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

(b) Non-Disparagement. The Executive shall not, at any time during the Term and in perpetuity thereafter, directly or indirectly, knowingly disparage, criticize, or otherwise make derogatory statements regarding the Company, or any of its successors, directors or officers. The Board shall not, at any time during the Term and in perpetuity thereafter, directly or indirectly, knowingly disparage, criticize, or otherwise make derogatory statements regarding the Executive (excluding statements to or about the Executive in the course of preparing or providing normal performance reviews for the Executive). The foregoing shall not be violated by either parties' truthful responses to legal process or inquiry by a governmental authority.

(c) Intellectual Property Rights.

(i) The Executive agrees that the results and proceeds of the Executive's services for the Company (including, but not limited to, any trade secrets, products, services, processes, know-how, designs, developments, innovations, analyses, drawings, reports, techniques, formulas, methods, developmental or experimental work, improvements, discoveries, inventions, ideas, source and object codes, programs, matters of a literary, musical, dramatic or otherwise creative nature, writings and other works of authorship) resulting from services performed for the Company and any works in progress, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar statutes, that were made, developed, conceived or reduced to practice or learned by the Executive, either alone or jointly with others (collectively, "Inventions"), shall be works-made-for-hire and the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company) shall be deemed the sole owner throughout the universe of any and all trade secret, patent, copyright and other intellectual property rights (collectively, "Proprietary Rights") of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, with the right to use the same in perpetuity in any manner the Company determines in its sole discretion, without any further payment to the Executive whatsoever. If, for any reason, any of such results and proceeds shall not legally be a work-made-for-hire and/or there are any Proprietary Rights which do not accrue to the Company under the immediately preceding sentence, then the Executive hereby irrevocably assigns and agrees to assign any and all of the Executive's right, title and interest thereto, including, without limitation, any and all Proprietary Rights of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, to the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company, any of its Affiliates), and the Company or such Affiliates shall have the right to use the same in perpetuity throughout the universe in any manner determined by the Company or such Affiliates without any further payment to the Executive whatsoever. As to any Invention that the Executive is required to assign, the Executive shall promptly and fully disclose to the Company all information known to the Executive concerning such Invention. The Executive hereby waives and quitclaims to the Company any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, that the Executive now or may hereafter have for infringement of any Proprietary Rights assigned hereunder to the Company.

(ii) The Executive agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Executive shall do any and all things that the Company may reasonably deem useful or desirable to establish or document the Company's exclusive ownership throughout the United States of America or any other country of any and all Proprietary Rights in any such Inventions, including, without limitation, the execution of appropriate copyright and/or patent applications or assignments. To the extent the Executive has any Proprietary Rights in the Inventions that cannot be assigned in the manner described above, the Executive unconditionally and irrevocably waives the enforcement of such Proprietary Rights. This Section 7(c)(ii) is subject to and shall not be deemed to limit, restrict or constitute any waiver by the Company of any Proprietary Rights of ownership to which the Company may be entitled by operation of law by virtue of the Executive's employment with, or service to, the Company. The Executive further agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Executive shall assist the Company in every proper and lawful way to obtain and from time to time enforce Proprietary Rights relating to Inventions in any and all countries. To this end, the Executive shall execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other acts (including appearances as a witness) as the Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining, and enforcing such Proprietary Rights and the assignment thereof. In addition, the Executive shall execute, verify, and deliver assignments of such Proprietary Rights to the Company or its designees. The Executive's obligation to assist the Company with respect to Proprietary Rights relating to such Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company.

(d) As used in this Section 7, the term "Company" shall include Parent, the Company and any direct or indirect subsidiaries thereof or any successors thereto.

8. Injunctive Relief. The Executive recognizes and acknowledges that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Sections 6 and 7 will cause irreparable damage to the Company and its goodwill, the exact amount of which will be difficult or impossible to ascertain, and that the remedies at law for any such breach will be inadequate. Accordingly, the Executive agrees that in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any of the covenants contained in Sections 6 and 7, in addition to any other remedy that may be available at law or in equity, the Company will be entitled to specific performance and injunctive relief (without posting a bond). In the event of any breach or violation by the Executive of any of the covenants contained in Section 6 and 7, the time period of such covenant with respect to the Executive shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be tolled until such breach or violation is enjoined.

9. Cooperation. The Executive agrees that during the three (3) year period after his employment with the Company, the Executive will reasonably assist the Company and its Affiliates in the defense of any claims or potential claims that may be made or threatened to be made against the Company or any of its Affiliates in any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or otherwise, that are not adverse to the Executive (each, an "Action"), and will reasonably assist the Company and its Affiliates in the prosecution of any claims that may be made by the Company or any of its Affiliates in any Action, to the extent that such claims may relate to the Executive's employment or the period of the Executive's employment by the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive agrees, unless precluded by law, to promptly inform the Company if the Executive is asked to participate (or otherwise become involved) in any such Action. The Executive also agrees, unless precluded by law, to promptly inform the Company if the Executive is asked to assist in any investigation (whether governmental or otherwise) of the Company or any of its Affiliates (or their actions) to the extent that such investigation may relate to the Executive's employment or the period of the Executive's employment by the Company, regardless of whether a lawsuit has then been filed against the Company or any of its Affiliates with respect to such investigation. The Company or one of its Affiliates shall reimburse the Executive for all of the Executive's reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including attorneys' fees) and will compensate Executive at an hourly rate of $400 per hour for his time associated with such cooperation following his Date of Termination.

10. Section 409A of the Code.

(a) General. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that, to the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and incorporate the terms and conditions required by, Section 409A of the Code and the Department of Treasury Regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines that any amounts payable hereunder will be taxable currently to the Executive under Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Code and related Department of Treasury guidance, the Company and the Executive shall cooperate in good faith to (i) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, that they mutually determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement, and to avoid less-favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company, and/or (ii) take such other actions as mutually determined to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A of the Code or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder; provided, however, that this Section 10(a) does not create an obligation on the part of the Company to modify this Agreement and does not guarantee that the amounts payable hereunder will not be subject to interest or penalties under Section 409A, and in no event whatsoever shall the Company or any of its Affiliates be liable for any additional tax, interest or penalties that may be imposed on the Executive as a result of Section 409A of the Code or any damages for failing to comply with Section 409A of the Code.

(b) Separation from Service under Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) no amount shall be payable pursuant to Section 5(a), (b), (c) or (d) unless the termination of the Executive's employment constitutes a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations; (ii) if the Executive is deemed at the time of his separation from service to be a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, to the extent that delayed commencement of any portion of the termination benefits to which the Executive is entitled under this Agreement (after taking into account all exclusions applicable to such termination benefits under Section 409A), including, without limitation, any portion of the additional compensation awarded pursuant to Section 5(a), (b), (c) or (d), is required in order to avoid a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, such portion of the Executive's termination benefits shall not be provided to the Executive prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of the Executive's "separation from service" with the Company (as such term is defined in the Department of Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A) and (B) the date of the Executive's death; provided, that upon the earlier of such dates, all payments deferred pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall be paid to the Executive in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid as otherwise provided herein; (iii) the determination of whether the Executive is a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code as of the time of his separation from service shall be made by the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 409A of the Code and applicable guidance thereunder (including, without limitation, Section 1.409A-1(i) of the Department of Treasury Regulations and any successor provision thereto); (iv) for purposes of Section 409A of the Code, the Executive's right to receive installment payments pursuant to Section 5 shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; (v) if the sixty day period following the Date of Termination ends in the calendar year following the year that includes the Date of Termination, then payment of any amount that is conditioned upon the execution of the Release and is subject to Section 409A shall not be paid until the first day of the calendar year following the year that includes the Date of Termination, regardless of when the Release is signed; and (vi) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes "deferred compensation" under Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in-kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year.

11. Section 280G of the Code.

(a) If there is a change of ownership or effective control or change in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of a corporation (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code) and any payment or benefit (including payments and benefits pursuant to this Agreement) that the Executive would receive from the Company or otherwise ("Transaction Payment") would (i) constitute a "parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), and (ii) but for this sentence, be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then the Company shall cause to be determined, before any amounts of the Transaction Payment are paid to the Executive, which of the following two alternative forms of payment would result in the Executive's receipt, on an after-tax basis, of the greater amount of the Transaction Payment notwithstanding that all or some portion of the Transaction Payment may be subject to the Excise Tax: (1) payment in full of the entire amount of the Transaction Payment (a "Full Payment"), or (2) payment of only a part of the Transaction Payment so that the Executive receives the largest payment possible without the imposition of the Excise Tax (a "Reduced Payment"). For purposes of determining whether to make a Full Payment or a Reduced Payment, the Company shall cause to be taken into account all applicable federal, state and local income and employment taxes and the Excise Tax (all computed at the highest applicable marginal rate, net of the maximum reduction in federal income taxes which could be obtained from a deduction of such state and local taxes). If a Reduced Payment is made, the reduction in payments and/or benefits will occur in the following order: (1) first, reduction of cash payments, in reverse order of scheduled payment date (or if necessary, to zero), (2) then, reduction of non-cash and non-equity benefits provided to the Executive, on a pro rata basis (or if necessary, to zero), and (3) then, cancellation of the acceleration of vesting of equity award compensation in the reverse order of the date of grant of the Executive's equity awards.

(b) Unless the Executive and the Company otherwise agree in writing, any determination required under this section shall be made in good faith in writing by an independent accounting firm selected by the Company which is reasonably acceptable to the Executive (the "Accountants"), whose determination shall be conclusive and binding upon the Executive and the Company for all purposes absent manifest error. For purposes of making the calculations required by this section, the Accountants may make reasonable assumptions and approximations concerning applicable taxes and may rely on reasonable, good faith interpretations concerning the application of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code. The Accountants shall provide detailed supporting calculations to the Company and the Executive as requested by the Company or the Executive. The Executive and the Company shall furnish to the Accountants such information and documents as the Accountants may reasonably request in order to make a determination under this section. The Company shall bear all costs of the Accountants in connection with any calculations contemplated by this Section 11(b).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that no stock of the Company or its Affiliates is readily tradable on an established securities market or otherwise (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code) at the time of the change in control, the Company shall, upon request of the Executive, submit to a vote of shareholders for approval the portion of the Transaction Payments that exceeds three times the Executive's "base amount" (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code) (the "Excess Parachute Payments") in accordance with Treas. Reg. §1.280G-1, and the parties shall cooperate with such vote of shareholders, including the execution of any required documentation subjecting the Executive's entitlement to all Excess Parachute Payments to such shareholder vote.

12. Assignment and Successors. The Company may assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any entity, including any successor to all or substantially all the assets of the Company, by merger or otherwise, and may assign or encumber this Agreement and its rights hereunder as security for indebtedness of the Company and its Affiliates. The Executive may not assign his rights or obligations under this Agreement to any individual or entity. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and the Executive and their respective successors, assigns, personnel, legal representatives, executors, administrators, heirs, distributees, devisees, and legatees, as applicable. In the event of the Executive's death following a termination of his employment, all unpaid amounts otherwise due the Executive (including under Section 5) shall be paid to his estate.

13. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed, construed, interpreted, and enforced in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of Delaware, without reference to the principles of conflicts of law of Delaware or any other jurisdiction, and where applicable, the laws of the United States.

14. Validity. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision or provisions of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect.

15. Notices. Any notice, request, claim, demand, document, and other communication hereunder to any party hereto shall be effective upon receipt (or refusal of receipt) and shall be in writing and delivered personally or sent by telecopy or nationally recognized overnight courier, or certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, to the following address (or at any other address as any party hereto shall have specified by notice in writing to the other party hereto):

16. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same Agreement.

17. Entire Agreement. The terms of this Agreement (together with any other agreements and instruments contemplated hereby or referred to herein) are intended by the parties hereto to be the final expression of their agreement with respect to the employment of the Executive by the Company and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement. The parties hereto further intend that this Agreement shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of its terms and that to the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of this Agreement and any other long-term incentive or equity plans or agreements the terms of this Agreement shall control and govern.

18. Amendments; Waivers. This Agreement may not be modified, amended, or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by the Executive and a duly authorized officer of the Company that expressly identifies the amended provision of this Agreement. By an instrument in writing similarly executed and similarly identifying the waived compliance, the Executive or a duly authorized officer of the Company may waive compliance by the other party or parties with any provision of this Agreement that such other party was or is obligated to comply with or perform; provided, however, that such waiver shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any other or subsequent failure to comply or perform. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising any right, remedy, or power hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise of any other right, remedy, or power provided herein or by law or in equity.

19. No Inconsistent Actions. The parties hereto shall not voluntarily undertake or fail to undertake any action or course of action inconsistent with the provisions or essential intent of this Agreement. Furthermore, it is the intent of the parties hereto to act in a fair and reasonable manner with respect to the interpretation and application of the provisions of this Agreement.

20. Construction. This Agreement shall be deemed drafted equally by both of the parties hereto. Its language shall be construed as a whole and according to its fair meaning. Any presumption or principle that the language is to be construed against any party shall not apply. The headings in this Agreement are only for convenience and are not intended to affect construction or interpretation. Any references to paragraphs, subparagraphs, sections, or subsections are to those parts of this Agreement, unless the context clearly indicates to the contrary. Also, unless the context clearly indicates to the contrary: (a) the plural includes the singular, and the singular includes the plural; (b) "and" and "or" are each used both conjunctively and disjunctively; (c) "any," "all," "each," or "every" means "any and all," and "each and every"; (d) "includes" and "including" are each "without limitation"; and (e) "herein," "hereof," "hereunder," and other similar compounds of the word "here" refer to the entire Agreement and not to any particular paragraph, subparagraph, section, or subsection.

21. Dispute Resolution. The parties agree that any suit, action or proceeding brought by or against a party in connection with this Agreement or Executive's employment with or separation from the Company shall be brought solely in the state districts courts of Texas. Each party expressly and irrevocably consents and submits to the jurisdiction, forum and venue of such courts in connection with any such legal proceedings, including to enforce this Agreement or its/his rights or obligations hereunder, and both parties agree to accept service of process by the other party or any of its agents in connection with any such proceeding. EACH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING INSTITUTED BY OR AGAINST A PARTY IN RESPECT OF ITS RIGHTS OR OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER.

22. Enforcement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Agreement, such provision shall be fully severable, this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision were never a part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as part of this Agreement a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

23. Withholding. The Company shall be entitled to withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement any federal, state, local, and foreign withholding and other taxes and charges that the Company is required to withhold. The Company shall be entitled to rely on an opinion of counsel if any questions as to the amount or requirement of withholding shall arise.

24. Employee Representations. The Executive represents, warrants and covenants that (i) that he has read and understands this Agreement, is fully aware of its legal effect, has not acted in reliance upon any representations or promises made by the Company other than those contained in writing herein, and has entered into this Agreement freely based on his own judgment, (ii) Executive has the full right, authority and capacity to enter into this Agreement and perform Executive's obligations hereunder, (iii) Executive is not bound by any agreement that conflicts with or prevents or restricts the full performance of Executive's duties and obligations to the Company hereunder during or after the Term, (iv) the execution and delivery of this Agreement shall not result in any breach or violation of, or a default under, any existing obligation, commitment or agreement to which Executive is subject, and (v) the Executive shall keep all terms of this Agreement confidential, except with respect to disclosure to the Executive's spouse, accountants or attorneys, each of whom shall agree to keep all terms of this Agreement confidential.

RELEASE OF CLAIMS (“Release”)

1. Release of Claims

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in Section 5 of the employment agreement (the “Employment Agreement”) dated March 13, 2019 between Rackspace US, Inc. and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the “Company”), and Kevin Jones (“Executive”), to which Executive agrees that Executive is not entitled until and unless Executive executes this Release and it becomes effective in accordance with the terms hereof, Executive, for and on behalf of himself and his heirs, successors and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its shareholders, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, assigns, directors, officers, partners, members, managers, employees, trustees (in their official and individual capacities), employee benefit plans and their administrators and fiduciaries (in their official and individual capacities), representatives or agents, and each of their affiliates, successors and assigns, (collectively, the “Releasees”) by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release, including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising out of Executive’s employment or termination of employment, or any term or condition of that employment, or arising under federal, state, local or foreign laws pertaining to employment, including the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (“ADEA,” a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, all as amended, and any other Federal, state and local laws relating to discrimination on the basis of age, sex or other protected class, all claims under Federal, state or local laws for express or implied breach of contract, wrongful discharge, defamation, intentional infliction of emotional distress, and any related claims for attorneys’ fees and costs. Executive further agrees that this Agreement may be pleaded as a full defense to any action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding covered by the terms hereof which is or may be initiated, prosecuted or maintained by Executive, Executive’s descendants, dependents, heirs, executors, administrators or permitted assigns. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that Executive intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that Executive may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws; provided, that Executive does not waive or release claims with respect to (i) any rights he may have to any severance payments or benefits under the Employment Agreement, (ii) rights to any vested benefits under the Company’s employee benefit plans, (iii) any existing rights to indemnification protection that is otherwise provided to Executive by the Company or (iv) rights that cannot be released as a matter of law, (collectively, the “Unreleased Claims”).

2. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that Executive has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, against any of the Releasees before any local, state, federal or foreign agency, court or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that Executive is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted. Executive (i) acknowledges that Executive will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding and will not participate in any Proceeding, in each case, except as required by law; and (ii) waives any right Executive may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding, including any Proceeding conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, Executive will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that Executive may have against the Company and limiting also the ability of Executive to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver); or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC.

3. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that Executive has been advised that he has twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive said given twenty-one (21) day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT EXECUTIVE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW EXECUTIVE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH HE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT EXECUTIVE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

4. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any benefits to Executive pursuant to Section 5 of the Employment Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release, in which event the Company immediately shall arrange and/or pay for any such benefits otherwise attributable to said eight- (8) day period, consistent with the terms of the Employment Agreement. If Executive revokes this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under any section of this Release.

5. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

6. General Provisions

A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

7. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to conflict of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive has executed and delivered this Release as of the date written below.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (“Agreement”) is between Rackspace US, Inc. (“Company”) and Dustin Semach (“Employee”).

1. TERM OF EMPLOYMENT

This Agreement commences July 8, 2019 (“Effective Date”) and ends on July 23, 2021 (the “Employment Period”); however, the Employment Period will thereafter be automatically extended for one year periods unless either Company or Employee gives written notice of non-renewal no later than ninety days prior to the expiration of the then-applicable Employment Period. The term “Employment Period” shall refer to the Employment Period if and as so extended.

2. TITLE AND EXCLUSIVE SERVICES

- (a) Title and Duties. Employee’s title is Chief Transformation Officer. Employee will perform job duties that are usual and customary for this position. This position will be based in San Antonio, Texas. The Company reserves the right to assign to the Employee duties of a different nature, either additional to, or instead of, those referred to above, it being understood that Employee will not be assigned duties that Employee cannot reasonably perform. Employee and Company each represent that they believe in good faith that Employee is under no contractual or other restriction inconsistent with the execution of this Agreement or the performance of Employee’s duties hereunder.
- (b) Exclusive Services. Employee shall not be employed or render services elsewhere during the Employment Period. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of this Section, during the Employment Period, Employee may devote reasonable time to activities other than those required under this Agreement, including activities of a charitable, educational, religious or similar nature (including professional associations), or activities related to corporate board or advisory board positions for non-competitive companies, subject to the company’s standard approval policy, and the management of the Employee’s personal investments, to the extent such activities do not compete in a material way with the business of the Company.

3. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

- (a) Base Salary. Employee shall be paid an annual base salary of $450,000 and shall be eligible for increases in base salary consistent with Company’s ordinary compensation cycles and process.
- (b) Annual Corporate Bonus. Employee is eligible for an annualized on-target bonus of 75% of annual salary, subject to the Rackspace Corporate Cash Bonus Plan (the “Plan”) as approved by the board of directors or compensation committee.

- (c) Equity Award. In consideration for signing this Agreement, Company will recommend to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Inception Topco, Inc. (the "Executive Committee") a one-time recruiting grant of options to purchase 50,000 shares of Inception Topco, Inc. common stock, at a per share strike price equal to the fair market value of a share of Inception Topco, Inc. common stock on the date of grant, pursuant to the Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Award"). The Executive Committee has ultimate authority over this recommended award and would have to issue final approval before it would be granted. The recommended equity award is expected to be presented for review and approval within ninety (90) days of the first date of employment and would be issued pursuant and subject to the Equity Incentive Plan and a form of agreement for similarly situated employees of the Management Equity Program, which outline the vesting schedule and other terms.
- (d) Relocation Package. Employee agrees to relocate to San Antonio within three (3) months following the Effective Date of this Agreement (the "Relocation Date."). To assist with that relocation, Employee is eligible to receive a relocation package, the details of which are outlined in the attached Exhibit A. The relocation benefits will be administered by Company's approved vendor, currently Relocation Synergy. In the event employment ends for any reason other than termination by the Company without Cause or by Employee for Good Reason within one year following the relocation to San Antonio, Employee agrees to reimburse the relocation expenses and relocation lump sum payment to Company. Employee agrees that the reimbursement amount owed to the Company shall be made immediately by a cash payment on or before Employee's last date of employment. If Employee has not submitted the reimbursement amount to the Company as agreed to herein, Employee authorizes Company to deduct the reimbursement amount from any amount due to Employee, including any compensation or any pending expense reimbursements otherwise owed by Company to Employee. In the event Employee does not relocate to San Antonio on or before the Relocation Date, Employee agrees that Employee can be terminated for Cause under Section 8(d) and, in addition to any other available remedies, Employee will be required to reimburse the Company for any previously advanced relocation related payments made to Employee.
- (e) PTO. Employee is eligible for PTO (paid time off) subject to the Employee Handbook.
- (f) Employment Benefit Plans. Employee may participate in employee benefit plans in which other similarly situated employees may participate, according to the terms of applicable policies and as stated in the Employee Handbook. Employee acknowledges receipt of the Employee Handbook available on the intercompany website and will review and abide by its terms.
- (g) Expenses. Company will reimburse Employee for business expenses pursuant to Company policy.

4. NONDISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Company has provided and will continue to provide to Employee confidential information and trade secrets including but not limited to Company’s operational, sales, marketing, personally identifiable information about employees, employee contact information and/or materials used for training and or/employee development, and engineering information, customer lists, business contracts, partner agreements, pricing and strategy information, product and cost or pricing data compensation information, strategic business plans, budgets, financial statements, and other information Company treats as confidential or proprietary (collectively the “Confidential Information”). This section is not intended to limit Employee’s rights to discuss Employee’s compensation or other terms and conditions of employment as allowed by law. Employee will not be liable under any Federal or State trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a Federal, State or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law or that is made in a document filed in a lawsuit so long as it is filed under seal. Employee acknowledges that such Confidential Information is proprietary and agrees not to disclose it to anyone outside Company except to the extent that (i) it is necessary in connection with performing his duties; (ii) Employee is required by court order to disclose the Confidential Information, provided that Employee shall promptly inform Company, shall cooperate with Company to obtain a protective order or otherwise restrict disclosure, and shall only disclose Confidential Information to the minimum extent necessary to comply with the court order. Employee agrees to never use Confidential Information in competing, directly or indirectly, with Company. When employment ends, Employee will immediately return all Confidential Information to Company. The terms of this Section 4 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

5. NON-HIRE OF COMPANY EMPLOYEES

To further preserve the Confidential Information, during employment and for twelve (12) months after employment ends, Employee will not, directly or indirectly, (i) hire or engage any current employee of Company; (ii) solicit or encourage any employee to terminate employment or services with Company; or (iii) solicit or encourage any employee to accept employment with or provide services to Employee or any business associated with Employee. The terms of this Section 5 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

6. NON-SOLICITATION OF CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS

To further preserve the Confidential Information, for twelve (12) months after employment ends, Employee agrees not to directly or indirectly, on Employee’s own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, recruit or otherwise solicit or induce any customer or supplier of the Company, to terminate its employment or arrangement with the Company, otherwise change its relationship with the Company or establish any relationship with Employee or any of Employee’s affiliates for any business purpose deemed competitive with the business of the Company. The terms of this Section 6 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

7. NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT

To further preserve the Confidential Information, Employee agrees that during employment and for twelve (12) months after employment ends (the “Restricted Period”), Employee will not work, as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, or director, in any business anywhere in the world that sells hosting or information technology services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company, including (i) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared, or virtual), and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet, (ii) hosted or managed email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking and similar services, or (iii) any similar related IT services, all of the foregoing being defined for the purposes of this Agreement as "Competitive IT Services."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Employee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than two percent (2%) of the outstanding interest in such business. Provided, that the foregoing restriction shall not prevent Employee from becoming an employee of or contractor for a division of any Competitive IT Services company so long as the division for which Employee will work does not provide Competitive IT Services, and as long as Employee does not, during the Restricted Period, perform services (including but not limited to providing information, advice, strategy, recruiting or any other interaction with regard to business matters) for any division of such company that provides Competitive IT Services. The terms of this Section 7 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

8. TERMINATION

Employee's employment may be terminated prior to the end of this Agreement only by mutual written agreement or:

- (a) Death. The date of Employee's death shall be the termination date.
- (b) Disability. Company may terminate this Agreement and/or Employee's employment if Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's full-time position for more than 180 days in any 12-month period, subject to applicable law.
- (c) Termination By Employee For Good Reason. Employee may terminate Employee's employment at any time for "Good Reason," which is:
 - (i) Company's repeated failure to comply with a material term of this Agreement after written notice by Employee specifying the alleged failure;
 - (ii) a substantial and unusual reduction in responsibilities and authority; (iii) reduction of Employee's annual base salary in subsection 3(a); or
 - (iv) failure to approve and issue the Equity Award within 180 days of the first date of employment. If Employee elects to terminate Employee's employment for "Good Reason," Employee must first provide Company written notice within thirty (30) days, after which Company shall have sixty (60) days to cure. If Company has not cured and Employee elects to terminate employment, Employee must do so within ten (10) days after the end of the cure period
- (d) Termination By Company. Company may terminate Employee's employment with or without Cause and determine the termination date. "Cause" means:
 - (i) willful misconduct, including, without limitation, violation of sexual or other harassment policy, gross negligence, misappropriation of or material misrepresentation regarding property of Company, other than customary and de minimis use of Company property for personal purposes, as determined in the discretion of Company, or failure to take reasonable and appropriate action to prevent material injury to the financial condition, business or reputation of the Company;

- (ii) abandonment of duties (other than by reason of disability) following a written warning and opportunity to cure for two business days;
- (iii) failure to follow lawful directives of the Company, or failure to meet reasonable performance objectives following a written warning and opportunity to cure for thirty (30) days;
- (iv) a felony conviction or indictment, a plea of guilty or nolo contendere by Employee, or other conduct by Employee that has or would result in material injury to Company's reputation, including indictment or conviction of fraud, theft, embezzlement, or a crime involving moral turpitude;
- (v) a material breach of this Agreement including violation of any material representation in Section 9; or
- (vi) a significant violation of Company's employment and management policies.

9. OBLIGATIONS TO FORMER EMPLOYERS

- (a) Representations. As a material term of this Agreement, Employee represents that he has disclosed to Company all agreements, restrictions, or obligations that: (i) purport to impose on Employee any post-employment obligations with respect to a current or former employer; (ii) may affect Employee's ability to assume employment with Rackspace; (iii) may affect Employee's ability to perform the duties of Chief Transformation Officer of Rackspace; or (iv) may result in forfeiture or recoupment of any compensation (whether in the form of cash or equity) paid or payable by a current or former employer. As a material term of this Agreement, Employee represents that he is in compliance with, and will continue to comply with, the terms of all lawful, enforceable and ongoing post-employment restrictions from his prior employment with respect to: (i) nondisclosure of confidential information and trade secrets; and (ii) non-solicitation of employees, customers, and suppliers.
- (b) Legal Expenses Reimbursement. Notwithstanding Employee's and Company's good-faith belief that Employee is under no contractual or other restriction inconsistent with the execution of this Agreement or the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, Employee and Company recognize that Employee's current or former employers or other third parties may take a different view by initiating legal action against Executive or falsely accusing him of wrongdoing, and thus requiring Executive to obtain a legal defense in the event of such a dispute. Therefore, in the unexpected event of litigation against Employee that includes an allegation of a violation of an alleged noncompetition clause, unless Company terminates Employee for Cause or Employee terminates his employment without Good Reason, Company agrees to pay the cost to defend such a lawsuit; provided that Company has the right to select counsel and control the strategy and any resolution of the case; however, Company must seek consent from Employee if any such resolution would include admissions of liability or monetary obligations on the part of Employee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. In the event of a final judicial order of, or an agreed settlement for, recoupment regarding equity grants (“clawback damages”) in a case related primarily to an alleged noncompetition clause, Company will reimburse Employee, or at the Company’s option, pay the former employer directly, for the first $500,000 of loss to Employee at a rate of 100%, and will further reimburse Employee for any additional clawback damages thereafter at a rate of 50% (“Reimbursement Payment”); provided that if Employee is terminated for Cause or resigns without Good Reason within one year of any Reimbursement Payment, Employee will repay to Company the Reimbursement Payment, along with any payment made pursuant to Section 9(d), within thirty days of termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company will not be required to make a Reimbursement Payment if there is more than insubstantial evidence that Employee has violated his obligations to a former employer related to confidentiality, trade secrets, or non-solicitation. The terms of this Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement unless employment is terminated by Company for Cause or by Employee for any reason other than Good Reason.

- (c) Treatment of Reimbursement Payment. Employee and Company intend and understand that any Reimbursement Payment will not be included in Executive’s taxable income for federal income tax purposes, or his wages for purposes of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, either as reimbursements under an accountable plan as defined in §62(a)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and Treasury Regulation §1.62-2(c)(2), or as working condition fringes as defined in Code §132(d) and Treasury Regulation §1.132-5. The parties, and any third party, shall construe and administer this Agreement, to the fullest extent allowable under any applicable laws and regulations, accordingly. Without limiting the foregoing, Employee shall provide to Company, not later than sixty (60) days after any Reimbursement Payment is paid to Employee, any information Company requests to enable Company to identify the specific nature of each reimbursed expense. If, for any reason, Company pays Employee an amount that exceeds the actual amount of the reimbursable expense, Company shall notify Employee after which Employee shall repay such amount to Company not more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the expense is incurred.
- (d) Conditional Gross-Up Payment. Notwithstanding the parties treatment of any Reimbursement Payment in accordance with subsection (c), if at any time the Internal Revenue Service asserts that Employee is subject to federal income tax or a FICA obligation by reason of a Reimbursement Payment, Company shall pay to Employee an additional gross-up amount such that the net amount paid to or on behalf of Employee after the payment of all applicable withholdings or taxes shall be equal to the amount that would have been paid had such payments not been subject to tax plus penalties and interest, if any; provided that Employee must first: (i) promptly notify Company of any audit of his personal tax return in the course of which the auditor raises the issue of whether such payments are taxable, and permit Company in its sole discretion to control the defense against the imposition of any such tax at Company’s expense; and (ii) in the event that Employee or Company are unsuccessful in the defense against the imposition of any such tax, use reasonable efforts to obtain a refund of any taxes paid with respect to the equity grants subject to recoupment. In the event that Employee obtains a partial or total refund of any taxes paid with respect to the equity grants subject to recoupment, any gross-up payment to be paid by Company hereunder shall be offset by such refund, or if the gross-up payment has already been made, Employee shall promptly pay to the Company the amount so refunded. The terms of this Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement unless employment is terminated by Company for Cause or by Employee for any reason other than Good Reason.

- (e) Reimbursement Limitation. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, any Reimbursement Payment paid to Employee, as supplemented by the gross-up payment, if any, shall not exceed $2,000,000. For the sake of clarity, in no event shall Company be required to pay more than $2,000,000 to Employee with respect to reimbursement of forfeiture damages and any applicable gross-up payment. This limitation does not apply to the cost to defend a lawsuit. The terms of this Section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement unless employment is terminated by Company for Cause or by Employee for any reason other than Good Reason.
- (f) Injunctive Relief. In the event Employee is enjoined from working in certain areas of the Company as a result of an alleged noncompetition clause, Company, in its sole discretion, may: (i) reassign Employee to an interim role that does not violate the injunction, which reassignment shall not constitute Good Reason; (ii) place Employee on a paid leave of absence, which leave shall not constitute Good Reason; or (iii) terminate employment without Cause provided Employee has not violated his obligations related to confidentiality, trade secrets, or non-solicitation.

10. COMPENSATION UPON TERMINATION

- (a) Death. Company shall, within 30 days, pay to Employee's designee or, if no person is designated, to Employee's estate, Employee's accrued and unpaid base salary and bonus, subject to the terms of any applicable bonus plan, through the date of termination, and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans.
- (b) Disability. Company shall, within 30 days, pay all accrued and unpaid base salary and bonus, subject to the terms of any applicable bonus plan, through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans.
- (c) Termination By Company For Cause: Company shall, within 30 days, pay to Employee, Employee's accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits).
- (d) Non-Renewal By Employee. If Employee gives notice of non-renewal under Section 1, Company shall determine the termination date and will pay accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date, and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). If the termination date is before the end of the then current Employment Period, and if Employee signs and does not revoke a commercially reasonable Severance Agreement and General Release of claims with customary carve-outs in a form satisfactory to Company, then Company will, in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, pay Employee an amount equal to Employee's pro-rata base salary through the end of the then current Employment Period (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").

(e) Termination With Severance.

- (1) Termination By Company Without Cause or Termination by Employee for Good Reason - Severance: If Company terminates Employee's employment without Cause and not by reason of death or disability or if Employee terminates for Good Reason, Company will pay the accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). In addition, if Employee signs and does not revoke a commercially reasonable Severance Agreement and General Release of claims with customary carve-outs in a form satisfactory to Company, Company will pay Employee, (i) in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, the greater of Employee's current base salary for twelve (12) months or the amount that would be provided by the severance guidelines that are prevailing at the time of termination based on the Employee's location, and (ii) a pro rata bonus, which represents the unpaid pro-rata portion of the actual annual performance bonus that Employee would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the actual level of achievement of the applicable performance objectives for the fiscal year in which Employee's termination occurs. The bonus amount shall be paid in a lump sum at the same time bonuses are paid to the Company's other similarly situated employees. The payment made pursuant to this section are referred to as (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").
- (2) Non-Renewal By Company - Severance: If Employee's employment ends because Company gives notice of non-renewal under Section 1, Company shall determine the termination date, even if such date is prior to the end of the Employment Period and will pay the accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). In addition, if Employee signs and does not revoke a commercially reasonable Severance Agreement and General Release of claims with customary carve-outs in a form satisfactory to Company, Company will pay Employee, in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, the greater of Employee's current base salary for twelve (12) months or the amount that would be provided by the severance guidelines that are prevailing at the time of termination base on the Employee's location (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").

(3) Employment by Competitor or Re-hire During Severance Pay Period:

(i) If Employee competes with Company, or is hired or engaged in any capacity by any competitor of Company (to be determined in Company's discretion), during any Severance Pay Period, then the Severance Payments shall cease. The foregoing shall not affect Company's right to enforce the Non-Compete pursuant to Section 7. For purposes of this sub-section, a "competitor" of Company means: any business anywhere in the world that sells Competitive IT Services as defined in Section 7.

(ii) If Employee is rehired by Company or employed by or performing services in any non-competitive capacity or business during any Severance Pay Period, the Severance Payments shall cease. Furthermore, as a condition to receiving Severance Payments, Employee agrees to use reasonable efforts to obtain an offer of comparable employment. If Employee receives such an offer, the Severance Payments shall cease as of the offer's proposed employment start date.

11. OWNERSHIP OF MATERIALS

Employee agrees that all inventions, improvements, discoveries, designs, technology, and works of authorship (including but not limited to computer software) made, created, conceived, or reduced to practice by Employee, whether alone or in cooperation with others, during employment, together with all patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, and other intellectual property rights related to any of the foregoing throughout the world, are among other things works made for hire and belong exclusively to the Company, and Employee hereby assigns all such rights to the Company. Employee agrees to execute any documents, testify in any legal proceedings, and do all things necessary or desirable to secure Company's rights to the foregoing, including without limitation executing inventors' declarations and assignment forms. If there is a separate signed agreement between Employee and the Company including terms directly related to intellectual property rights, then the intellectual property terms of that agreement shall control.

12. PARTIES BENEFITED; ASSIGNMENTS

This Agreement shall be binding upon Employee, Employee's heirs and Employee's personal representative or representatives, and upon Company and its respective successors and assigns. Neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned by Employee, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. The Company may assign its rights and obligation under this Agreement to any entity, including any successor to all or substantially all the assets of the Company, by merger or otherwise; provided, however, that Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company to expressly assume in writing on or prior to the effective date of such succession and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent the Company would be required to perform if no succession had taken place.

13. GOVERNING LAW

Initials:
Company: HW
Employee: DSS

This Agreement shall be governed, construed, interpreted, and enforced in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of Texas, without reference to the principles of conflicts of law of Texas or any other jurisdiction, and where applicable, the laws of the United States. Each of the Company and Employee (on behalf of itself and its affiliates) expressly consents to the personal jurisdiction of the Texas state and federal courts for any lawsuit relating to this Agreement, waives any other requirement (whether imposed by statute, rule of court, or otherwise) with respect to such personal jurisdiction or service of process, and waives any objection to jurisdiction based on improper venue or improper jurisdiction.

Each party hereto hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each party hereto (i) certifies that no representative, agent, or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such party would not, in the event of any action, suit, or proceeding, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (ii) acknowledges that it and the other party hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waiver and certifications in this Section.

Employee acknowledges and agrees that Employee is advised to be represented by counsel in connection with his review and agreement to all terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Employee acknowledges and agrees that entering into this Agreement is not a condition of Employee's employment with the Company or its affiliates.

14. DEFINITION OF COMPANY

"Company" shall include Rackspace US, Inc., and its past, present and future divisions, operating companies, subsidiaries, affiliates and successors.

15. LITIGATION AND REGULATORY COOPERATION

During and after employment, Employee shall reasonably cooperate in the defense or prosecution of claims, investigations, or other actions which relate to events or occurrences during employment. Employee agrees, unless precluded by law, to promptly inform the Company if Employee is asked to participate (or otherwise become involved) in any such claim, investigation or action. Employee's cooperation shall include being available to prepare for discovery or trial and to act as a witness. Company will pay an hourly rate (based on base salary as of the last day of employment) for cooperation that occurs after employment, and reimburse for reasonable expenses, including travel expenses, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

16. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

(a) Injunctive Relief: Employee agrees that irreparable damages to Company will result from Employee's breach of this Agreement, including loss of revenue, loss of goodwill associated with Employee as a result of employment, and/or loss of the benefit to Company of any training, confidential, and/or trade secret information provided to Employee, and any other tangible and intangible investments made to and on behalf of Employee. A breach or threat of breach of this Agreement shall give the non-breaching party the right to seek a temporary restraining order and a preliminary or permanent injunction enjoining the breaching party from violating this Agreement in order to prevent immediate and irreparable harm. The breaching party shall pay to the non-breaching party reasonable attorneys' fees and costs associated with enforcement of this Agreement, including any appeals. Pursuit of equitable relief under this Agreement shall have no effect regarding the continued enforceability of the Arbitration Section below. Remedies for breach under this Section are cumulative and not exclusive; the parties may elect to pursue any remedies available under this Agreement.

- (b) Arbitration: The parties agree that any dispute or claim, that could be brought in court including discrimination or retaliation claims, relating to this Agreement or arising out of Employee's employment or termination of employment, shall, upon timely written request of either party, be submitted to binding arbitration, except claims regarding: (i) workers' compensation benefits; (ii) unemployment benefits; (iii) Company's employee welfare benefit plans, if the plan contains a final and binding appeal procedure for the resolution of disputes under the plan; (iv) wage and hour disputes within the jurisdiction of any state Labor Commissioner; and (v) issues that could be brought before the National Labor Relations Board or covered by the National Labor Relations Act. This Agreement is not intended to prohibit the Employee from filing a claim or communicating with any governmental agency including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board or the Department of Labor. The arbitration shall be conducted in San Antonio, Texas. The arbitration shall proceed in accordance with the National Rules for Resolution of Employment Disputes of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in effect at the time the claim or dispute arose, unless other rules are agreed upon by the parties. Unless agreed to in writing, the arbitration shall be conducted by one arbitrator from AAA or a comparable arbitration service, and who is selected pursuant to the National Rules for Resolution of Employment Disputes of the AAA, or other rules as the parties may agree to in writing. Any claims received after the applicable statute of limitations period shall be deemed null and void. The parties further agree that by entering into this Agreement, the right to participate in a class or collective action is waived. CLAIMS MAY BE ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY ONLY IN AN INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. Further, unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative, collective or class proceeding. If this specific provision is found to be unenforceable, then the entirety of this arbitration provision shall be null and void. The arbitrator shall issue a reasoned award with findings of fact and conclusions of law. Either party may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to compel arbitration under this Agreement, or to enforce or vacate an arbitration award. However, in actions seeking to vacate an award, the standard of review to be applied by said court to the arbitrator's findings of fact and conclusions of law will be the same as that applied by an appellate court reviewing a decision of a trial court sitting without a jury, unless state law requires otherwise. Company will pay the actual fee for the arbitrator and the claimant's filing fee; unless otherwise provided by law and awarded by the arbitrator, each party will pay their own attorneys' fees and other expenses.

17. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF EMPLOYEE

Employee shall keep all terms of this Agreement confidential, except as may be disclosed to Employee’s spouse, accountants or attorneys, each of whom shall agree to keep all terms of this Agreement confidential. Employee authorizes the Company to inform any prospective employer of the existence and terms of this Agreement without liability for interference with Employee’s prospective employment. Employee represents that Employee is under no disability that prevents Employee from performing the essential functions of Employee’s position, with or without reasonable accommodation. Employee represents that Employee is represented by counsel in connection with this Agreement.

18. SECTION 409A COMPLIANCE

- (a) General. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that, to the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and incorporate the terms and conditions required by, Section 409A of the Code and the Department of Treasury Regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the date hereof. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines that any amounts payable hereunder will be taxable currently to the Employee under Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Code and related Department of Treasury guidance, the Company and the Employee shall cooperate in good faith to (i) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, that they mutually determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement, and to avoid less-favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company, and/or (ii) take such other actions as mutually determined to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A of the Code or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder, provided, however, that this Section does not create an obligation on the part of the Company to modify this Agreement or any other agreement, arrangement or plan and does not guarantee that the amounts payable hereunder will not be subject to interest or penalties under Section 409A, and in no event whatsoever shall the Company or any of its affiliates be liable for any additional tax, interest, or penalties that may be imposed on Employee as a result of Section 409A of the Code or any damages for failing to comply with Section 409A of the Code.
- (b) Separation from Service under Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) no Severance Payments shall be payable unless the termination of the Employee’s employment constitutes a “separation from service” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations; (ii) if the Employee is deemed at the time of Employee’s separation from service to be a “specified employee” for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, to the extent that delayed commencement of any portion of the Severance Payments (after taking into account all exclusions applicable to such Severance Payment under Section 409A) is required in order to avoid a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, such portion of the Severance Payments shall not be provided to the Employee prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of the Employee’s “separation from service” with the Company (as such term is defined in the Department of Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A) and (B) the date of the Employee’s death; provided, that upon the earlier of such dates, all payments deferred pursuant to this Section 18(b) shall be paid to the Employee in a lump sum, and any remaining Severance Payments shall be paid as otherwise provided herein; (iii) the determination of whether the Employee is a “specified employee” for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code as of the time of Employee’s separation from service shall be made by the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 409A of the Code and applicable guidance thereunder (including, without limitation, Section 1.409A-1(i) of the Department of Treasury Regulations and any successor provision thereto); (iv) for purposes of Section 409A of the Code, the Employee’s right to receive installment payments of the Severance Payments shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (v) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes “deferred compensation” under Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in-kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year. Reimbursements and in-kind benefits are not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. With regard to any requirement that Employee sign and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release as a condition to receipt of payments under section 10, such Severance Agreement and General Release must become effective and irrevocable in accordance with its terms on or before the 60th day following Employee’s separation from service; provided that if the 60-day period begins in one taxable year of Employee and ends in a second taxable year of Employee, such payments under section 10 conditioned on such Severance Agreement and General Release shall not commence until the second taxable year.

19. WITHHOLDING

The Company shall be entitled to withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement any federal, state, local, and foreign withholding and other taxes and charges that the Company is required to withhold. The Company shall be entitled to rely on an opinion of counsel if any questions as to the amount or requirement of withholding shall arise.

20. EXCESS PARACHUTE PAYMENTS

If it is determined (as hereafter provided) that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of Employee, whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise pursuant to or by reason of any other agreement, policy, plan, program, or arrangement, including without limitation any stock option, stock appreciation right, or similar right, or the lapse or termination of any restriction on or the vesting or exercisability of any of the foregoing (a "Payment"), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (or any successor provision thereto) by reason of being contingent on a change in ownership or effective control of the Company or of a substantial portion of the assets of the Company, within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code (or any successor provision thereto), or to any similar tax imposed by state or local law, or any interest or penalties with respect to such excise tax (such tax or taxes, together with any such interest or penalties, are hereafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then, in the event that the after-tax value of all Payments to Employee (such after-tax value to reflect the reduction for the Excise Tax and all federal, state, and local income, employment, and other taxes on such Payments) would, in the aggregate, be less than the after-tax value to Employee (reflecting a reduction for all such taxes in a like manner) of the amount that is 2.99 times Employee's "base amount" within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code (the "Safe Harbor Amount"), (a) the cash portions of the Payments payable to Employee under this Agreement shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value (as defined below) of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount, and (b) if the reduction of the cash portions of the Payments, payable under this Agreement, to zero would not be sufficient to reduce the Parachute Value of all Payments to the Safe Harbor Amount, then any cash portions of the Payments payable to Employee under any other agreements, policies, plans, programs, or arrangements shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount, and (c) if the reduction of all cash portions of the Payments, payable pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, to zero would not be sufficient to reduce the Parachute Value of all Payments to the Safe Harbor Amount, then non-cash portions of the Payments shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount. All calculations under this Section shall be determined by a national accounting firm selected by the Company (which may include the Company's outside auditors). The Company shall pay all costs to obtain and provide such calculations to Employee and the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Parachute Value" of a Payment shall mean the present value as of the date of the change in ownership or effective control, within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, of the portion of such Payment that constitutes a "parachute payment" under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, as determined for purposes of determining whether and to what extent the Excise Tax will apply to such Payment.

This Agreement is not effective unless fully executed by all parties, including the President and CEO or authorized officer of the Company, and approved by the Executive Committee as required by Company or its affiliates. This Agreement may not be modified, amended, or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by Employee and the President and CEO or authorized officer of the Company that expressly identifies the amended provision of this Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties on the subject matters in this agreement and supersedes any prior written or oral agreements or understandings between the parties except as noted in Section 11 above. No modification shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the parties. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, a counterpart transmitted via electronic means, and all executed counterparts, when taken together, shall constitute sufficient proof of the parties' entry into this Agreement. The parties agree to execute any further or future documents which may be necessary to allow the full performance of this Agreement. The failure of a party to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the right of such party to later enforce any provision. A waiver of the breach of any term or condition of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term or condition. The headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not control the meaning of any provision hereof.

If any provision of this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held unenforceable, such unenforceability shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof, except as specifically noted in this Agreement, or the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, all of which shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law. Company and Employee agree that the restrictions contained in Section 4, 5, 6, and 7, are reasonable in scope and duration and are necessary to protect Confidential Information. If any restrictive covenant is held to be unenforceable because of the scope, duration or geographic area of such restrictive covenant, the parties agree that a court or arbitrator may reduce the scope, duration, or geographic area, and in its reduced form, such provision shall be enforceable. Should Employee violate the provisions of Sections 5, 6, or 7, then in addition to all other remedies available to Company, the duration of these covenants shall be extended for the period of time when Employee began such violation until Employee permanently ceases such violation.

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Agreement, such provision shall be fully severable, this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision were never a part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as part of this Agreement a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable. Upon full execution by all parties, this Agreement shall be effective when signed below.

The term “Employment Period” shall refer to the Employment Period if and as so extended.

2. TITLE AND EXCLUSIVE SERVICES

- (a) Title and Duties. Employee’s title is Executive Vice-President and General Manager, Americas. Employee will perform job duties that are usual and customary for this position. This position will require performance of duties Monday through Friday in San Antonio, Texas, unless Employee is traveling for business purposes. The Company reserves the right to assign to the Employee duties of a different nature, either additional to, or instead of, those referred to above, it being understood that Employee will not be assigned duties which Employee cannot reasonably perform.
- (b) Exclusive Services. Employee shall not be employed or render services elsewhere during the Employment Period. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of this Section, during the Employment Period, Employee may devote reasonable time to activities other than those required under this Agreement, including activities of a charitable, educational, religious or similar nature (including professional associations), or activities related to corporate board or advisory board positions for non-competitive companies, subject to the company’s standard approval policy, and the management of the Employee’s personal investments, to the extent such activities do not compete in a material way with the business of the Company.

- (b) Annual Corporate Bonus. Employee is eligible for an annualized on-target bonus of 90% of annual salary, subject to the Rackspace Corporate Cash Bonus Plan (the “Plan”) as approved by the board of directors or compensation committee. The parties agree that Employee’s potential 2019 bonus, if earned and approved under the Bonus Plan, will not be reduced to a pro rata amount on account of his start date in 2019. This means, for the sake of clarity, that Employee would be eligible to receive a 12-month bonus payment for 2019 on the ordinary bonus payment date if he is employed on such payout date and is otherwise eligible for a bonus under the achievement requirements and other terms of the Bonus Plan.

- (c) Annual Variable Compensation. Employee is eligible for an annual regional sales performance incentive bonus of up to $300,000.00 per year based on sales-related objectives to be determined in the reasonable discretion of Company (the "Commission Bonus") and subject to the applicable commissions plan. If the Commission Bonus is earned, it will be paid at the same time as the Annual Corporate Bonus which follows year-end financial reconciliations in Q1 of the following calendar year. For the 2019 year, the Commission Bonus will not be prorated.
- (d) Signing Bonuses. Employee will be paid a signing bonus of $1,037,500 less withholdings and other ordinary payroll deductions within thirty days of the start of employment subject to the clawback outlined below. Employee will be paid a total of an additional $1,500,000 less withholdings and other ordinary payroll deductions, payable in three equal installments of $500,000 each on the following dates subject to the clawback outlined below: August 16, 2019, the second payroll date in April 2020, and the second payroll date in January 2021. Except as provided in subsection 9(e), Employee must remain employed by Company through the applicable installment payment date to receive the installment payments. Clawback: if Employee resigns without Good Reason or is terminated for Cause prior to the one-year anniversary of employment, Employee shall repay to Company any Signing Bonuses that were paid within the prior one-year period, such clawback payment to be made within thirty days following the end of employment.
- (e) Equity Award. In consideration for signing this Agreement, Company will recommend to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Inception Topco, Inc. (the "Executive Committee") a one-time recruiting grant of options to purchase 80,000 shares of Inception Topco, Inc. common stock, at a per share strike price equal to the fair market value of a share of Inception Topco, Inc. common stock on the date of grant, pursuant to the Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Award"). The Executive Committee has ultimate authority over this recommended award and would have to issue final approval before it would be granted. The recommended equity award is expected to be presented for review and approval within ninety (90) days of the first date of employment and would be issued pursuant and subject to the Equity Incentive Plan and a form of agreement for similarly situated employees of the Management Equity Program, which outline the vesting schedule and other terms.
- (f) PTO. Employee is eligible for PTO (paid time off) subject to the Employee Handbook.
- (g) Employment Benefit Plans. Employee may participate in employee benefit plans in which other similarly situated employees may participate, according to the terms of applicable policies and as stated in the Employee Handbook. - (h) Expenses. Company will reimburse or pay for Employee's reasonable business expenses pursuant to Company policy. With respect to Employee's travel to San Antonio, Company agrees to the following:
- a. Company will pay for all reasonable travel expenses to and from San Antonio for no more than six weeks to assist with Employee's search for local housing. Thereafter, Company will pay for only airfare and transportation costs.
 - b. Company will pay $36,000 per year to Employee, less withholding and ordinary payroll deductions, to assist with any other expenses associated with trips to San Antonio, including the cost of a potential apartment, meals, and other incidental costs.
- (i) Atlanta Home Sale Assistance. Company and Employee have agreed to the terms set forth in the attached Exhibit A, which is incorporated herein for all purposes.

4. NONDISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- (a) Company has provided and will continue to provide to Employee confidential information and trade secrets including but not limited to Company's operational, sales, marketing, personally identifiable information about employees, employee contact information and/or materials used for training and or/employee development, and engineering information, customer lists, business contracts, partner agreements, pricing and strategy information, product and cost or pricing data, compensation information, strategic business plans, budgets, financial statements, and other information Company treats as confidential or proprietary (collectively the "Confidential Information"). This section is not intended to limit Employee's rights to discuss Employee's compensation or other terms and conditions of employment as allowed by law. Employee will not be liable under any Federal or State trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a Federal, State or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law or that is made in a document filed in a lawsuit so long as it is filed under seal. Employee acknowledges that such Confidential Information is proprietary and agrees not to disclose it to anyone outside Company except to the extent that (i) it is necessary in connection with performing his duties; (ii) Employee is required by court order to disclose the Confidential Information, provided that Employee shall promptly inform Company, shall cooperate with Company to obtain a protective order or otherwise restrict disclosure, and shall only disclose Confidential Information to the minimum extent necessary to comply with the court order. Employee agrees to never use Confidential Information in competing, directly or indirectly, with Company. When employment ends, Employee will immediately return all Confidential Information to Company.
- (b) The terms of this Section 4 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

5. NON-HIRE OF COMPANY EMPLOYEES

- (a) To further preserve the Confidential Information, during employment and for twelve (12) months after employment ends, Employee will not, directly or indirectly, (i) hire or engage any current employee of Company; (ii) solicit or encourage any employee to terminate employment or services with Company; or (iii) solicit or encourage any employee to accept employment with or provide services to Employee or any business associated with Employee.
- (b) The terms of this Section 5 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

6. NON-SOLICITATION OF CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS

- (a) To further preserve the Confidential Information, for twelve (12) months after employment ends, Employee agrees not to directly or indirectly, on Employee's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, recruit or otherwise solicit or induce any customer or supplier of the Company, to terminate its employment or arrangement with the Company, otherwise change its relationship with the Company or establish any relationship with Employee or any of Employee's affiliates for any business purpose deemed competitive with the business of the Company.
- (b) The terms of this Section 6 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

7. NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT

- (a) To further preserve the Confidential Information, Employee agrees that during employment and for twelve (12) months after employment ends (the "Restricted Period"), Employee will not work, as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, or director, in any business anywhere in the world that sells hosting or information technology services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company, including (i) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared, or virtual), and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet, (ii) hosted or managed email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking and similar services, or (iii) any similar related IT services, all of the foregoing being defined for the purposes of this Agreement as "Competitive IT Services." Notwithstanding the foregoing, Employee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than two percent (2%) of the outstanding interest in such business. Provided, that the forgoing restriction shall not prevent Employee from becoming an employee of or contractor for a division of any Competitive IT Services company so long as the division for which Employee will work does not provide Competitive IT Services, and as long as Employee does not, during the Restricted Period, perform services (including but not limited to providing information, advice, strategy, recruiting or any other interaction with regard to business matters) for any division of such company that provides Competitive IT Services.

- (b) The terms of this Section 7 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.
8. TERMINATION. Employee's employment may be terminated prior to the end of this Agreement only by mutual written agreement or:
- (a) Death. The date of Employee's death shall be the termination date.
- (b) Disability. Company may terminate this Agreement and/or Employee's employment if Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's full-time position for more than 180 days in any 12-month period, subject to applicable law.
- (c) Termination By Employee For Good Reason. Employee may terminate Employee's employment at any time for "Good Reason," which is:
(i) Company's repeated failure to comply with a material term of this Agreement after written notice by Employee specifying the alleged failure; or
(ii) a substantial and unusual reduction in responsibilities and authority. If Employee elects to terminate Employee's employment for "Good Reason," Employee must first provide Company written notice within thirty (30) days, after which Company shall have sixty (60) days to cure. If Company has not cured and Employee elects to terminate employment, Employee must do so within ten (10) days after the end of the cure period
- (d) Termination By Company. Company may terminate Employee's employment with or without Cause and determine the termination date. "Cause" means:
(i) willful misconduct, including, without limitation, violation of sexual or other harassment policy, gross negligence, misappropriation of or material misrepresentation regarding property of Company, other than customary and de minimis use of Company property for personal purposes, as determined in the discretion of Company, or failure to take reasonable and appropriate action to prevent material injury to the financial condition, business or reputation of the Company;
(ii) abandonment of duties (other than by reason of disability);
(iii) failure to follow lawful directives of the Company, or failure to meet reasonable performance objectives following a written warning and opportunity to cure for thirty (30) days;
(iv) a felony conviction or indictment, a plea of guilty or nolo contendere by Employee, or other conduct by Employee that has or would result in material injury to Company's reputation, including indictment or conviction of fraud, theft, embezzlement, or a crime involving moral turpitude;

(v) a material breach of this Agreement including violation of any material representation in section 9; or

(vi) a significant violation of Company's employment and management policies.

9. OBLIGATIONS TO FORMER EMPLOYERS

- (a) Representations. As a material term of this Agreement, Employee represents that he has disclosed to Company all agreements, restrictions, or obligations that: (i) purport to impose on Employee any post-employment obligations with respect to a current or former employer; (ii) may affect Employee's ability to assume employment with Rackspace; (iii) may affect Employee's ability to perform his duties under this Agreement; or (iv) may result in forfeiture or recoupment of any compensation (whether in the form of cash or equity) paid or payable by a current or former employer. Employee and Company each represent that they believe in good faith that Employee is under no contractual or other restriction inconsistent with the execution of this Agreement or the performance of Employee's duties hereunder. As a material term of this Agreement, Employee represents that, to the best of his knowledge, he is in compliance with, and will not knowingly or intentionally violate, the terms of all lawful, enforceable and ongoing post-employment restrictions from his prior employment with respect to: (i) nondisclosure of confidential information and trade secrets; and (ii) non-solicitation of employees, customers, and suppliers. Company agrees that it will not require Employee to engage in solicitation of customers it believes in good faith to be in violation of any enforceable restrictions from prior employment, and agrees that any act that Employee performs at Company's direction will not violate Employee's representation in this subsection 9(a).
- (b) Legal Expenses Reimbursement. Notwithstanding Employee's and Company's good-faith belief that Employee is under no contractual or other restriction inconsistent with the execution of this Agreement or the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, Employee and Company recognize that Employee's current or former employers or other third parties may take a different view by initiating legal action against Executive or falsely accusing him of wrongdoing, and thus requiring Executive to obtain a legal defense in the event of such a dispute. Therefore, in the unexpected event of litigation against Employee that includes an allegation of a violation of an alleged noncompetition or customer nonsolicitation clause, Company agrees to pay the cost to defend such a lawsuit; provided that Company has the right to select counsel, and control the strategy and any resolution of the case; however, Company must seek consent from Employee if any such resolution would include admissions of liability or monetary obligations on the part of Employee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. In the event of a final judicial finding of recoupment regarding equity grants ("clawback damages") related to an alleged noncompetition clause or to a violation of an alleged customer non-solicitation clause resulting from his organizational responsibilities (and not his unilateral conduct), Company will reimburse Employee, or at the Company's option, pay the former employer directly, for the clawback damages up to $2,400,000 as a maximum cost to Company ("Reimbursement Payment"); provided that if Employee is terminated for Cause or resigns without Good Reason within one year of any Reimbursement Payment, Employee will repay to Company the Reimbursement Payment, along with any payment made pursuant to subsection 9(d), within thirty days of termination.

- (c) Treatment of Reimbursement Payment. Employee and Company intend and understand that any Reimbursement Payment will not be included in Executive's taxable income for federal income tax purposes, or his wages for purposes of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, either as reimbursements under an accountable plan as defined in §62(a)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and Treasury Regulation §1.62-2(c)(2), or as working condition fringes as defined in Code §132(d) and Treasury Regulation §1.132-5. The parties, and any third party, shall construe and administer this Agreement, to the fullest extent allowable under any applicable laws and regulations, accordingly. Without limiting the foregoing, Employee shall provide to Company, not later than sixty (60) days after any Reimbursement Payment is paid to Employee, any information Company requests to enable Company to identify the specific nature of each reimbursed expense. If, for any reason, Company pays Employee an amount that exceeds the actual amount of the reimbursable expense, Company shall notify Employee after which Employee shall repay such amount to Company not more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the expense is incurred.
- (d) Conditional Gross-Up Payment. Prior to the payment of any Reimbursement Payment, Company will affirmatively seek additional tax advice with respect to the tax treatment of such payment, including, at Employee's request, consideration of advice from a tax advisor of Employee's choosing. Notwithstanding the parties' treatment of any Reimbursement Payment in accordance with subsection (c), if, prior to any Reimbursement Payment, the Company's tax advisor, after considering any tax advice from a tax advisor of Employee's choosing, determines that Employee is subject to federal income tax or a FICA obligation by reason of a Reimbursement Payment, or if at any later time the Internal Revenue Service asserts that Employee is subject to federal income tax or a FICA obligation by reason of a Reimbursement Payment, Company shall pay to Employee an additional gross-up amount, not to exceed $900,000, such that the net amount paid to or on behalf of Employee after the payment of all applicable withholdings, taxes, or penalties shall be equal to the amount that would have been paid had such payments not been subject to tax; provided that Employee must first: (i) promptly notify Company of any such assertion or of any audit of his personal tax return in the course of which the auditor raises the issue of whether such payments are taxable, and permit Company in its sole discretion to control the defense against the imposition of any such tax at Company's expense; and (ii) in the event that Employee or Company are unsuccessful in the defense against the imposition of any such tax, use reasonable efforts to obtain a refund of any taxes paid with respect to the equity grants subject to recoupment. In the event that Employee obtains a partial or total refund of any taxes paid with respect to the equity grants subject to recoupment, any gross-up payment to be paid by Company hereunder shall be offset by such refund, or if the gross-up payment has already been made, Employee shall promptly pay to the Company the amount so refunded.

- (e) Injunctive Relief. In the event Employee is enjoined from working in certain areas of the Company as a result of an alleged noncompetition clause or nonsolicitation, if reasonably practicable, Company will reassign Employee to a role that does not violate the injunction, which reassignment shall not constitute Good Reason provided that, as soon as any such injunction ends, Company will return Employee to the position listed in subsection 2(a) with the same responsibilities and authority. If it is not reasonably practicable to reassign Employee to another role, Company may, in its sole discretion: (i) place Employee on a paid leave of absence, which leave shall not constitute Good Reason; or (ii) terminate employment; provided, however, that such termination will be considered a termination without Cause subject to section 10(e)(1) as long as Employee has not been found to have engaged in behavior that is a willful or intentional violation of his obligations related to confidentiality, trade secrets, or non-solicitation. In the event Company terminates Employee without Cause pursuant to this subsection 9(e), the terms of subsection 3(d) will survive such termination. The Signing Bonus in subsection 3(d) will, to the extent not already paid, become immediately due and will not be subject to the clawback provisions of subsection 3(d).

10. COMPENSATION UPON TERMINATION

- (a) Death. Company shall, within 30 days, pay to Employee's designee or, if no person is designated, to Employee's estate, Employee's accrued and unpaid base salary and bonus, subject to the terms of any applicable bonus plan, through the date of termination, and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans.
- (b) Disability. Company shall, within 30 days, pay all accrued and unpaid base salary and bonus, subject to the terms of any applicable bonus plan, through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans.
- (c) Termination By Company For Cause: Company shall, within 30 days, pay to Employee, Employee's accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits).
- (d) Non-Renewal By Employee. If Employee gives notice of non-renewal under Section 1, Company shall determine the termination date and will pay accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date, and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). If the termination date is before the end of the then current Employment Period, and if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, then Company will, in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, pay Employee an amount equal to Employee's pro-rata base salary through the end of the then current Employment Period (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").

(e) Termination With Severance.

- (1) Termination By Company Without Cause or Termination by Employee for Good Reason—Severance: If Company terminates Employee’s employment without Cause and not by reason of death or disability or if Employee terminates for Good Reason, Company will pay the accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). In addition, if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, Company will pay Employee, (i) in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, the greater of Employee’s current base salary for twelve (12) months or the amount that would be provided by the severance guidelines that are prevailing at the time of termination based on the Employee’s location, and (ii) a pro rata bonus, which represents the unpaid pro-rata portion of the actual annual performance bonus that Employee would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the actual level of achievement of the applicable performance objectives for the fiscal year in which Employee’s termination occurs. The bonus amount shall be paid in a lump sum at the same time bonuses are paid to the Company’s other similarly situated employees. The payment made pursuant to this section are referred to as (the “Severance Payments” or “Severance Pay Period”).
- (2) Non-Renewal By Company - Severance: If Employee’s employment ends because Company gives notice of non-renewal under Section 1, Company shall determine the termination date, even if such date is prior to the end of the Employment Period and will pay the accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). In addition, if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, Company will pay Employee, in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, the greater of Employee’s current base salary for twelve (12) months or the amount that would be provided by the severance guidelines that are prevailing at the time of termination base on the Employee’s location (the “Severance Payments” or “Severance Pay Period”).
- (3) Employment by Competitor or Re-hire During Severance Pay Period:
 - (i) If Employee competes with Company, or is hired or engaged in any capacity by any competitor of Company (to be determined in Company’s reasonable discretion), during any Severance Pay Period, then the Severance Payments shall cease. The foregoing shall not affect Company’s right to enforce the Non-Compete pursuant to Section 7. For purposes of this sub-section, a “competitor” of Company means: any business anywhere in the world that sells Competitive IT Services as defined in Section 7.
 - (ii) If Employee is rehired by Company during any Severance Pay Period, the Severance Payments shall cease.

11. OWNERSHIP OF MATERIALS

Employee agrees that all inventions, improvements, discoveries, designs, technology, and works of authorship (including but not limited to computer software) made, created, conceived, or reduced to practice by Employee, whether alone or in cooperation with others, during employment, together with all patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, and other intellectual property rights related to any of the foregoing throughout the world, are among other things works made for hire and belong exclusively to the Company, and Employee hereby assigns all such rights to the Company. Employee agrees to execute any documents, testify in any legal proceedings, and do all things necessary or desirable to secure Company’s rights to the foregoing, including without limitation executing inventors’ declarations and assignment forms. If there is a separate signed agreement between Employee and the Company including terms directly related to intellectual property rights, then the intellectual property terms of that agreement shall control.

12. PARTIES BENEFITED; ASSIGNMENTS

This Agreement shall be binding upon Employee, Employee’s heirs and Employee’s personal representative or representatives, and upon Company and its respective successors and assigns. Neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned by Employee, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. The Company may assign its rights and obligation under this Agreement to any entity, including any successor to all or substantially all the assets of the Company, by merger or otherwise.

13. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed, construed, interpreted, and enforced in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of Texas, without reference to the principles of conflicts of law of Texas or any other jurisdiction, and where applicable, the laws of the United States. Each of the Company and Employee (on behalf of itself and its affiliates) expressly consents to the personal jurisdiction of the Texas state and federal courts for any lawsuit relating to this Agreement, waives any other requirement (whether imposed by statute, rule of court, or otherwise) with respect to such personal jurisdiction or service of process, and waives any objection to jurisdiction based on improper venue or improper jurisdiction.

Each party hereto hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each party hereto (i) certifies that no representative, agent, or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such party would not, in the event of any action, suit, or proceeding, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (ii) acknowledges that it and the other party hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waiver and certifications in this Section.

14. DEFINITION OF COMPANY

“Company” shall include Rackspace US, Inc., and its past, present and future divisions, operating companies, subsidiaries, affiliates and successors.

15. LITIGATION AND REGULATORY COOPERATION

During and after employment, Employee shall reasonably cooperate in the defense or prosecution of claims, investigations, or other actions which relate to events or occurrences during employment. Employee agrees, unless precluded by law, to promptly inform the Company if Employee is asked to participate (or otherwise become involved) in any such claim, investigation or action. Employee’s cooperation shall include being available to prepare for discovery or trial and to act as a witness. Company will pay an hourly rate (based on base salary as of the last day of employment) for cooperation that occurs after employment, and reimburse for reasonable expenses, including travel expenses, reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

- (a) Injunctive Relief: Employee agrees that irreparable damages to Company will result from Employee’s breach of this Agreement, including loss of revenue, loss of goodwill associated with Employee as a result of employment, and/or loss of the benefit to Company of any training, confidential, and/or trade secret information provided to Employee, and any other tangible and intangible investments made to and on behalf of Employee. A breach or threat of breach of this Agreement shall give the non-breaching party the right to seek a temporary restraining order and a preliminary or permanent injunction enjoining the breaching party from violating this Agreement in order to prevent immediate and irreparable harm. The breaching party shall pay to the non-breaching party reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs associated with enforcement of this Agreement, including any appeals. Pursuit of equitable relief under this Agreement shall have no effect regarding the continued enforceability of the Arbitration Section below. Remedies for breach under this Section are cumulative and not exclusive; the parties may elect to pursue any remedies available under this Agreement.
- (b) Arbitration: The parties agree that any dispute or claim, that could be brought in court including discrimination or retaliation claims, relating to this Agreement or arising out of Employee’s employment or termination of employment, shall, upon timely written request of either party, be submitted to binding arbitration, except claims regarding: (i) workers’ compensation benefits; (ii) unemployment benefits; (iii) Company’s employee welfare benefit plans, if the plan contains a final and binding appeal procedure for the resolution of disputes under the plan; (iv) wage and hour disputes within the jurisdiction of any state Labor Commissioner; and (v) issues that could be brought before the National Labor Relations Board or covered by the National Labor Relations Act. This Agreement is not intended to prohibit the Employee from filing a claim or communicating with any governmental agency including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board or the Department of Labor. The arbitration shall be conducted in San Antonio, Texas. Association (“AAA”) in effect at the time the claim or dispute arose, unless other rules are agreed upon by the parties. Unless agreed to in writing, the arbitration shall be conducted by one arbitrator from AAA or a comparable arbitration service, and who is selected pursuant to the National Rules for Resolution of Employment Disputes of the AAA, or other rules as the parties may agree to in writing. Any claims received after the applicable statute of limitations period shall be deemed null and void. The parties further agree that by entering into this Agreement, the right to participate in a class or collective action is waived. CLAIMS MAY BE ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY ONLY IN AN INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. Further, unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person’s claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative, collective or class proceeding. If this specific provision is found to be unenforceable, then the entirety of this arbitration provision shall be null and void. The arbitrator shall issue a reasoned award with findings of fact and conclusions of law. Either party may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to compel arbitration under this Agreement, or to enforce or vacate an arbitration award. However, in actions seeking to vacate an award, the standard of review to be applied by said court to the arbitrator’s findings of fact and conclusions of law will be the same as that applied by an appellate court reviewing a decision of a trial court sitting without a jury, unless state law requires otherwise. Company will pay the actual fee for the arbitrator and the claimant’s filing fee; unless otherwise provided by law and awarded by the arbitrator, each party will pay their own attorneys’ fees and other expenses.

17. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF EMPLOYEE

Employee shall keep all terms of this Agreement confidential, except as may be disclosed to Employee’s spouse, accountants or attorneys, each of whom shall agree to keep all terms of this Agreement confidential. Employee authorizes the Company to inform any prospective employer of the existence and terms of this Agreement without liability for interference with Employee’s prospective employment. Employee represents that Employee is under no disability that prevents Employee from performing the essential functions of Employee’s position, with or without reasonable accommodation. Employee represents that Employee is represented by counsel in connection with his review and agreement to all terms and conditions of this Agreement.

18. SECTION 409A COMPLIANCE

(a) General. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that, to the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and incorporate the terms and conditions required by, Section 409A of the Code and the Department of Treasury Regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the date hereof. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines that any amounts payable hereunder will be taxable currently to the Employee under Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Code and related Department of Treasury guidance, the Company and the Employee shall cooperate in good faith to (i) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, that they mutually determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement, and to avoid less-favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company, and/or (ii) take such other actions as mutually determined to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A of the Code or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder, provided, however, that this Section does not create an obligation on the part of the Company to modify this Agreement or any other agreement, arrangement or plan and does not guarantee that the amounts payable hereunder will not be subject to interest or penalties under Section 409A, and in no event whatsoever shall the Company or any of its affiliates be liable for any additional tax, interest, or penalties that may be imposed on Employee as a result of Section 409A of the Code or any damages for failing to comply with Section 409A of the Code.

- (b) Separation from Service under Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) no Severance Payments shall be payable unless the termination of the Employee's employment constitutes a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations; (ii) if the Employee is deemed at the time of Employee's separation from service to be a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, to the extent that delayed commencement of any portion of the Severance Payments (after taking into account all exclusions applicable to such Severance Payment under Section 409A) is required in order to avoid a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, such portion of the Severance Payments shall not be provided to the Employee prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of the Employee's "separation from service" with the Company (as such term is defined in the Department of Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A) and (B) the date of the Employee's death; provided, that upon the earlier of such dates, all payments deferred pursuant to this Section 18(b) shall be paid to the Employee in a lump sum, and any remaining Severance Payments shall be paid as otherwise provided herein; (iii) the determination of whether the Employee is a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code as of the time of Employee's separation from service shall be made by the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 409A of the Code and applicable guidance thereunder (including, without limitation, Section 1.409A-1(i) of the Department of Treasury Regulations and any successor provision thereto); (iv) for purposes of Section 409A of the Code, the Employee's right to receive installment payments of the Severance Payments shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (v) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes "deferred compensation" under Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in-kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year. Reimbursements and in-kind benefits are not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

19. WITHHOLDING

The Company shall be entitled to withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement any federal, state, local, and foreign withholding and other taxes and charges that the Company is required to withhold. The Company shall be entitled to rely on an opinion of counsel if any questions as to the amount or requirement of withholding shall arise.

20. EXCESS PARACHUTE PAYMENTS.

If it is determined (as hereafter provided) that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of Employee, whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise pursuant to or by reason of any other agreement, policy, plan, program, or arrangement, including without limitation any stock option, stock appreciation right, or similar right, or the lapse or termination of any restriction on or the vesting or exercisability of any of the foregoing (a "Payment"), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (or any successor provision thereto) by reason of being contingent on a change in ownership or effective control of the Company or of a substantial portion of the assets of the Company, within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code (or any successor provision thereto), or to any similar tax imposed by state or local law, or any interest or penalties with respect to such excise tax (such tax or taxes, together with any such interest or penalties, are hereafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then, in the event that the after-tax value of all Payments to Employee (such after-tax value to reflect the reduction for the Excise Tax and all federal, state, and local income, employment, and other taxes on such Payments) would, in the aggregate, be less than the after-tax value to Employee (reflecting a reduction for all such taxes in a like manner) of the amount that is 2.99 times Employee's "base amount" within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code (the "Safe Harbor Amount"), (a) the cash portions of the Payments payable to Employee under this Agreement shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value (as defined below) of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount, and (b) if the reduction of the cash portions of the Payments, payable under this Agreement, to zero would not be sufficient to reduce the Parachute Value of all Payments to the Safe Harbor Amount, then any cash portions of the Payments payable to Employee under any other agreements, policies, plans, programs, or arrangements shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount, and (c) if the reduction of all cash portions of the Payments, payable pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, to zero would not be sufficient to reduce the Parachute Value of all Payments to the Safe Harbor Amount, then non-cash portions of the Payments shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount. All calculations under this Section shall be determined by a national accounting firm selected by the Company (which may include the Company's outside auditors). The Company shall pay all costs to obtain and provide such calculations to Employee and the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Parachute

This Agreement is not effective unless fully executed by all parties, including the President and CEO or authorized officer of the Company, and approved by the Executive Committee as required by Company or its affiliates. This Agreement may not be modified, amended, or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by Employee and the President and CEO or authorized officer of the Company that expressly identifies the amended provision of this Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties on the subject matters in this agreement and supersedes any prior written or oral agreements or understandings between the parties except as noted in Section 11 above. No modification shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the parties. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, a counterpart transmitted via electronic means, and all executed counterparts, when taken together, shall constitute sufficient proof of the parties entry into this Agreement. The parties agree to execute any further or future documents which may be necessary to allow the full performance of this Agreement. The failure of a party to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the right of such party to later enforce any provision. A waiver of the breach of any term or condition of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term or condition. The headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not control the meaning of any provision hereof.

If any provision of this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held unenforceable, such unenforceability shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof, except as specifically noted in this Agreement, or the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, all of which shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law. Company and Employee agree that the restrictions contained in Section 4, 5, 6, and 7, are reasonable in scope and duration and are necessary to protect Confidential Information. If any restrictive covenant is held to be unenforceable because of the scope, duration or geographic area of such restrictive covenant, the parties agree that a court or arbitrator may reduce the scope, duration, or geographic area, and in its reduced form, such provision shall be enforceable. Should Employee violate the provisions of Sections 5, 6, or 7, then in addition to all other remedies available to Company, the duration of these covenants shall be extended for the period of time when Employee began such violation until Employee permanently ceases such violation.

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Agreement, such provision shall be fully severable, this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision were never a part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as part of this Agreement a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Promptly after Employee signs this Employment Agreement, Company will direct Relocation Synergy Group (“RSG”) to purchase Employee’s residence located at (“Residence”) under its directed, Guaranteed Buy-Out process (“GBO process”) for a guaranteed purchase price of $3,100,000 (the “Purchase Price”). The purchase of the Residence by RGS will be subject to RGS’s standard terms and conditions relating to such transaction, the terms of which are generally summarized below.

After the Effective Date and promptly after Employee has delivered all required documentation to RSG (including evidence that Employee has title to the Residence) and caused the Residence to be vacated and possession to be delivered to RGS, RGS shall issue to Employee a check or wire funds in the amount of Employee’s equity in the Residence (such date, the “Equity Funding Date”). Employee’s “equity” in the Residence shall be the Purchase Price, adjusted as follows:

- reduced by prorations of real estate taxes and other assessments which shall be apportioned as of the Equity Funding Date between RSG and the Employee; and

Please note that RSG may, at its option, service any indebtedness secured by existing mortgage(s) or trust deed(s) which encumber the Residence, and RSG shall indemnify and hold harmless Employee from and against any personal obligation, liability, cost or expense arising or occurring as a result of such indebtedness or the failure to timely pay such indebtedness after the Equity Funding Date.

On the Equity Funding Date, RGS shall assume the benefits and burdens of ownership and take possession of the Residence. Thereafter, Employee shall have no further liability or obligation with respect to the Residence, including, but not limited to mortgage payments, utilities and insurance, except as specifically set forth in the applicable terms and conditions.

On the sale of the Residence to a third-party, RSG will pay the commission and normal seller’s closing costs directly to the appropriate service providers and shall cause any indebtedness secured by the Residence to be repaid.

Notwithstanding the terms of the Agreement, in the event that Employee does not commence employment with the Company on the Effective Date or if Employee is terminated for Cause within twelve months after the Effective Date, Employee shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its affiliates from and against, and pay or reimburse the Company and its affiliates, for any damages, losses, costs and expenses incurred or suffered by the Company and its affiliates resulting from or arising out of the purchase of the Residence by RGS and any subsequent sale thereof to a third-party, including without limitation, the costs and expenses of RGS, real estate brokerage commissions, property taxes and other fees payable to third-parties. Any amounts payable hereunder shall be made within ten (10) days after written demand thereof by Company.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (“Agreement”) is between Rackspace US, Inc. (“Company”) and Subroto Mukerji (“Employee”).

1. TERM OF EMPLOYMENT

This Agreement commences July 1, 2019 (“Effective Date”) and ends on June 30, 2021 (the “Employment Period”); however, the Employment Period will thereafter be automatically extended for one year periods unless either Company or Employee gives written notice of non-renewal no later than ninety days prior to the expiration of the then-applicable Employment Period. The term “Employment Period” shall refer to the Employment Period if and as so extended.

2. TITLE AND EXCLUSIVE SERVICES

- (a) Title and Duties. Employee’s title is Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer with responsibility for the following functions: Global Technical Support, Global Datacenters & Infrastructure, Global Enterprise Security, and Technical Enterprise Services (TES). Employee will perform job duties that are usual and customary for this position. This position will be based in San Antonio, Texas. The Company reserves the right to assign to the Employee duties of a different nature, either additional to, or instead of, those referred to above, it being understood that Employee will not be assigned duties that conflict with the terms of any lawful, enforceable and ongoing post-employment restrictions with a prior employer or that Employee cannot reasonably perform.
- (b) Exclusive Services. Employee shall not be employed or render services elsewhere during the Employment Period. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of this Section, during the Employment Period, Employee may devote reasonable time to activities other than those required under this Agreement, including activities of a charitable, educational, religious or similar nature (including professional associations), or activities related to corporate board or advisory board positions for non-competitive companies, subject to the company’s standard approval policy, and the management of the Employee’s personal investments, to the extent such activities do not compete in a material way with the business of the Company.

3. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

- (a) Base Salary. Employee shall be paid an annual base salary of Four Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars ($460,000) and shall be eligible for increases in base salary consistent with Company’s ordinary compensation cycles and process.
- (b) Annual Corporate Bonus. Employee is eligible for an annualized on-target bonus of 80% of annual salary, subject to the Rackspace Corporate Cash Bonus Plan (the “Plan”) as approved by the board of directors or compensation committee. However, with respect to a 2019 bonus, the parties agree that Employee’s potential bonus, if earned and approved under the Plan, will be based on a hypothetical employment start date of April 1, 2019; in other words, for the sake of clarity, Employee is eligible to receive a 9-month bonus payment for 2019 on the ordinary bonus payment date in 2020 if he is employed on the payout date and is otherwise eligible for a bonus under the achievement requirements and other terms of the Bonus Plan.

- (c) Equity Award. In consideration for signing this Agreement, Company will recommend to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Inception Topco, Inc. (the "Executive Committee") a one-time recruiting grant of options to purchase 70,000 shares of Inception Topco, Inc. common stock, at a per share strike price equal to the fair market value of a share of Inception Topco, Inc. common stock on the date of grant, pursuant to the Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Award"). The Executive Committee has ultimate authority over this recommended award and would have to issue final approval before it would be granted. The recommended equity award is expected to be presented for review and approval within ninety (90) days of the first date of employment and would be issued pursuant and subject to the Equity Incentive Plan and a form of agreement for similarly situated employees of the Management Equity Program, which outline the vesting schedule and other terms
- (d) Relocation Package. Employee agrees to relocate to San Antonio within three (3) months following the Effective Date of this Agreement (the "Relocation Date"). To assist with that relocation, Employee is eligible to receive a relocation package, the details of which are outlined in the attached Exhibit A. The relocation benefits will be administered by Company's approved vendor, currently Relocation Synergy. In the event employment ends for any reason other than termination by the Company without Cause or by Employee for Good Reason within one year following the relocation to San Antonio, Employee agrees to reimburse the relocation expenses and relocation lump sum payment to Company. Employee agrees that the reimbursement amount owed to the Company shall be made immediately by a cash payment on or before Employee's last date of employment. If Employee has not submitted the reimbursement amount to the Company as agreed to herein, Employee authorizes Company to deduct the reimbursement amount from any amount due to Employee, including any compensation or any pending expense reimbursements otherwise owed by Company to Employee. In the event Employee does not relocate to San Antonio on or before the Relocation Date, Employee agrees that he can be terminated for Cause under Section 8(d) and, in addition to any other available remedies. Employee will be required to reimburse the Company for any previously advanced payments paid to Employee.
- (e) PTO. Employee is eligible for PTO (paid time off) subject to the Employee Handbook.
- (f) Employment Benefit Plans. Employee may participate in employee benefit plans in which other similarly situated employees may participate, according to the terms of applicable policies and as stated in the Employee Handbook. - (g) Expenses. Company will reimburse Employee for business expenses pursuant to Company policy.

4. NONDISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- (a) Company has provided and will continue to provide to Employee confidential information and trade secrets including but not limited to Company's operational, sales, marketing, personally identifiable information about employees, employee contact information and/or materials used for training and or/employee development, and engineering information, customer lists, business contracts, partner agreements, pricing and strategy information, product and cost or pricing data, compensation information, strategic business plans, budgets, financial statements, and other information Company treats as confidential or proprietary (collectively the "Confidential Information"). This section is not intended to limit Employee's rights to discuss Employee's compensation or other terms and conditions of employment as allowed by law. Employee will not be liable under any Federal or State trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a Federal, State or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law or that is made in a document filed in a lawsuit so long as it is filed under seal. Employee acknowledges that such Confidential Information is proprietary and agrees not to disclose it to anyone outside Company except to the extent that (i) it is necessary in connection with performing his duties; (ii) Employee is required by court order to disclose the Confidential Information, provided that Employee shall promptly inform Company, shall cooperate with Company to obtain a protective order or otherwise restrict disclosure, and shall only disclose Confidential Information to the minimum extent necessary to comply with the court order. Employee agrees to never use Confidential Information in competing, directly or indirectly, with Company. When employment ends, Employee will immediately return all Confidential Information to Company.
- (b) The terms of this Section 4 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

5. NON-HIRE OF COMPANY EMPLOYEES

- (a) To further preserve the Confidential Information, during employment and for twelve (12) months after employment ends, Employee will not, directly or indirectly, (i) hire or engage any current employee of Company; (ii) solicit or encourage any employee to terminate employment or services with Company; or (iii) solicit or encourage any employee to accept employment with or provide services to Employee or any business associated with Employee.
- (c) The terms of this Section 5 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

6. NON-SOLICITATION OF CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS

- (a) To further preserve the Confidential Information, for twelve (12) months after employment ends, Employee agrees not to directly or indirectly, on Employee's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, recruit or otherwise solicit or induce any customer or supplier of the Company, to terminate its employment or arrangement with the Company, otherwise change its relationship with the Company or establish any relationship with Employee or any of Employee's affiliates for any business purpose deemed competitive with the business of the Company.
- (b) The terms of this Section 6 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

7. NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT

- (a) To further preserve the Confidential Information, Employee agrees that during employment and for twelve (12) months after employment ends (the "Restricted Period"), Employee will not work, as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, or director, in any business anywhere in the world that sells hosting or information technology services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company, including (i) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared, or virtual), and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet, (ii) hosted or managed email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking and similar services, or (iii) any similar related IT services, all of the foregoing being defined for the purposes of this Agreement as "Competitive IT Services." Notwithstanding the foregoing, Employee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than two percent (2%) of the outstanding interest in such business. Provided, that the forgoing restriction shall not prevent Employee from becoming an employee of or contractor for a division of any Competitive IT Services company so long as the division for which Employee will work does not provide Competitive IT Services, and as long as Employee does not, during the Restricted Period, perform services (including but not limited to providing information, advice, strategy, recruiting or any other interaction with regard to business matters) for any division of such company that provides Competitive IT Services.
- (b) The terms of this Section 7 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

8. TERMINATION

Company: KB

- (b) Disability. Company may terminate this Agreement and/or Employee's employment if Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's full-time position for more than 180 days in any 12-month period, subject to applicable law.
- (c) Termination By Employee For Good Reason. Employee may terminate Employee's employment at any time for "Good Reason," which is:
(i) Company's repeated failure to comply with a material term of this Agreement after written notice by Employee specifying the alleged failure; or
(ii) a substantial and unusual reduction in responsibilities and authority. If Employee elects to terminate Employee's employment for "Good Reason," Employee must first provide Company written notice within thirty (30) days, after which Company shall have sixty (60) days to cure. If Company has not cured and Employee elects to terminate employment, Employee must do so within ten (10) days after the end of the cure period
- (d) Termination By Company. Company may terminate Employee's employment with or without Cause and determine the termination date. "Cause" means:
(i) willful misconduct, including, without limitation, violation of sexual or other harassment policy, gross negligence, misappropriation of or material misrepresentation regarding property of Company, other than customary and de minimis use of Company property for personal purposes, as determined in the discretion of Company, or failure to take reasonable and appropriate action to prevent material injury to the financial condition, business or reputation of the Company;
(ii) abandonment of duties (other than by reason of disability);
(iii) failure to follow lawful directives of the Company, or failure to meet reasonable performance objectives following a written warning and opportunity to cure for thirty (30) days;
(iv) a felony conviction or indictment, a plea of nolo contendere by Employee, or other conduct by Employee that has or would result in material injury to Company's reputation, including indictment or conviction of fraud, theft, embezzlement, or a crime involving moral turpitude;
(v) a material breach of this Agreement including violation of any material representation in section 16; or
(vi) a significant violation of Company's employment and management policies.
- (e) Other Circumstances. In the unexpected event of litigation against Employee that includes an allegation of a violation of an alleged noncompetition clause, Company agrees to pay the cost to defend such a lawsuit; provided that Company has the right to select counsel and control the strategy and any resolution subject to Employee's consent, not to be unreasonably withheld. In the event of a final judicial finding of forfeiture, disgorgement, or monetary damages related solely to an alleged noncompetition clause, Company will indemnify Employee for the first $500,000 of loss to Employee and will indemnify at a rate of 50% any additional monetary loss thereafter up to a cap of an additional $1,500,000. In the event Employee is enjoined from working in certain areas of the Company, Company, in its sole discretion, may: (i) reassign Employee to a role that does not violate the injunction; (ii) place Employee on a paid leave of absence which shall not constitute Good Reason; or (iii) terminate employment without Cause provided Employee has not violated his obligations related to confidentiality, trade secrets, or non-solicitation.

9. COMPENSATION UPON TERMINATION

- (a) Death. Company shall, within 30 days, pay to Employee’s designee or, if no person is designated, to Employee’s estate, Employee’s accrued and unpaid base salary and bonus, subject to the terms of any applicable bonus plan, through the date of termination, and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans.
- (b) Disability. Company shall, within 30 days, pay all accrued and unpaid base salary and bonus, subject to the terms of any applicable bonus plan, through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans.
- (c) Termination By Company For Cause: Company shall, within 30 days, pay to Employee, Employee’s accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits).
- (d) Non-Renewal By Employee. If Employee gives notice of non-renewal under Section 1, Company shall determine the termination date and will pay accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date, and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). If the termination date is before the end of the then current Employment Period, and if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, then Company will, in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, pay Employee an amount equal to Employee’s pro-rata base salary through the end of the then current Employment Period (the “Severance Payments” or “Severance Pay Period”).
- (e) Termination With Severance.
 - (1) Termination By Company Without Cause or Termination by Employee for Good Reason—Severance: If Company terminates Employee’s employment without Cause and not by reason of death or disability or if Employee terminates for Good Reason, Company will pay the accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). In addition, if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance

Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, Company will pay Employee, (i) in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, the greater of Employee's current base salary for twelve (12) months or the amount that would be provided by the severance guidelines that are prevailing at the time of termination based on the Employee's location, and (ii) a pro rata bonus, which represents the unpaid pro-rata portion of the actual annual performance bonus that Employee would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the actual level of achievement of the applicable performance objectives for the fiscal year in which Employee's termination occurs. The bonus amount shall be paid in a lump sum at the same time bonuses are paid to the Company's other similarly situated employees. The payment made pursuant to this section are referred to as (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").

(2) Non-Renewal By Company—Severance: If Employee's employment ends because Company gives notice of non-renewal under Section 1, Company shall determine the termination date, even if such date is prior to the end of the Employment Period and will pay the accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). In addition, if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, Company will pay Employee, in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, the greater of Employee's current base salary for twelve (12) months or the amount that would be provided by the severance guidelines that are prevailing at the time of termination base on the Employee's location (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").

(3) Employment by Competitor or Re-hire During Severance Pay Period:

(i) If Employee competes with Company, or is hired or engaged in any capacity by any competitor of Company (to be determined in Company's discretion), during any Severance Pay Period, then the Severance Payments shall cease. The foregoing shall not affect Company's right to enforce the Non-Compete pursuant to Section 7. For purposes of this sub-section, a "competitor" of Company means: any business anywhere in the world that sells Competitive IT Services as defined in Section 7.

(ii) If Employee is rehired by Company or employed by or performing services in any non-competitive capacity or business during any Severance Pay Period, the Severance Payments shall cease. Furthermore, as a condition to receiving Severance Payments, Employee agrees to use reasonable efforts to obtain an offer of comparable employment. If Employee receives such an offer, the Severance Payments shall cease as of the offer's proposed employment start date.

Each party hereto hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each party hereto (i) certifies that no representative, agent, or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such party would not, in the event of any action, suit, or proceeding, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (ii) acknowledges that it and the other party hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waiver and certifications in this Section.

"Company" shall include Rackspace US, Inc., and its past, present and future divisions, operating companies, subsidiaries, affiliates and successors.

14. LITIGATION AND REGULATORY COOPERATION

During and after employment, Employee shall reasonably cooperate in the defense or prosecution of claims, investigations, or other actions which relate to events or occurrences during employment. Employee agrees, unless precluded by law, to promptly inform the Company if Employee is asked to participate (or otherwise become involved) in any such claim, investigation or action. Employee's cooperation shall include being available to prepare for discovery or trial and to act as a witness. Company will pay an hourly rate (based on base salary as of the last day of employment) for cooperation that occurs after employment, and reimburse for reasonable expenses, including travel expenses, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- (a) Injunctive Relief: Employee agrees that irreparable damages to Company will result from Employee's breach of this Agreement, including loss of revenue, loss of goodwill associated with Employee as a result of employment, and/or loss of the benefit to Company of any training, confidential, and/or trade secret information provided to Employee, and any other tangible and intangible investments made to and on behalf of Employee. A breach or threat of breach of this Agreement shall give the non-breaching party the right to seek a temporary restraining order and a preliminary or permanent injunction enjoining the breaching party from violating this Agreement in order to prevent immediate and irreparable harm. The breaching party shall pay to the non-breaching party reasonable attorneys' fees and costs associated with enforcement of this Agreement, including any appeals. Pursuit of equitable relief under this Agreement shall have no effect regarding the continued enforceability of the Arbitration Section below. Remedies for breach under this Section are cumulative and not exclusive; the parties may elect to pursue any remedies available under this Agreement.
- (b) Arbitration: The parties agree that any dispute or claim, that could be brought in court including discrimination or retaliation claims, relating to this Agreement or arising out of Employee's employment or termination of employment, shall, upon timely written request of either party, be submitted to binding arbitration, except claims regarding: (i) workers' compensation benefits; (ii) unemployment benefits; (iii) Company's employee welfare benefit plans, if the plan contains a final and binding appeal procedure for the resolution of disputes under the plan; (iv) wage and hour disputes within the jurisdiction of any state Labor Commissioner; and (v) issues that could be brought before the National Labor Relations Board or covered by the National Labor Relations Act. This Agreement is not intended to prohibit the Employee from filing a claim or communicating with any governmental agency including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board or the Department of Labor. The arbitration shall be conducted in San Antonio, Texas. The arbitration shall proceed in accordance with the National Rules for Resolution of Employment Disputes of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in effect at the time the claim or dispute arose, unless other rules are agreed upon by the parties. Unless agreed to in writing, the arbitration shall be conducted by one arbitrator from AAA or a comparable arbitration service, and who is selected pursuant to the National Rules for Resolution of Employment Disputes of the AAA, or other rules as the parties may agree to in writing. Any claims received after the applicable statute of limitations period shall be deemed null and void. The parties further agree that by entering into this Agreement, the right to participate in a class or collective action is waived. CLAIMS MAY BE ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY ONLY IN AN INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. Further, unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative, collective or class proceeding. If this specific provision is found to be unenforceable, then the entirety of this arbitration provision shall be null and void. The arbitrator shall issue a reasoned award with findings of fact and conclusions of law. Either party may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to compel arbitration under this Agreement, or to enforce or vacate an arbitration award. However, in actions seeking to vacate an award, the standard of review to be applied by said court to the arbitrator's findings of fact and conclusions of law will be the same as that applied by an appellate court reviewing a decision of a trial court sitting without a jury, unless state law requires otherwise. Company will pay the actual fee for the arbitrator and the claimant's filing fee; unless otherwise provided by law and awarded by the arbitrator, each party will pay their own attorneys' fees and other expenses.

Employee shall keep all terms of this Agreement confidential, except as may be disclosed to Employee's spouse, accountants or attorneys, each of whom shall agree to keep all terms of this Agreement confidential. Employee represents that he believes in good faith that he is under no contractual or other restriction inconsistent with the execution of this Agreement, the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, or the rights of Company. 17. SECTION 409A COMPLIANCE

- (a) General. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that, to the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and incorporate the terms and conditions required by, Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) and the Department of Treasury Regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the date hereof. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines that any amounts payable hereunder will be taxable currently to the Employee under Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Code and related Department of Treasury guidance, the Company and the Employee shall cooperate in good faith to (i) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, that they mutually determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement, and to avoid less-favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company, and/or (ii) take such other actions as mutually determined to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A of the Code or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder; provided, however, that this Section does not create an obligation on the part of the Company to modify this Agreement or any other agreement, arrangement or plan and does not guarantee that the amounts payable hereunder will not be subject to interest or penalties under Section 409A, and in no event whatsoever shall the Company or any of its affiliates be liable for any additional tax, interest, or penalties that may be imposed on Employee as a result of Section 409A of the Code or any damages for failing to comply with Section 409A of the Code.
- (b) Separation from Service under Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) no Severance Payments shall be payable unless the termination of the Employee’s employment constitutes a “separation from service” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations; (ii) if the Employee is deemed at the time of Employee’s separation from service to be a “specified employee” for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, to the extent that delayed commencement of any portion of the Severance Payments (after taking into account all exclusions applicable to such Severance Payment under Section 409A) is required in order to avoid a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, such portion of the Severance Payments shall not be provided to the Employee prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of the Employee’s “separation from service” with the Company (as such term is defined in the Department of Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A) and (B) the date of the Employee’s death; provided, that upon the earlier of such dates, all payments deferred pursuant to this Section 18(b) shall be paid to the Employee in a lump sum, and any remaining Severance Payments shall be paid as otherwise provided herein; (iii) the determination of whether the Employee is a “specified employee” for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code as of the time of Employee’s separation from service shall be made by the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 409A of the Code and applicable guidance thereunder (including, without limitation, Section 1.409A-1(i) of the Department of Treasury Regulations and any successor provision thereto); (iv) for purposes of Section 409A of the Code, the Employee's right to receive installment payments of the Severance Payments shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (v) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes "deferred compensation" under Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in-kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year. Reimbursements and in-kind benefits are not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

The Company shall be entitled to withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement any federal, state, local, and foreign withholding and other taxes and charges that the Company is required to withhold. The Company shall be entitled to rely on an opinion of counsel if any questions as to the amount or requirement of withholding shall arise.

19. EXCESS PARACHUTE PAYMENTS.

If it is determined (as hereafter provided) that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of Employee, whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise pursuant to or by reason of any other agreement, policy, plan, program, or arrangement, including without limitation any stock option, stock appreciation right, or similar right, or the lapse or termination of any restriction on or the vesting or exercisability of any of the foregoing (a "Payment"), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (or any successor provision thereto) by reason of being contingent on a change in ownership or effective control of the Company or of a substantial portion of the assets of the Company, within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code (or any successor provision thereto), or to any similar tax imposed by state or local law, or any interest or penalties with respect to such excise tax (such tax or taxes, together with any such interest or penalties, are hereafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then, in the event that the after-tax value of all Payments to Employee (such after-tax value to reflect the reduction for the Excise Tax and all federal, state, and local income, employment, and other taxes on such Payments) would, in the aggregate, be less than the after-tax value to Employee (reflecting a reduction for all such taxes in a like manner) of the amount that is 2.99 times Employee's "base amount" within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code (the "Safe Harbor Amount"), (a) the cash portions of the Payments payable to Employee under this Agreement shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value (as defined below) of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount, and (b) if the reduction of the cash portions of the Payments, payable under this Agreement, to zero would not be sufficient to reduce the Parachute Value of all Payments to the Safe Harbor Amount, then any cash portions of the Payments payable to Employee under any other agreements, policies, plans, programs, or arrangements shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount, and (c) if the reduction of all cash portions of the Payments, payable pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, to zero would not be sufficient to reduce the Parachute Value of all Payments to the Safe Harbor Amount, then non-cash portions of the Payments shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount. All calculations under this Section shall be determined by a national accounting firm selected by the Company (which may include the Company's outside auditors). The Company shall pay all costs to obtain and provide such calculations to Employee and the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Parachute Value" of a Payment shall mean the present value as of the date of the change in ownership or effective control, within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, of the portion of such Payment that constitutes a "parachute payment" under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, as determined for purposes of determining whether and to what extent the Excise Tax will apply to such Payment.

Company: KB

This Agreement is not effective unless fully executed by all parties, including the President and CEO or authorized officer of the Company, and approved by the Executive Committee as required by Company or its affiliates. This Agreement may not be modified, amended, or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by Employee and the President and CEO or authorized officer of the Company that expressly identifies the amended provision of this Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties on the subject matters in this agreement and supersedes any prior written or oral agreements or understandings between the parties except as noted in Section 10 above. No modification shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the parties. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, a counterpart transmitted via electronic means, and all executed counterparts, when taken together, shall constitute sufficient proof of the parties' entry into this Agreement. The parties agree to execute any further or future documents which may be necessary to allow the full performance of this Agreement. The failure of a party to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the right of such party to later enforce any provision. A waiver of the breach of any term or condition of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term or condition. The headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not control the meaning of any provision hereof.

If any provision of this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held unenforceable, such unenforceability shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof, except-as specifically noted in this Agreement, or the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, all of which shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law. Company and Employee agree that the restrictions contained in Section 4, 5, 6, and 7, are reasonable in scope and duration and are necessary to protect Confidential Information. If any restrictive covenant is held to be unenforceable because of the scope, duration or geographic area of such restrictive covenant, the parties agree that a court or arbitrator may reduce the scope, duration, or geographic area, and in its reduced form, such provision shall be enforceable. Should Employee violate the provisions of Sections 5, 6, or 7, then in addition to all other remedies available to Company, the duration of these covenants shall be extended for the period of time when Employee began such violation until Employee permanently ceases such violation.

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Agreement, such provision shall be fully severable, this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision were never a part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as part of this Agreement a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Upon full execution by all parties, this Agreement shall be effective on the later date of the two signature dates below.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (“Agreement”) is between Rackspace US. Inc. (“Company”) and Vikas Gurugunti (“Employee”).

1. TERM OF EMPLOYMENT

The employment period commences Aug. 12th, 2019 (“Start Date”) and ends on Aug. 13, 2021 (the “Employment Period”); however, the Employment Period will thereafter be automatically extended for one year periods unless either Company or Employee gives written notice of non-renewal no later than ninety days prior to the expiration of the then-applicable Employment Period. The term “Employment Period” shall refer to the Employment Period if and as so extended.

2. TITLE AND EXCLUSIVE SERVICES

- (a) Title and Duties. Employee’s title is Executive Vice-President and General Manager, Rackspace Solutions and Services. Employee will perform job duties that are usual and customary for this position. This position will be based in San Antonio, Texas. The Company reserves the right to assign to the Employee duties of a different nature, either additional to, or instead of, those referred to above, it being understood that Employee will not be assigned duties which Employee cannot reasonably perform.
- (b) Exclusive Services. Employee shall not be employed or render services elsewhere during the Employment Period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Employment Period Employee may devote reasonable time to activities other than those required under this Agreement, including activities of a charitable, educational, religious or similar nature (including professional associations), or activities related to corporate board or advisory board positions for non-competitive companies, subject to the company’s standard approval policy, and the management of the Employee’s personal investments, to the extent such activities do not compete in a material way with the business of the Company.

3. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

- (a) Base Salary. Employee shall be paid an annual base salary of $450,000 and shall be eligible for increases in base salary consistent with Company’s ordinary compensation cycles and process.
- (b) Annual Corporate Bonus. Employee is eligible for an annualized on-target bonus of 80% of annual salary, subject to the Rackspace Corporate Cash Bonus Plan and as approved by the board of directors or compensation committee.

value of a share of Inception Topco, Inc. common stock on the date of grant, pursuant to the Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Award"). The Executive Committee has ultimate authority over this recommended award and would have to issue final approval before it would be granted. The recommended equity award is expected to be presented for review and approval within ninety (90) days of the first date of employment and would be issued pursuant and subject to the Equity Incentive Plan and a form of agreement for similarly situated employees of the Management Equity Program, which outline the vesting schedule and other terms.

- (d) Signing Bonus. Subject to the clawback set forth below, Employee will be paid a signing bonus of $40,000, less withholdings and other ordinary payroll deductions, on the first reasonable payroll date following commencement of employment. Clawback: if Employee resigns without Good Reason or is terminated for Cause prior to the one-year anniversary of his employment, Employee shall repay to Company a pro rata portion of the Signing Bonus within thirty days following the end of employment.
- (e) Relocation Package. Employee agrees to relocate to San Antonio by December 31, 2019 (the "Relocation Date"). To assist with that relocation, Employee is eligible to receive a relocation package, the details of which are outlined in the attached Exhibit A. The relocation benefits will be administered by Company's approved vendor, currently Relocation Synergy. In the event employment ends for any reason other than termination by the Company without Cause or by Employee for Good Reason within one year following the relocation to San Antonio, Employee agrees to reimburse the relocation expenses and relocation lump sum payment to Company. Employee agrees that the reimbursement amount owed to the Company shall be made immediately by a cash payment on or before Employee's last date of employment. If Employee has not submitted the reimbursement amount to the Company as agreed to herein, Employee authorizes Company to deduct the reimbursement amount from any amount due to Employee, including any compensation or any pending expense reimbursements otherwise owed by Company to Employee. In the event Employee does not relocate to San Antonio on or before the Relocation Date, Employee agrees that Employee can be terminated for Cause under Section 8(d) and, in addition to any other available remedies, Employee will be required to reimburse the Company for any previously advanced payments paid to Employee.

4. NONDISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- (a) Company has provided and will continue to provide to Employee confidential information and trade secrets including but not limited to Company's operational information, sales information, marketing information, personally identifiable information about employees, employee contact information and/or materials used for training and or/employee development, and engineering information, customer lists, business contracts, partner agreements, pricing and strategy information, product and cost or pricing data, compensation information, strategic business plans, budgets, financial statements, and other information Company treats as confidential or proprietary (collectively the "Confidential Information"). This section is not intended to limit Employee's rights to discuss Employee's compensation or other terms and conditions of employment as allowed by law. Employee will not be liable under any Federal or State trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a Federal, State or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law or that is made in a document filed in a lawsuit so long as it is filed under seal. Employee acknowledges that such Confidential Information is proprietary and agrees not to disclose it to anyone outside Company except to the extent that (i) it is necessary in connection with performing Employee's duties; (ii) Employee is required by court order to disclose the Confidential Information, provided that Employee shall promptly inform Company, shall cooperate with Company to obtain a protective order or otherwise restrict disclosure, and shall only disclose Confidential Information to the minimum extent necessary to comply with the court order. Employee agrees to never use Confidential Information in competing, directly or indirectly, with Company. When employment ends, Employee will immediately return all Confidential Information to Company.
- (b) The terms of this Section 4 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

5. NON-HIRE OF COMPANY EMPLOYEES

- (a) To further preserve the Confidential Information, during employment and for twelve (12) months after employment ends, Employee will not, directly or indirectly, (i) hire or engage any current employee of Company; (ii) solicit or encourage any employee to terminate employment or services with Company; or (iii) solicit or encourage any employee to accept employment with or provide services to Employee or any business associated with Employee.
- (b) The terms of this Section 5 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

Company: MS

6. NON-SOLICITATION OF CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS

To further preserve the Confidential Information, for twelve (12) months after employment ends, Employee agrees not to directly or indirectly, on Employee's own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, recruit or otherwise solicit or induce any customer or supplier of the Company, to terminate its employment or arrangement with the Company, otherwise change its relationship with the Company or establish any relationship with Employee or any of Employee's affiliates for any business purpose deemed competitive with the business of the Company. The terms of this Section 6 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

7. NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT

To further preserve the Confidential Information, Employee agrees that during employment and for twelve (12) months after employment ends (the "Restricted Period"), Employee will not work, as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, or director, in any business anywhere in the world that sells managed dedicated or cloud computing services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company, including but not limited to (i) professional advisory services for the migration, deployment or management of cloud technologies; (ii) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared or virtual) and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet; (iii) hosted or managed email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking, applications, and similar services, or (iv) any related IT services or products substantially similar to the Company's products or services, all of the foregoing being defined for the purposes of this Agreement as "Competitive IT Services." Notwithstanding the foregoing, Employee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than two percent (2%) of the outstanding interest in such business. Provided, that the forgoing restriction shall not prevent Employee from becoming an employee of or contractor for a division of any Competitive IT Services company so long as the division for which Employee will work does not provide Competitive IT Services, and as long as Employee does not, during the Restricted Period, perform services (including but not limited to providing information, advice, strategy, recruiting or any other interaction with regard to business matters) for any division of such company that provides Competitive IT Services. The terms of this Section 7 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.

8. TERMINATION

Employee's employment may be terminated prior to the end of this Agreement only by mutual written agreement or:

- (a) Death. The date of Employee's death shall be the termination date.
- (b) Disability. Company may terminate this Agreement and/or Employee's employment if Employee is unable to perform the essential functions of Employee's full-time position for more than 180 days in any 12-month period, subject to applicable law.

- (c) Termination By Employee For Good Reason. Employee may terminate Employee's employment at any time for "Good Reason," which is:
(i) Company's repeated failure to comply with a material term of this Agreement after written notice by Employee specifying the alleged failure; or (ii) a substantial and unusual reduction in responsibilities and authority. If Employee elects to terminate Employee's employment for "Good Reason," Employee must first provide Company written notice within thirty (30) days, after which Company shall have sixty (60) days to cure. If Company has not cured and Employee elects to terminate employment, Employee must do so within ten (10) days after the end of the cure period
- (d) Termination By Company. Company may terminate Employee's employment with or without Cause and determine the termination date. "Cause" means:
(i) willful misconduct, including, without limitation, violation of sexual or other harassment policy, gross negligence, misappropriation of or material misrepresentation regarding property of Company, other than customary and de minimis use of Company property for personal purposes, as determined in the discretion of Company, or failure to take reasonable and appropriate action to prevent material injury to the financial condition, business or reputation of the Company;
(ii) abandonment of duties (other than by reason of disability);
(iii) failure to follow lawful directives of the Company, or failure to meet reasonable performance objectives following a written warning and opportunity to cure for thirty (30) days;
(iv) a felony conviction or indictment, a plea of guilty or nolo contendere by Employee, or other conduct by Employee that has or would result in material injury to Company's reputation, including indictment or conviction of fraud, theft, embezzlement, or a crime involving moral turpitude;
(v) a material breach of this Agreement; or
(vi) a significant violation of Company's employment and management policies.

9. COMPENSATION UPON TERMINATION

- (a) Death. Company shall, within 30 days, pay to Employee's designee or, if no person is designated, to Employee's estate, Employee's accrued and unpaid base salary and bonus, subject to the terms of any applicable bonus plan, through the date of termination, and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans.
- (b) Disability. Company shall, within 30 days, pay all accrued and unpaid base salary and bonus, subject to the terms of any applicable bonus plan, through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans.

Initials:
Company: MS

- (d) Non-Renewal By Employee. If Employee gives notice of non-renewal under Section 1, Company shall determine the termination date and will pay accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date, and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). If the termination date is before the end of the then current Employment Period, and if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, then Company will, in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, pay Employee an amount equal to Employee's pro-rata base salary through the end of the then current Employment Period (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").
- (e) Termination With Severance.
- (1) Termination By Company Without Cause or Termination by Employee for Good Reason - Severance: If Company terminates Employee's employment without Cause and not by reason of death or disability or if Employee terminates for Good Reason, Company will pay the accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). In addition, if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, Company will pay Employee, (i) in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, the greater of Employee's current base salary for twelve (12) months or the amount that would be provided by the severance guidelines that are prevailing at the time of termination based on the Employee's location, and (ii) a pro rata bonus, which represents the unpaid pro-rata portion of the actual annual performance bonus that Employee would otherwise be entitled to receive based on the actual level of achievement of the applicable performance objectives for the fiscal year in which Employee's termination occurs. The bonus amount shall be paid in a lump sum at the same time bonuses are paid to the Company's other similarly situated employees. The payment made pursuant to this section are referred to as (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").
- (2) Non-Renewal By Company - Severance: If Employee's employment ends because Company gives notice of non-renewal under Section 1, Company shall determine the termination date, even if such date is prior to the end of the Employment Period and will pay the accrued and unpaid base salary through the termination date and any payments required under applicable employee benefit plans (other than plans which provide for severance or termination payments or benefits). In addition, if Employee signs and does not revoke a Severance Agreement and General Release of claims in a form satisfactory to Company, Company will pay Employee, in periodic payments in accordance with ordinary payroll practices and deductions, the greater of Employee's current base salary for twelve (12) months or the amount that would be provided by the severance guidelines that are prevailing at the time of termination base on the Employee's location (the "Severance Payments" or "Severance Pay Period").

(3) Employment by Competitor or Re-hire During Severance Pay Period:

(i) If Employee competes with Company or is hired or engaged in any capacity by any competitor of Company (to be determined in Company's discretion) during any Severance Pay Period, then the Severance Payments shall cease. The foregoing shall not affect Company's right to enforce the Non-Compete pursuant to Section 7. For purposes of this sub-section, a "competitor" of Company means: any business anywhere in the world that sells Competitive IT Services as defined in Section 7.

(ii) If Employee is rehired by Company during any Severance Pay Period, the Severance Payments shall cease.

10. OWNERSHIP OF MATERIALS

Employee agrees that all inventions, improvements, discoveries, designs, technology, and works of authorship (including but not limited to computer software) made, created, conceived, or reduced to practice by Employee, whether alone or in cooperation with others, during employment, together with all patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, and other intellectual property rights related to any of the foregoing throughout the world, are among other things works made for hire and belong exclusively to the Company, and Employee hereby assigns all such rights to the Company. Employee agrees to execute any documents, testify in any legal proceedings, and do all things necessary or desirable to secure Company's rights to the foregoing, including without limitation executing inventors' declarations and assignment forms. If there is a separate signed agreement between Employee and the Company including terms directly related to intellectual property rights, then the intellectual property terms of that agreement shall control.

11. PARTIES BENEFITED; ASSIGNMENTS

This Agreement shall be binding upon Employee, Employee's heirs and Employee's personal representative or representatives, and upon Company and its respective successors and assigns. Neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder may be assigned by Employee, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. The Company may assign its rights and obligation under this Agreement to any entity, including any successor to all or substantially all the assets of the Company, by merger or otherwise.

12. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed, construed, interpreted, and enforced in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of Texas, without reference to the principles of conflicts of law of Texas or any other jurisdiction, and where applicable, the laws of the United States. Each of the Company and Employee (on behalf of itself and its affiliates) expressly consents to the personal jurisdiction of the Texas state and federal courts for any lawsuit relating to this Agreement, waives any other requirement (whether imposed by statute, rule of court, or otherwise) with respect to such personal jurisdiction or service of process, and waives any objection to jurisdiction based on improper venue or improper jurisdiction.

Each party hereto hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each party hereto (i) certifies that no representative, agent, or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such party would not, in the event of any action, suit, or proceeding, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (ii) acknowledges that it and the other party hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waiver and certifications in this Section.

Employee acknowledges and agrees that Employee is advised to be represented by counsel in connection with Employee’s review and agreement to all terms and conditions of this Agreement.

13. DEFINITION OF COMPANY

“Company” shall include Rackspace US, Inc., and its past, present and future divisions, operating companies, subsidiaries, affiliates and successors.

14. LITIGATION AND REGULATORY COOPERATION

During and after employment, Employee shall reasonably cooperate in the defense or prosecution of claims, investigations, or other actions which relate to events or occurrences during employment. Employee agrees, unless precluded by law, to promptly inform the Company if Employee is asked to participate (or otherwise become involved) in any such claim, investigation or action. Employee’s cooperation shall include being available to prepare for discovery or trial and to act as a witness. Company will pay an hourly rate (based on base salary as of the last day of employment) for cooperation that occurs after employment, and reimburse for reasonable expenses, including travel expenses, reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

(a) Injunctive Relief: Employee agrees that irreparable damages to Company will result from Employee’s breach of this Agreement, including loss of revenue, loss of goodwill associated with Employee as a result of employment, and/or loss of the benefit to Company of any training, confidential, and/or trade secret information provided to Employee, and any other tangible and intangible investments made to and on behalf of Employee. A breach or threat of breach of this Agreement shall give the non-breaching party the right to seek a temporary restraining order and a preliminary or permanent injunction enjoining the breaching party from violating this Agreement in order to prevent immediate and irreparable harm. The breaching party shall pay to the non-breaching party reasonable attorneys' fees and costs associated with enforcement of this Agreement, including any appeals. Pursuit of equitable relief under this Agreement shall have no effect regarding the continued enforceability of the Arbitration Section below. Remedies for breach under this Section are cumulative and not exclusive; the parties may elect to pursue any remedies available under this Agreement.

- (b) Arbitration: The parties agree that any dispute or claim, that could be brought in court including discrimination or retaliation claims, relating to this Agreement or arising out of Employee's employment or termination of employment, shall, upon timely written request of either party, be submitted to binding arbitration, except claims regarding: (i) workers' compensation benefits; (ii) unemployment benefits; (iii) Company's employee welfare benefit plans, if the plan contains a final and binding appeal procedure for the resolution of disputes under the plan; (iv) wage and hour disputes within the jurisdiction of any state Labor Commissioner; and (v) issues that could be brought before the National Labor Relations Board or covered by the National Labor Relations Act. This Agreement is not intended to prohibit the Employee from filing a claim or communicating with any governmental agency including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board or the Department of Labor. The arbitration shall be conducted in San Antonio, Texas. The arbitration shall proceed in accordance with the National Rules for Resolution of Employment Disputes of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in effect at the time the claim or dispute arose, unless other rules are agreed upon by the parties. Unless agreed to in writing, the arbitration shall be conducted by one arbitrator from AAA or a comparable arbitration service, and who is selected pursuant to the National Rules for Resolution of Employment Disputes of the AAA, or other rules as the parties may agree to in writing. Any claims received after the applicable statute of limitations period shall be deemed null and void. The parties further agree that by entering into this Agreement, the right to participate in a class or collective action is waived. CLAIMS MAY BE ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY ONLY IN AN INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. Further, unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative, collective or class proceeding. If this specific provision is found to be unenforceable, then the entirety of this arbitration provision shall be null and void. The arbitrator shall issue a reasoned award with findings of fact and conclusions of law. Either party may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to compel arbitration under this Agreement, or to enforce or vacate an arbitration award. However, in actions seeking to vacate an award, the standard of review to be applied by said court to the arbitrator's findings of fact and conclusions of law will be the same as that applied by an appellate court reviewing a decision of a trial court sitting without a jury, unless state law requires otherwise. Company will pay the actual fee for the arbitrator and the claimant's filing fee; unless otherwise provided by law and awarded by the arbitrator, each party will pay their own attorneys' fees and other expenses.

16. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF EMPLOYEE

Employee shall keep all terms of this Agreement confidential, except as may be disclosed to Employee's spouse, accountants or attorneys, each of whom shall agree to keep all terms of this Agreement confidential. Employee represents that Employee is under no contractual or other restriction inconsistent with the execution of this Agreement, the performance of Employee's duties hereunder, or the rights of Company. Employee authorizes the Company to inform any prospective employer of the existence and terms of this Agreement without liability for interference with Employee's prospective employment. Employee represents that Employee is under no disability that prevents Employee from performing the essential functions of Employee's position, with or without reasonable accommodation.

- (a) General. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that, to the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and incorporate the terms and conditions required by, Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and the Department of Treasury Regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the date hereof. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines that any amounts payable hereunder will be taxable currently to the Employee under Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Code and related Department of Treasury guidance, the Company and the Employee shall cooperate in good faith to (i) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, that they mutually determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement, and to avoid less-favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company, and/or (ii) take such other actions as mutually determined to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A of the Code or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder; provided, however, that this Section does not create an obligation on the part of the Company to modify this Agreement or any other agreement, arrangement or plan and does not guarantee that the amounts payable hereunder will not be subject to interest or penalties under Section 409A, and in no event whatsoever shall the Company or any of its affiliates be liable for any additional tax, interest, or penalties that may be imposed on Employee as a result of Section 409A of the Code or any damages for failing to comply with Section 409A of the Code.
- (b) Separation from Service under Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) no Severance Payments shall be payable unless the termination of the Employee's employment constitutes a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations; (ii) if the Employee is deemed at the time of Employee's separation from service to be a "specified employee” for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, to the extent that delayed commencement of any portion of the Severance Payments (after taking into account all exclusions applicable to such Severance Payment under Section 409A) is required in order to avoid a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, such portion of the Severance Payments shall not be provided to the Employee prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of the Employee’s Separation from service” with the Company (as such term defined in the Department of Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A) and (B) the date of the Employee’s death; provided, that upon the earlier of such dates, all payments deferred pursuant to this Section 18(b) shall be paid to the Employee in a lump sum, and any remaining Severance Payments shall be paid as otherwise provided herein; (iii) the determination of whether the Employee is a “specified employee” for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code as of the time of Employee’s separation from service shall be made by the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 409A of the Code and applicable guidance thereunder (including, without limitation, Section 1.409A-1(i) of the Department of Treasury Regulations and any successor provision thereto); (iv) for purposes of Section 409A of the Code, the Employee’s right to receive installment payments of the Severance Payments shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (v) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes “deferred compensation” under Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in-kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year. Reimbursements and in-kind benefits are not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

The Company shall be entitled to withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement any federal, state, local, and foreign withholding and other taxes and charges that the Company is required to withhold. The Company shall be entitled to rely on an opinion of counsel if any questions as to the amount or requirement of withholding shall arise.

19. EXCESS PARACHUTE PAYMENTS

If it is determined (as hereafter provided) that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of Employee, whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise pursuant to or by reason of any other agreement, policy, plan, program, or arrangement, including without limitation any stock option, stock appreciation right, or similar right, or the lapse or termination of any restriction on or the vesting or exercisability of any of the foregoing (a “Payment”), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (or any successor provision thereto) by reason of being contingent on a change in ownership or effective control of the Company or of a substantial portion of the assets of the Company, within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code (or any successor provision thereto), or to any similar tax imposed by state or local law, or any interest or penalties with respect to such excise tax (such tax or taxes, together with any such interest or penalties, are hereafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then, in the event that the after-tax value of all Payments to Employee (such after-tax value to reflect the reduction for the Excise Tax and all federal, state, and local income, employment, and other taxes on such Payments) would, in the aggregate, be less than the after-tax value to Employee (reflecting a reduction for all such taxes in a like manner) of the amount that is 2.99 times Employee's "base amount" within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code (the "Safe Harbor Amount"), (a) the cash portions of the Payments payable to Employee under this Agreement shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value (as defined below) of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount, and (b) if the reduction of the cash portions of the Payments, payable under this Agreement, to zero would not be sufficient to reduce the Parachute Value of all Payments to the Safe Harbor Amount, then any cash portions of the Payments payable to Employee under any other agreements, policies, plans, programs, or arrangements shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount, and (c) if the reduction of all cash portions of the Payments, payable pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, to zero would not be sufficient to reduce the Parachute Value of all Payments to the Safe Harbor Amount, then non-cash portions of the Payments shall be reduced, in the reverse order in which they are due to be paid commencing with the latest such payment, until the Parachute Value of all Payments paid to Employee, in the aggregate, equals the Safe Harbor Amount. All calculations under this Section shall be determined by a national accounting firm selected by the Company (which may include the Company's outside auditors). The Company shall pay all costs to obtain and provide such calculations to Employee and the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Parachute Value" of a Payment shall mean the present value as of the date of the change in ownership or effective control, within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, of the portion of such Payment that constitutes a "parachute payment" under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, as determined for purposes of determining whether and to what extent the Excise Tax will apply to such Payment.

This Agreement is not effective unless fully executed by all parties, including the President and CEO or authorized officer of the Company, and approved by the Executive Committee as required by Company or its affiliates. This Agreement may not be modified, amended, or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by Employee and the President and CEO or authorized officer of the Company that expressly identifies the amended provision of this Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties on the subject matters in this agreement and supersedes any prior written or oral agreements or understandings between the parties except as noted in Section 10 above. No modification shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the parties. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, a counterpart transmitted via electronic means, and all executed counterparts, when taken together, shall constitute sufficient proof of the parties' entry into this Agreement. The parties agree to execute any further or future documents which may be necessary to allow the full performance of this Agreement. The failure of a party to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the right of such party to later enforce any provision. A waiver of the breach of any term or condition of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term or condition. The headings in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not control the meaning of any provision hereof.

If any provision of this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held unenforceable, such unenforceability shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof, except as specifically noted in this Agreement, or the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, all of which shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law. Company and Employee agree that the restrictions contained in Section 4, 5, 6, and 7, are reasonable in scope and duration and are necessary to protect Confidential Information. If any restrictive covenant is held to be unenforceable because of the scope, duration or geographic area of such restrictive covenant, the parties agree that a court or arbitrator may reduce the scope, duration, or geographic area, and in its reduced form, such provision shall be enforceable. Should Employee violate the provisions of Sections 5, 6, or 7, then in addition to all other remedies available to Company, the duration of these covenants shall be extended for the period of time when Employee began such violation until Employee permanently ceases such violation.

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Agreement, such provision shall be fully severable, this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision were never a part of this Agreement, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Agreement. Furthermore, in lieu of such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision, there shall be added automatically as part of this Agreement a provision as similar in terms to such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision as may be possible and be legal, valid, and enforceable.

Upon full execution by all parties, this Agreement shall be effective on the later date of the two signature dates below.

SEPARATION AGREEMENT

This Separation Agreement (the “Agreement”), dated effective as of April 23, 2019 (the “Effective Date”), by and between Rackspace US, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”) and Joseph F. Eazor (the “Executive”).

WHEREAS, the Executive was employed by the Company and the Executive and the Company are parties to an Employment Agreement, dated as of May 23, 2017 (as amended through the Effective Date, the “Employment Agreement”);

WHEREAS, the Executive ceased to serve as the Chief Executive Officer or in any other officer position with the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates (the “Company Group”) effective as of April 22, 2019 (the “CEO Officer Termination Date”), and the Executive’s employment with the Company Group shall be terminated as of June 30, 2019, pursuant to Section 4(a)(iv) of the Employment Agreement;

WHEREAS, under the terms of the Employment Agreement, the Executive has certain entitlements pursuant to Section 5 of the Employment Agreement in connection with such termination of employment;

WHEREAS, in consideration for the Executive’s additional agreements described in this Agreement, the Company has agreed to provide additional payments and consideration to which the Executive would not otherwise be entitled;

WHEREAS, under the terms of the Employment Agreement, the Executive has agreed to comply with certain restrictive covenants during and after the Executive’s employment; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to set forth in this Agreement the terms and conditions of the Executive’s separation from employment, and this Agreement shall govern the Executive’s and the Company’s respective rights and obligations in connection with such separation.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises, mutual covenants and other good and valuable consideration set forth in this Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Executive and the Company (the “Parties”) agree as follows:

1. Entire Agreement

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement, and the Release (as defined below), is the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains all agreements, whether written, oral, express or implied, between the Parties relating thereto and supersedes and extinguishes all other agreements relating thereto, whether written, oral, express or implied, between the Parties.

2. Termination of Employment

The Parties agree that the Executive’s employment by the Company and any and all titles, positions and appointments the Executive holds with the Company or any member of the Company Group, whether as an officer, director, employee, consultant, trustee, committee member, agent or otherwise are terminated as of the CEO Officer Termination Date, except that the Executive shall retain his status as an employee through June 30, 2019 (the “Employment Termination Date”). Effective as of the CEO Officer Termination Date, the Executive shall have no authority to act on behalf of any member of the Company Group and shall not hold himself out as having such authority, enter into any agreement or incur any obligations on behalf of any member of the Company Group, commit any member of the Company Group in any manner or otherwise act in an executive or other decision-making capacity with respect to any member of the Company Group, except as specifically requested by the Company during the period from the CEO Officer Termination Date through the Employment Termination Date. The Executive agrees to promptly execute such documents as the Company, in its sole discretion, shall reasonably deem necessary to effect such resignations.

3. Entitlements

In consideration for the Executive's entering into this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and benefits set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the payments and benefits described in this Agreement (other than the Accrued Obligations) are subject to (i) the Executive's execution and delivery of an irrevocable release of claims substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A (the "Release") within sixty (60) days following the CEO Officer Termination Date, and (ii) the Executive's continued compliance with this Agreement. No payments or benefits described in this Agreement (other than the Accrued Obligations) shall be made until the Release becomes irrevocable and effective in accordance with its terms, and any payments or benefits that would have been due or payable prior to such date shall be aggregated and paid with the first payroll period following the Release Effective Date (as defined in the Release). Within five days following the Employment Termination Date, the Executive shall execute a second release of claims, identical to the Release, except that it shall be dated as of the Employment Termination Date.

A. Payments and Benefits.

1. The Company shall pay to the Executive: (i) any amount of the Executive's base salary earned through the CEO Officer Termination Date not theretofore paid, (ii) any Annual Bonus for calendar year 2018, that was earned but not yet paid, (iii) any expenses owed to the Executive under Section 3(f) of the Employment Agreement through the CEO Officer Termination Date, and (iv) any amount arising from the Executive's participation in, or benefits under, any employee benefit plans, programs, or arrangements under Section 3(d) of the Employment Agreement (other than severance plans, programs, or arrangements), which amounts shall be payable in accordance with the terms and conditions of such employee benefit plans, programs, or arrangements including, where applicable, any death and disability benefits (the "Accrued Obligations").

2. Subject to the Executive's provision of transitional services through May 17, 2019, with such transition assistance to be provided in good faith in a manner consistent with his provision of services prior to the CEO Officer Termination Date, on Company premises for the first week and remotely for the three weeks thereafter, the Company shall pay the Executive a lump sum amount equal to $1,143,750 (the "Transition Assistance Payment"), on the first payroll date coincident with or immediately following May 17, 2019.

3. The Company shall (i) (A) continue to pay the Executive his base salary (at his current annual rate of $825,000) in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices during the period the Executive continues to be employed from the CEO Officer Termination Date through the Employment Termination Date and (B) pay an additional amount as severance pay in an aggregate amount of $825,000 payable in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices in equal installments during the period beginning on the Employment Termination Date and ending on the six (6) month anniversary of the Employment Termination Date; provided that the Company shall cease any then-remaining payments on the first date that the Executive violates any covenant contained in Section 6 or 7 of the Employment Agreement and (ii) pay the Executive an amount equal to his Target Bonus ($1,031,250) in a lump sum within sixty (60) days following the CEO Officer Termination Date (collectively, the "Severance Payment").

4. If continued coverage under the Company's health and welfare plans is timely elected by the Executive, the Company shall provide direct payment of any COBRA premiums from the Employment Termination Date until the earlier of (x) the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Employment Termination Date and (y) the first date that the Executive is no longer eligible for COBRA.

5. To the extent the Executive is required following the CEO Officer Termination Date to continue to make lease payments on his current residence, the Company agrees to reimburse the Executive for any such remaining lease payments (plus the cancellation/breakage fee ($3,600) in connection with a new lease that the Executive had previously entered into for his new apartment, as separately disclosed previously to the Company), provided that such aggregate reimbursement amount does not exceed $50,000, and the Executive provides applicable documentation evidencing such lease payments and cancellation/breakage fee payment as reasonably requested by the Company.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Company Group policy or otherwise, the Executive shall not be required to repay any amount of his relocation reimbursement as described in Section 3(g) of the Employment Agreement.

B. Equity Awards and Co-Invest.

1. All of the Executive's outstanding equity awards (i.e., stock options and restricted stock units in respect of common stock of Inception Topco, Inc. ("Parent")), whether vested or unvested, shall be immediately cancelled and cease to be outstanding, and the Company shall pay the Executive in consideration therefor the aggregate amount of $1,500,000, which shall be payable on the date that the Transition Assistance Payment is made.

2. Parent agrees to repurchase Executive's outstanding holdings of common stock (and any other equity interests, if any, after giving effect to the cancellation of the equity awards in Section 3.B.1 above) in Parent for a cash payment in the aggregate amount of $1,545,000, pursuant to the form of repurchase agreement attached hereto as Exhibit B, which shall be payable on the date that the Transition Assistance Payment is made.

C. Full Satisfaction. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, (i) the Executive is not entitled to any other compensation or benefits from the Company or any member of the Company Group (including, without limitation, any severance or termination compensation or benefits) and (ii) as of and after the Employment Termination Date, the Executive shall no longer participate in, accrue service credit or have contributions made on his behalf under any employee benefit plan sponsored by any member of the Company Group in respect of periods commencing on and following the Employment Termination Date, including, without limitation, any plan which is intended to qualify under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

4. Survival of Certain Provisions; Additional Agreements. Sections 6 ("Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation; Non-Hire"), 7 ("Nondisclosure of Confidential Information; Nondisparagement; Intellectual Property"), 8 ("Injunctive Relief"), and 9 ("Cooperation") of the Employment Agreement (collectively, the "Surviving Provisions") shall survive and be incorporated herein. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Executive shall remain bound by and subject to the covenants and obligations set forth in the Surviving Provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect. In addition, the Company shall instruct its officers and directors not to, directly or indirectly, knowingly disparage, criticize, or otherwise make derogatory statements regarding the Executive. The foregoing sentence shall not be violated by the making of truthful responses to legal process or inquiry by a governmental authority.

5. Miscellaneous

A. Modification. This Agreement may not be modified or amended, nor may any rights under it be waived, except in a writing signed and agreed to by the Parties.

B. Notices. Any notice given pursuant to this Agreement to any party hereto shall be deemed to have been duly given when mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by overnight courier, or by facsimile or telecopy, or when hand delivered as follows:

If to the Executive, at the Executive's most recent address on the payroll records of the Company.

or at such other address as either party shall from time to time designate by written notice, in the manner provided herein, to the other party hereto.

C. Successors. The Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties, their respective heirs, successors and assigns.

D. Taxes. The Executive shall be responsible for the payment of any and all required federal, state, local and foreign taxes incurred, or to be incurred, in connection with any amounts payable to the Executive under this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company or any member of the Company Group, as applicable, may withhold from all amounts payable under this Agreement all federal, state, local and foreign taxes that are required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable laws and regulations.

E. Section 409A. The parties intend that any amounts payable hereunder that could constitute "deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A ("Section 409A") of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), will be compliant with or exempt from Section 409A. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have no obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold the Executive (or any beneficiary) harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties. For purposes of Section 409A, each of the payments that may be made under this Agreement are designated as separate payments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise that is exempt from Section 409A pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(v)(A) or (C) (relating to certain reimbursements and in-kind benefits) shall be paid or provided to the Executive only to the extent that the expenses are not incurred, or the benefits are not provided, beyond the last day of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" (within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations) occurs; and provided, further, that such expenses are reimbursed no later than the last day of the third calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive's "separation from service" occurs. To the extent any expense reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit is determined to be subject to Section 409A (and not exempt pursuant to the prior sentence or otherwise), the amount of any such expenses eligible for reimbursement, or the provision of any in-kind benefit, in one calendar year shall not affect the provision of in-kind benefits or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other calendar year (except for any life-time or other aggregate limitation applicable to medical expenses), and in no event shall any expenses be reimbursed after the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Executive incurred such expenses, and in no event shall any right to reimbursement or the provision of any in-kind benefit be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

F. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be unaffected and shall remain in full force and effect. In addition, if any provision is determined to be invalid or unenforceable due to its duration and/or scope, the duration and/or scope of such provision, as the case may be, shall be reduced, such reduction shall be to the smallest extent necessary to comply with applicable law, and such provision shall be enforceable, in its reduced form, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

G. Non-Admission. Nothing contained in the Agreement shall be deemed or construed as an admission of wrongdoing or liability on the part of the Executive or on the part of any member of the Company Group.

H. Governing Law.

THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE APPLICABLE TO AGREEMENTS MADE AND TO BE WHOLLY PERFORMED WITHIN THAT STATE, WITHOUT REGARD TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAWS PROVISIONS OR THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PROVISIONS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION WHICH WOULD CAUSE THE APPLICATION OF ANY LAW OTHER THAN THAT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

Each party to this Agreement irrevocably agrees for the exclusive benefit of the other that any and all suits, actions or proceedings relating to this Agreement (collectively, "Actions" and, individually, an "Action") may be maintained in either the courts of the State of Delaware or the federal District Courts sitting in Wilmington, Delaware (collectively, the "Chosen Courts") and that the Chosen Courts shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine or settle any such Action and that any such Actions may be brought in the Chosen Courts. Each party irrevocably waives any objection that it may have now or hereafter to the laying of the venue of any Actions in the Chosen Courts and any claim that any Actions have been brought in an inconvenient forum and further irrevocably agrees that a judgment in any Action brought in the Chosen Courts shall be conclusive and binding upon it and may be enforced in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

I. Headings. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience of identification only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent, or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

J. Counterparts. The Agreement may be executed by one or more of the Parties hereto on any number of separate counterparts and all such counterparts shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Each party hereto confirms that any facsimile copy of such party's executed counterpart of the Agreement (or its signature page thereof) shall be deemed to be an executed original thereof.

RELEASE OF CLAIMS (“Release”)

6. Release of Claims

In partial consideration of the payments and benefits described in the Separation Agreement (the “Separation Agreement”) dated effective as of April __, 2019, between Rackspace US Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), and Joseph F. Eazor (“Executive”), to which Executive agrees that Executive is not entitled until and unless Executive executes this Release and it becomes effective in accordance with the terms hereof, Executive, for and on behalf of himself and his heirs, successors and assigns, subject to the last sentence of this Section 1, hereby waives and releases any common law, statutory or other complaints, claims, charges or causes of action of any kind whatsoever, both known and unknown, in law or in equity, which Executive ever had, now has or may have against the Company and its shareholders, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, assigns, directors, officers, partners, members, managers, employees, trustees (in their official and individual capacities), employee benefit plans and their administrators and fiduciaries (in their official and individual capacities), representatives or agents, and each of their affiliates, successors and assigns (collectively, the “Releasees”), by reason of facts or omissions which have occurred on or prior to the date that Executive signs this Release, including, without limitation, any complaint, charge or cause of action arising out of Executive's employment or termination of employment, or any term or condition of that employment, or arising under federal, state, local or foreign laws pertaining to employment, including without limitation the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 ("ADEA," a law which prohibits discrimination on the basis of age), the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, all as amended, and any other federal, state and local laws relating to discrimination on the basis of age, sex or other protected class, all claims under federal, state or local laws for express or implied breach of contract, wrongful discharge, defamation, intentional infliction of emotional distress, and any related claims for attorneys' fees and costs. Executive further agrees that this Release may be pleaded as a full defense to any action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding covered by the terms hereof which is or may be initiated, prosecuted or maintained by Executive, Executive's descendants, dependents, heirs, executors, administrators or permitted assigns. By signing this Release, Executive acknowledges that Executive intends to waive and release any rights known or unknown that Executive may have against the Releasees under these and any other laws; provided that Executive does not waive or release claims with respect to (i) any rights he may have to the payments and benefits under Section 3 of the Separation Agreement, (ii) any claims or rights under the Company's indemnification policy in accordance with the operating agreement of the Company and (iii) rights that cannot be released as a matter of law (collectively, the "Unreleased Claims"). Executive hereby waives any and all claims to reemployment with the Company or any of its affiliates and affirmatively agrees not to seek further employment with the Company or any of its affiliates.

If Executive has worked or is working in California, Executive expressly agrees to waive the protection of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, AND THAT IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

7. Proceedings

Executive acknowledges that Executive has not filed any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding, against any of the Releasees before any local, state, federal or foreign agency, court, arbitrator, mediator, arbitration or mediation panel, or other body (each individually a "Proceeding"). Executive represents that Executive is not aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted, provided that if Executive is aware of any basis on which such a Proceeding could reasonably be instituted, then Executive has disclosed such basis to the Company in writing. Executive (i) acknowledges that Executive will not initiate or cause to be initiated on his behalf any Proceeding (except with respect to an Unreleased Claim) and will not participate in any Proceeding (except with respect to an Unreleased Claim), in each case, except as required by law; and (ii) waives any right Executive may have to benefit in any manner from any relief (whether monetary or otherwise) arising out of any Proceeding, including any Proceeding conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"). Further, Executive understands that, by executing this Release, Executive will be limiting the availability of certain remedies that Executive may have against the Company and limiting also the ability of Executive to pursue certain claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in Section 1 of this Release shall prevent Executive from (i) initiating or causing to be initiated on his behalf any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company before any local, state or federal agency, court or other body challenging the validity of the waiver of his claims under the ADEA contained in Section 1 of this Release (but no other portion of such waiver); or (ii) initiating or participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC.

8. Time to Consider

Executive acknowledges that Executive has been advised that he has at least twenty-one (21) days from the date of receipt of this Release to consider all the provisions of this Release and to the extent Executive signs this Release prior to the expiration of such period he does hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive the remaining portion of such twenty-one (21) day period. EXECUTIVE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT EXECUTIVE HAS READ THIS RELEASE CAREFULLY, HAS BEEN ADVISED BY THE COMPANY TO, AND HAS IN FACT, CONSULTED AN ATTORNEY, AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING BELOW EXECUTIVE IS GIVING UP CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH HE MAY HAVE TO SUE OR ASSERT A CLAIM AGAINST ANY OF THE RELEASEES, AS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 1 OF THIS RELEASE AND THE OTHER PROVISIONS HEREOF. EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT EXECUTIVE HAS NOT BEEN FORCED OR PRESSURED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER TO SIGN THIS RELEASE, AND EXECUTIVE AGREES TO ALL OF ITS TERMS VOLUNTARILY.

9. Revocation

Executive hereby acknowledges and understands that Executive shall have seven (7) days from the date of execution of this Release to revoke this Release (including, without limitation, any and all claims arising under the ADEA) and that neither the Company nor any other person is obligated to provide any payments or benefits to Executive pursuant to the Separation Agreement until eight (8) days have passed since Executive's signing of this Release without Executive having revoked this Release (such eighth (8th) day, on which the Release becomes irrevocable and effective, the "Release Effective Date"). If Executive revokes this Release, Executive will be deemed not to have accepted the terms of this Release, and no action will be required of the Company under any section of this Release. Any revocation of this Release must be made in writing and delivered to the Company in accordance with Section 5(B) of the Separation Agreement.

10. No Admission

This Release does not constitute an admission of liability or wrongdoing of any kind by Executive or the Company.

11. General Provisions

The provisions of this Release will be binding upon Executive's heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives and assigns. A failure of any of the Releasees to insist on strict compliance with any provision of this Release shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any other provision hereof. If any provision of this Release is determined to be so broad as to be unenforceable, such provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable, and in the event that any provision is determined to be entirely unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions of this Release shall remain valid and binding upon Executive and the Releasees.

12. Governing Law

The validity, interpretations, construction and performance of this Release shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to conflict of laws principles. By execution of this Release, the Executive waives any right to trial by jury in connection with any suit, action or proceeding under or in connection with this Release.

Upon termination of your employment with Rackspace, you will promptly deliver the same, and all copies thereof, to Rackspace.

d. On or before the Employment End Date, you will return to Company all property belonging to Company that you possess or possessed but provided to a third party, including but not limited to, all equipment or other materials and all originals and copies of Company documents, files, memoranda, notes, computer-readable information (maintained on a removable drive, home computer, or in any other form) and video or tape recordings of any kind other than personal materials relating solely to you. 8. Non-Solicitation of Company Employees. To further preserve the Confidential Information, for twelve (12) months after employment ends, you will not, directly or indirectly, (i) hire or engage any current employee of Company, including anyone employed by or providing services to Company within the 6-month period preceding your last day of employment or engagement; (ii) solicit or encourage any employee to terminate employment or services with Company; or (iii) solicit or encourage any employee to accept employment with or provide services to you or any business associated with you.

9. Non-Solicitation of Customers and Suppliers. To further preserve the Confidential Information, for twelve (12) months after employment ends, you agree not to directly or indirectly, on your own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, recruit or otherwise solicit or induce any customer or supplier of the Company to terminate its employment or arrangement with the Company, otherwise change its relationship with the Company or establish any relationship with you or any of your affiliates for any business purpose deemed competitive with the business of the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, you shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than two percent (2%) of the outstanding interest in such business.

The Restricted Period outlined above will be tolled and will not run during any such time that you are in breach of the restrictive covenants in section 8, 9 and 10, and once tolled will not begin to run again until such time as all violations have ceased.

You recognize that the restrictions in this section may substantially limit your future flexibility in many ways. You acknowledge you have received adequate consideration for the promises and restrictions set forth in this agreement. You agree to waive any objection to the validity of these restrictions and acknowledge that these limited prohibitions are reasonable as to time, geographical area and scope of activities to be restrained and that these limited prohibitions do not impose a greater restraint than is necessary to protect Rackspace's goodwill, proprietary information and other business interests. You further agree that any breach of these covenants will result in irreparable damage and injury to Rackspace and that Rackspace will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

12. Confidentiality. Except as provided below, you and Rackspace agree to maintain in confidence both the existence and terms of this Agreement. Rackspace may disclose the terms of this Agreement consistent with business necessity. You may disclose the existence and terms of this Agreement to your spouse or domestic partner and with your legal and or financial advisors or as otherwise required by law or governmental agency.

a. General. You and Rackspace agree, to the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and incorporate the terms and conditions required by, Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and the Department of Treasury Regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the date hereof. It is intended that this Agreement will comply with Section 409A of the Code, and Department of Treasury guidance, including the exemptions for short-term deferrals, separation pay arrangements, reimbursements, and in-kind distributions, and this Agreement shall administered accordingly, and interpreted and construed on a basis consistent with such intent. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines that any amounts payable hereunder will be taxable currently to the Employee under Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Code and related Department of Treasury guidance, the Company and the Employee shall cooperate in good faith to (i) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, that they mutually determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement, and to avoid less-favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company, and/or (ii) take such other actions as mutually determined to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A of the Code or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder; provided, however, that this Section 13 does not create an obligation on the part of the Company to modify this Agreement or any other agreement, arrangement or plan and does not guarantee that the amounts payable hereunder will not be subject to interest or penalties under Section 409A, and in no event whatsoever shall the Company or any of its affiliates be liable for any additional tax, interest, or penalties that may be imposed on you as a result of Section 409A of the Code or any damages for failing to comply with Section 409A of the Code.

b. Separation from Service under Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) no Severance Payments shall be payable unless the termination of your employment constitutes a “separation from service” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations; (ii) if you are deemed at the time of your separation from service to be a “specified employee” for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, to the extent that delayed commencement of any portion of the Severance Payments (after taking into account all exclusions applicable to such Severance Payment under Section 409A) is required in order to avoid a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, such portion of the Severance Payments shall not be provided to you prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of your “separation from service” with the Company (as such term is defined in the Department of Treasury Regulations issued under Section 409A) and (B) the date of your death; provided, that upon the earlier of such dates, all payments deferred pursuant to this Section 13(b) shall be paid to you in a lump sum, and any remaining Severance Payments shall be paid as otherwise provided herein; (iii) the determination of whether you are a “specified employee” for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code as of the time of your separation from service shall be made by the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 409A of the Code and applicable guidance thereunder (including, without limitation, Section 1.409A-1(i) of the Department of Treasury Regulations and any successor provision thereto); (iv) for purposes of Section 409A of the Code, your right to receive installment payments of the Severance Payments shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (v) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes “deferred compensation” under Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in-kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year. Reimbursements and in-kind benefits are not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. The preceding provisions, however, will not be construed as a guarantee by the Company of any particular tax effect to you under this Agreement.

14. Tax Consequences. You acknowledge and agree that you are solely responsible for the tax consequences to you of any benefits conferred on you, or any payments made to you or on your behalf, under the terms of this Agreement. Rackspace has not made any representations to you concerning any possible tax consequences of any payments made pursuant to this Agreement.

15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement represents the entire agreement by and between the parties and there are no other agreements or understandings related to the subject matter herein other than the MIRA and your equity grant agreement(s), if any, which survive the end of your employment and continue in effect. This Agreement may not be changed except by written agreement signed by the parties.

16. Binding Heirs, Successors and Assigns. Except as herein expressly provided, the terms and provisions of this Agreement will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the heirs, successors, assigns and legal representatives of the parties.

17. Arbitration. All claims and matters in question arising out of this Agreement or the relationship between the Parties, whether sounding in contract, tort, a statutory cause of action or otherwise, will be resolved by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act. Either Party, however, may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to compel arbitration under this Agreement; enforce or vacate an arbitration award; or seek injunctive relief. Form of Exit Option Award Agreement (Standard). Approved by the Executive Committee in July 2019.

NON-QUALIFIED STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of [____], 20[___] (the "Grant Date"), by and among RACKSPACE CORP., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and [____] (the "Optionee").

WHEREAS, the Company, acting through a Committee (as defined in the Company's Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan")), has granted to the Optionee, effective as of the date of this Agreement, an option under the Plan to purchase a number of shares of Common Stock (as defined in the Plan) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and of the mutual agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. The Plan. The terms and provisions of the Plan are hereby incorporated into this Agreement as if set forth herein in their entirety (including, without limitation, the provisions of Article V). In the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and the Plan, the provisions of the Plan shall control. A copy of the Plan may be obtained from the Company by the Optionee upon request. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Plan and in Annex I attached hereto.

Section 2. Option; Option Price. On the terms and subject to the conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the Optionee shall have the option (the "Option") to purchase Shares pursuant to the Tranche A option (the "Tranche A Option") and the Tranche B option (the "Tranche B Option"), at the price per Share (the "Option Price") and in the amounts set forth on the signature page hereto. Payment of the Option Price may be made in the manner specified by Section 5.9 of the Plan. The Option is not intended to qualify for federal income tax purposes as an "incentive stock option" within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Option shall remain exercisable as to all Vested Options (as defined in Section 4) until the expiration of the Option Term (as defined in Section 3). Except as otherwise provided in Section 4 of this Agreement, upon a Termination of Relationship, the unvested portion of the Option (i.e., that portion that does not constitute Vested Options) shall terminate.

Section 3. Term. The term of the Option (the "Option Term") shall commence on the Grant Date and expire on the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date, unless the Option shall have been terminated sooner in accordance with the terms of the Plan (including, without limitation, Section 5.7 of the Plan) or this Agreement.

Section 4. Vesting. Subject to the Optionee's continued employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Subsidiaries through each applicable vesting date (except as otherwise provided in this Section 4), the Option shall become non-forfeitable (when the Option becomes non-forfeitable, a "Vested Option") and shall become exercisable according to the following provisions:

(a) Twenty percent (20%) of the Tranche A Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable on each of the first five (5) anniversaries of the Grant Date; provided, however, that:

(i) the entire Tranche A Option shall immediately become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable on the sixth (6) monthly anniversary of a Change in Control; provided, further, that if a Termination of Relationship occurs within six (6) months following a Change in Control as a result of (a) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause or (b) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability, the entire Tranche A Option shall immediately become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of the date of such Termination of Relationship and shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a), and

(ii) if a Termination of Relationship occurs at any time prior to a Change in Control as a result of (A) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause or (B) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability, (1) the installment of the Tranche A Option scheduled to vest on the anniversary of the Grant Date next following such Termination of Relationship (if any) shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of the date of such Termination of Relationship and shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a) with respect to the number of Option Shares equal to 20% of the Tranche A Option, multiplied by a fraction, (x) the numerator of which is equal to the number of calendar days that have elapsed since the last anniversary of the Grant Date prior to the date of the Termination of Relationship or, if no such anniversary date has yet occurred, the Grant Date, and (y) the denominator of which is equal to 365, and (2) if a Change in Control occurs within 90 days following such Termination of Relationship, the entire Tranche A Option shall immediately become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of immediately prior to the occurrence of such Change in Control (notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4(a)(i)) and such Vested Option shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a) as if the Termination of the Relationship occurred on the date of the Change in Control.

(b) The Tranche B Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as follows:

(i) Fifty percent (50%) of the Tranche B Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable upon any Measurement Date if Apollo has achieved a MOIC of at least one and three-quarters (1.75), as calculated by the Committee; and

(ii) Up to fifty percent (50%) of the Tranche B Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable upon any Measurement Date if Apollo has achieved a MOIC of greater than one and three-quarters (1.75) and up to two and one-quarter (2.25), determined based on linear interpolation between such MOIC achievement levels, as calculated by the Committee.

If a Termination of Relationship occurs (x) prior to the occurrence of a Change in Control and (y) as a result of (A) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause or (B) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability, the unvested portion of the Tranche B Option (if any) shall remain outstanding and eligible to become a Vested Option during the 90 day period following such Termination of Relationship upon achievement of the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b) (after giving effect to Section 4(c)(i), if applicable) during such 90 day period, and any such portion that becomes a Vested Option shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a) as if the Termination of Relationship occurred on the date of vesting; provided, that any portion of the Tranche B Option which remains unvested as of (I) the end of such 90 day period, or, (II) if earlier, after giving effect to the application of Section 4(c)(i) to the extent a Change in Control occurs and Apollo elects to give effect to Section 4(c)(i), shall be immediately forfeited; provided, further, that if a Change in Control occurs during such 90 day period and Apollo does not elect to give effect to Section 4(c)(i), any unvested portion of the Tranche B Option shall remain outstanding and the provisions of Section 4(b)(2) below (and not the provisions of Section 4(c)(ii)) will apply to such unvested portion of the Tranche B Option.

If a Termination of Relationship occurs (a) following the occurrence of a Change in Control in which Apollo elected to give effect to Section 4(c)(ii) and (b) as a result of (x) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause or (y) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability, then Apollo shall elect one of the following two alternatives:

- (1) The term Measurement Date shall be deemed amended to also mean the date of such Termination of Relationship, and the fair value (as reasonably determined in good faith by the Apollo Holders) as of the date of such termination of any Non- Cash Consideration received by the Apollo Holders upon or prior to such Measurement Date (that has not previously become, or been treated as, Cash Consideration) shall be treated as Cash Consideration. Any portion of the Tranche B Option which does not become a Vested Option upon the occurrence of such Termination of Relationship, in accordance with the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b) (after giving effect to this Section 4(b)(1)), shall be immediately forfeited. Any portion of the Tranche B Option that becomes a Vested Option in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(b)(1) shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a); or
- (2) The unvested portion of the Tranche B Option (if any) as of the date of such Termination of Relationship shall remain outstanding and eligible to become a Vested Option upon any future Measurement Date, in accordance with the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b), until the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date or, if earlier, the date on which the Tranche B Option terminates pursuant to this Agreement or the Plan for any reason other than set forth in Section 8(a)(ii) or 8(a)(iii). Any portion of the Tranche B Option that becomes a Vested Option in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(b)(2) shall automatically terminate without consideration and shall become null and void and be of no further force and effect upon the earliest of (A) the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date, (B) the date of the Termination of Relationship of the Optionee for Cause and (C) the 90th day following the date that the applicable unvested portion of the Tranche B Option becomes a Vested Option.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a Change in Control with respect to which the Apollo Holders receive any Non-Cash Consideration in lieu of, or in addition to, Cash Consideration, Apollo shall elect one of the following two alternatives:

(i) The term Measurement Date shall be deemed amended to also mean the date of such Change in Control, and the fair value (as reasonably determined in good faith by the Apollo Holders) as of the date of such Change in Control of any such Non-Cash Consideration shall be treated as Cash Consideration. Any portion of the Tranche B Option which does not become a Vested Option upon the occurrence of such Change in Control, in accordance with the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b) (after giving effect to this Section 4(c)(i)), shall be immediately forfeited. Any portion of the Tranche B Option that becomes a Vested Option in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(c)(i) shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a); or

(ii) Any portion of the Tranche B Option which does not become a Vested Option upon the occurrence of such Change in Control shall remain outstanding and eligible to become a Vested Option upon any future Measurement Date in accordance with the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b), until the Tranche B Option terminates pursuant to this Agreement or the Plan (including, without limitation, in connection with a Termination of Relationship pursuant to Section 8(a)). Any portion of the Tranche B Option that becomes a Vested Option in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(c)(ii) shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a).

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in this Section 4, the Option shall cease vesting as of the date of the Optionee's Termination of Relationship with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason and no portion of the Option that is not a Vested Option as of such time shall become a Vested Option thereafter (i.e., the portion of the Option that is not a Vested Option shall be forfeited immediately); provided, that, in the event that the Optionee experiences a Termination of Relationship for Cause, all Options then held by the Optionee (whether vested or unvested) shall immediately be forfeited.

Section 5. Restrictive Covenants. The Optionee acknowledges and agrees that by accepting the Options issued hereunder, the Optionee shall be bound by, and shall abide by, the covenants set forth in this Section 5, in addition to any other representations, warranties, and covenants set forth in (but subject to any exceptions set forth in) any Service Agreement or other document required by the Committee with respect to such grant.

(a) Non-Solicitation; No Hire. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Optionee agrees that during the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Optionee will not, directly or indirectly, on the Optionee's own behalf or on behalf of another (i) solicit, induce or attempt to solicit or induce any officer, director or employee of the Company Group to terminate their relationship with or leave the employ of the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any member of the Company Group, on the one hand, and any officer, director or employee thereof, on the other hand, (ii) hire (or other similar arrangement) any Person (in any capacity whether as an officer, director, employee or consultant) who is or at any time was an officer, director or employee of the Company Group until six (6) months after such individual's relationship (whether as an officer, director or employee) with the Company Group has ended, or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing business with the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or business relation, on the one hand, and the Company Group, on the other hand.

(b) Non-Competition. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and to further preserve the confidentiality of the Company Group's confidential information, the Optionee agrees that during the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Optionee will not, directly or indirectly, have any equity or equity-based interest, or work or otherwise provide services as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, partner, director or otherwise, in any business anywhere in the world that sells managed dedicated or cloud computing services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company Group, including but not limited to (i) professional advisory services for the migration, deployment or management of cloud technologies; (ii) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared or virtual) and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet; (iii) hosted or managed email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking, applications, and similar services, or (iv) any related IT services or products substantially similar to the Company Group's products or services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding interest in such business.

(c) Nondisclosure of Confidential Information; Return of Property. The Optionee recognizes and acknowledges that he or she has access to the confidential information and/or has had material contact with the Company Group's customers, suppliers, licensees, representatives, agents, partners, licensors, or business relations. The Optionee agrees that at any time during or after such time as the Optionee is a Participant in the Plan, the Optionee shall maintain in confidence and shall not directly, indirectly or otherwise, use, disseminate, disclose or publish, or use for the Optionee's benefit or the benefit of any Person, any confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets of or relating to the Company Group, including, without limitation, information with respect to the Company Group's operations, processes, products, inventions, business practices, finances, principals, vendors, suppliers, customers, potential customers, marketing methods, costs, prices, contractual relationships, regulatory status, compensation paid to employees or other terms of employment, or deliver to any Person any document, record, notebook, computer program or similar repository of or containing any such confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets. Upon the Optionee's termination of employment for any reason, the Optionee shall promptly deliver to the Company (with the cost of shipping reimbursed by the Company) all correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the Company Group's customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products or processes. The Optionee may respond to a lawful and valid subpoena or other legal process but shall give the Company Group the earliest possible notice thereof, shall, as much in advance of the return date as possible, make available to the Company Group and its counsel the documents and other information sought and, if requested by the Company Group, shall reasonably assist such counsel in resisting or otherwise responding to such process.

(d) Non-Disparagement. The Optionee shall not, at any time, directly or indirectly, knowingly disparage, criticize, or otherwise make derogatory statements regarding the Company Group, or any of its successors, directors or officers. The foregoing shall not be violated by the Optionee's truthful responses to legal process or inquiry by a governmental authority.

(e) Intellectual Property Rights.

(i) The Optionee agrees that the results and proceeds of the Optionee's services for the Company Group (including, but not limited to, any trade secrets, products, services, processes, know-how, designs, developments, innovations, analyses, drawings, reports, techniques, formulas, methods, developmental or experimental work, improvements, discoveries, inventions, ideas, source and object codes, programs, matters of a literary, musical, dramatic or otherwise creative nature, writings and other works of authorship) resulting from services performed for the Company Group and any works in progress, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar statutes, that were made, developed, conceived or reduced to practice or learned by the Optionee, either alone or jointly with others (collectively, "Inventions"), shall be works-made-for-hire and the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company Group) shall be deemed the sole owner throughout the universe of any and all trade secret, patent, copyright and other intellectual property rights (collectively, "Proprietary Rights") of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, with the right to use the same in perpetuity in any manner the Company determines in its sole discretion, without any further payment to the Optionee whatsoever. If, for any reason, any of such results and proceeds shall not legally be a work-made-for-hire and/or there are any Proprietary Rights which do not accrue to the Company Group under the immediately preceding sentence, then the Optionee hereby irrevocably assigns and agrees to assign any and all of the Optionee's right, title and interest thereto, including, without limitation, any and all Proprietary Rights of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, to the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates), and the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates shall have the right to use the same in perpetuity throughout the universe in any manner determined by the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates without any further payment to the Optionee whatsoever. As to any Invention that the Optionee is required to assign, the Optionee shall promptly and fully disclose to the Company all information known to the Optionee concerning such Invention. The Optionee hereby waives and quitclaims to the Company Group any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, that the Optionee now or may hereafter have for infringement of any Proprietary Rights assigned hereunder to the Company Group.

(ii) The Optionee agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Optionee shall do any and all things that the Company may reasonably deem useful or desirable to establish or document the Company Group's exclusive ownership throughout the United States of America or any other country of any and all Proprietary Rights in any such Inventions, including, without limitation, the execution of appropriate copyright and/or patent applications or assignments. To the extent the Optionee has any Proprietary Rights in the Inventions that cannot be assigned in the manner described above, the Optionee unconditionally and irrevocably waives the enforcement of such Proprietary Rights. This Section 5(e) is subject to and shall not be deemed to limit, restrict or constitute any waiver by the Company Group of any Proprietary Rights of ownership to which the Company Group may be entitled by operation of law by virtue of the Optionee's employment with, or service to, the Company Group. The Optionee further agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Optionee shall assist the Company Group in every proper and lawful way to obtain and from time to time enforce Proprietary Rights relating to Inventions in any and all countries. To this end, the Optionee shall execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other acts (including appearances as a witness) as the Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining, and enforcing such Proprietary Rights and the assignment thereof. In addition, the Optionee shall execute, verify, and deliver assignments of such Proprietary Rights to the Company or its designees. The Optionee's obligation to assist the Company Group with respect to Proprietary Rights relating to such Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the Optionee's Termination of Relationship.

(f) Restrictive Covenants Generally. If, at the time of enforcement of the covenants contained in this Section 5 (the "Restrictive Covenants"), a court shall hold that the duration, scope or area restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties agree that the maximum duration, scope or area reasonable under such circumstances shall be substituted for the stated duration, scope or area and that the court shall be allowed and directed to revise the restrictions contained herein to cover the maximum period, scope and area permitted by applicable law. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that the Restrictive Covenants are reasonable in terms of duration, scope and area restrictions and are necessary to protect the goodwill of the Company Group. The Optionee further acknowledges and agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are being agreed to by the Optionee in connection with the Company's issuance of an Award to the Optionee under the Plan, and are in addition to, not in substitution for, any restrictive covenants to which the Optionee is or may become subject in connection with any relationship with the Company Group.

(g) Enforcement. If the Optionee breaches, or threatens to commit a breach of, any of the Restrictive Covenants, the Company Group shall have the following rights and remedies, each of which rights and remedies shall be independent of the others and severally enforceable, and each of which is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to the Company Group at law or in equity: (i) the right and remedy to seek to have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction (without posting a bond), it being agreed that any breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants would cause irreparable injury to the Company Group and that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy to the Company Group; and (ii) the right and remedy to require the Optionee to account for and pay over to the Company any profits, monies, accruals, increments or other benefits derived or received by the Optionee as the result of any transactions constituting a breach of the Restrictive Covenants. In the event of any breach or violation by the Optionee of any of the Restrictive Covenants, the time period of such covenant with respect to the Optionee shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be tolled until such breach or violation is resolved.

Section 6. Restriction on Transfer. Except for transfers to an Affiliate (determined as if the Optionee were a Holder, as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) for estate planning purposes, the Option may not be transferred, pledged, assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of in any way by the Optionee and may be exercised during the lifetime of the Optionee only by the Optionee. If the Optionee dies, the Option shall thereafter be exercisable, during the period specified in Section 8 of this Agreement, by his or her executors or administrators to the full extent to which the Option was exercisable by the Optionee at the time of his or her death. The Option shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar process. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of the Option contrary to the provisions hereof, and the levy of any execution, attachment or similar process upon the Option, shall be null and void and without effect. Upon the exercise of an Option, to the extent such Optionee is not then a party to the Investor Rights Agreement, the Optionee shall deliver to the Company an Adoption Agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Committee, pursuant to which the Optionee agrees to become a party to the Investor Rights Agreement. The Company agrees that the Optionee shall be treated as an Other Shares Holder under Section 10.1 of the Investor Rights Agreement with respect to the Shares acquired upon exercise of the Option.

Section 7. Optionee's Employment or Other Service Relationship. Nothing in the Option shall confer upon the Optionee any right to continue the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its Affiliates or stockholders, as the case may be, to terminate the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Affiliates or to increase or decrease the Optionee's compensation at any time. The grant of the Option is a onetime benefit and does not create any contractual or other right to receive any other grant of other Awards under the Plan in the future. The grant of the Option does not form part of the Optionee's entitlement to remuneration or benefits in terms of his or her employment or other service relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary.

Section 8. Termination.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 4(b)(2), following a Termination of Relationship, the Option shall automatically terminate without consideration and shall become null and void and be of no further force and effect upon the earliest of:

- (i) The tenth anniversary of the Grant Date;
- (ii) The first anniversary of any Termination of Relationship of the Optionee due to the Optionee's death or by the Company due to the Optionee's Disability;

(iii) The 90th day following any Termination of Relationship of the Optionee due to the Optionee's resignation for any reason or the Optionee's Termination of Relationship without Cause;

(iv) The date of the Termination of Relationship of the Optionee for Cause.

(b) Option Shares acquired upon the exercise of Vested Options may be repurchased pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement.

Section 9. Payment of Option Price. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Optionee may, following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship as a result of (i) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause or (ii) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability, or at any other time with the consent of the Committee, and provided that the Fair Market Value per Share is, at the time of exercise, greater than the Option Price per Share, pay for the exercise of a Vested Option by instructing the Company to withhold from the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised a number of Shares having, as of the date of such exercise, a Fair Market Value of the Common Stock (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement equal to the aggregate Option Price of the Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised. As a condition to exercise of the Option, the Optionee shall also remit a cash amount sufficient to satisfy all federal, state, local and foreign withholding tax and employment tax requirements in connection with exercise of the Option so that the Company may satisfy its tax withholding obligations, unless otherwise provided by the Committee in its sole discretion.

Section 10. Notices.

(a) The Optionee shall be entitled to receive notice of an event that would entitle the Optionee to notice under the Investor Rights Agreement were the Optionee a holder of the Option Shares in sufficient time to afford the Optionee with an opportunity to exercise a Vested Option (or the unvested portion of the Option that would become a Vested Option upon such event) in advance of such event.

(b) All notices, claims, certificates, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and delivered if personally delivered or if sent by nationally recognized overnight courier, by facsimile, by email, or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

(a) NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED IN ANY SERVICE AGREEMENT, THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICTING PROVISION OR RULE (WHETHER OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION) THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF DELAWARE TO BE APPLIED. IN FURTHERANCE OF THE FOREGOING, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WILL CONTROL

THE INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF UNDER SUCH JURISDICTION'S CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW ANALYSIS, THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW OF SOME OTHER JURISDICTION WOULD ORDINARILY APPLY.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Service Agreement, each of the parties hereto irrevocably (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery, or in the event (but only in the event) that the Delaware Court of Chancery does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, or in the event (but only in the event) that such United States District Court for the District of Delaware also does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, any Delaware state court sitting in New Castle County, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the actions of the parties hereof, (ii) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court and (iii) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement in any court other than the courts of the State of Delaware, as described above. Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason, that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, that the suit, action or proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such courts and further irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the benefit of any defense that would hinder, fetter or delay the levy, execution or collection of any amount to which a party hereto is entitled pursuant to the final judgment of any court having jurisdiction.

Section 15. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one agreement.

Section 16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Plan (and the other writings referred to herein), and the Investor Rights Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersede all prior written or oral negotiations, commitments, representations and agreements with respect thereto.

Section 17. Severability. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, if any particular provision of this Agreement shall be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision, as to such jurisdiction, shall be ineffective, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such provision could be more narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, it shall, as to such jurisdiction, be so narrowly drawn, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 18. Enforcement. In the event the Company or the Optionee institutes litigation to enforce or protect its rights under this Agreement or the Plan, each party shall be solely responsible for all attorneys' fees, out-of-pocket costs and disbursements it incurs relating to such litigation.

Section 19. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent that it may legally and effectively do so, trial by jury in any suit, action or proceeding arising hereunder.

ANNEX I
DEFINITIONS

“Cash Consideration” means any consideration received by the Apollo Holders in respect of Shares in the form of cash, cash equivalents or Marketable Securities (including the Shares themselves to the extent they become Marketable Securities). Cash Consideration shall include any Non-Cash Consideration that is converted to or becomes cash, cash equivalents or Marketable Securities, and any Non-Cash Consideration that Apollo elects to treat as Cash Consideration pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

“Invested Capital” means, with respect to the Apollo Holders, the amount of money and the initial book value of any property contributed to the Company by the Apollo Holders in exchange for Shares.

“Marketable Securities” means shares of common stock of another entity or, following an initial public offering of Common Stock, Shares, in each case, that (i) are freely tradeable without violating any “lockup” agreements, other contractual restrictions, or federal, state, or local securities laws; and (ii) are listed on any of the New York Stock Exchange, Nasdaq Stock Market, or another United States or foreign traded public exchange reasonably acceptable to the Apollo. The value of Marketable Securities on any given Measurement Date shall be deemed to equal the volume weighted average trading price of such securities over the thirty (30) consecutive trading days immediately preceding such Measurement Date. For purposes of clause (i) above, Shares shall be treated as freely tradeable without violating any federal, state, or local securities laws if the Company is eligible to file a registration statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on Form S-3 (or any successor form) for an offering to be made on a continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (or any similar rule that may be adopted by the SEC) covering such Shares, and the Apollo Holders have the right to cause the Company to file such a registration statement covering such Shares.

“Measurement Date” means each date on which the Apollo Holders receive Cash Consideration. For so long as the Apollo Holders beneficially own Marketable Securities in the form of Shares, a Measurement Date shall occur on each trading day such Marketable Securities are so owned. In addition, if any portion of a Tranche B Option remains outstanding and unvested on the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date, and prior thereto the Apollo Holders received Non-Cash Consideration in connection with a Change in Control, the day before such tenth anniversary shall be deemed a Measurement Date, and all Non-Cash Consideration not previously taken into account as Cash Consideration shall be treated as Cash Consideration based on the fair value (as reasonably determined in good faith by the Apollo Holders) as of such day of any such Non-Cash Consideration.

“Non-Cash Consideration” means any consideration received by the Apollo Holders in respect of Shares that is not in the form of Cash Consideration, including any contingent right to receive Cash Consideration on or at a future date or time. In the event of a Change in Control involving the acquisition of less than 100% of the equity securities beneficially owned by the Apollo Holders, the equity securities of the Company that are retained by the Apollo Holders shall be treated as Non-Cash Consideration.

“MOIC” means as of each Measurement Date, the multiple equal to the ratio of (i) the amount of all Cash Consideration received on or prior to such Measurement Date, to (ii) the amount of all Invested Capital contributed on or prior to such Measurement Date.

NON-QUALIFIED STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of the Effective Date of the Employment Agreement (the "Grant Date"), by and among RACKSPACE TECHNOLOGY, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Kevin Jones (the "Optionee").

WHEREAS, the Company, acting through a Committee (as defined in the Company's Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan")), has granted to the Optionee, effective as of the date of this Agreement, an option under the Plan to purchase a number of shares of Common Stock (as defined in the Plan) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan; and

WHEREAS, the Optionee shall be employed with the Company pursuant to a written employment agreement ("Employment Agreement").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and of the mutual agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. The Plan. The terms and provisions of the Plan are hereby incorporated into this Agreement as if set forth herein in their entirety (including, without limitation, the provisions of Article V). In the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and the Plan, the provisions of the Plan shall control. A copy of the Plan may be obtained from the Company by the Optionee upon request. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Plan and in Annex I attached hereto.

Section 2. Option; Option Price. On the terms and subject to the conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the Optionee shall have the option (the "Option") to purchase Shares pursuant to the Tranche A option (the "Tranche A Option") and the Tranche B option (the "Tranche B Option"), at the price per Share (the "Option Price") and in the amounts set forth on the signature page hereto. Payment of the Option Price may be made in the manner specified by Section 5.9 of the Plan and as further described in Section 9 below. The Option is not intended to qualify for federal income tax purposes as an "incentive stock option" within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Option shall remain exercisable as to all Vested Options (as defined in Section 4) until the expiration of the Option Term (as defined in Section 3). Except as otherwise provided in Section 4 of this Agreement, upon a Termination of Relationship, the unvested portion of the Option (i.e., that portion that does not constitute Vested Options) shall terminate.

Section 3. Term. The term of the Option (the "Option Term") shall commence on the Grant Date and expire on the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date, unless the Option shall have been terminated sooner in accordance with the terms of the Plan (including, without limitation, Section 5.7 of the Plan) or this Agreement.

Section 4. Vesting. Subject to the Optionee's continued employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Subsidiaries through each applicable vesting date (except as otherwise provided in this Section 4), the Option shall become non-forfeitable (when the Option becomes non-forfeitable, a "Vested Option") and shall become exercisable according to the following provisions:

(a) Twenty percent (20%) of the Tranche A Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable on each of the first five (5) anniversaries of the Grant Date; provided, however, that:

(i) the entire Tranche A Option shall immediately become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable on the third (3rd) monthly anniversary of a Change in Control; provided, further, that if a Termination of Relationship occurs within three (3) months following a Change in Control as a result of (a) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause (as defined in the Optionee's Employment Agreement), (b) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability or (c) any resignation by the Optionee for Good Reason (as defined below), the entire Tranche A Option shall immediately become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of the date of such Termination of Relationship and shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a), and

(ii) if a Termination of Relationship occurs at any time prior to a Change in Control as a result of (A) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause, (B) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability or (C) any resignation by the Optionee for Good Reason, (1) the installment of the Tranche A Option scheduled to vest on the anniversary of the Grant Date next following such Termination of Relationship (if any) shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of the date of such Termination of Relationship and shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a) with respect to the number of Option Shares equal to 20% of the Tranche A Option, multiplied by a fraction, (x) the numerator of which is equal to the number of calendar days that have elapsed since the last anniversary of the Grant Date prior to the date of the Termination of Relationship or, if no such anniversary date has yet occurred, the Grant Date, and (y) the denominator of which is equal to 365, and (2) if a Change in Control occurs within 90 days following such Termination of Relationship, the entire Tranche A Option shall immediately become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of immediately prior to the occurrence of such Change in Control (notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4(a)(i)) and such Vested Option shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a) as if the Termination of the Relationship occurred on the date of the Change in Control.

(b) The Tranche B Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as follows:

(i) Fifty percent (50%) of the Tranche B Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable upon any Measurement Date if Apollo has achieved a MOIC of at least one and three-quarters (1.75) as calculated by the Committee; and

(ii) Up to fifty percent (50%) of the Tranche B Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable upon any Measurement Date if Apollo has achieved a MOIC of greater than one and three-quarters (1.75) and up to two and one-quarter (2.25), determined based on linear interpolation between such MOIC achievement levels as calculated by the Committee.

If a Termination of Relationship occurs (x) prior to the occurrence of a Change in Control and (y) as a result of (A) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause, (B) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability or (C) any resignation by the Optionee for Good Reason, the unvested portion of the Tranche B Option (if any) shall remain outstanding and eligible to become a Vested Option during the 90 day period following such Termination of Relationship upon achievement of the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b) (after giving effect to Section 4(c)(i), if applicable) during such 90 day period, and any such portion that becomes a Vested Option shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a) as if the Termination of Relationship occurred on the date of vesting; provided, that any portion of the Tranche B Option which remains unvested as of (I) the end of such 90 day period, or, (II) if earlier, after giving effect to the application of Section 4(c)(i) to the extent a Change in Control occurs and Apollo elects to give effect to Section 4(c)(i), shall be immediately forfeited; provided, further, that if a Change in Control occurs during such 90 day period and Apollo does not elect to give effect to Section 4(c)(i), any unvested portion of the Tranche B Option shall remain outstanding and the provisions of Section 4(b)(2) below (and not the provisions of Section 4(c)(ii)) will apply to such unvested portion of the Tranche B Option.

If a Termination of Relationship occurs (a) following the occurrence of a Change in Control in which Apollo elected to give effect to Section 4(c)(ii) and (b) as a result of (x) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause, (y) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability or (z) any resignation by the Optionee for Good Reason, then Apollo shall elect one of the following two alternatives:

(1) The term Measurement Date shall be deemed amended to also mean the date of such Termination of Relationship, and the fair value (as reasonably determined in good faith by the Apollo Holders) as of the date of such termination of any Non-Cash Consideration received by the Apollo Holders upon or prior to such Measurement Date (that has not previously become, or been treated as, Cash Consideration) shall be treated as Cash Consideration. Any portion of the Tranche B Option which does not become a Vested Option upon the occurrence of such Termination of Relationship, in accordance with the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b) (after giving effect to this Section 4(b)(1)), shall be immediately forfeited. Any portion of the Tranche B Option that becomes a Vested Option in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(b)(1) shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a); or

(2) The unvested portion of the Tranche B Option (if any) as of the date of such Termination of Relationship shall remain outstanding and eligible to become a Vested Option upon any future Measurement Date, in accordance with the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b), until the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date or, if earlier, the date on which the Tranche B Option terminates pursuant to this Agreement or the Plan for any reason other than set forth in Section 8(a)(ii) or 8(a)(iii). Any portion of the Tranche B Option that becomes a Vested Option in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(b)(2) shall automatically terminate without consideration and shall become null and void and be of no further force and effect upon the earliest of (A) the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date, (B) the date of the Termination of Relationship of the Optionee for Cause and (C) the 90th day following the date that the applicable unvested portion of the Tranche B Option becomes a Vested Option.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a Change in Control with respect to which the Apollo Holders receive any Non-Cash Consideration in lieu of, or in addition to, Cash Consideration, Apollo shall elect one of the following two alternatives:

(i) The term Measurement Date shall be deemed amended to also mean the date of such Change in Control, and the fair value (as reasonably determined in good faith by the Apollo Holders) as of the date of such Change in Control of any such Non-Cash Consideration shall be treated as Cash Consideration. Any portion of the Tranche B Option which does not become a Vested Option upon the occurrence of such Change in Control, in accordance with the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b) (after giving effect to this Section 4(c)(i)), shall be immediately forfeited. Any portion of the Tranche B Option that becomes a Vested Option in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(c)(i) shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a); or

(ii) Any portion of the Tranche B Option which does not become a Vested Option upon the occurrence of such Change in Control shall remain outstanding and eligible to become a Vested Option upon any future Measurement Date in accordance with the performance criteria set forth in Section 4(b), until the Tranche B Option terminates pursuant to this Agreement or the Plan (including, without limitation, in connection with a Termination of Relationship pursuant to Section 8(a)). Any portion of the Tranche B Option that becomes a Vested Option in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Section 4(c)(ii) shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a).

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in this Section 4, the Option shall cease vesting as of the date of the Optionee's Termination of Relationship with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason and no portion of the Option that is not a Vested Option as of such time shall become a Vested Option thereafter (i.e., the portion of the Option that is not a Vested Option shall be forfeited immediately); provided, that, in the event that the Optionee experiences a Termination of Relationship for Cause, all Options then held by the Optionee (whether vested or unvested) shall immediately be forfeited.

(e) "Good Reason," when used in connection with the Termination of Relationship of the Optionee, shall have the same meaning ascribed to such term in the Optionee's Employment Agreement.

Section 5. Restrictive Covenants. The Optionee acknowledges and agrees that by accepting the Options issued hereunder, the Optionee shall be bound by, and shall abide by, the covenants set forth in this Section 5, in addition to any other representations, warranties, and covenants set forth in (but subject to any exceptions set forth in) any Service Agreement or other document required by the Committee with respect to such grant.

(a) Non-Solicitation; No Hire. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Optionee agrees that during the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the eighteen (18) month period following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Optionee will not, directly or indirectly, on the Optionee's own behalf or on behalf of another (i) solicit, induce or attempt to solicit or induce any officer, director or employee of the Company Group to terminate their relationship with or leave the employ of the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any member of the Company Group, on the one hand, and any officer, director or employee thereof, on the other hand, (ii) hire (or other similar arrangement) any Person (in any capacity whether as an officer, director, employee or consultant) who is or at any time was an officer, director or employee of the Company Group until six (6) months after such individual's relationship (whether as an officer, director or employee) with the Company Group has ended, or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing business with the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or business relation, on the one hand, and the Company Group, on the other hand.

(b) Non-Competition. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Optionee agrees that during the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Optionee will not, directly or indirectly, have any equity or equity-based interest, or work or otherwise provide services as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, partner, director or otherwise, in any business anywhere in the world that sells hosting and information technology services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company Group, namely (i) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared or virtual) and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet, (ii) hosted email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking and similar services, and (iii) all similar related services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding interest in such business.

(c) Nondisclosure of Confidential Information; Return of Property. The Optionee recognizes and acknowledges that he has access to the confidential information and/or has had material contact with the Company Group's customers, suppliers, licensees, representatives, agents, partners, licensors, or business relations. The Optionee agrees that at any time during or after such time as the Optionee is a Participant in the Plan, the Optionee shall maintain in confidence and shall not directly, indirectly or otherwise, use, disseminate, disclose or publish, or use for the Optionee's benefit or the benefit of any Person, any confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets of or relating to the Company Group, including, without limitation, information with respect to the Company Group's operations, processes, products, inventions, business practices, finances, principals, vendors, suppliers, customers, potential customers, marketing methods, costs, prices, contractual relationships, regulatory status, compensation paid to employees or other terms of employment, or deliver to any Person any document, record, notebook, computer program or similar repository of or containing any such confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets. Upon the Optionee's termination of employment for any reason, the Optionee shall promptly deliver to the Company (with the cost of shipping reimbursed by the Company) all correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the Company Group's customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products or processes. The Optionee may respond to a lawful and valid subpoena or other legal process but shall give the Company Group the earliest possible notice thereof, shall, as much in advance of the return date as possible, make available to the Company Group and its counsel the documents and other information sought and, if requested by the Company Group, shall reasonably assist such counsel in resisting or otherwise responding to such process.

(d) Non-Disparagement. The Optionee shall not, at any time, directly or indirectly, knowingly disparage, criticize, or otherwise make derogatory statements regarding the Company Group, or any of its successors, directors or officers. The foregoing shall not be violated by the Optionee's truthful responses to legal process or inquiry by a governmental authority.

(e) Intellectual Property Rights.

(i) The Optionee agrees that the results and proceeds of the Optionee's services for the Company Group (including, but not limited to, any trade secrets, products, services, processes, know-how, designs, developments, innovations, analyses, drawings, reports, techniques, formulas, methods, developmental or experimental work, improvements, discoveries, inventions, ideas, source and object codes, programs, matters of a literary, musical, dramatic or otherwise creative nature, writings and other works of authorship) resulting from services performed for the Company Group and any works in progress, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar statutes, that were made, developed, conceived or reduced to practice or learned by the Optionee, either alone or jointly with others (collectively, "Inventions"), shall be works-made-for-hire and the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company Group) shall be deemed the sole owner throughout the universe of any and all trade secret, patent, copyright and other intellectual property rights (collectively, "Proprietary Rights") of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, with the right to use the same in perpetuity in any manner the Company determines in its sole discretion, without any further payment to the Optionee whatsoever. If, for any reason, any of such results and proceeds shall not legally be a work-made-for-hire and/or there are any Proprietary Rights which do not accrue to the Company Group under the immediately preceding sentence, then the Optionee hereby irrevocably assigns and agrees to assign any and all of the Optionee's right, title and interest thereto, including, without limitation, any and all Proprietary Rights of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, to the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates), and the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates shall have the right to use the same in perpetuity throughout the universe in any manner determined by the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates without any further payment to the Optionee whatsoever. As to any Invention that the Optionee is required to assign, the Optionee shall promptly and fully disclose to the Company all information known to the Optionee concerning such Invention. The Optionee hereby waives and quitclaims to the Company Group any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, that the Optionee now or may hereafter have for infringement of any Proprietary Rights assigned hereunder to the Company Group.

(ii) The Optionee agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Optionee shall do any and all things that the Company may reasonably deem useful or desirable to establish or document the Company Group's exclusive ownership throughout the United States of America or any other country of any and all Proprietary Rights in any such Inventions, including, without limitation, the execution of appropriate copyright and/or patent applications or assignments. To the extent the Optionee has any Proprietary Rights in the Inventions that cannot be assigned in the manner described above, the Optionee unconditionally and irrevocably waives the enforcement of such Proprietary Rights. This Section 5(e) is subject to and shall not be deemed to limit, restrict or constitute any waiver by the Company Group of any Proprietary Rights of ownership to which the Company Group may be entitled by operation of law by virtue of the Optionee's employment with, or service to, the Company Group. The Optionee further agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Optionee shall assist the Company Group in every proper and lawful way to obtain and from time to time enforce Proprietary Rights relating to Inventions in any and all countries. To this end, the Optionee shall execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other acts (including appearances as a witness) as the Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining, and enforcing such Proprietary Rights and the assignment thereof. In addition, the Optionee shall execute, verify, and deliver assignments of such Proprietary Rights to the Company or its designees. The Optionee's obligation to assist the Company Group with respect to Proprietary Rights relating to such Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the Optionee's Termination of Relationship.

(f) Restrictive Covenants Generally. If, at the time of enforcement of the covenants contained in this Section 5 (the "Restrictive Covenants"), a court shall hold that the duration, scope or area restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties agree that the maximum duration, scope or area reasonable under such circumstances shall be substituted for the stated duration, scope or area and that the court shall be allowed and directed to revise the restrictions contained herein to cover the maximum period, scope and area permitted by applicable law. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that the Restrictive Covenants are reasonable in terms of duration, scope and area restrictions and are necessary to protect the goodwill of the Company Group. The Optionee further acknowledges and agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are being agreed to by the Optionee in connection with the Company's issuance of an Award to the Optionee under the Plan, and are in addition to, not in substitution for, any restrictive covenants to which the Optionee is or may become subject in connection with any relationship with the Company Group.

(g) Enforcement. If the Optionee breaches, or threatens to commit a breach of, any of the Restrictive Covenants, the Company Group shall have the following rights and remedies, each of which rights and remedies shall be independent of the others and severally enforceable, and each of which is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to the Company Group at law or in equity: (i) the right and remedy to seek to have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction (without posting a bond), it being agreed that any breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants would cause irreparable injury to the Company Group and that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy to the Company Group; and (ii) the right and remedy to require the Optionee to account for and pay over to the Company any profits, monies, accruals, increments or other benefits derived or received by the Optionee as the result of any transactions constituting a breach of the Restrictive Covenants. In the event of any breach or violation by the Optionee of any of the Restrictive Covenants, the time period of such covenant with respect to the Optionee shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be tolled until such breach or violation is resolved.

Section 6. Restriction on Transfer. Except for transfers to an Affiliate (determined as if the Optionee were a Holder, as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) for estate planning purposes, the Option may not be transferred, pledged, assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of in any way by the Optionee and may be exercised during the lifetime of the Optionee only by the Optionee. If the Optionee dies, the Option shall thereafter be exercisable, during the period specified in Section 8 of this Agreement, by his executors or administrators to the full extent to which the Option was exercisable by the Optionee at the time of his death. The Option shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar process. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of the Option contrary to the provisions hereof, and the levy of any execution, attachment or similar process upon the Option, shall be null and void and without effect. Upon the exercise of an Option, to the extent such Optionee is not then a party to the Investor Rights Agreement, the Optionee shall deliver to the Company an Adoption Agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Committee, pursuant to which the Optionee agrees to become a party to the Investor Rights Agreement. The Company agrees that the Optionee shall be treated as an Other Shares Holder under Section 10.1 of the Investor Rights Agreement with respect to the Shares acquired upon exercise of the Option.

Section 7. Optionee's Employment or Other Service Relationship. Nothing in the Option shall confer upon the Optionee any right to continue the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its Affiliates or stockholders, as the case may be, to terminate the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Affiliates or to increase or decrease the Optionee's compensation at any time. The grant of the Option is a one-time benefit and does not create any contractual or other right to receive any other grant of other Awards under the Plan in the future. The grant of the Option does not form part of the Optionee's entitlement to remuneration or benefits in terms of his employment or other service relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary.

Section 8. Termination.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 4(b)(2), following a Termination of Relationship, the Option shall automatically terminate without consideration and shall become null and void and be of no further force and effect upon the earliest of:

- (i) The tenth anniversary of the Grant Date;
- (ii) The first anniversary of any Termination of Relationship of the Optionee due to the Optionee's death or by the Company due to the Optionee's Disability;
- (iii) The 90th day following any Termination of Relationship of the Optionee due to the Optionee's resignation for any reason or the Optionee's Termination of Relationship without Cause;

(iv) The date of the Termination of Relationship of the Optionee for Cause.

(b) Option Shares acquired upon the exercise of Vested Options may be repurchased pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement.

(c) For purposes of Section 8(b), the Investor Rights Agreement shall be modified as follows:

Within ten (10) days following receipt of a Repurchase Notice (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement), the Optionee (including for all purposes hereof the representative of the Optionee's estate) may by written notice to the Company require that Fair Market Value of the Common Stock (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) be determined by an appraisal performed by a qualified independent appraiser, selected by mutual agreement of the Company and the Optionee, and the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as determined by such appraisal shall be binding on both parties. If the parties are unable to agree on an appraiser within thirty (30) days of the Optionee's notice to the Company, then within seven (7) days, each party shall submit the names of four nationally-recognized firms that are engaged in the business of valuing non-public securities, and each party shall be entitled to strike two names from the other party's list of firms, and the appraiser shall be selected by lot from the remaining four appraisal firms. If the Optionee does not comply with the Optionee's obligations in this Section 8(c) regarding the selection and appointment of the appraiser, the Optionee shall be deemed to have agreed to the Board's determination of Fair Market Value of the Common Stock notwithstanding the Optionee's disagreement therewith. The Company shall initially pay for the cost of the appraisal; provided, however, that if the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as determined by the appraisal does not exceed the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as initially determined by the Company by at least ten percent (10%), the cost of the appraisal shall be borne by the Optionee and such cost shall be recovered from an offset and reduction from the purchase price paid to the Optionee.

Section 9. Payment of Option Price. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Optionee may, following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship as a result of (i) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause, (ii) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability or (iii) any resignation by the Optionee for Good Reason, or at any other time with the consent of the Committee, pay for the exercise of a Vested Option by instructing the Company to withhold from the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised a number of Shares having, as of the date of such exercise, a Fair Market Value of the Common Stock (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement, and subject to the appraisal rights as described in Section 8(c)) equal to the aggregate Option Price of the Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised. As a condition to exercise of the Option, the Optionee shall remit a cash amount sufficient to satisfy all federal, state, local and foreign withholding tax and employment tax requirements in connection with exercise of the Option (the "Optionee Tax Obligation") so that the Company may satisfy its tax withholding obligations; provided, however, that the Optionee may, following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship as a result of (i) a termination of the Optionee's employment or other service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause, (ii) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability or (iii) any resignation by the Optionee for Good Reason, or at any other time with the consent of the Committee, instruct the Company to withhold from the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised a number of Shares having, as of the date of such exercise, a Fair Market Value of the Common Stock (subject to the appraisal rights as described in Section 8(c)) equal to the Optionee Tax Obligation so that the Company may satisfy its tax withholding obligations.

Section 10. Notices.

(a) The Optionee shall be entitled to receive notice of an event that would entitle the Optionee to notice under the Investor Rights Agreement were the Optionee a holder of the Option Shares in sufficient time to afford the Optionee with an opportunity to exercise a Vested Option (or the unvested portion of the Option that would become a Vested Option upon such event) in advance of such event.

(b) All notices, claims, certificates, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and delivered if personally delivered or if sent by nationally recognized overnight courier, by facsimile, or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Company, to it at its current executive offices.

If to the Optionee, to him at the address set forth on the signature page hereto or to such other address as the party to whom notice is to be given may have furnished to the other party in writing in accordance herewith. Any such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been received (a) in the case of personal delivery, on the date of such delivery (or if such date is not a business day, on the next business day after the date of delivery), (b) in the case of nationally recognized overnight courier, on the next business day after the date sent, (c) in the case of facsimile transmission, when received (or if not sent on a business day, on the next business day after the date sent), and (d) in the case of mailing, on the third business day following that on which the piece of mail containing such communication is posted.

Section 11. Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement must be in writing and shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

Section 12. Optionee's Undertaking. The Optionee hereby agrees to take whatever additional actions and execute whatever additional documents the Company may in its reasonable judgment deem necessary or advisable in order to carry out or effect one or more of the obligations or restrictions imposed on the Optionee pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement and the Plan.

Section 13. Modification of Rights. The rights of the Optionee are subject to modification and termination in certain events as provided in this Agreement and the Plan (with respect to the Options granted hereby). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee's rights under this Agreement, the Employment Agreement or the Plan may not be impaired without the Optionee's consent.

Section 14. Governing Law.

(a) NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED IN ANY SERVICE AGREEMENT, THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICTING PROVISION OR RULE (WHETHER OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION) THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF DELAWARE TO BE APPLIED. IN FURTHERANCE OF THE FOREGOING, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WILL CONTROL THE INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF UNDER SUCH JURISDICTION'S CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW ANALYSIS, THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW OF SOME OTHER JURISDICTION WOULD ORDINARILY APPLY.

(b) Intentionally Omitted.

Section 15. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one agreement.

Section 16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Optionee's Employment Agreement, the Plan (and the other writings referred to herein), and the Investor Rights Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersede all prior written or oral negotiations, commitments, representations and agreements with respect thereto.

Section 17. Severability. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, if any particular provision of this Agreement shall be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision, as to such jurisdiction, shall be ineffective, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such provision could be more narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, it shall, as to such jurisdiction, be so narrowly drawn, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 18. Enforcement. In the event the Company or the Optionee institutes litigation to enforce or protect its rights under this Agreement or the Plan, each party shall be solely responsible for all attorneys' fees, out-of-pocket costs and disbursements it incurs relating to such litigation.

Section 19. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent that it may legally and effectively do so, trial by jury in any suit, action or proceeding arising hereunder.

ANNEX I
DEFINITIONS

“Cash Consideration” means any consideration received by the Apollo Holders in respect of Shares in the form of cash, cash equivalents or Marketable Securities (including the Shares themselves to the extent they become Marketable Securities). Cash Consideration shall include any Non-Cash Consideration that is converted to or becomes cash, cash equivalents or Marketable Securities, and any Non-Cash Consideration that Apollo elects to treat as Cash Consideration pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

“Invested Capital” means, with respect to the Apollo Holders, the amount of money and the initial book value of any property contributed to the Company by the Apollo Holders in exchange for Shares.

“Marketable Securities” means shares of common stock of another entity or, following an initial public offering of Common Stock, Shares, in each case, that (i) are freely tradeable without violating any “lockup” agreements, other contractual restrictions, or federal, state, or local securities laws; and (ii) are listed on any of the New York Stock Exchange, Nasdaq Stock Market, or another United States or foreign traded public exchange reasonably acceptable to the Apollo. The value of Marketable Securities on any given Measurement Date shall be deemed to equal the volume weighted average trading price of such securities over the thirty (30) consecutive trading days immediately preceding such Measurement Date. For purposes of clause (i) above, Shares shall be treated as freely tradeable without violating any federal, state, or local securities laws if the Company is eligible to file a registration statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on Form S-3 (or any successor form) for an offering to be made on a continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (or any similar rule that may be adopted by the SEC) covering such Shares, and the Apollo Holders have the right to cause the Company to file such a registration statement covering such Shares.

“Measurement Date” means each date on which the Apollo Holders receive Cash Consideration. For so long as the Apollo Holders beneficially own Marketable Securities in the form of Shares, a Measurement Date shall occur on each trading day such Marketable Securities are so owned. In addition, if any portion of a Tranche B Option remains outstanding and unvested on the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date, and prior thereto the Apollo Holders received Non-Cash Consideration in connection with a Change in Control, the day before such tenth anniversary shall be deemed a Measurement Date, and all Non-Cash Consideration not previously taken into account as Cash Consideration shall be treated as Cash Consideration based on the fair value (as reasonably determined in good faith by the Apollo Holders) as of such day of any such Non-Cash Consideration.

“Non-Cash Consideration” means any consideration received by the Apollo Holders in respect of Shares that is not in the form of Cash Consideration, including any contingent right to receive Cash Consideration on or at a future date or time. In the event of a Change in Control involving the acquisition of less than 100% of the equity securities beneficially owned by the Apollo Holders, the equity securities of the Company that are retained by the Apollo Holders shall be treated as Non-Cash Consideration.

“MOIC” means as of each Measurement Date, the multiple equal to the ratio of (i) the amount of all Cash Consideration received on or prior to such Measurement Date, to (ii) the amount of all Invested Capital contributed on or prior to such Measurement Date.

SERVICE-BASED RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of the Effective Date of the Employment Agreement (the "Grant Date"), by and among RACKSPACE TECHNOLOGY, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Kevin Jones (the "Grantee").

WHEREAS, the Company, acting through a Committee (as defined in the Company's Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan")), has granted to the Grantee, effective as of the date of this Agreement, an award of Restricted Stock Units (the "RSUs") under the Plan in respect of shares of Common Stock (as defined in the Plan) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan.

WHEREAS, the Grantee shall be employed with the Company pursuant to a written employment agreement ("Employment Agreement").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and of the mutual agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. The Plan. The terms and provisions of the Plan are hereby incorporated into this Agreement as if set forth herein in their entirety (including, without limitation, the provisions of Article VII). In the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and the Plan, the provisions of the Plan shall control. A copy of the Plan may be obtained from the Company by the Grantee upon request. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Plan.

Section 2. Grant of RSUs. On the terms and subject to the conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the Company hereby grants to the Grantee RSUs in the amount set forth on the signature page hereto. The RSUs shall be credited to a book entry account maintained for the Grantee on the books of the Company. Upon a Termination of Relationship due to the Grantee's resignation without Good Reason (as defined below), the unvested portion of the RSUs (i.e., that portion that does not constitute Vested RSUs) shall terminate.

Section 3. Vesting. Subject to the Grantee's continued employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Subsidiaries through each applicable vesting date (except as otherwise provided in this Section 3), all RSUs shall become non-forfeitable (when a RSU becomes non-forfeitable, a "Vested RSU") according to the following provisions:

- (a) One-third (1/3) of the RSUs shall become Vested RSUs on each of the first three (3) anniversaries of the Grant Date; provided, however, that:
- (i) all of the RSUs shall immediately become Vested RSUs on the third (3rd) monthly anniversary of a Change in Control; and
 - (ii) if a Termination of Relationship occurs at any time other than by the Grantee without Good Reason, all of the RSUs shall immediately become Vested RSUs as of the date of such Termination of Relationship.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the RSUs shall cease vesting as of the date of the Grantee's Termination of Relationship with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries due to a resignation by the Grantee without Good Reason and no portion of the RSUs that are not Vested RSUs as of such time shall become Vested RSUs thereafter (i.e., the portion of the RSUs that are not Vested RSUs shall be forfeited immediately).

(c) "Good Reason" when used in connection with the Termination of Relationship of the Grantee, shall have the same meaning ascribed to such term in the Grantee's Employment Agreement.

Section 4. Settlement; Investor Rights Agreement. Each Vested RSU shall be settled as promptly as reasonably practicable following the applicable vesting date (but in any event by March 15 of the year following the year in which such applicable vesting date occurs). As a condition to the delivery of all or any portion of the Shares underlying the RSUs, the Grantee shall be required to become a party to the Investor Rights Agreement and agree to be bound by the terms thereof. The Grantee acknowledges being provided with a copy of the Investor Rights Agreement.

Section 5. Restrictive Covenants. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that by accepting the RSUs issued hereunder, the Grantee remains bound by, and shall abide by, the covenants set forth in Section 5 of that certain Non-Qualified Stock Option Agreement, dated as of the date hereof, in addition to any other representations, warranties, and covenants set forth in (but subject to any exceptions set forth in) any Service Agreement or other document required by the Committee with respect to such grant.

Section 6. Restriction on Transfer. Except for transfers to an Affiliate (determined as if the Grantee were a Holder, as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) for estate planning purposes, the RSUs may not be transferred, pledged, assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of in any way by the Grantee. The RSUs shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar process. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of the RSUs contrary to the provisions hereof, and the levy of any execution, attachment or similar process upon the RSUs, shall be null and void and without effect. The Company agrees that the Grantee shall be treated as an Other Shares Holder under Section 10.1 of the Investor Rights Agreement with respect to the Shares acquired upon settlement of the RSUs.

Section 7. Grantee's Employment or Other Service Relationship. Nothing in the RSUs shall confer upon the Grantee any right to continue the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its Affiliates or stockholders, as the case may be, to terminate the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Affiliates or to increase or decrease the Grantee's compensation at any time. The grant of the RSUs is a one-time benefit and does not create any contractual or other right to receive any other grant of other Awards under the Plan in the future. The grant of the RSUs does not form part of the Grantee's entitlement to remuneration or benefits in terms of his or her employment or other service relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary.

Section 8. Repurchase. Shares acquired upon the settlement of Vested RSUs may be repurchased pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement.

For purposes of this Section 8, the Investor Rights Agreement shall be modified as follows:

Within ten (10) days following receipt of a Repurchase Notice (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement), the Grantee (including for all purposes hereof the representative of the Grantee's estate) may by written notice to the Company require that Fair Market Value of the Common Stock (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) be determined by an appraisal performed by a qualified independent appraiser, selected by mutual agreement of the Company and the Grantee, and the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as determined by such appraisal shall be binding on both parties. If the parties are unable to agree on an appraiser within thirty (30) days of the Grantee's notice to the Company, then within seven (7) days, each party shall submit the names of four nationally-recognized firms that are engaged in the business of valuing non-public securities, and each party shall be entitled to strike two names from the other party's list of firms, and the appraiser shall be selected by lot from the remaining four appraisal firms. If the Grantee does not comply with the Grantee's obligations in this Section 8 regarding the selection and appointment of the appraiser, the Grantee shall be deemed to have agreed to the Board's determination of Fair Market Value of the Common Stock notwithstanding the Grantee's disagreement therewith. The Company shall initially pay for the cost of the appraisal; provided, however, that if the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as determined by the appraisal does not exceed the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as initially determined by the Company by at least ten percent (10%), the cost of the appraisal shall be borne by the Grantee and such cost shall be recovered from an offset and reduction from the purchase price paid to the Grantee.

Section 9. Taxes. Settlement of the RSUs shall be subject to the Grantee satisfying all applicable U.S. federal, state and local income tax withholding obligations and non-U.S. tax obligations, and none of the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold the Grantee (or any beneficiary) harmless from any or all of such taxes. The Company shall have the right and is hereby authorized to deduct from any amounts payable to the Grantee in connection with the RSUs or otherwise the amount of any applicable taxes, and the Company may take any such other action as it or the Committee deems necessary to satisfy all obligations for the payment of such taxes. In addition, the Grantee shall have the right to require the Company to deduct and withhold from the Shares otherwise distributable upon the settlement of RSUs, in satisfaction of all such tax obligations, a number of Shares with a value equal to the amount deemed necessary by the Committee to satisfy all such tax obligations.

Section 10. Notices. All notices, claims, certificates, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and delivered if personally delivered or if sent by nationally recognized overnight courier, by facsimile, or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

PERFORMANCE-BASED RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”), dated as of the Effective Date of the Employment Agreement (the “Grant Date”), by and among RACKSPACE TECHNOLOGY, INC., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), and Kevin Jones (the “Grantee”).

WHEREAS, the Company, acting through a Committee (as defined in the Company’s Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”), has granted to the Grantee, effective as of the date of this Agreement, an award of Restricted Stock Units (the “RSUs”) under the Plan in respect of shares of Common Stock (as defined in the Plan) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan; and

WHEREAS, the Grantee shall be employed with the Company pursuant to a written employment agreement (“Employment Agreement”).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and of the mutual agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. The Plan. The terms and provisions of the Plan are hereby incorporated into this Agreement as if set forth herein in their entirety (including, without limitation, the provisions of Article VII). In the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and the Plan, the provisions of the Plan shall control. A copy of the Plan may be obtained from the Company by the Grantee upon request. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Plan and in Annex I attached hereto.

Section 2. Grant of RSUs. On the terms and subject to the conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the Company hereby grants to the Grantee RSUs in the amount set forth in Annex I attached hereto. The RSUs shall be credited to a book entry account maintained for the Grantee on the books of the Company. Except as otherwise provided in Section 3 of this Agreement, upon a Termination of Relationship, the unvested portion of the RSUs (i.e., that portion that does not constitute Vested RSUs) shall terminate.

Section 3. Vesting.

(a) Subject to the Grantee’s continued employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Subsidiaries through March 31, 2022, a number of RSUs shall become non-forfeitable (when a RSU becomes non-forfeitable, a “Vested RSU”) as of the Determination Date according to the provisions set forth on Annex I attached hereto.

(b) If a Termination of Relationship occurs after March 31, 2022, but prior to the Determination Date, the RSUs shall remain eligible to become Vested RSUs in accordance with Annex I as of the Determination Date. To the extent the RSUs do not become Vested RSUs in accordance with the preceding sentence, the RSUs shall terminate and become null and void as of the Determination Date.

(c) If a Change in Control occurs prior to March 31, 2022, the Committee shall determine the number of Vested RSUs based on the special rules set forth on Annex I (the “Vested CIC RSUs”), subject to the Grantee’s continued employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Subsidiaries through the consummation of such Change in Control. Following the occurrence of a Change in Control, any RSUs (other than the Vested CIC RSUs) shall immediately be forfeited.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 3, the RSUs shall cease vesting as of the date of the Grantee's Termination of Relationship with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason and no portion of the RSUs that are not Vested RSUs as of such time shall become Vested RSUs thereafter (i.e., the portion of the RSUs that are not Vested RSUs shall be forfeited immediately); provided, that, in the event that the Grantee experiences a Termination of Relationship for Cause (as defined in the Grantee's Employment Agreement), all RSUs then held by the Grantee (whether vested or unvested) shall immediately be forfeited.

Section 4. Settlement; Investor Rights Agreement. Each Vested RSU shall be settled as promptly as reasonably practicable following the Determination Date (but in any event by March 15 of the year following the year in which such Determination Date occurs). As a condition to the delivery of all or any portion of the Shares underlying the RSUs, the Grantee shall be required to become a party to the Investor Rights Agreement and agree to be bound by the terms thereof. The Grantee acknowledges being provided with a copy of the Investor Rights Agreement.

Section 5. Restrictive Covenants. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that by accepting the RSUs issued hereunder, the Grantee remains bound by, and shall abide by, the covenants set forth in Section 5 of that certain Non-Qualified Stock Option Agreement, dated as of the date hereof, in addition to any other representations, warranties, and covenants set forth in (but subject to any exceptions set forth in) any Service Agreement or other document required by the Committee with respect to such grant.

Section 6. Restriction on Transfer. Except for transfers to an Affiliate (determined as if the Grantee were a Holder, as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) for estate planning purposes, the RSUs may not be transferred, pledged, assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of in any way by the Grantee. The RSUs shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar process. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of the RSUs contrary to the provisions hereof, and the levy of any execution, attachment or similar process upon the RSUs, shall be null and void and without effect. The Company agrees that the Grantee shall be treated as an Other Shares Holder under Section 10.1 of the Investor Rights Agreement with respect to the Shares acquired upon settlement of the RSUs.

Section 7. Grantee's Employment or Other Service Relationship. Nothing in the RSUs shall confer upon the Grantee any right to continue the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its Affiliates or stockholders, as the case may be, to terminate the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Affiliates or to increase or decrease the Grantee's compensation at any time. The grant of the RSUs is a one-time benefit and does not create any contractual or other right to receive any other grant of other Awards under the Plan in the future. The grant of the RSUs does not form part of the Grantee's entitlement to remuneration or benefits in terms of his employment or other service relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary.

Section 8. Repurchase. Shares acquired upon the settlement of Vested RSUs may be repurchased pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement.

For purposes of this Section 8, the Investor Rights Agreement shall be modified as follows:

Within ten (10) days following receipt of a Repurchase Notice (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement), the Grantee (including for all purposes hereof the representative of the Grantee's estate) may by written notice to the Company require that Fair Market Value of the Common Stock (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) be determined by an appraisal performed by a qualified independent appraiser, selected by mutual agreement of the Company and the Grantee, and the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as determined by such appraisal shall be binding on both parties. If the parties are unable to agree on an appraiser within thirty (30) days of the Grantee's notice to the Company, then within seven (7) days, each party shall submit the names of four nationally-recognized firms that are engaged in the business of valuing non-public securities, and each party shall be entitled to strike two names from the other party's list of firms, and the appraiser shall be selected by lot from the remaining four appraisal firms. If the Grantee does not comply with the Grantee's obligations in this Section 8 regarding the selection and appointment of the appraiser, the Grantee shall be deemed to have agreed to the Board's determination of Fair Market Value of the Common Stock notwithstanding the Grantee's disagreement therewith. The Company shall initially pay for the cost of the appraisal; provided, however, that if the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as determined by the appraisal does not exceed the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock as initially determined by the Company by at least ten percent (10%), the cost of the appraisal shall be borne by the Grantee and such cost shall be recovered from an offset and reduction from the purchase price paid to the Grantee.

Section 9. Taxes. Settlement of the RSUs shall be subject to the Grantee satisfying all applicable U.S. federal, state and local income tax withholding obligations and non-U.S. tax obligations, and none of the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold the Grantee (or any beneficiary) harmless from any or all of such taxes. The Company shall have the right and is hereby authorized to deduct from any amounts payable to the Grantee in connection with the RSUs or otherwise the amount of any applicable taxes, and the Company may take any such other action as it or the Committee deems necessary to satisfy all obligations for the payment of such taxes. In addition, the Grantee shall have the right to require the Company to deduct and withhold from the Shares otherwise distributable upon the settlement of RSUs, in satisfaction of all such tax obligations, a number of Shares with a value equal to the amount deemed necessary by the Committee to satisfy all such tax obligations.

Section 10. Notices. All notices, claims, certificates, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and delivered if personally delivered or if sent by nationally recognized overnight courier, by facsimile, or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Company, to it at its current executive offices.

If to the Grantee, to him or her at the address set forth on the signature page hereto or to such other address as the party to whom notice is to be given may have furnished to the other party in writing in accordance herewith. Any such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been received (a) in the case of personal delivery, on the date of such delivery (or if such date is not a business day, on the next business day after the date of delivery), (b) in the case of nationally recognized overnight courier, on the next business day after the date sent, (c) in the case of facsimile transmission, when received (or if not sent on a business day, on the next business day after the date sent) and (d) in the case of mailing, on the third business day following that on which the piece of mail containing such communication is posted.

Section 11. Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement must be in writing and shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

Section 12. Grantee's Undertaking. The Grantee hereby agrees to take whatever additional actions and execute whatever additional documents the Company may in its reasonable judgment deem necessary or advisable in order to carry out or effect one or more of the obligations or restrictions imposed on the Grantee pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement and the Plan.

Section 13. Modification of Rights. The rights of the Grantee are subject to modification and termination in certain events as provided in this Agreement and the Plan (with respect to the RSUs granted hereby). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee's rights under this Agreement, his Employment Agreement or the Plan may not be impaired without the Grantee's consent.

Section 14. Governing Law.

(a) NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED IN ANY SERVICE AGREEMENT, THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICTING PROVISION OR RULE (WHETHER OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION) THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF DELAWARE TO BE APPLIED. IN FURTHERANCE OF THE FOREGOING, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WILL CONTROL THE INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF UNDER SUCH JURISDICTION'S CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW ANALYSIS, THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW OF SOME OTHER JURISDICTION WOULD ORDINARILY APPLY.

(b) Intentionally Omitted.

Section 15. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one agreement.

Section 16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Grantee's Employment Agreement, the Plan (and the other writings referred to herein), and the Investor Rights Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersede all prior written or oral negotiations, commitments, representations and agreements with respect thereto.

Section 17. Severability. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, if any particular provision of this Agreement shall be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision, as to such jurisdiction, shall be ineffective, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such provision could be more narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, it shall, as to such jurisdiction, be so narrowly drawn, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 18. Enforcement. In the event the Company or the Grantee institutes litigation to enforce or protect its rights under this Agreement or the Plan, each party shall be solely responsible for all attorneys' fees, out-of-pocket costs and disbursements it incurs relating to such litigation.

Section 19. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent that it may legally and effectively do so, trial by jury in any suit, action or proceeding arising hereunder.

ANNEX I

EBITDA CAGR	Value of RSUs ($)
Less than 5% EBITDA CAGR	$ 0
Greater than or equal to 5% EBITDA CAGR but less than 10%	$ 5 million
Greater than or equal to 10% EBITDA CAGR but less than 15%	$ 10 million
Greater than or equal to 15% EBITDA CAGR	$ 20 million

The number of Vested RSUs shall be equal to the Value of RSUs determined as set forth above divided by the Fair Market Value of a Share of Common Stock as of the Determination Date.

“Determination Date” means the date of the Committee’s certification of EBITDA CAGR.

“EBITDA” means, for any applicable period, consolidated net income before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, extraordinary items and management or similar fees payable to the Apollo Holders as reflected on the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for such period. Consolidated net income shall be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles except that gains or losses from extraordinary, unusual or non-recurring items may be excluded in the discretion of the Committee. EBITDA shall be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee and shall be calculated pro forma for acquisitions.

“EBITDA CAGR” means the compound annual growth in EBITDA from March 31, 2019 through March 31, 2022, expressed as a percentage, determined by comparing the last twelve months (“LTM”) EBITDA for the period ending March 31, 2022 to the LTM EBITDA for the period ending March 31, 2019. Purely for illustrative purposes, if LTM EBITDA for March 31, 2019 was $300 million, and LTM EBITDA for March 31, 2022 was $400 million, the EBITDA CAGR would be 10.064%.

Special CIC Rule. If a Change in Control occurs prior to March 31, 2022, then for purposes of determining the EBITDA CAGR, the EBITDA for the 12-month period ending on the last day of the calendar quarter ended immediately prior to such Change in Control shall be used in lieu of the LTM EBITDA for the period ending March 31, 2022. Purely for illustrative purposes, if a Change in Control were to occur on October 15, 2021, the applicable EBITDA (to be used in lieu of the LTM EBITDA ending March 31, 2022) would be the EBITDA for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2021.

Form of Director Option Award Agreement

NON-QUALIFIED STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of [____], 20[_] (the "Grant Date"), by and among RACKSPACE TECHNOLOGY, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and [____] (the "Optionee").

WHEREAS, the Company, acting through a Committee (as defined in the Company's Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan")), has granted to the Optionee, effective as of the date of this Agreement, an option under the Plan to purchase a number of shares of Common Stock (as defined in the Plan) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and of the mutual agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. The Plan. The terms and provisions of the Plan are hereby incorporated into this Agreement as if set forth herein in their entirety (including, without limitation, the provisions of Article V). In the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and the Plan, the provisions of the Plan shall control. A copy of the Plan may be obtained from the Company by the Optionee upon request. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Plan.

Section 2. Option; Option Price. On the terms and subject to the conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the Optionee shall have the option (the "Option") to purchase Shares at the price per Share (the "Option Price") and in the amount set forth on the signature page hereto. Payment of the Option Price may be made in the manner specified by Section 9 of this Agreement or Section 5.9 of the Plan. The Option is not intended to qualify for federal income tax purposes as an "incentive stock option" within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Option shall remain exercisable as to all Vested Options (as defined in Section 4) until the expiration of the Option Term (as defined in Section 3). Except as otherwise provided in Section 4 of this Agreement, upon a Termination of Relationship, the unvested portion of the Option (i.e., that portion that does not constitute Vested Options) shall terminate.

Section 3. Term. The term of the Option (the "Option Term") shall commence on the Grant Date and expire on the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date, unless the Option shall have been terminated sooner in accordance with the terms of the Plan (including, without limitation, Section 5.7 of the Plan) or this Agreement.

Section 4. Vesting. Subject to the Optionee's continued service relationship with the Company or its Subsidiaries through the vesting date (except as otherwise provided in this Section 4), the entire Option shall become non-forfeitable (when the Option becomes non-forfeitable, a "Vested Option") and shall become exercisable in full on [the first anniversary of the Grant Date]; provided, however, that:

(a) the entire Option shall immediately become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of immediately prior to the occurrence of a Change in Control; and

(b) if a Termination of Relationship occurs at any time prior to a Change in Control as a result of (A) a termination of the Optionee's service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause or (B) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability, (1) the Option shall become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of the date of such Termination of Relationship and shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a) with respect to the aggregate number of Option Shares subject to the Option, multiplied by a fraction, (x) the numerator of which is equal to the number of calendar days that have elapsed since the Grant Date and (y) the denominator of which is equal to 365, and (2) if a Change in Control occurs within 90 days following such Termination of Relationship, the entire Option shall immediately become a Vested Option and shall become exercisable as of immediately prior to the occurrence of such Change in Control and such Vested Option shall remain outstanding pursuant to the provisions of Section 8(a) as if the Termination of the Relationship occurred on the date of the Change in Control.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in this Section 4, the Option shall cease vesting as of the date of the Optionee's Termination of Relationship with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason and no portion of the Option that is not a Vested Option as of such time shall become a Vested Option thereafter (i.e., the portion of the Option that is not a Vested Option shall be forfeited immediately); provided, that, in the event that the Optionee experiences a Termination of Relationship for Cause, all Options then held by the Optionee (whether vested or unvested) shall immediately be forfeited.

Section 5. Restrictive Covenants. The Optionee acknowledges and agrees that by accepting the Options issued hereunder, the Optionee shall be bound by, and shall abide by, the covenants set forth in this Section 5, in addition to any other representations, warranties, and covenants set forth in (but subject to any exceptions set forth in) any Service Agreement or other document required by the Committee with respect to such grant.

(a) Non-Solicitation; No Hire. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Optionee agrees that during the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Optionee will not, directly or indirectly, on the Optionee's own behalf or on behalf of another (i) solicit, induce or attempt to solicit or induce any officer, director or employee of the Company Group to terminate their relationship with or leave the employ of the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any member of the Company Group, on the one hand, and any officer, director or employee thereof, on the other hand, (ii) hire (or other similar arrangement) any Person (in any capacity whether as an officer, director, employee or consultant) who is or at any time was an officer, director or employee of the Company Group until six (6) months after such individual's relationship (whether as an officer, director or employee) with the Company Group has ended, or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing business with the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or business relation, on the one hand, and the Company Group, on the other hand.

(b) Non-Competition. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Optionee agrees that during the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Optionee will not, directly or indirectly, have any equity or equity-based interest, or work or otherwise provide services as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, partner, director or otherwise, in any business anywhere in the world that sells hosting and information technology services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company Group, namely (i) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared or virtual) and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet, (ii) hosted email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking and similar services, and (iii) all similar related services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding interest in such business.

(c) Nondisclosure of Confidential Information; Return of Property. The Optionee recognizes and acknowledges that he or she has access to the confidential information and/or has had material contact with the Company Group's customers, suppliers, licensees, representatives, agents, partners, licensors, or business relations. The Optionee agrees that at any time during or after such time as the Optionee is a Participant in the Plan, the Optionee shall maintain in confidence and shall not directly, indirectly or otherwise, use, disseminate, disclose or publish, or use for the Optionee's benefit or the benefit of any Person, any confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets of or relating to the Company Group, including, without limitation, information with respect to the Company Group's operations, processes, products, inventions, business practices, finances, principals, vendors, suppliers, customers, potential customers, marketing methods, costs, prices, contractual relationships, regulatory status, compensation paid to employees or other terms of employment, or deliver to any Person any document, record, notebook, computer program or similar repository of or containing any such confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets. Upon the Optionee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Optionee shall promptly deliver to the Company (with the cost of shipping reimbursed by the Company) all correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the Company Group's customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products or processes. The Optionee may respond to a lawful and valid subpoena or other legal process but shall give the Company Group the earliest possible notice thereof, shall, as much in advance of the return date as possible, make available to the Company Group and its counsel the documents and other information sought and, if requested by the Company Group, shall reasonably assist such counsel in resisting or otherwise responding to such process.

(d) Non-Disparagement. The Optionee shall not, at any time, directly or indirectly, knowingly disparage, criticize, or otherwise make derogatory statements regarding the Company Group, or any of its successors, directors or officers. The foregoing shall not be violated by the Optionee's truthful responses to legal process or inquiry by a governmental authority.

(e) Intellectual Property Rights.

(i) The Optionee agrees that the results and proceeds of the Optionee's services for the Company Group (including, but not limited to, any trade secrets, products, services, processes, know-how, designs, developments, innovations, analyses, drawings, reports, techniques, formulas, methods, developmental or experimental work, improvements, discoveries, inventions, ideas, source and object codes, programs, matters of a literary, musical, dramatic or otherwise creative nature, writings and other works of authorship) resulting from services performed for the Company Group and any works in progress, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar statutes, that were made, developed, conceived or reduced to practice or learned by the Optionee, either alone or jointly with others (collectively, "Inventions"), shall be works-made-for-hire and the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company Group) shall be deemed the sole owner throughout the universe of any and all trade secret, patent, copyright and other intellectual property rights (collectively, "Proprietary Rights") of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, with the right to use the same in perpetuity in any manner the Company determines in its sole discretion, without any further payment to the Optionee whatsoever. If, for any reason, any of such results and proceeds shall not legally be a work-made-for-hire and/or there are any Proprietary Rights which do not accrue to the Company Group under the immediately preceding sentence, then the Optionee hereby irrevocably assigns and agrees to assign any and all of the Optionee's right, title and interest thereto, including, without limitation, any and all Proprietary Rights of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, to the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates), and the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates shall have the right to use the same in perpetuity throughout the universe in any manner determined by the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates without any further payment to the Optionee whatsoever. As to any Invention that the Optionee is required to assign, the Optionee shall promptly and fully disclose to the Company all information known to the Optionee concerning such Invention. The Optionee hereby waives and quitclaims to the Company Group any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, that the Optionee now or may hereafter have for infringement of any Proprietary Rights assigned hereunder to the Company Group.

(ii) The Optionee agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Optionee shall do any and all things that the Company may reasonably deem useful or desirable to establish or document the Company Group's exclusive ownership throughout the United States of America or any other country of any and all Proprietary Rights in any such Inventions, including, without limitation, the execution of appropriate copyright and/or patent applications or assignments. To the extent the Optionee has any Proprietary Rights in the Inventions that cannot be assigned in the manner described above, the Optionee unconditionally and irrevocably waives the enforcement of such Proprietary Rights. This Section 5(e) is subject to and shall not be deemed to limit, restrict or constitute any waiver by the Company Group of any Proprietary Rights of ownership to which the Company Group may be entitled by operation of law by virtue of the Optionee's employment with, or service to, the Company Group. The Optionee further agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Optionee shall assist the Company Group in every proper and lawful way to obtain and from time to time enforce Proprietary Rights relating to Inventions in any and all countries. To this end, the Optionee shall execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other acts (including appearances as a witness) as the Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining, and enforcing such Proprietary Rights and the assignment thereof. In addition, the Optionee shall execute, verify, and deliver assignments of such Proprietary Rights to the Company or its designees. The Optionee's obligation to assist the Company Group with respect to Proprietary Rights relating to such Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the Optionee's Termination of Relationship.

(f) Restrictive Covenants Generally. If, at the time of enforcement of the covenants contained in this Section 5 (the "Restrictive Covenants"), a court shall hold that the duration, scope or area restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties agree that the maximum duration, scope or area reasonable under such circumstances shall be substituted for the stated duration, scope or area and that the court shall be allowed and directed to revise the restrictions contained herein to cover the maximum period, scope and area permitted by applicable law. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that the Restrictive Covenants are reasonable in terms of duration, scope and area restrictions and are necessary to protect the goodwill of the Company Group. The Optionee further acknowledges and agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are being agreed to by the Optionee in connection with the Company's issuance of an Award to the Optionee under the Plan, and are in addition to, not in substitution for, any restrictive covenants to which the Optionee is or may become subject in connection with any relationship with the Company Group.

(g) Enforcement. If the Optionee breaches, or threatens to commit a breach of, any of the Restrictive Covenants, the Company Group shall have the following rights and remedies, each of which rights and remedies shall be independent of the others and severally enforceable, and each of which is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to the Company Group at law or in equity: (i) the right and remedy to seek to have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction (without posting a bond), it being agreed that any breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants would cause irreparable injury to the Company Group and that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy to the Company Group; and (ii) the right and remedy to require the Optionee to account for and pay over to the Company any profits, monies, accruals, increments or other benefits derived or received by the Optionee as the result of any transactions constituting a breach of the Restrictive Covenants. In the event of any breach or violation by the Optionee of any of the Restrictive Covenants, the time period of such covenant with respect to the Optionee shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be tolled until such breach or violation is resolved.

Section 6. Restriction on Transfer. Except for transfers to an Affiliate (determined as if the Optionee were a Holder, as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) for estate planning purposes, the Option may not be transferred, pledged, assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of in any way by the Optionee and may be exercised during the lifetime of the Optionee only by the Optionee. If the Optionee dies, the Option shall thereafter be exercisable, during the period specified in Section 8 of this Agreement, by his or her executors or administrators to the full extent to which the Option was exercisable by the Optionee at the time of his or her death. The Option shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar process. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of the Option contrary to the provisions hereof, and the levy of any execution, attachment or similar process upon the Option, shall be null and void and without effect. Upon the exercise of an Option, to the extent such Optionee is not then a party to the Investor Rights Agreement, the Optionee shall deliver to the Company an Adoption Agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Committee, pursuant to which the Optionee agrees to become a party to the Investor Rights Agreement. The Company agrees that the Optionee shall be treated as an Other Shares Holder under Section 10.1 of the Investor Rights Agreement with respect to the Shares acquired upon exercise of the Option.

Section 7. Optionee's Employment or Other Service Relationship. Nothing in the Option shall confer upon the Optionee any right to continue the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its Affiliates or stockholders, as the case may be, to terminate the Optionee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Affiliates or to increase or decrease the Optionee's compensation at any time. The grant of the Option is a one-time benefit and does not create any contractual or other right to receive any other grant of other Awards under the Plan in the future. The grant of the Option does not form part of the Optionee's entitlement to remuneration or benefits in terms of his or her employment or other service relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary.

Section 8. Termination.

(a) Following a Termination of Relationship, the Option shall automatically terminate without consideration and shall become null and void and be of no further force and effect upon the earliest of:

(i) The tenth anniversary of the Grant Date;

(ii) The first anniversary of any Termination of Relationship of the Optionee due to the Optionee's death or by the Company due to the Optionee's Disability;

(iii) The 90th day following any Termination of Relationship of the Optionee due to the Optionee's resignation for any reason or the Optionee's Termination of Relationship without Cause;

(iv) The date of the Termination of Relationship of the Optionee for Cause.

(b) Option Shares acquired upon the exercise of Vested Options may be repurchased pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement.

Section 9. Payment of Option Price. The Optionee shall be responsible for all applicable U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income tax obligations payable in respect of the Option. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Optionee may, following the Optionee's Termination of Relationship as a result of (i) a termination of the Optionee's service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause or (ii) the Optionee's death, serious illness or Disability, or at any other time with the consent of the Committee, pay for the exercise of a Vested Option by instructing the Company to deduct from the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised a number of Shares having, as of the date of such exercise, a Fair Market Value of the Common Stock (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) equal to the aggregate Option Price of the Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised.

Section 10. Notices.

(a) The Optionee shall be entitled to receive notice of an event that would entitle the Optionee to notice under the Investor Rights Agreement were the Optionee a holder of the Option Shares in sufficient time to afford the Optionee with an opportunity to exercise a Vested Option (or the unvested portion of the Option that would become a Vested Option upon such event) in advance of such event.

(b) All notices, claims, certificates, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and delivered if personally delivered or if sent by nationally recognized overnight courier, by facsimile, by email, or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

Any such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been received (a) in the case of personal delivery, on the date of such delivery (or if such date is not a business day, on the next business day after the date of delivery), (b) in the case of nationally recognized overnight courier, on the next business day after the date sent, (c) in the case of facsimile transmission, when received (or if not sent on a business day, on the next business day after the date sent), (d) in the case of email, when transmitted via email (in each case, if no "system error" or other notice of non-delivery is generated) to the applicable party and its legal counsel set forth above, and (e) in the case of mailing, on the third business day following that on which the piece of mail containing such communication is posted.

Section 11. Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement must be in writing and shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

Section 12. Optionee's Undertaking. The Optionee hereby agrees to take whatever additional actions and execute whatever additional documents the Company may in its reasonable judgment deem necessary or advisable in order to carry out or effect one or more of the obligations or restrictions imposed on the Optionee pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement and the Plan.

Section 13. Modification of Rights. The rights of the Optionee are subject to modification and termination in certain events as provided in this Agreement and the Plan (with respect to the Options granted hereby). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee's rights under this Agreement and the Plan may not be impaired without the Optionee's consent.

Section 14. Governing Law; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED IN ANY SERVICE AGREEMENT, THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICTING PROVISION OR RULE (WHETHER OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION) THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF DELAWARE TO BE APPLIED. IN FURTHERANCE OF THE FOREGOING, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WILL CONTROL THE INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF UNDER SUCH JURISDICTION'S CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW ANALYSIS, THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW OF SOME OTHER JURISDICTION WOULD ORDINARILY APPLY.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Service Agreement, each of the parties hereto irrevocably (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery, or in the event (but only in the event) that the Delaware Court of Chancery does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, or in the event (but only in the event) that such United States District Court for the District of Delaware also does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, any Delaware state court sitting in New Castle County, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the actions of the parties hereof, (ii) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court and (iii) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement in any court other than the courts of the State of Delaware, as described above. Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason, that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, that the suit, action or proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such courts and further irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the benefit of any defense that would hinder, fetter or delay the levy, execution or collection of any amount to which a party hereto is entitled pursuant to the final judgment of any court having jurisdiction.

Section 15. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one agreement.

Section 16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Plan (and the other writings referred to herein), and the Investor Rights Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersede all prior written or oral negotiations, commitments, representations and agreements with respect thereto.

Section 17. Severability. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, if any particular provision of this Agreement shall be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision, as to such jurisdiction, shall be ineffective, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such provision could be more narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, it shall, as to such jurisdiction, be so narrowly drawn, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 18. Enforcement. In the event the Company or the Optionee institutes litigation to enforce or protect its rights under this Agreement or the Plan, each party shall be solely responsible for all attorneys' fees, out-of-pocket costs and disbursements it incurs relating to such litigation.

Section 19. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent that it may legally and effectively do so, trial by jury in any suit, action or proceeding arising hereunder.

RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARD AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”), dated as of [____], 20[_] (the “Grant Date”), by and among RACKSPACE TECHNOLOGY, INC., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), and [____] (the “Grantee”).

WHEREAS, the Company, acting through a Committee (as defined in the Company’s Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”)), has granted to the Grantee, effective as of the date of this Agreement, an award of Restricted Stock Units (the “RSUs”) under the Plan in respect of shares of Common Stock (as defined in the Plan) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Plan.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and of the mutual agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. The Plan. The terms and provisions of the Plan are hereby incorporated into this Agreement as if set forth herein in their entirety (including, without limitation, the provisions of Article V). In the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and the Plan, the provisions of the Plan shall control. A copy of the Plan may be obtained from the Company by the Grantee upon request. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Plan.

Section 2. Grant of RSUs. On the terms and subject to the conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the Company hereby grants to the Grantee RSUs in the amount set forth on the signature page hereto. The RSUs shall be credited to a book entry account maintained for the Grantee on the books of the Company. Except as otherwise provided in Section 3(a) of this Agreement, upon a Termination of Relationship, the unvested portion of the RSUs (i.e., that portion that does not constitute Vested RSUs) shall terminate.

Section 3. Vesting and Settlement.

(a) Vesting. Subject to the Grantee’s continued service relationship with the Company or its Subsidiaries through the vesting date (except as otherwise provided in this Section 3(a)), all RSUs shall become non-forfeitable (when a RSU becomes non-forfeitable, a “Vested RSU”) [on the first anniversary of the Grant Date]; provided, however, that:

(i) all RSUs shall immediately become Vested RSUs as of immediately prior to the occurrence of a Change in Control; and

(ii) if a Termination of Relationship occurs at any time prior to a Change in Control as a result of (A) a termination of the Grantee’s service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause or (B) the Grantee’s death, serious illness or Disability, (1) the number of RSUs shall become Vested RSUs as of the date of such Termination of Relationship that is equal to the aggregate number of RSUs, multiplied by a fraction, (x) the numerator of which is equal to the number of calendar days that have elapsed since the Grant Date and (y) the denominator of which is equal to 365, and (2) if a Change in Control occurs within 90 days following such Termination of Relationship, all RSUs shall become Vested RSUs as of immediately prior to the occurrence of such Change in Control.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in this Section 3(a), the RSUs shall cease vesting as of the date of the Grantee's Termination of Relationship with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason and no portion of the RSUs shall become Vested RSUs thereafter (i.e., the RSUs that are not Vested RSUs shall be forfeited immediately); provided, that, in the event that the Grantee experiences a Termination of Relationship for Cause, all RSUs then held by the Grantee (whether vested or unvested) shall immediately be forfeited.

(b) Settlement. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Vested RSU shall be settled as promptly as reasonably practicable following the applicable vesting date (but in any event by March 15 of the year following the year in which such applicable vesting date occurs).

(c) Investor Rights Agreement. As a condition to the delivery of all or any portion of the Shares underlying the RSUs, the Grantee shall be required to become a party to the Investor Rights Agreement and agree to be bound by the terms thereof. The Grantee acknowledges being provided with a copy of the Investor Rights Agreement.

Section 4. Restrictive Covenants. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that by accepting the RSUs issued hereunder, the Grantee shall be bound by, and shall abide by, the covenants set forth in this Section 4, in addition to any other representations, warranties, and covenants set forth in (but subject to any exceptions set forth in) any Service Agreement or other document required by the Committee with respect to such grant.

(a) Non-Solicitation; No Hire. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Grantee agrees that during the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Grantee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Grantee will not, directly or indirectly, on the Grantee's own behalf or on behalf of another (i) solicit, induce or attempt to solicit or induce any officer, director or employee of the Company Group to terminate their relationship with or leave the employ of the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any member of the Company Group, on the one hand, and any officer, director or employee thereof, on the other hand, (ii) hire (or other similar arrangement) any Person (in any capacity whether as an officer, director, employee or consultant) who is or at any time was an officer, director or employee of the Company Group until six (6) months after such individual's relationship (whether as an officer, director or employee) with the Company Group has ended, or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing business with the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or business relation, on the one hand, and the Company Group, on the other hand.

(b) Non-Competition. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Grantee agrees that during the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Grantee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Grantee will not, directly or indirectly, have any equity or equity-based interest, or work or otherwise provide services as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, partner, director or otherwise, in any business anywhere in the world that sells hosting and information technology services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company

Group, namely (i) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared or virtual) and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet, (ii) hosted email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking and similar services, and (iii) all similar related services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding interest in such business.

(c) Nondisclosure of Confidential Information; Return of Property. The Grantee recognizes and acknowledges that he or she has access to the confidential information and/or has had material contact with the Company Group's customers, suppliers, licensees, representatives, agents, partners, licensors, or business relations. The Grantee agrees that at any time during or after such time as the Grantee is a Participant in the Plan, the Grantee shall maintain in confidence and shall not directly, indirectly or otherwise, use, disseminate, disclose or publish, or use for the Grantee's benefit or the benefit of any Person, any confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets of or relating to the Company Group, including, without limitation, information with respect to the Company Group's operations, processes, products, inventions, business practices, finances, principals, vendors, suppliers, customers, potential customers, marketing methods, costs, prices, contractual relationships, regulatory status, compensation paid to employees or other terms of employment, or deliver to any Person any document, record, notebook, computer program or similar repository of or containing any such confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets. Upon the Grantee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Grantee shall promptly deliver to the Company (with the cost of shipping reimbursed by the Company) all correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the Company Group's customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products or processes. The Grantee may respond to a lawful and valid subpoena or other legal process but shall give the Company Group the earliest possible notice thereof, shall, as much in advance of the return date as possible, make available to the Company Group and its counsel the documents and other information sought and, if requested by the Company Group, shall reasonably assist such counsel in resisting or otherwise responding to such process.

(d) Non-Disparagement. The Grantee shall not, at any time, directly or indirectly, knowingly disparage, criticize, or otherwise make derogatory statements regarding the Company Group, or any of its successors, directors or officers. The foregoing shall not be violated by the Grantee's truthful responses to legal process or inquiry by a governmental authority.

(e) Intellectual Property Rights.

(i) The Grantee agrees that the results and proceeds of the Grantee's services for the Company Group (including, but not limited to, any trade secrets, products, services, processes, know-how, designs, developments, innovations, analyses, drawings, reports, techniques, formulas, methods, developmental or experimental work, improvements, discoveries, inventions, ideas, source and object codes, programs, matters of a literary, musical, dramatic or otherwise creative nature, writings and other works of authorship) resulting from services performed for the Company Group and any works in progress, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar statutes, that were made, developed, conceived or reduced to practice or learned by the Grantee, either alone or jointly with others (collectively, "Inventions"), shall be works-made-for-hire and the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company Group) shall be deemed the sole owner throughout the universe of any and all trade secret, patent, copyright and other intellectual property rights (collectively, "Proprietary Rights") of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, with the right to use the same in perpetuity in any manner the Company determines in its sole discretion, without any further payment to the Grantee whatsoever. If, for any reason, any of such results and proceeds shall not legally be a work-made-for-hire and/or there are any Proprietary Rights which do not accrue to the Company Group under the immediately preceding sentence, then the Grantee hereby irrevocably assigns and agrees to assign any and all of the Grantee's right, title and interest thereto, including, without limitation, any and all Proprietary Rights of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, to the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates), and the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates shall have the right to use the same in perpetuity throughout the universe in any manner determined by the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates without any further payment to the Grantee whatsoever. As to any Invention that the Grantee is required to assign, the Grantee shall promptly and fully disclose to the Company all information known to the Grantee concerning such Invention. The Grantee hereby waives and quitclaims to the Company Group any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, that the Grantee now or may hereafter have for infringement of any Proprietary Rights assigned hereunder to the Company Group.

(ii) The Grantee agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Grantee shall do any and all things that the Company may reasonably deem useful or desirable to establish or document the Company Group's exclusive ownership throughout the United States of America or any other country of any and all Proprietary Rights in any such Inventions, including, without limitation, the execution of appropriate copyright and/or patent applications or assignments. To the extent the Grantee has any Proprietary Rights in the Inventions that cannot be assigned in the manner described above, the Grantee unconditionally and irrevocably waives the enforcement of such Proprietary Rights. This Section 4(e) is subject to and shall not be deemed to limit, restrict or constitute any waiver by the Company Group of any Proprietary Rights of ownership to which the Company Group may be entitled by operation of law by virtue of the Grantee's employment with, or service to, the Company Group. The Grantee further agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Grantee shall assist the Company Group in every proper and lawful way to obtain and from time to time enforce Proprietary Rights relating to Inventions in any and all countries. To this end, the Grantee shall execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other acts (including appearances as a witness) as the Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining, and enforcing such Proprietary Rights and the assignment thereof. In addition, the Grantee shall execute, verify, and deliver assignments of such Proprietary Rights to the Company or its designees. The Grantee's obligation to assist the Company Group with respect to Proprietary Rights relating to such Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the Grantee's Termination of Relationship.

(f) Restrictive Covenants Generally. If, at the time of enforcement of the covenants contained in this Section 4 (the “Restrictive Covenants”), a court shall hold that the duration, scope or area restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties agree that the maximum duration, scope or area reasonable under such circumstances shall be substituted for the stated duration, scope or area and that the court shall be allowed and directed to revise the restrictions contained herein to cover the maximum period, scope and area permitted by applicable law. The Grantee hereby acknowledges that the Restrictive Covenants are reasonable in terms of duration, scope and area restrictions and are necessary to protect the goodwill of the Company Group. The Grantee further acknowledges and agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are being agreed to by the Grantee in connection with the Company’s issuance of an Award to the Grantee under the Plan, and are in addition to, not in substitution for, any restrictive covenants to which the Grantee is or may become subject in connection with any relationship with the Company Group.

(g) Enforcement. If the Grantee breaches, or threatens to commit a breach of, any of the Restrictive Covenants, the Company Group shall have the following rights and remedies, each of which rights and remedies shall be independent of the others and severally enforceable, and each of which is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to the Company Group at law or in equity: (i) the right and remedy to seek to have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction (without posting a bond), it being agreed that any breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants would cause irreparable injury to the Company Group and that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy to the Company Group; and (ii) the right and remedy to require the Grantee to account for and pay over to the Company any profits, monies, accruals, increments or other benefits derived or received by the Grantee as the result of any transactions constituting a breach of the Restrictive Covenants. In the event of any breach or violation by the Grantee of any of the Restrictive Covenants, the time period of such covenant with respect to the Grantee shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be tolled until such breach or violation is resolved.

Section 5. Restriction on Transfer. Except for transfers to an Affiliate (determined as if the Grantee were a Holder, as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) for estate planning purposes, the RSUs may not be transferred, pledged, assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of in any way by the Grantee. The RSUs shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar process. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of the RSUs contrary to the provisions hereof, and the levy of any execution, attachment or similar process upon the RSUs, shall be null and void and without effect. The Company agrees that the Grantee shall be treated as an Other Shares Holder under Section 10.1 of the Investor Rights Agreement with respect to the Shares acquired upon settlement of the RSUs.

Section 6. Grantee's Employment or Other Service Relationship. Nothing in the RSUs shall confer upon the Grantee any right to continue the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its Affiliates or stockholders, as the case may be, to terminate the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company or its Affiliates or to increase or decrease the Grantee's compensation at any time. The grant of the RSUs is a one-time benefit and does not create any contractual or other right to receive any other grant of other Awards under the Plan in the future. The grant of the RSUs does not form part of the Grantee's entitlement to remuneration or benefits in terms of his or her employment or other service relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary.

Section 7. Repurchase. Shares acquired upon the settlement of Vested RSUs may be repurchased pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement.

Section 8. Taxes. Settlement of the RSUs shall be subject to the Grantee satisfying all applicable U.S. federal, state and local income tax withholding obligations and non-U.S. tax obligations, and none of the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold the Grantee (or any beneficiary) harmless from any or all of such taxes. The Company shall have the right and is hereby authorized to deduct from any amounts payable to the Grantee in connection with the RSUs or otherwise the amount of any applicable taxes, and the Company may take any such other action as it or the Committee deems necessary to satisfy all obligations for the payment of such taxes.

Section 9. Notices. All notices, claims, certificates, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and delivered if personally delivered or if sent by nationally recognized overnight courier, by facsimile, by email, or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

Section 10. Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement must be in writing and shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

Section 11. Grantee's Undertaking. The Grantee hereby agrees to take whatever additional actions and execute whatever additional documents the Company may in its reasonable judgment deem necessary or advisable in order to carry out or effect one or more of the obligations or restrictions imposed on the Grantee pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement and the Plan.

Section 12. Modification of Rights. The rights of the Grantee are subject to modification and termination in certain events as provided in this Agreement and the Plan (with respect to the RSUs granted hereby). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee's rights under this Agreement and the Plan may not be impaired without the Grantee's consent.

Section 13. Governing Law; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED IN ANY SERVICE AGREEMENT, THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICTING PROVISION OR RULE (WHETHER OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION) THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN THE STATE OF DELAWARE TO BE APPLIED. IN FURTHERANCE OF THE FOREGOING, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WILL CONTROL THE INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF UNDER SUCH JURISDICTION'S CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW ANALYSIS, THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW OF SOME OTHER JURISDICTION WOULD ORDINARILY APPLY.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Service Agreement, each of the parties hereto irrevocably (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery, or in the event (but only in the event) that the Delaware Court of Chancery does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, or in the event (but only in the event) that such United States District Court for the District of Delaware also does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, any Delaware state court sitting in New Castle County, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the actions of the parties hereof, (ii) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court and (iii) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement in any court other than the courts of the State of Delaware, as described above. Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason, that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, that the suit, action or proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such courts and further irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the benefit of any defense that would hinder, fetter or delay the levy, execution or collection of any amount to which a party hereto is entitled pursuant to the final judgment of any court having jurisdiction.

Section 14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one agreement.

Section 15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Plan (and the other writings referred to herein), and the Investor Rights Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersede all prior written or oral negotiations, commitments, representations and agreements with respect thereto.

Section 16. Severability. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, if any particular provision of this Agreement shall be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision, as to such jurisdiction, shall be ineffective, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such provision could be more narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, it shall, as to such jurisdiction, be so narrowly drawn, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 17. Enforcement. In the event the Company or the Grantee institutes litigation to enforce or protect its rights under this Agreement or the Plan, each party shall be solely responsible for all attorneys' fees, out-of-pocket costs and disbursements it incurs relating to such litigation.

Form of Director Restricted Stock Award Agreement

RESTRICTED STOCK AWARD AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated as of [] (the "Grant Date"), by and among RACKSPACE TECHNOLOGY, INC., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and [] (the "Grantee").

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Company's 2017 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), the Company has granted a Restricted Stock Award ("Restricted Stock") to the Grantee for the number of Shares of the Company's Common Stock designated in Section 2 below, as compensation for the Grantee's non-employee director services to the Company for calendar year 2018, subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, as set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and of the mutual agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties agree as follows:

Section 1. The Plan. The terms and provisions of the Plan are incorporated herein by reference (specifically including Article VI governing Restricted Stock). In the event of a conflict between any provision in this Agreement and the Plan, the Plan provisions control. A copy of the Plan as in effect on the date of this Agreement is attached hereto. Capitalized terms in this Agreement not otherwise defined herein have the definition set forth in the Plan.

Section 2. Grant of Restricted Stock.

(a) Terms of Grant. The Company hereby grants [] Shares of Restricted Stock to the Grantee, subject to the terms of the Plan and this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in Section 2(c) below, the unvested portion of this Restricted Stock Award shall terminate upon a Termination of Relationship between the Company and the Grantee. Unless otherwise determined by the Company, the Shares shall not be certificated and will be evidenced by a book entry.

(b) Investor Rights Agreement. As a condition to the grant hereunder, and before the Company enters a book entry (or, if applicable, issues a stock certificate) evidencing the Shares in the Restricted Stock Award, the Grantee is first required to become a party to the Investor Rights Agreement. By signing this Agreement, the Grantee acknowledges having been provided with a copy of the Investor Rights Agreement.

(c) Rights as Stockholder. The Grantee shall have no rights as a stockholder until the date on which book entry entered evidencing the Award (or, if applicable, the date on which a stock certificate is issued). In the event that the Company decides to certificate the Shares, it may require that any stock certificate issued in connection with the Award be held in escrow with the Company or its designee, together with an attached stock power endorsed in blank. Subject to the requirements above and applicable vesting requirements, the Grantee shall have all of the rights of a stockholder (including voting and dividend rights) with respect to the vested Shares of Restricted Stock in the Award. If any dividends or distributions are paid in Shares, or consist of a dividend or distributions of property other than ordinary cash dividends, the Shares or other property shall be subject to the same restrictions on transferability and forfeitability as the underlying Restricted Stock with respect to which the dividends were paid. Each dividend shall be paid no later than the end of the calendar year in which the dividend is paid to holders of Common Stock or, if later, the 15th day of the third month following the later of the date the dividends are paid to the holders of Common Stock and the date on which the dividends are no longer subject to forfeiture.

Section 3. Vesting/Lapse of Restrictions. Subject to the Grantee's continuous service relationship with the Company or its Subsidiaries through the vesting date (except as otherwise provided in this Section 3), the grant restrictions shall lapse, and all Shares of Restricted Stock in the Award shall become vested and non-forfeitable [on the first anniversary of the Grant Date]; provided, however, that:

- (a) immediately prior to the consummation of a Change in Control, the restrictions shall lapse, and all outstanding Shares of Restricted Stock in the Award automatically shall fully vest; and
- (b) if a Termination of Relationship occurs at any time prior to a Change in Control as a result of (A) a termination of the Grantee's service relationship by the Company or its Subsidiaries without Cause, or (B) the Grantee's death, serious illness or Disability, (1) the number Shares of Restricted Stock that become vested with a lapse of restrictions as of the date of such Termination of Relationship shall equal the aggregate number of Restricted Stock Shares in the grant, multiplied by a fraction, (x) the numerator of which is equal to the number of calendar days that have elapsed since the Grant Date and (y) the denominator of which is equal to 365, and (2) if a Change in Control occurs within 90 days following such Termination of Relationship, all Shares of Restricted Stock shall become immediately prior to the consummation of such Change in Control.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in this Section 3, the Shares of Restricted Stock in the Award shall cease vesting as of the date of the Grantee's Termination of Relationship with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason, and no portion of the Restricted Stock Award shall vest thereafter, so that any unvested Shares on such date shall be forfeited immediately; provided, that, if the Grantee experiences a Termination of Relationship for Cause, all Shares of Restricted Stock then held by the Grantee (whether vested or unvested) immediately shall be forfeited.

Section 4. Restrictive Covenants. The Grantee acknowledges and agrees that by accepting the Restricted Stock Award granted hereunder, the Grantee is bound by, and shall abide by, the covenants in this Section 4, in addition to any other representations, warranties, and covenants set forth in any Service Agreement or other document required by the Committee with respect to such Award.

- (a) Non-Solicitation; No Hire. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Grantee agrees that during the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Grantee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Grantee shall not, directly or indirectly, on the Grantee's own behalf or on behalf of another (i) solicit, induce or attempt to solicit or induce any officer, director or employee of the Company Group to terminate their relationship with or leave the employ of the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any member of the Company Group, on the one hand, and any officer, director or employee thereof, on the other hand, (ii) hire (or other similar arrangement) any Person (in any capacity whether as an officer, director, employee or consultant) who is or at any time was an officer, director or employee of the Company Group until six (6) months after such individual's relationship (whether as an officer, director or employee) with the Company Group has ended, or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or other business relation of the Company Group to cease doing business with the Company Group, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such customer, supplier, prospect, licensee or business relation, on the one hand, and the Company Group, on the other hand.

(b) Non-Competition. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Grantee agrees that during the Grantee's employment or other service relationship with the Company Group, and for the one (1) year period following the Grantee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Grantee shall not, directly or indirectly, have any equity or equity-based interest, or work or otherwise provide services as an employee, contractor, officer, owner, consultant, partner, director or otherwise, in any business anywhere in the world that sells hosting and information technology services substantially similar to those services provided by the Company Group, namely (i) provisioning, hosting, management, monitoring, supporting, or maintenance of applications, computer servers (whether dedicated, shared or virtual) and network connectivity in a datacenter for remote use via the Internet, (ii) hosted email, storage, collaboration, compute, virtual networking and similar services, and (iii) all similar related services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee shall be permitted to acquire a passive stock or equity interest in such a business, provided that the stock or other equity interest acquired is not more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding interest in such business.

(c) Nondisclosure of Confidential Information; Return of Property. The Grantee recognizes and acknowledges that he or she has access to the confidential information and/or has had material contact with the Company Group's customers, suppliers, licensees, representatives, agents, partners, licensors, or business relations. The Grantee agrees that at any time during or after such time as the Grantee is a Participant in the Plan, the Grantee shall maintain in confidence and shall not directly, indirectly or otherwise, use, disseminate, disclose or publish, or use for the Grantee's benefit or the benefit of any Person, any confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets of or relating to the Company Group, including, without limitation, information with respect to the Company Group's operations, processes, products, inventions, business practices, finances, principals, vendors, suppliers, customers, potential customers, marketing methods, costs, prices, contractual relationships, regulatory status, compensation paid to employees or other terms of employment, or deliver to any Person any document, record, notebook, computer program or similar repository of or containing any such confidential or proprietary information or trade secrets. Upon the Grantee's Termination of Relationship for any reason, the Grantee shall promptly deliver to the Company (with the cost of shipping reimbursed by the Company) all correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the Company Group's customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products or processes. The Grantee may respond to a lawful and valid subpoena or other legal process but shall give the Company Group the earliest possible notice thereof, shall, as much in advance of the return date as possible, make available to the Company Group and its counsel the documents and other information sought and, if requested by the Company Group, shall reasonably assist such counsel in resisting or otherwise responding to such process.

(d) Non-Disparagement. The Grantee shall not, at any time, directly or indirectly, knowingly disparage, criticize, or otherwise make derogatory statements regarding the Company Group, or any of its successors, directors or officers. The foregoing shall not be violated by the Grantee's truthful responses to legal process or inquiry by a governmental authority.

(e) Intellectual Property Rights.

(i) The Grantee agrees that the results and proceeds of the Grantee's services for the Company Group (including, but not limited to, any trade secrets, products, services, processes, know-how, designs, developments, innovations, analyses, drawings, reports, techniques, formulas, methods, developmental or experimental work, improvements, discoveries, inventions, ideas, source and object codes, programs, matters of a literary, musical, dramatic or otherwise creative nature, writings and other works of authorship) resulting from services performed for the Company Group and any works in progress, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar statutes, that were made, developed, conceived or reduced to practice or learned by the Grantee, either alone or jointly with others (collectively, "Inventions"), shall be works-made-for-hire and the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company Group) shall be deemed the sole owner throughout the universe of any and all trade secret, patent, copyright and other intellectual property rights (collectively, "Proprietary Rights") of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, with the right to use the same in perpetuity in any manner the Company determines in its sole discretion, without any further payment to the Grantee whatsoever. If, for any reason, any of such results and proceeds shall not legally be a work-made-for-hire and/or there are any Proprietary Rights which do not accrue to the Company Group under the immediately preceding sentence, then the Grantee hereby irrevocably assigns and agrees to assign any and all of the Grantee's right, title and interest thereto, including, without limitation, any and all Proprietary Rights of whatsoever nature therein, whether or not now or hereafter known, existing, contemplated, recognized or developed, to the Company (or, if applicable or as directed by the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates), and the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates shall have the right to use the same in perpetuity throughout the universe in any manner determined by the Company or such Subsidiaries or Affiliates without any further payment to the Grantee whatsoever. As to any Invention that the Grantee is required to assign, the Grantee shall promptly and fully disclose to the Company all information known to the Grantee concerning such Invention. The Grantee hereby waives and quitclaims to the Company Group any and all claims, of any nature whatsoever, that the Grantee now or may hereafter have for infringement of any Proprietary Rights assigned hereunder to the Company Group.

(ii) The Grantee agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Grantee shall do any and all things that the Company may reasonably deem useful or desirable to establish or document the Company Group's exclusive ownership throughout the United States of America or any other country of any and all Proprietary Rights in any such Inventions, including, without limitation, the execution of appropriate copyright and/or patent applications or assignments. To the extent the Grantee has any Proprietary Rights in the Inventions that cannot be assigned in the manner described above, the Grantee unconditionally and irrevocably waives the enforcement of such Proprietary Rights. This Section 4(e) is subject to and shall not be deemed to limit, restrict or constitute any waiver by the Company Group of any Proprietary Rights of ownership to which the Company Group may be entitled by operation of law by virtue of the Grantee's employment with, or service to, the Company Group. The Grantee further agrees that, from time to time, as may be requested by the Company and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Grantee shall assist the Company Group in every proper and lawful way to obtain and from time to time enforce Proprietary Rights relating to Inventions in any and all countries. To this end, the Grantee shall execute, verify and deliver such documents and perform such other acts (including appearances as a witness) as the Company may reasonably request for use in applying for, obtaining, perfecting, evidencing, sustaining, and enforcing such Proprietary Rights and the assignment thereof. In addition, the Grantee shall execute, verify, and deliver assignments of such Proprietary Rights to the Company or its designees. The Grantee's obligation to assist the Company Group with respect to Proprietary Rights relating to such Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the Grantee's Termination of Relationship.

(f) Restrictive Covenants Generally. If, at the time of enforcement of the covenants contained in this Section 4 (the "Restrictive Covenants"), a court shall hold that the duration, scope or area restrictions stated herein are unreasonable under circumstances then existing, the parties agree that the maximum duration, scope or area reasonable under such circumstances shall be substituted for the stated duration, scope or area and that the court shall be allowed and directed to revise the restrictions contained herein to cover the maximum period, scope and area permitted by applicable law. The Grantee hereby acknowledges that the Restrictive Covenants are reasonable in terms of duration, scope and area restrictions and are necessary to protect the goodwill of the Company Group. The Grantee further acknowledges and agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are being agreed to by the Grantee in connection with the Company's issuance of this Restricted Stock Award and are in addition to, not in substitution for, any restrictive covenants to which the Grantee is or may become subject in connection with any relationship with the Company Group.

(g) Enforcement. If the Grantee breaches, or threatens to commit a breach of, any of the Restrictive Covenants, the Company Group shall have the following rights and remedies, each of which rights and remedies shall be independent of the others and severally enforceable, and each of which is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to the Company Group at law or in equity: (i) the right and remedy to seek to have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction (without posting a bond), it being agreed that any breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants would cause irreparable injury to the Company Group and that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy to the Company Group; and (ii) the right and remedy to require the Grantee to account for and pay over to the Company any profits, monies, accruals, increments or other benefits derived or received by the Grantee as the result of any transactions constituting a breach of the Restrictive Covenants. In the event of any breach or violation by the Grantee of any of the Restrictive Covenants, the time period of such covenant with respect to the Grantee shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be tolled until such breach or violation is resolved.

Section 5. Restriction on Transfer Shares of the Restricted Stock may not be transferred, pledged, assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of in any way by the Grantee; provided, however, vested and non-forfeitable Shares of the Restricted Stock may be transferred to an Affiliate (determined as if the Grantee were a Holder, as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement). The Restricted Stock shall not be subject to execution, attachment or similar process. Any attempted assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of the Restricted Stock contrary to the provisions hereof, and the levy of any execution, attachment or similar process upon the Restricted Stock, shall be null and void and without effect. The Company agrees that the Grantee shall be treated as an Other Shares Holder under Section 10.1 of the Investor Rights Agreement with respect to the Shares acquired when the Restricted Stock vests.

Section 6. Grantee's Service Relationship. Nothing in the Restricted Stock grant shall confer upon the Grantee any right to continue the Grantee's service relationship with the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its Affiliates or stockholders, as the case may be, to terminate the Grantee's service relationship with the Company or its Affiliates or to increase or decrease the Grantee's compensation at any time. The grant of the Restricted Stock a one-time benefit and does not create any contractual or other right to receive any grant of other Awards under the Plan in the future.

Section 7. Repurchase. Shares acquired upon the vesting of the Restricted Stock may be repurchased pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement.

Section 8. Taxes. The Restricted Stock granted hereunder is intended to be exempt from Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and is to be construed accordingly. The Grantee acknowledges having been advised to promptly confer with a professional tax advisor to consider whether the Grantee should make a Code Section 83(b) election with respect to the Shares. To be effective, any such election must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service in accordance with regulations within thirty (30) days after the Grant Date. Upon vesting of the Restricted Stock (or upon filing a Code Section 83(b) election if applicable), the Grantee shall be responsible for satisfying all applicable U.S. federal, state and local income tax withholding obligations and non-U.S. tax obligations, and none of the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold the Grantee (or any beneficiary) harmless from any or all of such taxes, including taxes imposed by Code Section 409A. The Company shall have the right and is hereby authorized to deduct from any amounts payable to the Grantee (including the withholding of Shares) in the amount of any applicable taxes, and the Company may take any such other action as it or the Committee deems necessary to satisfy all obligations for the payment of such taxes.

Section 9. Notices. All notices, claims, certificates, requests, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and delivered if personally delivered or sent by nationally recognized overnight courier, by facsimile, email, registered or certified mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

Section 10. Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement must be in writing and shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

Section 11. Grantee's Undertaking. The Grantee hereby agrees to take whatever additional actions and execute whatever additional documents the Company may in its reasonable judgment deem necessary or advisable to carry out one or more of the obligations or restrictions imposed on the Grantee pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement and the Plan.

Section 12. Modification of Rights. The rights of the Grantee are subject to modification and termination upon certain events provided in this Agreement and the Plan (with respect to the Restricted Stock granted hereby). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantee's rights under this Agreement and the Plan may not be impaired without the Grantee's consent.

Section 13. Governing Law; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED IN ANY SERVICE AGREEMENT, THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICTING PROVISION OR RULE (WHETHER OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION) THAT WOULD CAUSE THE LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN DELAWARE TO BE APPLIED. THE LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE SHALL CONTROL THE INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF UNDER SUCH JURISDICTION'S CHOICE OF LAW OR CONFLICT OF LAW ANALYSIS, THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION WOULD ORDINARILY APPLY.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Service Agreement, each of the parties hereto irrevocably (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery, or in the event (but only in the event) that the Delaware Court of Chancery does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, or in the event (but only in the event) that such United States District Court for the District of Delaware also does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, any Delaware state court sitting in New Castle County, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the actions of the parties hereof, (ii) agrees that it shall not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court and (iii) agrees that it shall not bring any action relating to this Agreement in any court other than the courts of the State of Delaware, as described above. Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason, that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, that the suit, action or proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof may not be enforced in or by such courts and further irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the benefit of any defense that would hinder, fetter or delay the levy, execution or collection of any amount to which a party hereto is entitled pursuant to the final judgment of any court having jurisdiction.

Section 14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one agreement.

Section 15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, the Plan (and the other writings referred to herein), and the Investor Rights Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof and supersede all prior written or oral negotiations, commitments, representations and agreements with respect thereto.

Section 16. Severability. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, if any particular provision of this Agreement shall be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision, as to such jurisdiction, shall be ineffective, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such provision could be more narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, it shall, as to such jurisdiction, be so narrowly drawn, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 17. Enforcement. In the event the Company or the Grantee institutes litigation to enforce or protect its rights under this Agreement or the Plan, each party shall be solely responsible for all attorneys' fees, out-of-pocket costs and disbursements it incurs relating to such litigation.

Section 18. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent that it may legally and effectively do so, trial by jury in any suit, action or proceeding arising hereunder.

The Committee shall adopt such rules and regulations as it shall deem appropriate concerning the holding of meetings and the administration of the Plan.

3.3 Interpretation.

Except as may otherwise be expressly reserved to the Committee as provided herein, and with respect to any Award, except as may otherwise be provided in the Award Agreement evidencing such Award, the Committee shall have all powers with respect to the administration of the Plan, including the interpretation of the provisions of the Plan and any Award Agreement (including, without limitation, whether any particular Termination of Relationship is for Cause), and all decisions of the Committee, as the case may be, shall be reasonable and made in good faith and shall be conclusive and binding on all Participants in the Plan.

3.4 Binding Determinations.

Any action taken by, or inaction of, the Company, the Committee relating or pursuant to the Plan and within its authority hereunder or under applicable law shall be within the absolute discretion of that entity or body and shall be conclusive and binding upon all Persons. Any interpretations, decisions or determinations of the Committee need not be the same with respect to each Participant (whether or not such Participants are similarly situated). Neither the Company nor the Committee, nor any member thereof or Person acting at the direction thereof, shall be liable for any act, omission, interpretation, construction or determination made in good faith in connection with the Plan (or any Award), and all such Persons shall be entitled to indemnification and reimbursement by the Company in respect of any claim, loss, damage or expense (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) arising or resulting therefrom to the fullest extent permitted by law and/or under any directors and officers liability insurance coverage that may be in effect from time to time.

3.5 Reliance on Experts.

In making any determination or in taking or not taking any action under the Plan, the Committee may obtain and may rely upon the advice of experts, including employees of and professional advisors to the Company. No director, officer or agent of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall be liable for any such action or determination taken or made or omitted in good faith.

3.6 Delegation.

The Committee may delegate ministerial, non-discretionary functions to individuals who are officers or employees of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates or to third parties.

3.7 Number of Shares.

Subject to the provisions of Article VIII (relating to adjustments upon changes in capital structure and other corporate transactions), an aggregate of 1,370,679 Shares shall be Reserved Shares hereunder; provided, however, in the event that the Fair Market Value of the Underlying Option Shares is less than $100.00 the number of Reserved Shares referred to in this sentence will be automatically, and without any further action of the Committee, be increased by that number of shares equal to the difference between (i) $20,000,000 divided by the then Fair Market Value of the Underlying Option Shares, and (ii) 200,000. In each fiscal year of the Company beginning with fiscal 2017, the Reserved Shares shall increase on each day that an Option is granted by the number of Shares subject to the Options granted on such date (the "Underlying Option Shares"), provided, that no additional Shares shall be added to the Reserved Shares for a fiscal year once the aggregate Fair Market Value of the Underlying Option Shares (determined as of the applicable date of grant) equals $50,000,000 (or $57,000,000 for fiscal years 2017 and 2018) (the "Annual Increase"). The maximum number of Shares that may be delivered in respect of ISOs shall equal 1,020,081 Shares; provided, that in each fiscal year of the Company beginning with fiscal 2017, the number of Shares available for delivery in respect of ISOs shall increase by the lesser of the Annual Increase and 50,000 Shares. Shares that are subject to or underlie Awards granted under the Plan that expire or for any reason are canceled or terminated, are forfeited, are repurchased, fail to vest or for any other reason are not issued or delivered under the Plan will again, except to the extent prohibited by law or applicable listing or regulatory requirements, be available for subsequent Awards under the Plan.

ARTICLE IV

ELIGIBILITY; AWARD AGREEMENTS

4.1 General.

Awards may be granted under the Plan only to Persons who are employees or directors of, or consultants to, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries on the date of grant. A Person's eligibility to be granted an Award under the Plan is not a commitment that any Award will be granted to that Person under the Plan. Each Person to whom an Award is granted under the Plan is referred to herein as a "Participant."

4.2 Exceptions.

Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 4.1 to the contrary, no ISO may be granted under the Plan to an employee who owns, directly or indirectly (within the meaning of Sections 422(b)(6) and 424(d) of the Code), stock possessing more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or of its Parent, if any, or any of its Subsidiaries, unless (a) the Option Price of the Shares subject to such ISO is fixed at not less than 110% of the Fair Market Value of such Shares on the date of the grant (as determined in accordance with the definition thereof), and (b) such ISO by its terms is not exercisable after the expiration of five years from the date on which it is granted.

4.3 Award Agreements.

Each Award granted under the Plan shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement in the form approved by the Committee. The Award Agreement shall contain the terms established by the Committee for that Award, as well as any other terms, provisions, or restrictions that the Committee may impose on the Award or any Shares subject to the Award, in each case subject to the applicable provisions and limitations of the Plan. The Committee may require that the spouse of any married recipient of an Award also promptly execute and return to the Company the Award Agreement evidencing the Award granted to the recipient or such other spousal consent form that the Committee may require in connection with the grant of the Award.

OPTIONS

5.1 General.

Options may be granted under the Plan at any time and from time to time on or prior to the Termination Date; provided that (a) Options granted to employees of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall be, in the discretion of the Committee, either ISOs or NSOs on the date of the grant and (b) Options granted to consultants and non-employee directors shall be NSOs. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall have plenary authority, in its sole discretion and consistent with applicable law, to determine:

- (a) The Persons (from among the class of Persons eligible to receive Options under the Plan) to whom Options shall be granted;
- (b) The time or times at which Options shall be granted; and
- (c) The number of Shares for which an Option may be exercisable.

5.2 Option Terms.

Each Option granted under the Plan shall be designated as an ISO or an NSO and shall be subject to the terms and conditions applicable to ISOs and/or NSOs (as the case may be) set forth in the Plan. Each Option shall specify the number of Shares for which such Option shall be exercisable and the exercise price for such Shares. In addition, each Option shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that shall be executed by the Company and the Participant.

5.3 Vesting.

The Committee shall determine whether and to what extent any Options that are exercisable for Shares are also subject to vesting based upon the Participant's continued service to, and/or the performance of duties for, the Company and its Subsidiaries and/or the attainment of specified performance goals.

5.4 Date of Grant.

The date of grant of an Option under this Plan shall be the date as of which the Committee approves the grant.

5.5 Shares Subject to Options.

Options shall be granted to purchase a specified number of Shares not to exceed, in the aggregate, the Reserved Shares. Options may be exercisable for whole Shares only.

5.6 Option Price.

The price (the "Option Price") at which each Share underlying an Option may be purchased shall be determined by the Committee and set forth in the Award Agreement; provided, however, that in the case of an ISO, such Option Price shall in no event be less than 100% (or 110% if Section 4.2 hereof is applicable) of the Fair Market Value of the Shares on the date of the grant.

5.7 Automatic Termination of Options.

Each Option granted under the Plan shall terminate automatically and shall become null and void and be of no further force or effect upon such date or dates set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, consistent with the terms of this Plan. Any Shares that are not acquired as a result of an Option's expiration without being fully exercised shall be available for award by the Committee to another eligible Person.

5.8 Limitations on ISOs; Notice to Participants Granted ISOs.

In accordance with Section 422(d) of the Code, to the extent that the aggregate Fair Market Value of all stock with respect to which incentive stock options are exercisable for the first time by a Participant during any calendar year (under all plans of the Company and its Subsidiaries) exceeds $100,000, such ISOs shall be treated as NSOs.

5.9 Payment of Option Price.

A Participant shall pay for the exercise of a Vested Option in United States currency by either (i) cash or personal or certified check payable to the Company in an amount equal to the aggregate Option Price of the Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised or (ii) with the consent of the Committee, by instructing the Company to withhold from the number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised a number of Shares having, as of the date of such exercise, a Fair Market Value equal to the aggregate Option Price of the Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised.

5.10 Notice of Exercise.

A Participant (or other Person, as provided in Section 9.2) may exercise an Option (for the Shares represented thereby) in whole or in part (but for the purchase of whole Shares only), as provided in the Award Agreement evidencing his or her Option, by delivering a written notice (the "Notice") to the Secretary of the Company. The Notice shall state:

- (a) That the Participant elects to exercise the Option;
- (b) The number of Shares with respect to which the Option is being exercised (the "Option Shares");
- (c) The method of payment for the Option Shares (which method must be available to the Participant under the terms of his or her Award Agreement);
- (d) The date upon which the Participant desires to consummate the purchase (which date must be prior to the termination of such Option);
- (e) A copy of any election filed or intended to be filed by the Participant with respect to such Option Shares pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code; and
- (f) Any additional provisions consistent with the Plan as the Committee may from time to time require.

The exercise date of an Option shall be the date on which the Company receives the Notice from the Participant. Such Notice shall also contain, to the extent that such Participant is not then a party to the Investor Rights Agreement, an adoption agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Committee, pursuant to which the Participant agrees to become a party to the Investor Rights Agreement (an "Adoption Agreement"). The Participant shall also execute any other documentation as reasonably required by the Committee.

5.11 Issuance of Certificates.

The Company shall issue stock certificates in the name of the Participant (or such other Person exercising the Option in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.2), for the securities purchased upon exercise of an Option as soon as practicable after receipt of the Notice and payment of the aggregate Option Price for such securities; provided that the Company may elect to not issue any fractional Shares upon the exercise of any Options (determining the fractional Shares after aggregating all Shares issuable to a single holder as a result of an exercise of an Option for more than one Share) and in lieu of issuing such fractional Shares, shall pay the Participant the Fair Market Value thereof. Neither the Participant nor any Person exercising an Option in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.2 shall have any privileges as a stockholder of the Company with respect to any Shares subject to an Option granted under the Plan until the date of issuance of stock certificates pursuant to this Section 5.11. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required to deliver stock certificates to the Participant evidencing the Shares issued in connection with the exercise of Options if instead such Shares shall be recorded in the books of the Company (or, as applicable, its transfer agent or stock plan administrator).

RESTRICTED STOCK AWARDS

6.1 General.

Restricted Stock may be granted or sold under the Plan at any time and from time to time on or prior to the Termination Date. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall have plenary authority, in its sole discretion and consistent with applicable law, to determine:

- (a) The Persons (from among the class of Persons eligible to receive Restricted Stock under the Plan) to whom Restricted Stock Awards shall be granted or sold;
- (b) The time or times at which Restricted Stock shall be granted or sold;
- (c) The number of Shares covered by a Restricted Stock Award; and
- (d) The per-Share purchase price, if any, for the Shares of Restricted Stock (the "Purchase Price").

6.2 Restricted Stock Award Terms.

Each Restricted Stock Award shall specify the number of Shares covered thereby and the purchase price, if any, for such Shares. In addition, each Restricted Stock Award shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that shall be executed by the Company and the Participant.

6.3 Vesting.

The Committee shall determine whether and to what extent any Shares covered by Restricted Stock Awards are also subject to vesting based upon the Participant's continued service to, or the performance of duties for, the Company and its Subsidiaries and/or the attainment of specified performance goals.

6.4 Payment of Purchase Price.

The Purchase Price, if any, for the Shares of Restricted Stock shall be determined by the Committee and set forth in the Award Agreement. A Participant shall pay the Purchase Price for the Shares of Restricted Stock in United States currency by cash or personal or certified check payable to the Company in an amount equal to the aggregate Purchase Price of the Shares covered by the Restricted Stock Award. In the event that the Participant files an election under Section 83(b) of the Code in connection with the purchase of the Restricted Stock, the Participant must promptly provide a copy of such election to the Secretary of the Company.

6.5 Issuance of Certificates.

The Company shall issue stock certificates in the name of the Participant for the securities purchased or granted pursuant to a Restricted Stock Award as soon as practicable after the grant of the Award and receipt of the payment, if any, of the aggregate Purchase Price for such securities. The Participant shall not have any privileges as a stockholder of the Company with respect to any Shares covered by a Restricted Stock Award granted under the Plan unless the Participant is a party to the Investor Rights Agreement (or has signed an Adoption Agreement with respect thereto) and until the date of issuance of stock certificates pursuant to this Section 6.5. The Company may require that any stock certificates issued in respect of Shares of Restricted Stock be deposited in escrow by the Participant, together with a stock power endorsed in blank, with the Company (or its designee). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required to deliver stock certificates to the Participant evidencing the Shares issued in connection with the Restricted Stock Award if instead such Shares shall be recorded in the books of the Company (or, as applicable, its transfer agent or stock plan administrator).

6.6 Dividends.

Participants holding Shares of Restricted Stock shall be entitled to all ordinary cash dividends paid with respect to such Shares, unless otherwise provided by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement. In addition, unless otherwise provided by the Committee, if any dividends or distributions are paid in Shares, or consist of a dividend or distribution to holders of Common Stock of property other than an ordinary cash dividend, the Shares or other property will be subject to the same restrictions on transferability and forfeitability as the Shares of Restricted Stock with respect to which they were paid. Each dividend payment will be made as provided in the applicable Award Agreement, but in no event later than the end of the calendar year in which the dividends are paid to holders of the Common Stock or, if later, the 15th day of the third month following the later of (A) the date the dividends are paid to the holders of the Common Stock, and (B) the date the dividends are no longer subject to forfeiture.

ARTICLE VII

RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT AWARDS

7.1 General.

Restricted Stock Units may be granted under the Plan at any time and from time to time on or prior to the Termination Date. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall have plenary authority, in its sole discretion and consistent with applicable law, to determine:

- (a) The Persons (from among the class of Persons eligible to receive Restricted Stock Units under the Plan) to whom Restricted Stock Unit Awards shall be granted;
- (b) The time or times at which Restricted Stock Units shall be granted and the settlement date for such Restricted Stock Units; and
- (c) The number of Shares with respect to which a Restricted Stock Unit Award relates.

7.2 Restricted Stock Unit Award Terms.

Each Restricted Stock Unit Award shall specify the number of Restricted Stock Units covered thereby and the settlement date for such Restricted Stock Units. In addition, each Restricted Stock Unit Award shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that shall be executed by the Company and the Participant.

7.3 Vesting.

The Committee shall determine whether and to what extent the Restricted Stock Unit Awards are also subject to vesting based upon the Participant's continued service to, or the performance of duties for, the Company and its Subsidiaries and/or the attainment of specified performance goals.

7.4 Settlement.

Upon the vesting of a Restricted Stock Unit, the Participant shall be entitled to receive from the Company one Share or an amount of cash or other property equal to the Fair Market Value of a Share on the settlement date, as provided in the applicable Award Agreement. The Committee may provide that settlement of Restricted Stock Units shall occur upon or as soon as reasonably practicable after the vesting of the Restricted Stock Units or shall instead be deferred, on a mandatory basis or at the election of the Participant, in a manner that complies with Section 409A of the Code and other applicable law.

7.5 Issuance of Certificates.

The Company shall issue stock certificates in the name of the Participant for the securities issued pursuant to a Restricted Stock Unit Award as soon as practicable after the settlement of the Award and the issuance of such securities. The Participant shall not have any privileges as a stockholder of the Company, including any voting rights, with respect to any Shares underlying Restricted Stock Unit Awards granted under the Plan prior to the settlement date, and the Participant shall not have any privileges as a stockholder of the Company with respect to Shares issued in connection with the settlement of such Award until the Participant is a party to the Investor Rights Agreement (or has signed an Adoption Agreement with respect thereto) and until the date of issuance of stock certificates pursuant to this Section 7.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required to deliver stock certificates to the Participant evidencing the Shares issued in connection with the settlement of a Restricted Stock Unit Award if instead such Shares shall be recorded in the books of the Company (or, as applicable, its transfer agent or stock plan administrator).

7.6 Dividend Equivalents.

To the extent provided by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement, a grant of Restricted Stock Units may provide a Participant with the right to receive the equivalent value (in cash or in Shares) of ordinary cash dividends paid with respect to the Shares ("Dividend Equivalents"). Dividend Equivalents may be paid currently or credited to an account for the Participant, may be settled in Shares and/or cash or other property and will be subject to the same restrictions on transferability and forfeitability as the Restricted Stock Units with respect to which they were are paid, as determined by the Committee, subject, in each case, to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall establish and set forth in the applicable Award Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

ADJUSTMENTS

8.1 Changes in Capital Structure.

If the Common Stock is changed (including as to its value) by reason of a stock split, reverse stock split, or stock combination, stock dividend or distribution, or converted into or exchanged for other securities as a result of a merger, consolidation or reorganization, or in connection with extraordinary cash dividends on the Common Stock, the Committee shall make such adjustments in the number and class of shares of stock available under the Plan as shall be necessary, in the Committee's good faith discretion, to preserve for a Participant rights substantially proportionate to his or her rights existing immediately prior to such transaction or event (but subject to the limitations and restrictions on such rights), including, without limitation, a corresponding adjustment changing the number and class of shares allocated to, and the Option Price or Purchase Price of, each Award or portion thereof outstanding at the time of such change. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, in the case of ISOs, no adjustment under this Section 8.1 shall be appropriate if such adjustment (a) would constitute a modification, extension or renewal of such ISOs within the meaning of Sections 422 and 424 of the Code, and the regulations promulgated by the Treasury Department thereunder, or (b) would, under Section 422 of the Code and the regulations promulgated by the Treasury Department thereunder, be considered the adoption of a new plan requiring stockholder approval. The Company will not, in any event, permit the exercise price of any Option to be less than the par value of the Common Stock.

8.2 Special Rules.

The following rules shall apply in connection with Section 8.1 above:

(a) No adjustment shall be made for cash dividends (except as described in Section 8.1) or the issuance to stockholders of rights to subscribe for additional Shares or other securities; and

(b) Any adjustments referred to in Section 8.1 shall be made by the Committee in its reasonable discretion and shall, absent manifest error, be conclusive and binding on all Persons holding any Awards granted under the Plan.

8.3 Deemed Repurchase and Come-Along Rights.

(a) Without limiting the application of any provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement, and without regard to whether a Participant is already a party to the Investor Rights Agreement, upon the occurrence of any event that would give rise to a Repurchase Right (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement) or a Come-Along Right (as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement), in each case to which Shares underlying an Option or Restricted Stock Unit would have been subject had such Option been exercised, or such Restricted Stock Unit been settled, as applicable, and had the Participant been delivered such Shares, immediately prior thereto, the Company or its designee may, but shall not be obligated to, cancel all or any portion of the Subject Awards (as defined below) for an amount of consideration equal to the consideration that would have been paid to a holder of the Shares underlying such Subject Awards in connection with the exercise of such Repurchase Right or Come-Along Right, as applicable, under the Investor Rights Agreement, less applicable tax withholding (and in the case of Options, less the Option Price thereof, and in the event that such amount would be equal to or less than zero, such Option may be canceled for no consideration); provided, that if necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, such amount shall not be payable with respect to any Restricted Stock Unit until the earliest time permitted by Section 409A of the Code. As used herein, the term "Subject Award" means, with respect to an Award, the portion of such Award relating to the number of Shares that would be subject to such Repurchase Right or Come-Along Right had they been issued to the Participant holding such Award and outstanding immediately prior thereto. Such cancellation and payment may be effected pursuant to any arrangement deemed appropriate by the Committee.

(b) For the sake of clarity, notwithstanding the foregoing, the outstanding Options, Restricted Stock, and Restricted Stock Units shall otherwise be subject to such adjustments as determined by the Committee pursuant to Section 8.1. Further, in no event shall the failure of the Company or its designee to exercise its rights under this Section 8.3 in connection with a Repurchase Right or Come-Along Right prejudice any of the Company's or its designee's rights under the Investor Rights Agreement with respect to either (i) any other Shares held by any Participant that may be subject to such Repurchase Right or Come-Along Right or (ii) any Shares issued to a Participant in the future upon exercise or settlement of any Subject Award that may in the future be subject to a future Repurchase Right or Come-Along Right.

ARTICLE IX

RESTRICTIONS ON AWARDS

9.1 Compliance With Securities Laws.

No Awards shall be granted under the Plan, and no securities shall be issued and delivered pursuant to Awards granted under the Plan, unless and until the Company and/or the Participant shall have complied with all applicable registration, listing and/or qualification requirements under any applicable law and all other requirements of law or of any regulatory agencies having jurisdiction.

The Committee in its discretion may, as a condition to the delivery of any Shares pursuant to any Award granted under the Plan, require a Participant (a) to represent in writing that the securities received pursuant to such Award are being acquired for investment and not with a view to distribution and (b) to make such other representations and warranties as are deemed reasonably appropriate by the Company. Stock certificates representing securities acquired under the Plan that have not been registered under the Securities Act shall, if required by the Committee, bear the legends as may be required by the Investor Rights Agreement and Award Agreement evidencing a particular Award.

9.2 Nonassignability of Awards.

No Award granted under this Plan shall be assignable or otherwise transferable by the Participant, except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution or as otherwise set forth in an Award Agreement. An Award may be exercised during the lifetime of the Participant only by the Participant. If a Participant dies, his or her Awards shall thereafter be exercisable, during the period specified in the applicable Award Agreement (as the case may be), by his or her executors or administrators to the full extent (but only to such extent) to which such Awards were exercisable by the Participant at the time of his or her death.

9.3 No Evidence of Employment or Other Service Relationship; No Rights to Future Awards.

Nothing contained in the Plan or in any Award Agreement shall confer upon any Participant any right with respect to the continuation of his or her employment by or other service relationship with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any such Subsidiary (subject to the terms of any separate agreement to the contrary) at any time to terminate such employment or other service relationship or to increase or decrease the compensation of the Participant from the rate in existence at the time of the grant of an Award. The grant of Awards under the Plan is a one-time benefit and does not create any contractual or other right to receive any other grant of other Awards under the Plan in the future. The grant of an Award does not form part of the Participant's entitlement to remuneration or benefits in terms of his or her employment or other service relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary.

9.4 Provisions for Foreign Participants – In General.

The Committee may modify Awards granted to Participants who are foreign nationals or employed outside the United States or establish subplans or procedures under the Plan to address differences in laws, rules, regulations or customs of such foreign jurisdictions with respect to tax, securities, currency, employee benefit or other matters.

9.5 Data Privacy.

As a condition of receipt of any Award, each Participant explicitly and unambiguously consents to the collection, use and transfer, in electronic or other form, of personal data as described in this paragraph by and among, as applicable, the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates for the exclusive purpose of implementing, administering and managing the Participant's participation in the Plan. The Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates may hold certain personal information about a Participant, including but not limited to, the Participant's name, home address and telephone number, date of birth, social security or insurance number or other identification number, salary, nationality, job title(s), any shares of stock held in the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, details of all Awards, in each case, for the purpose of implementing, managing and administering the Plan and Awards (the "Data"). The Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates may transfer the Data amongst themselves as necessary for the purpose of implementation, administration and management of a Participant's participation in the Plan, and the Company and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates may each further transfer the Data to any third parties assisting the Company in the implementation, administration and management of the Plan. These recipients may be located in the Participant's country, or elsewhere, and the Participant's country may have data privacy laws and protections that are different from those of the recipients' country. Through acceptance of an Award, each Participant authorizes such recipients to receive, possess, use, retain and transfer the Data, in electronic or other form, for the purposes of implementing, administering and managing the Participant's participation in the Plan, including any requisite transfer of such Data as may be required to a broker or other third party with whom the Company or the Participant may elect to deposit any Shares. The Data related to a Participant will be held only as long as is necessary to implement, administer, and manage the Participant's participation in the Plan. A Participant may, at any time, view the Data held by the Company with respect to such Participant, request additional information about the storage and processing of the Data with respect to such Participant, recommend any necessary corrections to the Data with respect to the Participant or refuse or withdraw the consents herein in writing, in any case without cost, by contacting his or her local human resources representative. The Company may cancel Participant's ability to participate in the Plan and, in the Committee's discretion, the Participant may forfeit any outstanding Awards if the Participant refuses or withdraws his or her consents as described herein. For more information on the consequences of refusal to consent or withdrawal of consent, Participants may contact their local human resources representative.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE PLAN

This Plan shall become effective on the date of its adoption by the Executive Committee (the “Effective Date”); provided, however, that no ISO shall be exercisable by a Participant unless and until the Plan shall have been approved by the stockholders of the Company in accordance with the provisions of its Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws, which approval shall be obtained by a simple majority vote of stockholders, voting either in person or by proxy, at a duly held stockholders’ meeting, or by written consent, within twelve months before or after the adoption of the Plan by the Executive Committee.

TERMINATION OF THE PLAN

No Awards may be granted after the Termination Date. Any Awards outstanding as of the Termination Date shall remain in effect in accordance with their applicable terms and conditions and the terms and conditions of the Plan.

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENT OF PLAN

The Plan may be modified or amended in any respect by the Committee with the prior approval of the Executive Committee; provided, however, that the approval of the holders of a majority of the votes that may be cast by all of the holders of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote (voting together as a single class, with each such holder entitled to cast one vote per share held by such holder) shall be obtained prior to any such amendment becoming effective if such approval is required by law or is necessary to comply with regulations promulgated by the Commission under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act or with Section 422 of the Code or the regulations promulgated by the Treasury Department thereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Plan may not be modified or amended with respect to any existing Award Agreement without the consent of such Participant if such change would materially impair the rights of such Participant.

ARTICLE XIII

CAPTIONS

The use of captions in this Plan is for convenience. The captions are not intended to provide substantive rights.

DISQUALIFYING DISPOSITIONS

If securities acquired by exercise of an ISO granted under this Plan are disposed of within two years following the date of grant of the ISO or one year following the issuance of the securities to the Participant (a “Disqualifying Disposition”), the holder of such securities shall, immediately prior to such Disqualifying Disposition, notify the Company in writing of the date and terms of such Disqualifying Disposition and provide such other information regarding the Disqualifying Disposition as the Company may reasonably require.

ARTICLE XV

WITHHOLDING TAXES

Whenever any taxes are required by law to be withheld in connection with Shares delivered to a Participant pursuant to Awards under the Plan (including, without limitation, upon exercise of an NSO (or an exercise of an ISO that will be taxed as an NSO)), such Participant shall remit or, in appropriate circumstances, agree to remit when due, an amount sufficient to satisfy all current or estimated future federal, state, local and foreign withholding tax and employment tax requirements relating thereto. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, allow the Participant to satisfy the withholding tax obligations arising in connection with the delivery of such Shares pursuant to an Award under the Plan by electing to have the Company withhold from the Shares to be issued that number of Shares having a Fair Market Value equal to the amount required to be withheld, determined on the date that the amount of tax to be withheld is determined.

ARTICLE XVI

OTHER PROVISIONS

16.1 Other Provisions.

Each Award granted under the Plan may contain such other terms and conditions not inconsistent with the Plan as may be determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each ISO granted under the Plan shall include those terms and conditions that are necessary to qualify the ISO as an “incentive stock option” within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code and the regulations thereunder and shall not include any terms or conditions that are inconsistent therewith.

16.2 Separability of Provisions.

If any particular provision of this Plan shall be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable for any reason, such provision, as to such jurisdiction, shall be ineffective, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Plan or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such provision could be more narrowly drawn so as not to be invalid, prohibited or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, it shall, as to such jurisdiction, be so narrowly drawn, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Plan or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

ARTICLE XVII

NUMBER AND GENDER

With respect to words used in this Plan, the singular form shall include the plural form, the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender, and vice-versa, as the context requires.

ARTICLE XVIII

SECTION 409A OF THE CODE

It is intended that Awards granted under the Plan will not result in the imposition of any tax liability pursuant to Section 409A of the Code. The Plan and each Award Agreement shall be construed and interpreted consistent with that intent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, if a Participant is a "specified employee" as defined in Section 409A of the Code on such Participant's separation from service (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) with the Company, the Participant shall not be entitled to any payments hereunder that would be treated as deferred compensation subject to Section 409A of the Code until the earlier of (i) the date which is six (6) months after his or her separation from service with the Company for any reason other than death and (ii) the date of the Participant's death. Any amounts otherwise payable to the Participant following the Termination of Relationship that are not so paid by reason of this Article XVIII shall be paid as soon as practicable after the date that is six (6) months after the Participant's separation from service with the Company (or, if earlier, the date of the Participant's death). The provisions of this Article XVIII shall apply only if, and to the extent, required to comply with Section 409A of the Code. No provision of this Plan or any Award granted thereunder shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from any Participant or any other individual to the Company or any of its Affiliates, employees or agents. All questions concerning the construction, interpretation and validity of this Plan and the instruments evidencing the Awards granted hereunder shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the domestic laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether in the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware. In furtherance of the foregoing, the internal law of the State of Delaware will control the interpretation and construction of this Plan, even if under such jurisdiction's choice of law or conflict of law analysis the substantive law of some other jurisdiction would ordinarily apply.

Each of the Company and, by acceptance of an Award, each Participant irrevocably (i) consents to submit itself, himself or herself to the personal jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery, or in the event (but only in the event) that the Delaware Court of Chancery does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, or in the event (but only in the event) that such United States District Court for the District of Delaware also does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such legal action or proceeding, any Delaware state court sitting in New Castle County, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the actions of the parties hereof, (ii) agrees that it, he, or she will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court, and (iii) agrees that it, he, or she will not bring any action relating to the Plan, any Award Agreement, or any Award made thereunder in any court other than the courts of the State of Delaware, as described above. Each of the Company and, by acceptance of an Award, each Participant hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to the Plan, any Award Agreement, or any Award made thereunder, any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above-named courts for any reason other than the failure to serve process in accordance with this Article XIX, that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, that the suit, action or proceeding in any such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or that the Plan, any Award Agreement, or any Award made thereunder may not be enforced in or by such courts and further irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the benefit of any defense that would hinder, fetter or delay the levy, execution or collection of any amount to which the Company or a Participant is entitled pursuant to the final judgment of any court having jurisdiction. Each of the Company and, by acceptance of an Award, each Participant expressly acknowledges that the foregoing waiver is intended to be irrevocable under the laws of the State of Delaware and of the United States of America; provided, that the Company's and any Participant's consent to jurisdiction and service contained in this Article XIX is solely for the purpose referred to in this Article XIX and shall not be deemed to be a general submission to said courts or in the State of Delaware other than for such purpose.

EACH OF THE COMPANY AND, BY ACCEPTANCE OF AN AWARD, EACH PARTICIPANT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, CLAIM OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE PLAN, ANY AWARD AGREEMENT, OR ANY AWARD MADE THEREUNDER.

The Share Limit shall be reduced, on the date of grant of an Award, by the relevant number of shares of Common Stock for each Award granted under the Plan that is valued by reference to a share of Common Stock; provided that Awards that are valued by reference to shares of Common Stock but are required to be paid in cash pursuant to their terms shall not reduce the Share Limit. Any Shares distributed pursuant to an Award may consist, in whole or in part, of authorized and unissued Common Stock, treasury Common Stock or Common Stock purchased on the open market.

(b) The following Shares subject to an Award shall again be available for future grants of Awards under the Plan: (i) Shares subject to an Award that is forfeited or expires (including Shares repurchased by the Company under Section 7.4 at the same price paid by the Participant), (ii) Shares converted to shares of another person in connection with a recapitalization, reorganization, merger, consolidation, split-up, spin-off, combination, exchange of shares or other similar event, (iii) Shares subject to any portion of an Award that is settled in cash, (iv) Shares tendered by a Participant or withheld by the Company in payment of the exercise price of an Option; (v) Shares tendered by the Participant or withheld by the Company to satisfy any tax withholding obligation with respect to an Award; (vi) Shares subject to Stock Appreciation Rights that are not issued in connection with the stock settlement of the Stock Appreciation Rights on exercise thereof and (vii) Shares purchased on the open market by the Company with the cash proceeds received from the exercise of Options. Further, the payment of Dividend Equivalents in cash in conjunction with any outstanding Awards shall not be counted against the Shares available for issuance under the Plan. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 3.1(b), no Shares may again be optioned, granted or awarded if such action would cause an Incentive Stock Option to fail to qualify as an incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Code.

(c) Substitute Awards may be granted on such terms as the Administrator deems appropriate, notwithstanding limitations on Awards in the Plan. Substitute Awards shall not reduce the Shares authorized for grant under the Plan, except as may be required by reason of Section 422 of the Code, and Shares subject to such Substitute Awards shall not be added to the Shares available for Awards under the Plan as provided in Section 3.1(b) above. Additionally, in the event that a company acquired by the Company or any Subsidiary or with which the Company or any Subsidiary combines has shares available under a pre-existing plan approved by its stockholders and not adopted in contemplation of such acquisition or combination, the shares available for grant pursuant to the terms of such pre-existing plan (as adjusted, to the extent appropriate, using the exchange ratio or other adjustment or valuation ratio or formula used in such acquisition or combination to determine the consideration payable to the holders of common stock of the entities party to such acquisition or combination) may be used for Awards under the Plan and shall not reduce the Shares authorized for grant under the Plan (and Shares subject to such Awards shall not be added to the Shares available for Awards under the Plan as provided in Section 3.1(b) above); provided that Awards using such available Shares shall not be made after the date awards or grants could have been made under the terms of the pre-existing plan, absent the acquisition or combination, and shall be made only to individuals who were not employed by or providing services to the Company or its Subsidiaries immediately prior to such acquisition or combination.

GRANTING OF AWARDS

4.1 Participation. The Administrator may, from time to time, select from among all Eligible Individuals, those to whom an Award shall be granted and shall determine the nature and amount of each Award, which shall not be inconsistent with the requirements of the Plan. No Eligible Individual or other person shall have any right to be granted an Award pursuant to the Plan and neither the Company nor the Administrator is obligated to treat Eligible Individuals, Participants or any other persons uniformly. Participation by each Participant in the Plan shall be voluntary and nothing in the Plan shall be construed as mandating that any Eligible Individual or other person shall participate in the Plan.

4.2 Award Agreement. Each Award shall be evidenced by an Award Agreement that sets forth the terms, conditions and limitations for such Award as determined by the Administrator in its sole discretion (consistent with the requirements of the Plan). Award Agreements evidencing Incentive Stock Options shall contain such terms and conditions as may be necessary to meet the applicable provisions of Section 422 of the Code. The Administrator, in its sole discretion, may grant Awards to Eligible Individuals that are based on one or more Performance Criteria or achievement of one or more Performance Goals or any such other criteria or goals as the Administrator shall establish.

4.3 Limitations Applicable to Section 16 Persons. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, the Plan, and any Award granted or awarded to any individual who is then subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, shall be subject to any additional limitations set forth in any applicable exemptive rule under Section 16 of the Exchange Act (including Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act and any amendments thereto) that are requirements for the application of such exemptive rule. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the Plan and Awards granted or awarded hereunder shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to such applicable exemptive rule.

4.4 At-Will Service. Nothing in the Plan or in any Award Agreement hereunder shall confer upon any Participant any right to continue in the employ of, or as a Director or Consultant of, the Company or any Subsidiary, or shall interfere with or restrict in any way any rights of the Company and any Subsidiary, which rights are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge any Participant at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause, and with or without notice, or to terminate or change all other terms and conditions of employment or engagement, except to the extent expressly provided otherwise in a written agreement between the Participant and the Company or any Subsidiary.

4.5 Director Limit. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Plan or in any policy of the Company regarding compensation payable to a Non-Employee Director, the sum of the grant date fair value (determined in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 718, or any successor thereto) of all Awards payable in Shares and the maximum cash value of any other Award granted under the Plan to an individual as compensation for services as a Non-Employee Director, together with cash compensation paid to such Director in the form of Board and Committee retainer, meeting or similar fees, during any fiscal year of the Company shall not exceed $ (the "Director Limit"), provided, that the foregoing limitation shall not apply in respect of any compensation payable in the year of a Non-Employee Director's initial appointment or election to the Board. For avoidance of doubt, compensation will count towards this limit for the fiscal year in which it was granted or earned, and not later when distributed, in the event it is deferred. The foregoing limit may not be increased without the approval of the stockholders of the Company.

4.6 Non-U.S. Participants. Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, in order to comply with the laws in countries other than the United States in which the Company and its Subsidiaries operate or have Employees, Directors or Consultants, or in order to comply with the requirements of any non-U.S. securities exchange or other Applicable Law, the Administrator, in its sole discretion, shall have the power and authority to: (a) determine which Subsidiaries shall be covered by the Plan; (b) determine which Eligible Individuals outside the United States are eligible to participate in the Plan; (c) modify the terms and conditions of any Award granted to Eligible Individuals outside the United States to comply with Applicable Law (including, without limitation, applicable non-U.S. laws or listing requirements of any non-U.S. securities exchange); (d) establish subplans and modify exercise procedures and other terms and procedures, to the extent such actions may be necessary or advisable; provided, however, that no such subplans and/or modifications shall increase the Share Limit contained in Section 3.1 or the Director Limit; and (e) take any action, before or after an Award is made, that it deems advisable to obtain approval or comply with any necessary local governmental regulatory exemptions or approvals or listing requirements of any non-U.S. securities exchange.

ARTICLE 5.

GRANTING OF OPTIONS AND STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

5.1 Granting of Options and Stock Appreciation Rights to Eligible Individuals. The Administrator is authorized to grant Options and Stock Appreciation Rights to Eligible Individuals from time to time, in its sole discretion, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, which shall not be inconsistent with the Plan.

5.2 Qualification of Incentive Stock Options. The Administrator may grant Options intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options only to employees of the Company, any of the Company's present or future "parent corporations" or "subsidiary corporations" as defined in Sections 424(e) or (f) of the Code, respectively, and any other entities the employees of which are eligible to receive Incentive Stock Options under the Code. No person who qualifies as a Greater Than 10% Stockholder may be granted an Incentive Stock Option unless such Incentive Stock Option conforms to the applicable provisions of Section 422 of the Code. To the extent that the aggregate fair market value of stock with respect to which "incentive stock options" (within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code, but without regard to Section 422(d) of the Code) are exercisable for the first time by a Participant during any calendar year under the Plan, and all other plans of the Company and any parent corporation or subsidiary corporation thereof (as defined in Section 424(e) and 424(f) of the Code, respectively), exceeds $100,000, the Options shall be treated as Non-Qualified Stock Options to the extent required by Section 422 of the Code. The rule set forth in the immediately preceding sentence shall be applied by taking Options and other "incentive stock options" into account in the order in which they were granted and the fair market value of stock shall be determined as of the time the respective options were granted. Any interpretations and rules under the Plan with respect to Incentive Stock Options shall be consistent with the provisions of Section 422 of the Code. Neither the Company nor the Administrator shall have any liability to a Participant, or any other person, (a) if an Option (or any part thereof) which is intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option fails to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option or (b) for any action or omission by the Company or the Administrator that causes an Option not to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option, including, without limitation, the conversion of an Incentive Stock Option to a Non-Qualified Stock Option or the grant of an Option intended as an Incentive Stock Option that fails to satisfy the requirements under the Code applicable to an Incentive Stock Option.

5.3 Option and Stock Appreciation Right Exercise Price. The exercise price per Share subject to each Option and Stock Appreciation Right shall be set by the Administrator, but shall not be less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date the Option or Stock Appreciation Right, as applicable, is granted (or, as to Incentive Stock Options, on the date the Option is modified, extended or renewed for purposes of Section 424(h) of the Code). In addition, in the case of Incentive Stock Options granted to a Greater Than 10% Stockholder, such price shall not be less than 110% of the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date the Option is granted (or the date the Option is modified, extended or renewed for purposes of Section 424(h) of the Code). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of an Option or Stock Appreciation Right that is a Substitute Award, the exercise price per share of the Shares subject to such Option or Stock Appreciation Right, as applicable, may be less than the Fair Market Value per share on the date of grant; provided that the exercise price of any Substitute Award shall be determined in accordance with the applicable requirements of Section 424 and 409A of the Code.

5.4 Option and SAR Term. The term of each Option (the “Option Term”) and the term of each Stock Appreciation Right (the “SAR Term”) shall be set by the Administrator in its sole discretion; provided, however, that the Option Term or SAR Term, as applicable, shall not be more than (a) ten (10) years from the date the Option or Stock Appreciation Right, as applicable, is granted to an Eligible Individual or (b) five (5) years from the date an Incentive Stock Option is granted to a Greater Than 10% Stockholder. Except as limited by the requirements of Section 409A or Section 422 of the Code and regulations and rulings thereunder or the first sentence of this Section 5.4 and without limiting the Company’s rights under Section 10.7, the Administrator may extend the Option Term of any outstanding Option or the SAR Term of any outstanding Stock Appreciation Right, and may extend the time period during which vested Options or Stock Appreciation Rights may be exercised, in connection with any Termination of Service of the Participant or otherwise, and may amend, subject to Section 10.7 and 12.1, any other term or condition of such Option or Stock Appreciation Right relating to such Termination of Service of the Participant or otherwise. Further, unless determined otherwise by the Company, in the event that on the last business day of the term of an Option or Stock Appreciation Right (other than an Incentive Stock Option) (i) the exercise of the Option or Stock Appreciation Right is prohibited by Applicable Law, as determined by the Company, or (ii) Shares may not be purchased or sold by the applicable Participant due to any Company insider trading policy (including blackout periods), the term of the Option or Stock Appreciation Right shall be extended until the date that is thirty (30) days after the end of the legal prohibition or black-out period, as determined by the Company; provided, however, in no event shall the extension last beyond the ten (10) year (or shorter) term of the applicable Option or Stock Appreciation Right.

5.5 Option and SAR Vesting. The period during which the Participant may have a right to vest in and exercise, in whole or in part, an Option or Stock Appreciation Right shall be set by the Administrator and set forth in the applicable Award Agreement. At any time after the grant of an Option, the Administrator may, in its sole discretion and subject to whatever terms and conditions it selects, accelerate the vesting of the Option; provided, however, that in no event shall an Option become exercisable following its expiration, termination or forfeiture. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless otherwise determined by the Administrator in the Award Agreement or by action of the Administrator following the grant of the Option or Stock Appreciation Right (i) no portion of an Option or Stock Appreciation Right which is unexercisable at a Participant’s Termination of Service shall thereafter become exercisable and (ii) the portion of an Option or Stock Appreciation Right that is unexercisable at a Participant’s Termination of Service shall automatically expire on the date of such Termination of Service.

5.6 Substitution of Stock Appreciation Rights. The Administrator may provide in the applicable Award Agreement evidencing the grant of an Option that the Administrator, in its sole discretion, shall have the right to substitute a Stock Appreciation Right for such Option at any time prior to or upon exercise of such Option; provided that such Stock Appreciation Right shall be exercisable with respect to the same number of Shares for which such substituted Option would have been exercisable, and shall also have the same exercise price, vesting schedule and remaining term as the substituted Option.

EXERCISE OF OPTIONS AND STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

6.1 Exercise and Payment. An exercisable Option or Stock Appreciation Right may be exercised in whole or in part. However, unless the Administrator otherwise determines, an Option or Stock Appreciation Right shall not be exercisable with respect to fractional Shares and the Administrator may require that, by the terms of the Option or Stock Appreciation Right, a partial exercise must be with respect to a minimum number of Shares. Payment of the amounts payable with respect to Stock Appreciation Rights pursuant to this Article 6 shall be in cash, Shares (based on the Fair Market Value as of the date the Stock Appreciation Right is exercised), or a combination of both, as determined by the Administrator.

6.2 Manner of Exercise. All or a portion of an exercisable Option or Stock Appreciation Right shall be deemed exercised upon delivery of all of the following to the Secretary of the Company, the stock plan administrator of the Company or such other person or entity designated by the Administrator, or his, her or its office, as applicable:

(a) A written or electronic notice complying with the applicable rules established by the Administrator stating that the Option or Stock Appreciation Right, or a portion thereof, is exercised. The notice shall be signed or otherwise acknowledged electronically by the Participant or other person then entitled to exercise the Option or Stock Appreciation Right or such portion thereof;

(b) Such representations and documents as the Administrator, in its sole discretion, deems necessary or advisable to effect compliance with Applicable Law.

(c) In the event that the Option or Stock Appreciation Right shall be exercised pursuant to Section 10.3 by any person or persons other than the Participant, appropriate proof of the right of such person or persons to exercise the Option or Stock Appreciation Right, as determined in the sole discretion of the Administrator; and

(d) Full payment of the exercise price and applicable withholding taxes for the Shares with respect to which the Option or Stock Appreciation Right, or portion thereof, is exercised, in a manner permitted by the Administrator in accordance with Sections 10.1 and 10.2.

6.3 Notification Regarding Disposition. The Participant shall give the Company prompt written or electronic notice of any disposition of Shares acquired by exercise of an Incentive Stock Option which occurs within (a) two (2) years from the date of granting (including the date the Option is modified, extended or renewed for purposes of Section 424(h) of the Code) such Option to such Participant, or (b) one (1) year after the date of transfer of such Shares to such Participant. Such notice shall specify the date of such disposition or other transfer and the amount realized, in cash, other property, assumption of indebtedness or other consideration, by the Participant in such disposition or other transfer.

ARTICLE 7.

AWARD OF RESTRICTED STOCK

7.1 Award of Restricted Stock. The Administrator is authorized to grant Restricted Stock to Eligible Individuals, and shall determine the terms and conditions, including the restrictions applicable to each award of Restricted Stock, which terms and conditions shall not be inconsistent with the Plan, and may impose such conditions on the issuance of such Restricted Stock as it deems appropriate. The Administrator shall establish the purchase price, if any, and form of payment for Restricted Stock; provided, however, that if a purchase price is charged, such purchase price shall be no less than the par value, if any, of the Shares to be purchased, unless otherwise permitted by Applicable Law. In all cases, legal consideration shall be required for each issuance of Restricted Stock to the extent required by Applicable Law.

7.2 Rights as Stockholders. Subject to Section 7.4, upon issuance of Restricted Stock, the Participant shall have, unless otherwise provided by the Administrator, all of the rights of a stockholder with respect to said Shares, subject to the restrictions in the Plan and/or the applicable Award Agreement, including the right to receive all dividends and other distributions paid or made with respect to the Shares to the extent such dividends and other distributions have a record date that is on or after the date on which the Participant to whom such Restricted Stock are granted becomes the record holder of such Restricted Stock; provided, however, that, any dividends and distributions with respect to the Shares shall be subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 7.3.

7.3 Restrictions. All shares of Restricted Stock (including any shares received by holders thereof with respect to shares of Restricted Stock as a result of stock dividends, stock splits or any other form of recapitalization) shall be subject to such restrictions and vesting requirements as the Administrator shall provide in the applicable Award Agreement. By action taken after the Restricted Stock is issued, the Administrator may, on such terms and conditions as it may determine to be appropriate, accelerate the vesting of such Restricted Stock by removing any or all of the restrictions imposed by the terms of the applicable Award Agreement.

7.4 Repurchase or Forfeiture of Restricted Stock. Except as otherwise determined by the Administrator, if no price was paid by the Participant for the Restricted Stock, upon a Termination of Service during the applicable restriction period, the Participant's rights in unvested Restricted Stock then subject to restrictions shall lapse, and such Restricted Stock shall be surrendered to the Company and cancelled without consideration on the date of such Termination of Service. If a price was paid by the Participant for the Restricted Stock, upon a Termination of Service during the applicable restriction period, the Company shall have the right to repurchase from the Participant the unvested Restricted Stock then subject to restrictions at a cash price per share equal to the price paid by the Participant for such Restricted Stock or such other amount as may be specified in the applicable Award Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Administrator, in its sole discretion, may provide that upon certain events, including, without limitation, a Change in Control, the Participant's death, retirement or Disability or any other specified Termination of Service or any other event, the Participant's rights in unvested Restricted Stock then subject to restrictions shall not lapse, such Restricted Stock shall vest and cease to be forfeitable and, if applicable, the Company shall cease to have a right of repurchase.

7.4 Section 83(b) Election. If a Participant makes an election under Section 83(b) of the Code to be taxed with respect to the Restricted Stock as of the date of transfer of the Restricted Stock rather than as of the date or dates upon which the Participant would otherwise be taxable under Section 83(a) of the Code, the Participant shall be required to deliver a copy of such election to the Company promptly after filing such election with the Internal Revenue Service along with proof of the timely filing thereof with the Internal Revenue Service.

AWARD OF RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS

8.1 Grant of Restricted Stock Units. The Administrator is authorized to grant Awards of Restricted Stock Units to any Eligible Individual selected by the Administrator in such amounts and subject to such terms and conditions as determined by the Administrator. A Participant will have no rights of a stockholder with respect to Shares subject to any Restricted Stock Unit unless and until the Shares are delivered in settlement of the Restricted Stock Unit.

8.2 Vesting of Restricted Stock Units. At the time of grant, the Administrator shall specify the date or dates on which the Restricted Stock Units shall become fully vested and nonforfeitable, and may specify such conditions to vesting as it deems appropriate, including, without limitation, vesting based upon the Participant's duration of service to the Company or any Subsidiary, or vesting based on achievement of one or more Performance Goals, in each case on a specified date or dates or over any period or periods, as determined by the Administrator. By action taken after the Restricted Stock Units are granted, the Administrator may, on such terms and conditions as it may determine to be appropriate, accelerate the vesting of such Restricted Stock Units by removing any or all of the restrictions imposed by the terms of the applicable Award Agreement.

8.3 Settlement and Payment. At the time of grant, the Administrator shall specify the settlement date applicable to each grant of Restricted Stock Units, which shall be no earlier than the vesting date or dates of the Award and may be determined at the election of the Participant (if permitted by the applicable Award Agreement); provided that, except as otherwise determined by the Administrator, and subject to compliance with Section 409A, in no event shall the settlement date relating to each Restricted Stock Unit occur following the later of (a) the 15th day of the third month following the end of the calendar year in which the applicable portion of the Restricted Stock Unit vests; or (b) the 15th day of the third month following the end of the Company's fiscal year in which the applicable portion of the Restricted Stock Unit vests. On the settlement date, the Company shall, in accordance with the applicable Award Agreement and subject to Section 10.4(f), transfer to the Participant one unrestricted, fully transferable Share for each Restricted Stock Unit scheduled to be paid out on such date and not previously forfeited, or in the sole discretion of the Administrator, an amount in cash equal to the Fair Market Value of such Shares on the settlement date or a combination of cash and Common Stock as determined by the Administrator.

8.4 Payment upon Termination of Service. An Award of Restricted Stock Units shall be payable only while the Participant is an Employee, a Non-Employee Director or a Consultant; provided, however, that the Administrator, in its sole discretion, may provide (in an Award Agreement or otherwise) that a Restricted Stock Unit award may be paid subsequent to a Termination of Service in certain events, including a Change in Control, the Participant's death, retirement or Disability or any other specified Termination of Service.

ARTICLE 9.

AWARD OF OTHER STOCK OR CASH BASED AWARDS AND DIVIDEND EQUIVALENTS

9.1 Other Stock or Cash Based Awards. The Administrator is authorized to grant Other Stock or Cash Based Awards, including awards entitling a Participant to receive Shares or cash to be delivered immediately or in the future, to any Eligible Individual. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Administrator shall determine the terms and conditions of each Other Stock or Cash Based Award, including the term of the Award, any exercise or purchase price, any Performance Criteria and Performance Goals, transfer restrictions, vesting conditions and other terms and conditions applicable thereto, which shall be set forth in the applicable Award Agreement. Other Stock or Cash Based Awards may be paid in cash, Shares, or a combination of cash and Shares, as determined by the Administrator, and may be available as a form of payment in the settlement of other Awards granted under the Plan, as stand-alone payments, as a part of a bonus, deferred bonus, deferred compensation or other arrangement, and/or as payment in lieu of compensation to which an Eligible Individual is otherwise entitled.

9.2 Dividend Equivalents and Dividends. Dividend Equivalents may be granted by the Administrator, either alone or in tandem with another Award, based on dividends declared on the Common Stock, to be credited as of dividend payment dates during the period between the date the Dividend Equivalents are granted to a Participant and the date such Dividend Equivalents terminate or expire, as determined by the Administrator. Such Dividend Equivalents shall be converted to cash or additional Shares by such formula and at such time and subject to such restrictions and limitations as may be determined by the Administrator. Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, Dividend Equivalents with respect to an Award that are based on dividends paid prior to the vesting of such Award shall be paid out to the Participant only to the extent that the vesting conditions are subsequently satisfied and the Award vests and in no event may any Award provide for a Participant's receipt of any other dividends prior to the vesting of such Award. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Dividend Equivalents shall be payable with respect to Options or Stock Appreciation Rights.

ARTICLE 10.

ADDITIONAL TERMS OF AWARDS

10.1 Payment. The Administrator shall determine the method or methods by which payments by any Participant with respect to any Awards granted under the Plan shall be made, including, without limitation: (a) cash, wire transfer of immediately available funds or check, (b) Shares (including, in the case of payment of the exercise price of an Award, Shares issuable pursuant to the exercise of the Award) or Shares held for such minimum period of time as may be established by the Administrator, in each case, having a Fair Market Value on the date of delivery equal to the aggregate payments required, (c) delivery of a written or electronic notice that the Participant has placed a market sell order with a broker acceptable to the Company with respect to Shares then issuable upon exercise or vesting of an Award, and that the broker has been directed to pay a sufficient portion of the net proceeds of the sale to the Company in satisfaction of the aggregate payments required; provided that payment of such proceeds is then made to the Company upon settlement of such sale, (d) having the Company withhold from the number of Shares otherwise issuable or deliverable pursuant to the exercise or settlement of the Award a number of Shares with a Fair Market Value on such date equal to the aggregate payments required; (e) other form of legal consideration acceptable to the Administrator in its sole discretion, or (f) any combination of the above permitted forms of payment. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan to the contrary, no Participant who is a Director or an “executive officer” of the Company within the meaning of Section 13(k) of the Exchange Act shall be permitted to make payment with respect to any Awards granted under the Plan, or continue any extension of credit with respect to such payment, with a loan from the Company or a loan arranged by the Company in violation of Section 13(k) of the Exchange Act.

10.2 Tax Withholding. The Company or any Subsidiary shall have the authority and the right to deduct or withhold from any payment of any kind otherwise due to a Participant, or require a Participant to remit to the Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy U.S. federal, state, local and non-U.S. taxes (including the Participant’s FICA, employment tax or other social security contribution obligation) required or permitted by law to be withheld with respect to any taxable event concerning a Participant arising as a result of the Plan or any Award. The Administrator may, in its sole discretion and in satisfaction of the foregoing requirement, allow a Participant to satisfy such obligations by any payment means described in Section 10.1 hereof, including without limitation, by allowing such Participant to elect to have the Company withhold Shares otherwise issuable under an Award (or allow the surrender of Shares). The number of Shares which may be so withheld or surrendered shall be limited to the number of Shares that have a fair market value on the date of withholding or repurchase no greater than the aggregate amount of such liabilities based on the maximum statutory withholding rates in such Participant’s applicable jurisdictions for U.S. federal, state, local and non-U.S. income tax and payroll tax purposes that are applicable to such taxable income (or such other rate as may be required to avoid adverse accounting consequences). The Administrator shall determine the fair market value of the Shares, consistent with applicable provisions of the Code and other Applicable Law, for tax withholding obligations due in connection with a broker-assisted cashless Option or Stock Appreciation Right exercise involving the sale of Shares to pay the Option or Stock Appreciation Right exercise price or any tax withholding obligation.

10.3 Transferability of Awards.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 10.3(b) and 10.3(c):

(i) No Award under the Plan may be sold, pledged, assigned or transferred in any manner other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution;

(ii) No Award or interest or right therein shall be liable for or otherwise subject to the debts, contracts or engagements of the Participant or the Participant's successors in interest or shall be subject to disposition by transfer, alienation, anticipation, pledge, hypothecation, encumbrance, assignment or any other means whether such disposition be voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law by judgment, levy, attachment, garnishment or any other legal or equitable proceedings (including bankruptcy) unless and until such Award has been exercised, or the Shares underlying such Award have been issued, and all restrictions applicable to such Shares have lapsed, and any attempted disposition of an Award prior to satisfaction of these conditions shall be null and void and of no effect, except to the extent that such disposition is permitted by Section 10.3(a) (i); and

(iii) During the lifetime of the Participant, only the Participant may exercise any exercisable portion of an Award granted to such Participant under the Plan. After the death of the Participant, any exercisable portion of an Award may, prior to the time when such portion becomes unexercisable under the Plan or the applicable Award Agreement, be exercised by the Participant's personal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the deceased Participant's will or under the then-applicable laws of descent and distribution.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 10.3(a), the Administrator, in its sole discretion, may determine to permit a Participant or a Permitted Transferee of such Participant to transfer an Award other than an Incentive Stock Option (unless such Incentive Stock Option is intended to become a Nonqualified Stock Option) to any one or more Permitted Transferees of such Participant, subject to the following terms and conditions: (i) an Award transferred to a Permitted Transferee shall not be assignable or transferable by the Permitted Transferee other than (A) to another Permitted Transferee of the applicable Participant or (B) by will or the laws of descent and distribution or, subject to the consent of the Administrator; (ii) an Award transferred to a Permitted Transferee shall continue to be subject to all the terms and conditions of the Award as applicable to the original Participant (other than the ability to further transfer the Award to any person other than another Permitted Transferee of the applicable Participant); (iii) the Participant (or transferring Permitted Transferee) and the receiving Permitted Transferee shall execute any and all documents requested by the Administrator, including, without limitation documents to (A) confirm the status of the transferee as a Permitted Transferee, (B) satisfy any requirements for an exemption for the transfer under Applicable Law and (C) evidence the transfer; and (iv) the transfer of an Award to a Permitted Transferee shall be without consideration. In addition, and further notwithstanding Section 10.3(a), hereof, the Administrator, in its sole discretion, may determine to permit a Participant to transfer Incentive Stock Options to a trust that constitutes a Permitted Transferee if, under Section 671 of the Code and other Applicable Law, the Participant is considered the sole beneficial owner of the Incentive Stock Option while it is held in the trust.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 10.3(a), a Participant may, in the sole discretion of and manner determined by the Administrator, designate a beneficiary to exercise the rights of the Participant and to receive any distribution with respect to any Award upon the Participant's death. A beneficiary, legal guardian, legal representative, or other person claiming any rights pursuant to the Plan is subject to all terms and conditions of the Plan and any Award Agreement applicable to the Participant and any additional restrictions deemed necessary or appropriate by the Administrator. If the Participant is married or a domestic partner in a domestic partnership qualified under Applicable Law and resides in a community property state, a designation of a person other than the Participant's spouse or domestic partner, as applicable, as the Participant's beneficiary with respect to more than 50% of the Participant's interest in the Award shall not be effective without the prior written or electronic consent of the Participant's spouse or domestic partner. If no beneficiary has been designated or survives the Participant, payment shall be made to the person entitled thereto pursuant to the Participant's will or the laws of descent and distribution. Subject to the foregoing, a beneficiary designation may be changed or revoked by a Participant at any time; provided that the change or revocation is delivered in writing to the Administrator prior to the Participant's death.

10.4 Conditions to Issuance of Shares.

(a) The Administrator shall determine the methods by which Shares shall be delivered or deemed to be delivered to Participants. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificates or make any book entries evidencing Shares pursuant to the exercise of any Award, unless and until the Administrator has determined that the issuance of such Shares is in compliance with all Applicable Laws and the Shares are covered by an effective registration statement or applicable exemption from registration. In addition to the terms and conditions provided herein, the Administrator may require that a Participant make such reasonable covenants, agreements and representations as the Administrator, in its sole discretion, deems advisable in order to comply with Applicable Law. The inability or impracticability of the Company to obtain or maintain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is deemed by the Company's counsel to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any Shares hereunder, shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such Shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained, and shall constitute circumstances in which the Administrator may determine to amend or cancel Awards pertaining to such Shares, with or without consideration to the Participant.

(b) All share certificates delivered pursuant to the Plan and all Shares issued pursuant to book entry procedures are subject to any stop-transfer orders and other restrictions as the Administrator deems necessary or advisable to comply with Applicable Law. The Administrator may place legends on any share certificate or book entry to reference restrictions applicable to the Shares (including, without limitation, restrictions applicable to Restricted Stock).

(c) The Administrator shall have the right to require any Participant to comply with any timing or other restrictions with respect to the settlement, distribution or exercise of any Award, including a window-period limitation, as may be imposed in the sole discretion of the Administrator.

(d) Unless the Administrator otherwise determines, no fractional Shares shall be issued and the Administrator, in its sole discretion, shall determine whether cash shall be given in lieu of fractional Shares or whether such fractional Shares shall be eliminated by rounding down.

(e) The Company, in its sole discretion, may (i) retain physical possession of any stock certificate evidencing Shares until any restrictions thereon shall have lapsed and/or (ii) require that the stock certificates evidencing such Shares be held in custody by a designated escrow agent (which may but need not be the Company) until the restrictions thereon shall have lapsed, and that the Participant deliver a stock power, endorsed in blank, relating to such Shares.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, unless otherwise determined by the Administrator or required by Applicable Law, the Company shall not deliver to any Participant certificates evidencing Shares issued in connection with any Award and instead such Shares shall be recorded in the books of the Company (or, as applicable, its transfer agent or stock plan administrator).

10.5 Forfeiture and Claw-Back Provisions. All Awards (including any proceeds, gains or other economic benefit actually or constructively received by a Participant upon any receipt or exercise of any Award or upon the receipt or resale of any Shares underlying the Award and any payments of a portion of an incentive-based bonus pool allocated to a Participant) shall be subject to forfeiture and/or repayment to the Company to the extent and in the manner required (a) to comply with any requirements imposed under applicable laws and/or the rules and regulations of the securities exchange or inter-dealer quotation system on which the Common Stock is listed or quoted, including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 954 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, and (b) under the terms of any policy, guideline or Board committee charter adopted by the Company as may be amended from time to time for reasons related to fraud prevention, governance, avoidance of monetary or reputational damage to the Company and its Affiliates or similar considerations, whether or not such policy or guideline was in place at the time of grant of an Award (and such requirements shall be deemed incorporated into this Plan without the consent of Participant).

10.6 Prohibition on Repricing. Subject to Section 12.2, the Administrator shall not, without the approval of the stockholders of the Company, (a) authorize the amendment of any outstanding Option or Stock Appreciation Right to reduce its price per Share, (b) cancel any Option or Stock Appreciation Right in exchange for cash or another Award when the Option or Stock Appreciation Right price per Share exceeds the Fair Market Value of the underlying Shares, in its sole discretion, or (c) cancel an Option or Stock Appreciation Right in exchange for an Option or Stock Appreciation Right with a lower exercise price than such original Option or Stock Appreciation Right.

10.7 Amendment of Awards. Subject to Applicable Law and Section 10.6 above, the Administrator may amend, modify or terminate any outstanding Award, including but not limited to, substituting therefor another Award of the same or a different type, changing the date of exercise or settlement, and converting an Incentive Stock Option to a Non-Qualified Stock Option. The Participant's consent to such action shall be required unless (i) the Administrator determines that the action, taking into account any related action, would not materially and adversely affect the Participant, or (ii) the change is otherwise permitted under the Plan (including, without limitation, under Section 12.2, 12.7 or 12.10).

ADMINISTRATION

11.1 Administrator. The Committee shall administer the Plan (except as otherwise permitted herein). To the extent required to comply with the provisions of Rule 16b-3, it is intended that each member of the Committee will be, at the time the Committee takes any action with respect to an Award that is subject to Rule 16b-3, a "non-employee director" within the meaning of Rule 16b-3. Additionally, to the extent required by Applicable Law, each of the individuals constituting the Committee shall be an "independent director" under the rules of any securities exchange or automated quotation system on which the Shares are listed, quoted or traded. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any action taken by the Committee shall be valid and effective, whether or not members of the Committee at the time of such action are later determined not to have satisfied the requirements for membership set forth in this Section 11.1 or the Organizational Documents. Except as may otherwise be provided in the Organizational Documents or as otherwise required by Applicable Law, (a) appointment of Committee members shall be effective upon acceptance of appointment, (b) Committee members may resign at any time by delivering written or electronic notice to the Board and (c) vacancies in the Committee may only be filled by the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) the full Board, acting by a majority of its members in office, shall conduct the general administration of the Plan with respect to Awards granted to Non-Employee Directors and, with respect to such Awards, the term "Administrator" as used in the Plan shall be deemed to refer to the Board and (ii) the Board or Committee may delegate its authority hereunder to the extent permitted by Section 11.6.

11.2 Duties and Powers of Administrator. It shall be the duty of the Administrator to conduct the general administration of the Plan in accordance with its provisions. The Administrator shall have the power to interpret the Plan and all Award Agreements, and to adopt such rules for the administration, interpretation and application of the Plan as are not inconsistent with the Plan, to interpret, amend or revoke any such rules and to amend the Plan or any Award Agreement; provided that the rights or obligations of the Participant of the Award that is the subject of any such Award Agreement are not materially and adversely affected by such amendment, unless the consent of the Participant is obtained or such amendment is otherwise permitted under the Plan, including, without limitation, under Section 12.2, Section 12.7 or Section 12.10. In its sole discretion, the Board may at any time and from time to time exercise any and all rights and duties of the Committee in its capacity as the Administrator under the Plan except with respect to matters which under Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act or any successor rule, or any regulations or rules issued thereunder, or the rules of any securities exchange or automated quotation system on which the Shares are listed, quoted or traded are required to be determined in the sole discretion of the Committee.

11.3 Action by the Administrator. Unless otherwise established by the Board, set forth in any Organizational Documents or as required by Applicable Law, a majority of the Administrator shall constitute a quorum and the acts of a majority of the members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present, and acts approved in writing by all members of the Administrator in lieu of a meeting, shall be deemed the acts of the Administrator. Each member of the Administrator is entitled to, in good faith, rely or act upon any report or other information furnished to that member by any officer or other employee of the Company or any Subsidiary, the Company's independent certified public accountants, or any executive compensation consultant or other professional retained by the Company to assist in the administration of the Plan. Neither the Administrator nor any member or delegate thereof shall have any liability to any person (including any Participant) for any action taken or omitted to be taken or any determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any Award.

11.4 Authority of Administrator. Subject to the Organizational Documents, any specific designation in the Plan and Applicable Law, the Administrator has the exclusive power, authority and sole discretion to:

- (a) Designate Eligible Individuals to receive Awards;
- (b) Determine the type or types of Awards to be granted to each Eligible Individual (including, without limitation, any Awards granted in tandem with another Award granted pursuant to the Plan);
- (c) Determine the number of Awards to be granted and the number of Shares to which an Award will relate;
- (d) Determine the terms and conditions of any Award granted pursuant to the Plan, including, but not limited to, the exercise price, grant price, purchase price, any Performance Criteria and/or Performance Goals, any restrictions or limitations on the Award, any schedule for vesting, lapse of forfeiture restrictions or restrictions on the exercisability of an Award, and accelerations or waivers thereof, and any provisions related to non-competition and claw-back and recapture of gain on an Award, based in each case on such considerations as the Administrator in its sole discretion determines;
- (e) Determine whether, to what extent, and under what circumstances an Award may be settled in, or the exercise price of an Award may be paid in cash, Shares, other Awards, or other property, or an Award may be canceled, forfeited, or surrendered;
- (f) Prescribe the form of each Award Agreement, which need not be identical for each Participant;

- (g) Decide all other matters that must be determined in connection with an Award;
- (h) Establish, adopt, or revise any policies, rules and regulations as it may deem necessary or advisable to administer the Plan;
- (i) Interpret the terms of, and any matter arising pursuant to, the Plan, any policy or any Award Agreement;
- (j) determine the circumstances under which the delivery of cash, property or other amounts payable with respect to an Award may be deferred, either automatically or at the Participant's or the Administrator's election
- (k) Accelerate wholly or partially the vesting or lapse of restrictions of any Award or portion thereof at any time after the grant of an Award, pursuant to any terms and conditions it selects, subject to Section 12.2; and
- (l) Make all other decisions and determinations that may be required pursuant to the Plan or as the Administrator deems necessary or advisable to administer the Plan.

11.5 Decisions Binding. The Administrator's interpretation of the Plan, any Awards granted pursuant to the Plan and any Award Agreement and all decisions and determinations by the Administrator with respect to the Plan are final, binding and conclusive on all persons.

11.6 Delegation of Authority. The Board or Committee may from time to time delegate to a committee of one or more Directors or one or more officers of the Company the authority to grant or amend Awards or to take other administrative actions pursuant to this Article 11; provided, however, that in no event shall an officer of the Company be delegated the authority to grant Awards to, or amend Awards held by, the following individuals: (a) individuals who are subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, or (b) officers of the Company (or Directors) to whom authority to grant or amend Awards has been delegated hereunder; provided, further, that any delegation of administrative authority shall only be permitted to the extent it is permissible under any Organizational Documents and Applicable Law. Any delegation hereunder shall be subject to the restrictions and limits that the Board or Committee specifies at the time of such delegation or that are otherwise included in the applicable Organizational Documents, and the Board or Committee, as applicable, may at any time rescind the authority so delegated or appoint a new delegate. At all times, the delegate appointed under this Section 11.6 shall serve in such capacity at the pleasure of the Board or the Committee, as applicable, and the Board or the Committee may abolish any committee at any time and re-vest in itself any previously delegated authority.

ARTICLE 12.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

12.1 Amendment, Suspension or Termination of the Plan.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 12.1(b), the Plan may be wholly or partially amended or otherwise modified, suspended or terminated at any time or from time to time by the Board; provided that, except as provided in Section 10.7, no amendment, suspension or termination of the Plan shall, without the consent of the Participant, materially and adversely affect any rights or obligations under any Award theretofore granted or awarded, unless the Award itself otherwise expressly so provides.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 12.1(a), the Board may not, except as provided in Section 12.2, take any of the following actions without approval of the Company's stockholders given within twelve (12) months before or after such action: (i) increase the Share Limit imposed in Section 3.1 on the maximum number of Shares which may be issued under the Plan; (ii) reduce the price per share of any outstanding Option or Stock Appreciation Right granted under the Plan or take any action prohibited under Section 10.6; or (iii) cancel any Option or Stock Appreciation Right in exchange for cash or another Award in violation of Section 10.6.

(c) No Awards may be granted or awarded during any period of suspension or after termination of the Plan. Unless earlier terminated by the Board under Section 12.1(a), the Plan shall remain in effect for a period of ten (10) years from the Effective Date; provided that no Incentive Stock Options may be granted after the earlier of ten (10) years from the date of the (i) adoption of the Plan by the Board and (ii) the approval of the Plan by the Company's stockholders. Any Awards that are outstanding on the date that the Plan is terminated shall remain in force according to the terms of the Plan and the applicable Award Agreement.

12.2 Changes in Common Stock or Assets of the Company, Acquisition or Liquidation of the Company and Other Corporate Events.

(a) In the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or exchange of shares, merger, consolidation or other distribution (other than normal cash dividends) of Company assets to stockholders, or any other change affecting the shares of the Company's stock or the share price of the Company's stock other than an Equity Restructuring, the Administrator may make equitable adjustments, if any, to reflect such change with respect to: (i) the aggregate number and kind of Shares that may be issued under the Plan (including, but not limited to, adjustments of the limitations in Section 3.1 on the maximum number and kind of Shares which may be issued under the Plan); (ii) the number and kind of Shares (or other securities or property) subject to outstanding Awards; (iii) the terms and conditions of any outstanding Awards (including, without limitation, any applicable Performance Goals or Performance Criteria with respect thereto); and (iv) the grant or exercise price per share for any outstanding Awards under the Plan.

(b) In the event of any transaction or event described in Section 12.2(a) or any unusual or nonrecurring transactions or events affecting the Company, any Subsidiary of the Company, or the financial statements of the Company or any Subsidiary, or of changes in Applicable Law or Applicable Accounting Standards, the Administrator, in its sole discretion, and on such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate, either by the terms of the Award or by action taken prior to the occurrence of such transaction or event, is hereby authorized to take any one or more of the following actions whenever the Administrator determines that such action is appropriate in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended to be made available under the Plan or with respect to any Award under the Plan, to facilitate such transactions or events or to give effect to such changes in Applicable Law or Applicable Accounting Standards:

(i) To provide for the termination of any such Award in exchange for an amount of cash and/or other property with a value equal to the amount that would have been attained upon the exercise of such Award or realization of the Participant's rights (and, for the avoidance of doubt, if as of the date of the occurrence of the transaction or event described in this Section 12.2 the Administrator determines in good faith that no amount would have been attained upon the exercise of such Award or realization of the Participant's rights, then such Award may be terminated by the Company without payment);

(ii) To provide that such Award be assumed by the successor or survivor corporation, or a parent or subsidiary thereof, or shall be substituted for by similar options, rights or awards covering the stock of the successor or survivor corporation, or a parent or subsidiary thereof, with appropriate adjustments as to the number and kind of shares and applicable exercise or purchase price, in all cases, as determined by the Administrator;

(iii) To make adjustments in the number and type of Shares of the Company's stock (or other securities or property) subject to outstanding Awards, and/or in the terms and conditions of (including the grant or exercise price), and the criteria included in, outstanding Awards and Awards which may be granted in the future;

(iv) To provide that such Award shall be exercisable or payable or fully vested with respect to all Shares covered thereby, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the applicable Award Agreement;

(v) To replace such Award with other rights or property selected by the Administrator; and/or

(vi) To provide that the Award cannot vest, be exercised or become payable after such event.

(c) In connection with the occurrence of any Equity Restructuring, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Sections 12.2(a) and 12.2(b):

(i) The number and type of securities subject to each outstanding Award and the exercise price or grant price thereof, if applicable, shall be equitably adjusted (and the adjustments provided under this Section 12.2(c)(i) shall be nondiscretionary and shall be final and binding on the affected Participant and the Company); and/or

(ii) The Administrator shall make such equitable adjustments, if any, as the Administrator, in its sole discretion, may deem appropriate to reflect such Equity Restructuring with respect to the aggregate number and kind of Shares that may be issued under the Plan (including, but not limited to, adjustments of the limitation in Section 3.1 on the maximum number and kind of Shares which may be issued under the Plan).

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, in the event of a Change in Control, outstanding Awards under the Plan shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable Award Agreement, the agreement evidencing the Change in Control transaction, or treated as otherwise determined in the Administrator's discretion without the Participant's consent, and such treatment need not apply to all outstanding Award in an identical manner. The Administrator's determination as to the treatment of outstanding Awards upon a Change in Control shall be final, binding, and conclusive and may include, without limitation, any of the alternatives provided for in Section 12.2(b) above.

(e) The Administrator, in its sole discretion, may include such further provisions and limitations in any Award, agreement or certificate, as it may deem equitable and in the best interests of the Company that are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan.

(f) Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, no adjustment or action described in this Section 12.2 or in any other provision of the Plan shall be authorized to the extent it would (i) cause the Plan to violate Section 422(b)(1) of the Code; (ii) result in short-swing profits liability under Section 16 of the Exchange Act or violate the exemptive conditions of Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act; or (iii) cause an Award to fail to be exempt from or comply with Section 409A.

(g) The existence of the Plan, any Award Agreement and/or the Awards granted hereunder shall not affect or restrict in any way the right or power of the Company or the stockholders of the Company to make or authorize any adjustment, recapitalization, reorganization or other change in the Company's capital structure or its business, any merger or consolidation of the Company, any issue of stock or of options, warrants or rights to purchase stock or of bonds, debentures, preferred or prior preference stocks whose rights are superior to or affect the Common Stock or the rights thereof or which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock, or the dissolution or liquidation of the Company, or any sale or transfer of all or any part of its assets or business, or any other corporate act or proceeding, whether of a similar character or otherwise.

(h) In the event of any pending stock dividend, stock split, combination or exchange of shares, merger, consolidation or other distribution (other than normal cash dividends) of Company assets to stockholders, or any other change affecting the Shares or the share price of the Common Stock including any Equity Restructuring, for reasons of administrative convenience, the Administrator, in its sole discretion, may refuse to permit the exercise of any Award during a period of up to thirty (30) days prior to the consummation of any such transaction.

12.3 Approval of Plan by Stockholders. The Plan shall be submitted for the approval of the Company's stockholders within twelve (12) months after the date of the Board's initial adoption of the Plan. Awards may be granted or awarded prior to such stockholder approval; provided that such Awards shall not be exercisable, shall not vest and the restrictions thereon shall not lapse and no Shares shall be issued pursuant thereto prior to the time when the Plan is approved by the Company's stockholders; and provided, further, that if such approval has not been obtained at the end of said twelve (12) month period, all Awards previously granted or awarded under the Plan shall thereupon be canceled and become null and void.

12.4 No Stockholder Rights. Except as otherwise provided herein or in an applicable Award Agreement, a Participant shall have none of the rights of a stockholder with respect to Shares covered by any Award until the Participant becomes the record owner of such Shares.

12.5 Paperless Administration. In the event that the Company establishes, for itself or using the services of a third party, an automated system for the documentation, granting or exercise of Awards, such as a system using an internet website or interactive voice response, then the paperless documentation, granting or exercise of Awards by a Participant may be permitted through the use of such an automated system.

12.6 Effect of Plan upon Other Compensation Plans. The adoption of the Plan shall not affect any other compensation or incentive plans in effect for the Company or any Subsidiary. Nothing in the Plan shall be construed to limit the right of the Company or any Subsidiary: (a) to establish any other forms of incentives or compensation for Employees, Directors or Consultants of the Company or any Subsidiary, or (b) to grant or assume options or other rights or awards otherwise than under the Plan in connection with any proper corporate purpose including without limitation, the grant or assumption of options in connection with the acquisition by purchase, lease, merger, consolidation or otherwise, of the business, stock or assets of any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, firm or association.

12.7 Compliance with Laws. The Plan, the granting and vesting of Awards under the Plan and the issuance and delivery of Shares and the payment of money under the Plan or under Awards granted or awarded hereunder are subject to compliance with all Applicable Law (including but not limited to U.S. state, federal and Non-U.S. securities law and margin requirements), and to such approvals by any listing, regulatory or governmental authority as may, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, be necessary or advisable in connection therewith. Any securities delivered under the Plan shall be subject to such restrictions, and the person acquiring such securities shall, if requested by the Company, provide such assurances and representations to the Company as the Company may deem necessary or desirable to assure compliance with all Applicable Law. The Administrator, in its sole discretion, may take whatever actions it deems necessary or appropriate to effect compliance with Applicable Law, including, without limitation, placing legends on share certificates and issuing stop-transfer notices to agents and registrars. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Administrator may not take any actions hereunder, and no Awards shall be granted, that would violate Applicable Law. To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the Plan and Awards granted or awarded hereunder shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to Applicable Law.

12.8 Titles and Headings, References to Sections of the Code or Exchange Act. The titles and headings of the Sections in the Plan are for convenience of reference only and, in the event of any conflict, the text of the Plan, rather than such titles or headings, shall control. References to sections of the Code or the Exchange Act shall include any amendment or successor thereto.

12.9 Governing Law. The Plan and any Award Agreements hereunder shall be administered, interpreted and enforced under the internal laws of the State of Delaware without regard to conflicts of laws thereof or of any other jurisdiction.

12.10 Section 409A. To the extent that the Administrator determines that any Award granted under the Plan is subject to Section 409A, the Plan and the Award Agreement evidencing such Award shall incorporate the terms and conditions required by Section 409A. In that regard, to the extent any Award under the Plan or any other compensatory plan or arrangement of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is subject to Section 409A, and such Award or other amount is payable on account of a Participant's Termination of Service (or any similarly defined term), then (a) such Award or amount shall only be paid to the extent such Termination of Service qualifies as a "separation from service" as defined in Section 409A, and (b) if such Award or amount is payable to a "specified employee" as defined in Section 409A then, to the extent required in order to avoid a prohibited distribution under Section 409A, such Award or other compensatory payment shall not be payable prior to the earlier of (i) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of the Participant's Termination of Service, or (ii) the date of the Participant's death. To the extent applicable, the Plan and any Award Agreements shall be interpreted in accordance with Section 409A. Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, in the event that, following the Effective Date the Administrator determines that any Award may be subject to Section 409A, the Administrator may (but is not obligated to), without a Participant's consent, adopt such amendments to the Plan and the applicable Award Agreement or adopt other policies and procedures (including amendments, policies and procedures with retroactive effect), or take any other actions, that the Administrator determines are necessary or appropriate to (A) exempt the Award from Section 409A and/or preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided with respect to the Award, or (B) comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of any penalty taxes under Section 409A. The Company makes no representations or warranties as to the tax treatment of any Award under Section 409A or otherwise. The Company shall have no obligation under this Section 12.10 or otherwise to take any action (whether or not described herein) to avoid the imposition of taxes, penalties or interest under Section 409A with respect to any Award and shall have no liability to any Participant or any other person if any Award, compensation or other benefits under the Plan are determined to constitute non-compliant, "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to the imposition of taxes, penalties and/or interest under Section 409A.

12.11 Unfunded Status of Awards. The Plan is intended to be an "unfunded" plan for incentive compensation. With respect to any payments not yet made to a Participant pursuant to an Award, nothing contained in the Plan or any Award Agreement shall give the Participant any rights that are greater than those of a general creditor of the Company or any Subsidiary.

12.12 Relationship to Other Benefits. No payment pursuant to the Plan shall be taken into account in determining any benefits under any pension, retirement, savings, profit sharing, group insurance, welfare or other benefit plan of the Company or any Subsidiary except to the extent otherwise expressly provided in writing in such other plan or an agreement thereunder.

12.13 Expenses. The expenses of administering the Plan shall be borne by the Company and its Subsidiaries.

RACKSPACE TECHNOLOGY, INC.
EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

1. Purpose of the Plan. The purpose of the Plan is to provide an opportunity for Eligible Employees of the Company and its Designated Companies to purchase Common Stock at a discount through voluntary Contributions, thereby attracting, retaining and rewarding such persons and strengthening the mutuality of interest between such persons and the Company's stockholders. The Company intends for offerings under the Plan to qualify as an "employee stock purchase plan" under Section 423 of the Code (each, a "Section 423 Offering"); provided, however, that the Committee may also authorize the grant of rights under offerings of the Plan that are not intended to comply with the requirements of Section 423 of the Code, pursuant to any rules, procedures, agreements, appendices, or sub-plans adopted by the Committee for such purpose (each, a "Non-423 Offering").

2. Definitions.

The term "control" (including, with correlative meaning, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as applied to any person or entity, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of such person or entity, whether through the ownership of voting or other securities, by contract or otherwise.

(b) "Applicable Law" means the requirements relating to the administration of equity-based awards under state corporate laws, United States federal and state securities laws, the Code, the rules of any stock exchange or quotation system on which the Common Stock is listed or quoted and the applicable laws of any non-U.S. jurisdiction where rights are, or will be, granted under the Plan.

(c) "Beneficial Ownership" has the meaning set forth in Rule 13d-3 promulgated under Section 13 of the Exchange Act.

(d) "Board" means the Board of Directors of the Company.

(iii) a change in the composition of the Board such that members of the Board during any consecutive 12-month period (the “Incumbent Directors”) cease to constitute a majority of the Board. Any person becoming a director through election or nomination for election approved by a valid vote of at least two-thirds of the Incumbent Directors shall be deemed an Incumbent Director; provided, however, that no individual becoming a director as a result of an actual or threatened election contest, as such terms are used in Rule 14a-12 of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Exchange Act, or as a result of any other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of any person other than the Board, shall be deemed to be an Incumbent Director;

The Committee may designate any Parent, Subsidiary or Affiliate as a Designated Company in a Non-423 Offering. For purposes of a Section 423 Offering, only the Company and any Parent or Subsidiary may be Designated Companies; provided, however, that at any given time, a Parent or Subsidiary that is a Designated Company under a Section 423 Offering will not be a Designated Company under a Non-423 Offering.

(l) “Effective Date” means the business day prior to the IPO Date, as provided in Section 18 hereof.

(m) “Eligible Employee” means any individual in an employee-employer relationship with the Company or a Designated Company for income tax and employment tax withholding and reporting purposes. For purposes of clarity, the term “Eligible Employee” will not include the following, regardless of any subsequent reclassification as an employee by the Company or a Designated Company, any governmental agency, or any court: (i) any independent contractor; (ii) any consultant; (iii) any individual performing services for the Company or a Designated Company who has entered into an independent contractor or consultant agreement with the Company or a Designated Company; (iv) any individual performing services for the Company or a Designated Company under a purchase order, a supplier agreement or any other agreement that the Company or a Designated Company enters into for services; (v) any individual classified by the Company or a Designated Company as contract labor (such as contractors, contract employees, job shoppers), regardless of length of service; (vi) any individual whose base wage or salary is not processed for payment by the payroll department(s) or payroll provider(s) of the Company or a Designated Company; and (vii) any leased employee. The Committee will have exclusive discretion to determine whether an individual is an Eligible Employee for purposes of the Plan.

(n) “Eligible Pay” means the total amount paid by the Company or any Parent, Subsidiary or Affiliate to the Eligible Employee (other than amounts paid after termination of employment, even if such amounts are paid for pre-termination date services) as base salary or wages (including 13th/14th month payments or similar concepts under local law) and any portion of such amounts voluntarily deferred or reduced by the Eligible Employee (i) under any employee benefit plan of the Company or a Parent, Subsidiary or Affiliate available to all levels of employees on a non-discriminatory basis upon satisfaction of eligibility requirements, and (ii) under any deferral plan of the Company (provided such amounts would not otherwise have been excluded had they not been deferred), but excluding cash bonuses, commissions, overtime pay, stipends, lump sum payments in lieu of foregone merit increases, “bonus buyouts” as the result of job changes, pension, retainers, severance pay, special stay-on bonus, income derived from stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock units and dispositions of stock acquired thereunder, any other allowances, and any other special remuneration or variable pay. For Eligible Employees in the United States, Eligible Pay will include elective amounts that are not includible in gross income of the Eligible Employee by reason of Sections 125, 132(f), 402(e)(3), 402(h) or 403(b) of the Code. The Committee, in its discretion, may establish a different definition of Eligible Pay for a subsequent Offering Period, which for Section 423 Offerings shall apply on a uniform and nondiscriminatory basis. Further, the Committee will have discretion to determine the application of this definition to Eligible Employees outside the United States.

(o) “Enrollment Period” means the period during which an Eligible Employee may elect to participate in the Plan, with such period generally occurring before the first day of each Offering Period, as prescribed by the Committee.

(p) “Exchange Act” means the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, from time to time, or any successor law thereto, and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

(q) “Fair Market Value” means, as of any date and unless the Committee determines otherwise, the value of Common Stock determined as follows:

(i) if the Common Stock is listed on a national securities exchange, the closing sales price of a Share reported on such exchange on such date, or if there is no such sale on that date, then on the last preceding date on which such a sale was reported;

(ii) if the Common Stock is not listed on any national securities exchange, the amount determined by the Committee in good faith to be the fair market value of the Common Stock; or

(iii) for the Initial Offering Period, if the date for which the Fair Market Value is determined is the first day when trading prices for the Common Stock are reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market or another national securities exchange, the Fair Market Value of the Common Stock shall be the initial price to the public as set forth in the final prospectus included with the registration statement on Form S-1 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the initial public offering of the Company’s Common Stock.

(r) “Initial Offering Period” means the Offering Period commencing on the IPO Date and ending on the Trading Day immediately prior to the start of the next applicable Offering Period set forth in Section 6, and consisting of a single Purchase Period which shall run concurrently with the Initial Offering Period.

(u) “Offering” means a Section 423 Offering or a Non-423 Offering of a right to purchase Shares under the Plan during an Offering Period as further described in Section 6. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, each Offering under the Plan in which Eligible Employees of one or more Designated Companies may participate will be deemed a separate offering for purposes of Section 423 of the Code, even if the dates of the applicable Offering Periods of each such Offering are identical, and the provisions of the Plan will separately apply to each Offering. With respect to Section 423 Offerings, the terms of separate Offerings need not be identical provided that all Eligible Employees granted purchase rights in a particular Offering will have the same rights and privileges, except as otherwise may be permitted by Code Section 423; a Non-423 Offering need not satisfy such requirements.

(v) “Offering Period” means the periods established in accordance with Section 6 during which rights to purchase Shares may be granted pursuant to the Plan and Shares may be purchased on one or more Purchase Dates. The duration and timing of Offering Periods may be changed pursuant to Sections 6 and 17.

(w) “Outstanding Company Common Stock” shall mean the then-outstanding shares of Common Stock, including Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of options or warrants, the conversion of convertible stock or debt, and the exercise of any similar right to acquire such Common Stock.

(x) “Outstanding Company Voting Securities” shall mean the then-outstanding voting securities of the Company entitled to vote in the election of directors.

(y) “Parent” means a “parent corporation,” whether now or hereafter existing, as defined in Section 424(e) of the Code.

(z) “Person” has the meaning given in Section 3(a)(9) of the Exchange Act, as modified and used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) thereof, except that such term shall not include (i) the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (ii) a trustee or other fiduciary holding securities under an employee benefit plan of the Company or any of its Affiliates, (iii) an underwriter temporarily holding securities pursuant to an offering of such securities, or (iv) a corporation owned, directly or indirectly, by the stockholders of the Company in substantially the same proportions as their ownership of Common Stock of the Company.

(aa) “Participant” means an Eligible Employee who elects to participate in the Plan.

(bb) “Permitted Transferee” shall mean, with respect to a Participant, any “family member” of the Participant, as defined in the General Instructions to Form S-8 Registration Statement under the Securities Act (or any successor form thereto), or any other transferee specifically approved by the Committee after taking into account Applicable Law.

(cc) “Plan” means the Rackspace Technology, Inc., Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as may be amended from time to time.

(dd) “Purchase Date” means the last Trading Day of each Purchase Period (or such other Trading Day as the Committee may determine).

(ee) “Purchase Period” means a period of time within an Offering Period, as may be specified by the Committee in accordance with Section 6, generally beginning on the first Trading Day of each Offering Period and ending on a Purchase Date. An Offering Period may consist of one or more Purchase Periods.

(ff) “Purchase Price” means the purchase price at which Shares may be acquired on a Purchase Date and which will be set by the Committee; provided, however, that the Purchase Price for a Section 423 Offering will not be less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the lesser of (i) the Fair Market Value of the Shares on the first Trading Day of the Offering Period or (ii) the Fair Market Value of the Shares on the Purchase Date. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee prior to the commencement of an Offering Period, the Purchase Price will be 85% of the lesser of (a) the Fair Market Value of the Shares on the first Trading Day of the Offering Period or (b) the Fair Market Value of the Shares on the Purchase Date.

(jj) “Trading Day” means a day on which the principal exchange that Shares are listed on is open for trading.

3. Number of Reserved Shares. Subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 16 hereof, Shares may be sold pursuant to the Plan. Such Shares may be authorized but unissued Shares, treasury Shares or Shares purchased in the open market. For avoidance of doubt, up to the maximum number of Shares reserved under this Section 3 may be used to satisfy purchases of Shares under Section 423 Offerings and any remaining portion of such maximum number of Shares may be used to satisfy purchases of Shares under Non-423 Offerings.

4. Administration of the Plan.

(a) Committee as Administrator. The Plan will be administered by the Committee. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, subject to Applicable Law, any authority or responsibility that, under the terms of the Plan, may be exercised by the Committee may alternatively be exercised by the Board. Subject to Applicable Law, no member of the Board or Committee (or its delegates) will be liable for any good faith action or determination made in connection with the operation, administration or interpretation of the Plan. In the performance of its responsibilities with respect to the Plan, the Committee will be entitled to rely upon, and no member of the Committee will be liable for any action taken or not taken in reliance upon, information and/or advice furnished by the Company's officers or employees, the Company's accountants, the Company's counsel and any other party that the Committee deems necessary.

(b) Powers of the Committee. The Committee will have full power and authority to: administer the Plan, including, without limitation, the authority to (i) construe, interpret, reconcile any inconsistency in, correct any default in and supply any omission in, and apply the terms of the Plan and any enrollment form or other instrument or agreement relating to the Plan, (ii) determine eligibility and adjudicate all disputed claims filed under the Plan, including whether Eligible Employees will participate in a Section 423 Offering or a Non-423 Offering and which Subsidiaries and Affiliates of the Company (or Parent, if applicable) will be Designated Companies participating in either a Section 423 Offering or a Non-423 Offering, (iii) determine the terms and conditions of any right to purchase Shares under the Plan, (iv) establish, amend, suspend or waive such rules and regulations and appoint such agents as it deems appropriate for the proper administration of the Plan, (v) amend an outstanding right to purchase Shares, including any amendments to a right that may be necessary for purposes of effecting a transaction contemplated under Section 16 hereof (including, but not limited to, an amendment to the class or type of stock that may be issued pursuant to the exercise of a right or the Purchase Price applicable to a right), provided that the amended right otherwise conforms to the terms of the Plan, and (vi) make any other determination and take any other action that the Committee deems necessary or desirable for the administration of the Plan including, without limitation, the adoption of such any rules, procedures, agreements, appendices, or sub-plans (collectively, "Sub-Plans") as are necessary or appropriate to permit the participation in the Plan by employees who are foreign nationals or employed outside the United States, as further set forth in Section 4(c) below.

(c) Non-U.S. Sub-Plans. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Plan, the Committee may adopt such Sub-Plans relating to the operation and administration of the Plan to accommodate local laws, customs and procedures for jurisdictions outside of the United States, the terms of which Sub-Plans may take precedence over other provisions of this Plan, with the exception of Section 3 hereof, but unless otherwise superseded by the terms of such Sub-Plan, the provisions of this Plan will govern the operation of such Sub-Plan. To the extent inconsistent with the requirements of Section 423, any such Sub-Plan will be considered part of a Non-423 Offering, and purchase rights granted thereunder will not be required by the terms of the Plan to comply with Section 423 of the Code. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee is authorized to adopt Sub-Plans for particular non-U.S. jurisdictions that modify the terms of the Plan to meet applicable local requirements, customs or procedures regarding, without limitation, (i) eligibility to participate, (ii) the definition of Eligible Pay, (iii) the dates and duration of Offering Periods or other periods during which Participants may make Contributions towards the purchase of Shares, (iv) the method of determining the Purchase Price and the discount from Fair Market Value at which Shares may be purchased, (v) any minimum or maximum amount of Contributions a Participant may make in an Offering Period or other specified period under the applicable Sub-Plan, (vi) the treatment of purchase rights upon a Change in Control or a change in capitalization of the Company, (vii) the handling of payroll deductions, (viii) establishment of bank, building society or trust accounts to hold Contributions, (ix) payment of interest, (x) conversion of local currency, (xi) obligations to pay payroll tax, (xii) determination of beneficiary designation requirements, (xiii) withholding procedures and (xiv) handling of Share issuances.

(d) Binding Authority. All determinations by the Committee in carrying out and administering the Plan and in construing and interpreting the Plan and any enrollment form or other instrument or agreement relating to the Plan will be made in the Committee's sole discretion and will be final, binding and conclusive for all purposes and upon all interested persons.

(e) Delegation of Authority. To the extent not prohibited by Applicable Law, the Committee may, from time to time, delegate some or all of its authority under the Plan to a subcommittee or subcommittees of the Committee or to one or more officers of the Company or other persons or groups of persons as it deems necessary, appropriate or advisable under conditions or limitations that it may set at or after the time of the delegation. For purposes of the Plan, reference to the Committee will be deemed to refer to any subcommittee, subcommittees, or other persons or groups of persons to whom the Committee delegates authority pursuant to this Section 4(e).

5. Eligible Employees.

(a) General. Any individual who is an Eligible Employee as of the commencement of an Offering Period will be eligible to participate in the Plan, subject to the requirements of Section 7.

(b) Non-U.S. Employees. An Eligible Employee who works for a Designated Company and is a citizen or resident of a jurisdiction other than the United States (without regard to whether such individual also is a citizen or resident of the United States or is a resident alien (within the meaning of Section 7701(b)(1)(A) of the Code)) may be excluded from participation in the Plan or an Offering if the participation of such Eligible Employee is prohibited under the laws of the applicable jurisdiction or if complying with the laws of the applicable jurisdiction would cause the Plan or a Section 423 Offering to violate Section 423 of the Code. In the case of a Non-423 Offering, an Eligible Employee (or group of Eligible Employees) may be excluded from participation in the Plan or an Offering if the Committee has determined, in its sole discretion, that participation of such Eligible Employee(s) is not advisable or practicable for any reason.

(c) Code Section 423 Limitations. Notwithstanding any provisions of the Plan to the contrary, no Eligible Employee will be granted a right to purchase Shares (i) to the extent that, immediately after the grant, such Eligible Employee (or any other person whose stock would be attributed to such Eligible Employee pursuant to Section 424(d) of the Code) would own capital stock of the Company and/or hold outstanding options to purchase capital stock possessing five percent (5%) or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of the capital stock of the Company or of any Parent or Subsidiary of the Company, or (ii) under a Section 423 Offering, to the extent that his or her rights to purchase capital stock under all employee stock purchase plans of the Company and any Parent and Subsidiaries accrues at a rate that exceeds Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars (US$25,000) worth of such stock (determined at the fair market value of the shares of such stock at the time such right is granted) for each calendar year in which such purchase right is outstanding.

(d) Other Limitations on Eligibility. The Committee, in its discretion, from time to time may, prior to an Enrollment Period for all purchase rights to be granted in an Offering, determine (on a uniform and nondiscriminatory basis for Section 423 Offerings) that the definition of Eligible Employee will or will not include an individual if he or she: (i) has not completed at least two (2) years of service since his or her last hire date (or such lesser period of time as may be determined by the Committee in its discretion), (ii) customarily works not more than twenty (20) hours per week (or such lesser period of time as may be determined by the Committee in its discretion), (iii) customarily works not more than five (5) months per calendar year (or such lesser period of time as may be determined by the Committee in its discretion), (iv) is a highly compensated employee within the meaning of Section 414(q) of the Code, or (v) is a highly compensated employee within the meaning of Section 414(q) of the Code with compensation above a certain level or who is an officer or subject to the disclosure requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, provided the exclusion is applied with respect to each Section 423 Offering in an identical manner to all highly compensated individuals of the Designated Company whose employees are participating in that Offering.

6. Offering Periods. The Plan will be implemented by consecutive Offering Periods with a new Offering Period commencing on the first Trading Day of the relevant Offering Period and terminating on the last Trading Day of the relevant Offering Period. After the Initial Offering Period has ended, unless and until the Committee determines otherwise in its discretion, each Offering Period will consist of one (1) approximately six (6)-month Purchase Period, which will run simultaneously with the Offering Period. Unless otherwise provided by the Committee, Offering Periods will run from January 1st (or the first Trading Day thereafter) through June 30th (or the first Trading Day prior to such date) and from July 1st (or the first Trading Day thereafter) through December 31st (or the first Trading Day prior to such date). The Committee has authority to establish additional or alternative sequential or overlapping Offering Periods, a different number of Purchase Periods within an Offering Period, a different duration for one or more Offering Periods or Purchase Periods or different commencement or ending dates for such Offering Periods with respect to future offerings without stockholder approval if such change is announced prior to the scheduled beginning of the first Offering Period to be affected thereafter, provided, however, that no Offering Period may have a duration exceeding twenty-seven (27) months. To the extent that the Committee establishes additional or overlapping Offering Periods, the Committee will have discretion to structure an Offering Period so that if the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the first Trading Day of the Offering Period in which a Participant is currently enrolled is higher than the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the first Trading Day of any subsequent Offering Period, the Company will automatically enroll such Participant in the subsequent Offering Period and will terminate his or her participation in such original Offering Period.

7. Participation.

(a) Enrollment and Payroll Deductions. An Eligible Employee may elect to participate in an Offering Period under the Plan during any Enrollment Period. Any such election will be made by completing the online enrollment process through the Company's designated Plan broker or, if permitted by the Company, by completing and submitting an enrollment form to the Company during such Enrollment Period, authorizing Contributions in whole percentages from one percent (1%) to fifteen percent (15%) of the Eligible Employee's Eligible Pay for the Purchase Period within the Offering Period to which the deduction applies. A Participant may elect to increase or decrease the rate of such Contributions during any subsequent Enrollment Period by submitting the appropriate form online through the Company's designated Plan broker or, if permitted by the Company, to the Company, provided that no change in Contributions will be permitted to the extent that such change would result in total Contributions exceeding fifteen percent (15%) of the Eligible Employee's Eligible Pay, or such other maximum amount as may be determined by the Committee.

(b) Election Changes. A Participant may reduce his or her rate of Contributions twice during a Purchase Period to become effective as soon as possible after completing an amended enrollment form (either through the Company's online Plan enrollment process, or if permitted by the Company, by submitting the appropriate form to the Company). A Participant may increase his or her rate of Contributions only during an Enrollment Period. If a Participant reduces his or her rate of Contributions to zero percent (0%) during an Offering Period, the Contributions made by the Participant prior to such reduction will be applied to the purchase of Shares on the next Purchase Date, but if the Participant does not increase such rate of Contributions above zero percent (0%) prior to the commencement of the next subsequent Offering Period under the Plan, such action will be treated as the Participant's withdrawal from the Plan in accordance with Section 14 hereof.

(c) Automatic Enrollment for Initial Offering Period. Each person who, on the Effective Date, is an Eligible Employee will be automatically enrolled in the Initial Offering Period. An Eligible Employee will be entitled to continue to participate in the Initial Offering Period only if such individual authorizes Contributions under the procedures described in Section 7(a) above (i) no earlier than the effective date of the Form S-8 registration statement with respect to the issuance of Common Stock under the Plan and (ii) no later than ten (10) Trading Days following the effective date of such Form S-8 registration statement or such other period of time as the Committee may determine (the “Enrollment Window”). An Eligible Employee’s failure to authorize Contributions during the Enrollment Window will result in the automatic termination of such individual’s participation in the Initial Offering Period.

(d) Participation in Subsequent Offering Periods. Once an Eligible Employee elects to participate in an Offering Period (including the Initial Offering Period), then such Participant will automatically participate in the Offering Period commencing immediately following the last day of such prior Offering Period at the same contribution level as was in effect in the prior Offering Period unless the Participant elects to increase or decrease the rate of Contributions or withdraws or is deemed to withdraw from this Plan as described above in this Section 7. A Participant that is automatically enrolled in a subsequent Offering Period pursuant to this Section 7 is not required to file any additional documentation in order to continue participation in the Plan.

(e) Committee Authority. The Committee has the authority to change the foregoing rules set forth in this Section 7 regarding participation in the Plan.

8. Contributions. The Company will establish an account in the form of a bookkeeping entry for each Participant for the purpose of tracking Contributions made by each Participant during the Offering Period, and will credit all Contributions made by each Participant to such account. The Company will not be obligated to segregate the Contributions from the general funds of the Company or any Designated Company nor will any interest be paid on such Contributions, unless otherwise determined by the Committee or required by Applicable Law. All Contributions received by the Company for Shares sold by the Company on any Purchase Date pursuant to this Plan may be used for any corporate purpose.

9. Limitation on Number of Shares That an Employee May Purchase. Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 5(c), each Participant will have the right to purchase as many whole Shares as may be purchased with the Contributions credited to his or her account as of the last day of the Offering Period (or such other date as the Committee may determine) at the Purchase Price applicable to such Offering Period; provided, however, that a Participant may not purchase in excess of 500 Shares under the Plan per Offering Period or such other maximum number of Shares as may be established for an Offering Period by the Committee (in each case subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 16 hereof). Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, any amount remaining in a Participant’s account that was not applied to the purchase of Shares on a Purchase Date because it was not sufficient to purchase a whole Share will be carried forward for the purchase of Shares on the next following Purchase Date. However, any amounts not applied to the purchase of Shares during an Offering Period for any reason other than as described in the foregoing sentence shall be promptly refunded following such Purchase Date and will not be carried forward to any subsequent Offering Period.

10. Taxes. At the time a Participant's purchase right is exercised, in whole or in part, or at the time a Participant disposes of some or all of the Shares acquired under the Plan, the Participant will make adequate provision for any Tax-Related Items. In their sole discretion, and except as otherwise determined by the Committee, the Company or the Designated Company that employs the Participant may satisfy their obligations to withhold Tax-Related Items by (a) withholding from the Participant's wages or other compensation, (b) withholding a sufficient whole number of Shares otherwise issuable following purchase having an aggregate Fair Market Value sufficient to pay the Tax-Related Items required to be withheld with respect to the Shares, or (c) withholding from proceeds from the sale of Shares issued upon purchase, either through a voluntary sale or a mandatory sale arranged by the Company.

11. Brokerage Accounts or Plan Share Accounts. By enrolling in the Plan, each Participant will be deemed to have authorized the establishment of a brokerage account on his or her behalf at a securities brokerage firm selected by the Committee. Alternatively, the Committee may provide for Plan share accounts for each Participant to be established by the Company or by an outside entity selected by the Committee which is not a brokerage firm. Shares purchased by a Participant pursuant to the Plan will be held in the Participant's brokerage or Plan share account. The Company may require that Shares be retained in such brokerage or Plan share account for a designated period of time, and/or may establish procedures to permit tracking of dispositions of Shares.

12. Rights as a Stockholder. A Participant will have no rights as a stockholder with respect to Shares subject to any rights granted under this Plan or any Shares deliverable under this Plan unless and until recorded in the books of the brokerage firm selected by the Committee or, as applicable, the Company, its transfer agent, stock plan administrator or such other outside entity which is not a brokerage firm.

13. Rights Not Transferable. Rights granted under this Plan are not transferable by a Participant other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and are exercisable during a Participant's lifetime only by the Participant.

14. Withdrawals. A Participant may withdraw from an Offering Period by submitting the appropriate form online through the Company's designated Plan broker or, if permitted by the Company, to the Company. A notice of withdrawal must be received by the relevant deadline as prescribed by the Committee. Upon receipt of such notice, automatic deductions of Contributions on behalf of the Participant will be discontinued commencing with the payroll period immediately following the effective date of the notice of withdrawal, and such Participant will not be eligible to participate in the Plan until the next Enrollment Period. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, amounts credited to the contribution account of any Participant who withdraws prior to the date set forth in this Section 14 will be refunded, without interest, as soon as practicable.

15. Termination of Employment.

(a) General. Upon a Participant ceasing to be an Eligible Employee for any reason prior to a Purchase Date, Contributions for such Participant will be discontinued and any amounts then credited to the Participant's contribution account will be refunded, without interest, as soon as practicable, except as otherwise determined by the Committee.

(b) Leave of Absence. Subject to the discretion of the Committee, if a Participant is granted a paid leave of absence, payroll deductions on behalf of the Participant will continue and any amounts credited to the Participant's contribution account may be used to purchase Shares as provided under the Plan. If a Participant is granted an unpaid leave of absence, payroll deductions on behalf of the Participant will be discontinued and no other Contributions will be permitted (unless otherwise determined by the Committee or required by Applicable Law), but any amounts then credited to the Participant's contribution account may be used to purchase Shares on the next applicable Purchase Date. Where the period of leave exceeds three (3) months and the Participant's right to reemployment is not guaranteed by statute or by contract, the employment relationship will be deemed to have terminated three (3) months and one (1) day following the commencement of such leave.

(c) Transfer of Employment. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, a Participant whose employment transfers or whose employment terminates with an immediate rehire (with no break in service) by or between the Company or a Designated Company will not be treated as having terminated employment for purposes of participating in the Plan or an Offering; however, if a Participant transfers from a Section 423 Offering to a Non-423 Offering, the exercise of the Participant's purchase right will be qualified under the Section 423 Offering only to the extent that such exercise complies with Section 423 of the Code. If a Participant transfers from a Non-423 Offering to a Section 423 Offering, the exercise of the Participant's purchase right will remain non-qualified under the Non-423 Offering.

16. Adjustment Provisions.

(a) Changes in Capitalization. In the event of any change affecting the number, class, value, or terms of the shares of Common Stock resulting from a recapitalization, stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, spinoff, split up, combination, reclassification or exchange of Shares, merger, consolidation, rights offering, separation, reorganization or liquidation or any other change in the corporate structure or Shares, including any extraordinary dividend or extraordinary distribution (but excluding any regular cash dividend), then the Committee, in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended to be made available under the Plan, will, in such manner as it may deem equitable, adjust the number and class of Common Stock that may be delivered under the Plan (including the numerical limits of Sections 3 and 9), the Purchase Price per Share and the number of shares of Common Stock covered by each right under the Plan that has not yet been exercised. For the avoidance of doubt, the Committee may not delegate its authority to make adjustments pursuant to this Section. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by the Company of shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of stock of any class, will affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof will be made with respect to, the number or price of Shares subject to a purchase right.

(b) Change in Control. In the event of a Change in Control, each outstanding right to purchase Shares will be equitably adjusted and assumed or an equivalent right to purchase Shares substituted by the successor corporation or a parent or subsidiary of the successor corporation. In the event that the successor corporation (or parent or subsidiary thereof) in a Change in Control refuses to assume or substitute for the purchase right or the successor corporation is not a publicly traded corporation, the Offering Period then in progress will be shortened by setting a New Purchase Date and will end on the New Purchase Date. The "New Purchase Date" will be before the date of the Company's proposed Change in Control. The Committee will notify each Participant in writing, at least ten (10) Trading Days prior to the New Purchase Date, that the Purchase Date for the Participant's purchase right has been changed to the New Purchase Date and that Shares will be purchased automatically for the Participant on the New Purchase Date, unless prior to such date the Participant has withdrawn from the Offering Period, as provided in Section 14 hereof. Notwithstanding in the foregoing, in the case of a Change in Control event under Section 2(e)(iv) of the Plan, the Board or Committee shall, in its discretion, determine the treatment of outstanding rights to purchase Shares under the Plan.

17. Amendments and Termination of the Plan. The Board or the Committee may amend the Plan at any time, provided that, if stockholder approval is required pursuant to Applicable Law, then no such amendment will be effective unless approved by the Company's stockholders within such time period as may be required. The Board may suspend the Plan or discontinue the Plan at any time, including shortening an Offering Period in connection with a spin-off or other similar corporate event. Upon termination of the Plan, all Contributions will cease and all amounts then credited to a Participant's account will be equitably applied to the purchase of whole Shares then available for sale, and any remaining amounts will be promptly refunded, without interest, to Participants. For the avoidance of doubt, the Board or Committee, as applicable herein, may not delegate its authority to make amendments to or suspend the operations of the Plan pursuant to this Section.

18. Stockholder Approval; Effective Date. The Plan shall take effect on the date immediately preceding, and contingent upon, the IPO Date, subject to approval by the stockholders of the Company within twelve (12) months before or after the date the Plan is adopted by the Board. Such stockholder approval will be obtained in the manner and to the degree required under Applicable Laws. For the avoidance of doubt, the Board may not delegate its authority to approve the Plan pursuant to this Section.

19. Conditions Upon Issuance of Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, unless there is an available exemption from any registration, qualification or other legal requirement applicable to the Shares, the Company will not be required to deliver any Shares issuable upon exercise of a right under the Plan prior to the completion of any registration or qualification of the Shares under any local, state, federal or foreign securities or exchange control law or under rulings or regulations of any governmental regulatory body, or prior to obtaining any approval or other clearance from any local, state, federal or foreign governmental agency, which registration, qualification or approval the Committee will, in its absolute discretion, deem necessary or advisable. The Company is under no obligation to register or qualify the Shares with any state or foreign securities commission, or to seek approval or clearance from any governmental authority for the issuance or sale of the Shares. If, pursuant to this Section 19, the Committee determines that the Shares will not be issued to any Participant, any Contributions credited to such Participant's account will be promptly refunded, without interest, to the Participant, without any liability to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates (or any Parent, if applicable).

20. Code Section 409A; Tax Qualification.

(a) Code Section 409A. Rights to purchase Shares granted under a Section 423 Offering are exempt from the application of Section 409A of the Code and rights to purchase Shares granted under a Non-423 Offering are intended to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code pursuant to the "short-term deferral" exemption contained therein. In furtherance of the foregoing and notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, if the Committee determines that a right granted under the Plan may be subject to Section 409A of the Code or that any provision in the Plan would cause a right under the Plan to be subject to Section 409A of the Code, the Committee may amend the terms of the Plan and/or of an outstanding right granted under the Plan, or take such other action the Committee determines is necessary or appropriate, in each case, without the Participant's consent, to exempt any outstanding right or future right that may be granted under the Plan from or to allow any such rights to comply with Section 409A of the Code, but only to the extent any such amendments or action by the Committee would not violate Section 409A of the Code. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company will have no liability to a Participant or any other party if the right to purchase Shares under the Plan that is intended to be exempt from or compliant with Section 409A of the Code is not so exempt or compliant or for any action taken by the Committee with respect thereto. The Company makes no representation that the right to purchase Shares under the Plan is compliant with Section 409A of the Code.

(b) Tax Qualification. Although the Company may endeavor to (i) qualify a right to purchase Shares for favorable tax treatment under the laws of the United States or jurisdictions outside of the United States or (ii) avoid adverse tax treatment (e.g., under Section 409A of the Code), the Company makes no representation to that effect and expressly disavows any covenant to maintain favorable or avoid unfavorable tax treatment, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, including Section 20(a) hereof. The Company will be unconstrained in its corporate activities without regard to the potential negative tax impact on Participants under the Plan.

21. No Employment Rights. Participation in the Plan will not be construed as giving any Participant the right to be retained as an employee of the Company, its Subsidiary, or one of its Affiliates or Parent, as applicable. Furthermore, the Company, a Subsidiary, or an Affiliate (or Parent, if applicable) may dismiss any Participant from employment at any time, free from any liability or any claim under the Plan.

22. Governing Law; Choice of Forum. Except to the extent that provisions of this Plan are governed by applicable provisions of the Code or any other substantive provision of United States federal law, this Plan will be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to the conflict of laws principles thereof. The Company and each Participant, as a condition to such Participant's participation in the Plan, hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state or U.S. federal court located in the District of Delaware over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to or concerning the Plan. The Company and each Participant, as a condition to such Participant's participation in the Plan, acknowledge that the forum designated by this Section 22 has a reasonable relation to the Plan and to the relationship between such Participant and the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in the Plan will preclude the Company from bringing any action or proceeding in any other court for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Section 22. The agreement by the Company and each Participant as to forum is independent of the law that may be applied in the action, and the Company and each Participant, as a condition to such Participant's participation in the Plan, (i) agree to such forum even if the forum may under applicable law choose to apply non-forum law, (ii) hereby waive, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any objection which the Company or such Participant now or hereafter may have to personal jurisdiction or to the laying of venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any court referred to in this Section 22, (iii) undertake not to commence any action arising out of or relating to or concerning the Plan in any forum other than the forum described in this Section 22 and (iv) agree that, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, a final and non-appealable judgment in any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court will be conclusive and binding upon the Company and each Participant.

23. Titles and Headings, References to Sections of the Code or Exchange Act. The titles and headings of the Sections in the Plan are for convenience of reference only and, in the event of any conflict, the text of the Plan, rather than such titles or headings, shall control. References to sections of the Code or the Exchange Act shall include any amendment or successor thereto.

24. Expenses. Unless otherwise set forth in the Plan or determined by the Committee, all expenses of administering the Plan, including expenses incurred in connection with the purchase of Shares for sale to Participants, will be borne by the Company and its Subsidiaries or Affiliates (or any Parent, if applicable).

The effective date of this Plan is January 1, 2021. The Plan will remain in effect for successive fiscal years beginning on January 1 of each year (each, a “Plan Year”), until terminated by the Committee at its sole discretion.

5. PERFORMANCE AWARDS

5.1 Establishment of Awards.

(a) As promptly as practicable after the beginning of each Plan Year with respect to which any Awards are to be granted to Participants, and, in any event, before April 1 of such Plan Year (or, in the case of an officer or employee who is hired, transferred or promoted after the beginning of such Plan Year, as provided in Section 4.2, by no later than 30 days after the date of such hire, transfer or promotion) the CEO and the Committee shall take those actions for which they are respectively responsible under this Plan to (i) designate those eligible officers and employees who are to be Participants in the Plan for such Plan Year, (ii) establish the Performance Goals, Award Levels and, if applicable, the threshold Award Level, target Award Level and maximum Award Level, for each Participant, and (iii) establish such other terms and conditions for each Award as they deem appropriate.

(b) In the case of the CEO and each of the Executive Officers, the Committee will establish for each Plan Year the Award Levels, the Performance Goals, performance measures and the weighting of the Performance Goals. With respect to all other Participants, the Committee will approve the Award Levels and Company Performance Goals for each such Participant but the Personal Performance Goals and the weighting of such Performance Goals shall be determined by the CEO or by the Participant's supervisor with the approval of the CEO.

(c) The Award Levels, Performance Goals and the weighting of the Performance Goals will vary among Participants depending on the Participant's role and responsibilities. The Award Levels and Performance Goals may change from Plan Year to Plan Year.

(d) The CEO and/or the Committee may, but are not required to, provide each Participant with an Award Notice that sets forth the terms and conditions of an Award, including the correlation of the Award Payment to be paid under an Award to the attainment of the Performance Goals and, to the extent deemed appropriate by the Committee, the Award Payment payable in cases where the results of the Performance Goals for a Plan Year are between the levels of Performance Goals set forth in the Award Notice.

5.2 Performance Measures. The performance measures from which the Committee may establish Performance Goals may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following performance measures or such other measures as determined appropriate by the Committee, in its discretion, which may be determined in accordance with GAAP or on a non-GAAP basis: (a) net earnings or net income (before or after taxes); (b) basic or diluted earnings per share (before or after taxes); (c) net revenue, net revenue growth, annualized recurring revenue, or net revenue retention rates; (d) gross revenue or gross revenue growth, gross profit or gross profit growth; (e) net operating profit (before or after taxes); (f) return measures (including, but not limited to, return on investment, assets, net assets, capital, gross revenue or gross revenue growth, invested capital, equity or sales); (g) cash flow measures (including, but not limited to, operating cash flow, free cash flow and cash flow return on capital), which may but are not required to be measured on a per-share basis; (h) earnings before or after taxes, interest, depreciation, and amortization (including EBIT and EBITDA); (i) bookings and customer churn metrics; (j) gross or net operating margins; (k) productivity ratios; (l) share price (including, but not limited to, growth measures and total shareholder return); (m) expense targets or cost reduction goals, general and administrative expense savings; (n) operating efficiency; (o) customer satisfaction; (p) working capital targets; (q) measures of economic value added or other "value creation" metrics; (r) enterprise value; (s) stockholder return; (t) client or customer retention; (u) competitive market metrics; (v) employee retention; (w) personal targets, goals or completion of projects (including but not limited to succession and hiring projects, completion of specific acquisitions, reorganizations or other corporate transactions or capital-raising transactions, expansions of specific business operations and meeting divisional or project budgets); (x) system-wide revenues; (y) cost of capital, debt leverage year-end cash position or book value; (z) strategic objectives, development of new product lines and related revenue, sales and margin targets, or international operations; or (aa) any combination of the foregoing. Any one or more of the aforementioned performance measures may be stated as a percentage of another performance measure, or used on an absolute or relative basis to measure the of the Company and/or one or more affiliates as a whole or any divisions or operational and/or business units, product lines, brands, business segments, administrative departments of the Company and/or one or more affiliates or any combination thereof, as the Committee may deem appropriate, or any of the above performance measures may be compared to the performance of a group of comparator companies, or a published or special index that the Committee deems appropriate, or as compared to various stock market indices. These performance measures may include a threshold level of performance below which no payment shall be made, levels of performance at which specified payments shall be made, and a maximum level of performance above which no additional payment shall be made. The Committee shall have the authority to make equitable adjustments to the performance measures as may be determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion.

5.3 Measurement of Performance.

(a) The Committee shall have sole discretion to determine (i) with respect to all Participants, the Award Levels which represent the amounts potentially payable under each Award, the Company Performance Goals applicable to each Award, and the method of determining whether each Company Performance Goal has been met, and (ii) with respect to the Executive Officers, the Personal Performance Goals, the method of determining whether each such Personal Performance Goal has been met and the weighting of each Performance Goal. The CEO shall have the sole discretion to determine the Personal Performance Goals, the method of determining whether each such Personal Performance Goal has been met and the weighting of each Performance Goal for all Participants other than Executive Officers, including by means of approving such Personal Performance Goals and parameters as recommended by a Participant's supervisor.

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, each Award shall include a threshold Performance Goal that must be attained in order for a threshold Award Level to be payable, a target Performance Goal that must be attained for a target Award Level to be payable, and a maximum Performance Goal that must be attained for a maximum Award Level to be payable. The amount of each Award and the Performance Goals may vary among Participants and may be determined based on the Participant's ability to directly impact the Company's performance or on an assessment of the Participant's overall contributions to the Company's success.

5.4 Company Performance Goals. To the extent the Committee elects to base Award opportunities and Performance Goals on a Company Performance Goal, the Committee shall select the performance measures for the Plan Year from the measures listed in Section 5.2 or establish such other measures as the Committee may determine appropriate. The Committee shall also establish the threshold, target and maximum Award Levels applicable for each Company Performance Goal.

5.5 Personal Performance Goals.

(a) To the extent the Committee elects to base Award opportunities and Performance Goals on one or more Personal Performance Goals, the components of the Personal Performance Goals will: (i) be established for the Participant's position for the Plan Year by the Participant's supervisor with the approval of the CEO; provided, however, that the Personal Performance Goals for the Executive Officers will be established by the Committee; (ii) include only components that support the business plan of the Company; and (iii) identify how the Participant will support the achievement of such goals. The determination of whether a Participant (other than an Executive Officer) has attained his or her Personal Performance Goals and the Award Payment payable with respect to the attainment of such Personal Performance Goals shall be made by the CEO, subject to final approval by the Committee. The determination of whether an Executive Officer has attained his or her Personal Performance Goals and the Award Payment payable with respect to the attainment of such Personal Performance Goals shall be made by the Committee.

(b) In addition to the Personal Performance Goals described in Section 5.5(a), the Committee and/or CEO, as applicable, may also take into account a Participant's individual performance and apply an individual performance modifier to the Participant's Award ("Individual Modifier"). The Individual Modifier gives the Committee and/or CEO, as applicable, the discretion to modify, positively or negatively (including to eliminate), the Award Payment to any Participant based on such Participant's exceptional (or unsatisfactory) individual performance, subject to a maximum percentage increase above the target Award Level that shall be established by the Committee, in its discretion, for each applicable Plan Year.

5.6 Certification and Payment.

(a) As soon as practicable after the Company's audited financial statements are available for a Plan Year with respect to which the Awards are outstanding, the performance of the Company, on a consolidated basis, and each applicable division, business unit, Subsidiary or line of business will be determined for such Plan Year. The financial and operational performance shall then be evaluated to determine the extent to which the Company Performance Goals have been achieved, based upon standards established for such Plan Year. In performing such evaluation, the Committee is authorized to make adjustments in the method of calculating attainment of the Company Performance Goals, including, but not limited to, the authority:

- (i) to adjust or exclude the dilutive or anti-dilutive effects of acquisitions or joint ventures;
- (ii) to adjust the impact of the disposition of any businesses divested by the Company during a Plan Year;
- (iii) to exclude, in whole or in part, restructuring and/or other nonrecurring charges;
- (iv) to exclude, in whole or in part, exchange rate effects, as applicable, for non-U.S. dollar denominated net sales and operating earnings;
- (v) to exclude, in whole or in part, the effects of changes to generally accepted accounting standards ("GAAP") made by the relevant accounting authority;
- (vi) to exclude, in whole or in part, the effects of any statutory adjustments to corporate taxes;

- (vii) to exclude, in whole or in part, the impact of any “unusual or nonrecurring items” as determined under GAAP;
- (viii) to exclude, in whole or in part, the effect of any change in the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company by reason of any stock dividend or split, stock repurchase, reorganization, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, spin-off, combination or exchange of shares or other similar corporate change, or any distributions to common stockholders other than regular cash dividends;
- (ix) to give effect to or to ignore, in whole or in part, any other unusual, non-recurring gain or loss or other extraordinary item; and
- (x) to give effect to or to ignore, in whole or in part, any other facts, circumstances or considerations deemed appropriate by the Committee.

Award Payments for a Plan Year will be included as an expense in determining the Company’s financial performance under the Plan for that Plan Year.

(b) The Committee and each of its members shall be entitled to rely upon information provided by appropriate officers of the Company with respect to financial and other data in order to determine if the Performance Goals for any Participant in a Plan Year have been met.

(c) Unless otherwise determined by the Compensation Committee or deferred in accordance with the Company’s Deferred Compensation Plan, Award Payments for any Plan Year shall be paid in cash as soon as practicable after the Committee and/or the CEO, as applicable, determines that the Performance Goals specified for such Award were in fact satisfied. For Participants who are U.S. federal taxpayers, it is intended that payment will be made no later than required to ensure that no amount paid or to be paid hereunder shall be subject to the provisions of Section 409A(a)(1)(B) of the Code and all such payments are intended to be eligible for the short-term deferral exception to Section 409A of the Code, except to the extent a payment is deferred under the Company’s Deferred Compensation Plan.

5.7 Termination Of Employment; Leave of Absence.

(a) Unless otherwise provided in a written agreement between the Participant and the Company or a Subsidiary, if a Participant’s employment is terminated for any reason other than death, Disability or the elimination of the Participant’s position by the Company or a Subsidiary (a “Job Elimination”), whether such termination occurs during a Plan Year or after the end of a Plan Year but prior to payment to the Participant of the Award Payment otherwise payable (or any portion thereof) under an Award, such Participant will not be eligible to receive an Award Payment for that Plan Year and will forfeit any then-unpaid amounts under such Award without any entitlement to any amount or compensation in lieu thereof.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in a written agreement between the Participant and the Company or a Subsidiary:

(i) if a Participant's employment is terminated during a Plan Year by reason of death or Disability, the Participant or the Participant's heir or legal representative will, upon the Committee's approval, be eligible to be paid a prorated portion of the Award Payment for that Plan Year, to be determined and paid as set forth in Section 5.6;

(ii) if a Participant's employment is terminated during a Plan Year by reason of Job Elimination, such Participant shall forfeit any then-unpaid amounts under such Award and shall not be entitled to any amount or compensation in lieu thereof; however, in the event that the Participant's employment is terminated due to Job Elimination more than six months after start of such Plan Year, the Committee, in its sole discretion, may provide that such Participant will be eligible to be paid a prorated portion of the Award Payment for that Plan Year, to be determined, and, if approved, paid, as set forth in Section 5.6; and

(iii) if a Participant's employment is terminated by reason of death, Disability, Job Elimination or Retirement after the end of a Plan Year, but prior to payment to that Participant of the Award Payment otherwise payable (or any portion thereof) under an Award, the Participant or the Participant's heir or legal representative will, upon the Committee's approval, be eligible to be paid the entire Award Payment for that Plan Year.

(c) Subject to applicable laws, a Participant who is on an unpaid, Company-approved leave of absence during a Plan Year shall be eligible to receive a prorated Award Payment for such Plan Year; provided, however, that the Committee shall have discretion to determine the extent to which an Award Payment will be made to a Participant who is on such a leave of absence on the date the Award Payment for a Plan Year is paid to other applicable Participants.

6. WITHHOLDING TAXES

The Company shall have the right, at the time of payment of an Award Payment, to make adequate provision for any federal, state, local or foreign taxes (including social contributions and any other applicable taxes) which it believes are or may be required by law to be withheld with respect to an award under the Plan ("Tax Liability"), to ensure the payment of any such Tax Liability. The Company may provide for the payment of any Tax Liability by withholding from the amount of the Award Payment or by any other method deemed appropriate by the Committee.

7. ADMINISTRATION

7.1 Compensation Committee. The Plan shall be administered by the Committee, with day-to-day administration delegated to the CEO. The Committee and the CEO may further delegate their administrative powers under the Plan to the extent not prohibited by applicable laws, regulations or stock exchange listing rules. Without limitation, the Committee shall have full power, discretion and authority to administer, interpret and construe the Plan and any Award Notice (if applicable) or agreement made pursuant to the Plan, to prescribe and rescind rules, regulations and policies for administration of the Plan, and to Amend, modify, or cancel any Award, and authorize the exchange, substitution, or replacement of Awards. The Committee's actions, interpretations and constructions with regard to the Plan shall be final, conclusive and binding on all persons for all purposes.

7.2 Limitation on Liability. No member of the Committee or the Board shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any Award pursuant to it. The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Committee and the Board, and the estate and heirs of each such member, against all claims, liabilities, expenses, penalties, damages or other pecuniary losses, including legal fees, which such Committee member or Board member or his or her estate or heirs may suffer as a result of any act or omission to act in connection with the Plan, to the extent that insurance, if any, does not cover the payment of such items.

8. AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Committee may at any time and in its sole discretion suspend, amend or terminate the Plan.

9. MISCELLANEOUS

9.1 No Guarantee of Employment. Nothing in this Plan or any Award granted hereunder shall confer upon any employee any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any Subsidiary or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any Subsidiary to terminate his or her employment at any time.

9.2 Not Compensation for Other Plans. Except as otherwise explicitly required under the terms of an employee benefit plan of the Company that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code, no Award under this Plan and no amount payable or paid under any Award shall be deemed to be or counted as salary or compensation for the purpose of computing benefits under any employee benefit plan or other arrangement of the Company for the benefit of any employee.

9.3 Compliance with Law. The Plan and the grant of awards under it shall be subject to all applicable federal and state laws, rules and regulations and to such approvals by any governmental or regulatory agency as may be required.

9.4 Governing Law. The Plan shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of state of Delaware, without reference to principles of conflict of laws, and construed accordingly.

9.5 Interpretation. All Awards and, if applicable, Award Notices shall be subject to the terms of this Plan, and the terms of this Plan, as amended from time to time and as interpreted by the Committee, shall prevail over the terms of any Award Notice in all cases, if applicable.

9.6 No Alienation. No right or interest of a Participant in any Award may be pledged, encumbered, or hypothecated to or in favor of any party other than the Company or an affiliate of the Company, or shall be subject to any lien, obligation, or liability of such Participant to any other party other than the Company or an affiliate of the Company. No Award shall be assignable or transferable, either voluntarily or involuntarily, by a Participant, including as between spouses or pursuant to a domestic relations order in connection with a dissolution of marriage, or by operation of law, except pursuant to the laws of descent and distribution.

9.7 Section 409A. This Plan may be amended at any time, without the consent of any party, to avoid the application of Section 409A of the Code in a particular circumstance or that is necessary or desirable to satisfy any of the requirements under Section 409A of the Code, but the Company shall not be under any obligation to make any such amendment. Nothing in the Plan shall provide a basis for any person to take action against the Company or any Subsidiary or affiliate based on matters covered by Section 409A of the Code, including the tax treatment of any amount paid or Award made under the Plan, and neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates shall under any circumstances have any liability to any Participant or any other party for any taxes, penalties or interest due on amounts paid or payable under the Plan, including taxes, penalties or interest imposed under Section 409A of the Code.

9.8 Forfeiture and Recoupment. All Awards shall be subject to forfeiture and/or repayment to the Company to the extent and in the manner required (a) to comply with any requirements imposed under applicable laws, rules, and/or regulations, and (b) under the terms of any policy, guideline or Board committee charter adopted by the Company as may be amended from time to time for reasons related to fraud prevention, governance, avoidance of monetary or reputational damage to the Company and its affiliates or similar considerations, whether or not such policy or guideline was in place at the time of grant of an Award (and such requirements shall be deemed incorporated into the Plan without the consent of Participant).

9.9 Participants Outside the United States. Awards may be granted to employees who are foreign nationals or residents or employed outside the United States, or both, on such terms and conditions different from those applicable to Awards to employees who are not foreign nationals or residents or who are employed in the United States as may, in the judgment of the Committee, be necessary or desirable in order to recognize differences in local law, regulations or tax policy. If any provision of the Plan is or becomes or is deemed to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, or as to any person or Award, or would disqualify the Plan or any Award under any law outside the United States where an employee is based, such provision shall be construed or deemed amended to conform to applicable laws, or if it cannot be construed or deemed amended without, in the sole determination of the Committee, materially altering the intent of the Plan, such provision shall be stricken as to such jurisdiction, person or Award, and the remainder of the Plan shall remain in full force and effect.

9.10 Severability. If any provision of the Plan is held invalid or unenforceable, the invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the remaining parts of the Plan, and the Plan shall be enforced and construed as if such provision had not been included.

9.11 Unfunded Plan. The Plan is intended to constitute an unfunded plan for incentive compensation. Prior to the payment of any Award, nothing contained herein shall give any Participant any rights that are greater than those of a general creditor of the Company. No amounts awarded or accrued under the Plan shall be funded, set aside, subject to interest payment or otherwise segregated prior to payment of an Award. Any Award payable under the Plan is voluntary and occasional and does not create any contractual or other right to receive Awards in future years or benefits in lieu of such Awards.

(b) Additional Retainer Fee Limitation. At any one time, each Non-Employee Director may receive only one of the above additional annual retainer fees in connection with service as Lead Director or as a committee member (i.e., Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, or Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee), regardless of such director’s service on multiple committees or in multiple roles. For the avoidance of doubt, a Non-Employee Director may simultaneously serve on more than one committee or in more than one position, but will receive for such service only one additional annual retainer fee, equal to the highest of the additional annual retainer fees associated with his or her positions.

- (c) Payment of Retainers. The annual retainer fees and additional annual retainer fees described in Section 2 shall be earned on a quarterly basis based on a calendar quarter and shall be paid by the Company in arrears within ten (10) days following the end of the applicable quarter. In the event that a Non-Employee Director does not serve as a Non-Employee Director, or in the applicable position or on the applicable committee described in Section 2 for an entire calendar quarter, the retainer paid to such Non-Employee Director shall be prorated for the portion of such calendar quarter actually served as a Non-Employee Director, in such position or on such committee, as applicable.
3. Equity Compensation. Non-Employee Directors shall be granted the equity awards described below in this Section 3. The awards shall be granted under and shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the Rackspace Technology, Inc. 2020 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Plan") and shall be granted subject to an award agreement in substantially the same form approved by the Board prior to or as of the grant date, setting forth the terms of the award (the "Award Terms"), consistent with the Equity Plan, which may include provisions for accelerated vesting of the equity award in certain circumstances. For purposes of this Section 3, the number of shares subject to any restricted stock unit award will be determined by dividing the grant date dollar value specified under subsection (a), (b) or (c) hereof by the Fair Market Value (as defined in the Equity Plan) of a share of the Company's common stock on the grant date.
- (a) Annual Equity Award. On the fifth (5th) market trading day following each annual meeting of the Company's stockholders, each person then serving as a Non-Employee Director shall be automatically granted a restricted stock unit award with a grant date value equal to $200,000 (the "Annual Equity Award"). The Annual Equity Award shall vest on the date of the Company's next subsequent annual meeting of stockholders following the applicable grant date.
- (b) Pro-Rated Annual Equity Award. On the fifth (5th) market trading day following a person's initial appointment as a Non-Employee Director, and provided such person has not otherwise received an Annual Equity Award for the relevant year under Section 3(a), the Non-Employee Director shall be automatically granted a restricted stock unit award with a grant date value equal to $200,000, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is 365 less the number of days that have elapsed between the date of the Company's last annual meeting of stockholders (or if an annual stockholder meeting has yet to be held by the Company, then February 24, 2020) and the date of the Non-Employee Director's initial appointment, and the denominator of which is 365 (the "Pro-Rated Award"). The Pro-Rated Award shall vest on the date of the Company's next subsequent annual meeting of stockholders following the date of the Non-Employee Director's appointment to the Board.

- (c) Non-Executive Chair Equity Award. In the event that the Chair of the Board is a Non-Employee Director (and therefore is not the Company's Chief Executive Officer), on the fifth (5th) market trading day following such Non-Employee Director's election to serve as Chair of the Board, the Non-Employee Director shall be automatically granted an additional restricted stock unit award with a grant date value equal to $100,000 (the "Non-Executive Chair Equity Award"); provided, however, that if the Non-Employee Director's election to serve as Chair of the Board occurs at a time other than at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders, the Non-Executive Chair Equity Award shall be pro-rated in the same manner as provided for under Section 3(b). For each year that the Non-Employee Director continues to serve as Chair of the Board, he or she will automatically receive an additional Non-Executive Chair Equity Award on the fifth (5th) market trading day following the Company's annual meeting of stockholders. Each Non-Executive Chair Equity Award shall vest on the date of the Company's next subsequent annual meeting of stockholders following the grant date.
4. Stock Ownership Guideline. Within a period of five (5) years from the date of a person's initial appointment as a Non-Employee Director, each Non-Employee Director is required to attain ownership of at least $350,000 in the Company's common stock and must maintain such ownership until retirement from the Board.
5. Director Compensation Limit. As further set forth in the Equity Plan, the sum of the grant date value of all equity awards granted and all cash compensation paid by the Company to a Non-Employee Director as compensation for services as a Non-Employee Director shall not exceed $750,000 during any calendar year, provided that the foregoing limitation shall not apply in respect of any compensation payable in the year of a Non-Employee Director's initial appointment or election to the Board. For avoidance of doubt, compensation shall count towards this limit for the calendar year in which it is granted or earned.
6. Policy Subject to Amendment, Modification and Termination. This Policy may be amended, modified or terminated by the Board in the future at its sole discretion, provided that no such action that would materially and adversely impact the rights with respect to annual retainers payable in the calendar quarter during which a Non-Employee Director is then performing services shall be effective without the consent of the affected Non-Employee Director.
